ROME, April 22.—At the Vatican extraordinary importance is being given the people's Episcopal jubilee next year. The central organizing committee has already received notice that thousands of gifts are to be sent.

Narrow Mindedness Abhorrent.

BALTIMORE, April 22.—The Rev. Dr. Stafford, a well-known Catholic priest and theologian, who stands close to Cardinal Gibbons, made some remarks about the policy of the Catholic church in a lecture last night before the Phoenix Club.

Repairing Damages.

SACRAMENTO, April 23.—Visitors to the most prominent points that have suffered by earthquakes, report large forces engaged in tearing down dangerous walls and repairing damages.

Hebrews Butchered.

PANAMA, April 22.—The murder of Hebrew settlers in Santa Fe has received a check by the lynching of one of the assassins, a policeman. This action was taken none too soon, as several Hebrews were butchered during the last six weeks.

All Ready—Roll.

SALEM, April 22.—According to section 36 of the new law, yesterday was the last day for filing nominations and acceptances for state officers.

Astoria Herald: The people of Astoria have no use for the Union Pacific and if one will watch the boats as they leave as Astoria, they will see that while the Astorian and Telephone are crowded, the Union Pacific only carries a small cargo of mosebacks.

Paris is uneasy about reports that the Dahomeyans have captured Portounevo.

Transferred to Washington.

Mr. Robert E. Kerkam, who has so long furnished official forecasts of the weather from San Francisco with which readers of THE CHRONICLE are familiar, has been relieved from duty at that point, and returns to Washington city to resume his more important duties at headquarters.

Mr. O'Farrell's Refers to Hill as the Fox, and Cleveland the Lion.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—After four hours' debate today on the Noyes-Rockwell contested election case of the twenty-eighth New York district, the house decided to retain Mr. Rockwell in his seat.

Then O'Farrell closed the debate. In the course of his remarks O'Farrell referred to Hill as a fox and Cleveland as a lion.

ENGLAND, FRANCE AND CHINA WAR.

A Forecast of What May Yet be Necessary for the United States.

HOW CHINA IS APT TO BE MISLED.

Not Barbarous, Nor Morally Obtuse, Nor Intellectually Dull, Nor Physically Weak.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The Chinese question is rapidly assuming the proportions of a serious and universal problem, and to many who are familiar with the history of previous events, it seems possible that the government of the United States may yet be obliged to administer some of the medicine applied by other nations.

Telegraphic Flashes.

The Blaine club of Chicago will not down. It is decidedly and pronounced in the work of nominating Jas. G. Blaine, whether he says so or not, believing that "the people have rights paramount to the individual, and that the office should seek the man."

It is asserted that Whitelaw Reid did not return from France to be nominated vice-President on the Harrison ticket; that he has higher honors; but will take the place of Hon. Thomas C. Platt in managing the campaign in New York; that Mr. Reid is working for the position of minister to England.

Burrowe and Fox have fought their duel, and "honor is satisfied." They took two shots at each other over in the hollows of the sand dunes on the Belgian coast, near Nieupert Baines, a few miles south of Ostend. It resulted in nothing worse than a triple perforation of the skirts of Fox's new frock coat, but was as close a call as a man often has.

Bad Blood.

Impure or vitiated blood is nine times out of ten caused by some form of constipation or indigestion that clogs up the system, when the blood naturally becomes impregnated with the effete matter. The old Sarsaparilla attempt to reach this condition by attacking the blood with the drastic mineral "potash."
