THE DALLES, - - - - OREGON

FRIDAY - - - - - MAY 6, 1892

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

From the Daily Chronicle, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fraser, of Monkland, are in the city.

E. H. Clarno, S. Malone and Miss S. Malone of Antelope are at the Umatilla house.

O. B. Hartley, of Hood River, drove through the city today thirty-six head of beef cattle which he purchased in Sherman county.

Pat Fegan, the popular tailor, intends to make a trip to Cherry Creek, Crook county, leaving by the Prineville stage Sunday morning. He expects to be gone till Thursday or Friday.

All reports that reach this office are to the effect that fall and spring grain never looked better at this time of year if it ever looked as well. So far we have not learned that any serious injury has been done to fruit by the late frosts.

A. G. Johnson has become thrice a grandfather by the birth of a daughter to the wife of his son Hollis. The child was born in this city today, at the residence of Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dow. Mother and child are doing well.

Dr. O. C. and Mrs. Hollister will go down to Portland on the evening passenger to hear the Bostonians in the opera of Robin Hood. As the doctor intends to return by Sunday noon his patients ought to hustle and get well before he gets back.

Mrs. Farrelly, an old and much esteemed resident of this city, and her three daughters left this morning on the Regulator for Portland where they intend to make their future home. Mr. Farrelly is already there in the employ of the D. P. and A. N. Co., and Mrs. Farrelly goes to rejoin her husband and take charge of the Revere house.

Miss Alice Hamill, of Chicago, who gave an entertainment here last week under the auspices of the Good Intent society returned to the city last evening and is stopping at the European House. Miss Hamill has been engaged to teach a class in elocution and the Delsarte system of physical culture at the public school every afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The town got quietly rid of seven hobos last night. Marshal Gibbons and Con Howe visited the East End a little before midnight and gathered up the seven and placed them on the midnight passenger. An eighth one was discovered lying in a shed near the ice house after the train had gone, and him they gathered into the city calaboose.

A generous sample present from the Dalles Mercantile Co., enables the CHRONICLE to bear practical testimony to the excellent quality of their fine teas. This enterprising firm makes a specialty of this class of merchandise and no house in this city or elsewhere keeps a better variety or sells at more reasonable prices. The firm handles the well known tea imports of the well known firm of McCordray & Co., whose M. M. teas are known far and wide for excellence, aroma and superior quality cannot be excelled anywhere. The Dalles Mercantile Co., handles these teas in all grades, put up in neat, stylish packages. Any one who tries a sample package will be made a customer of the Dalles Mercantile Co., for life. Put this statement to the proof by investing in one package.

Father Remington, of this city, met with an accident a little after 6 o'clock this morning, that might have proved quite serious. His grandson, a boy of seventeen years, had been trying to shoot a squirrel that had been bothering the chickens, when the pistol prematurely exploded and the ball passing through the wall of the house, entered the old gentleman's thigh about an inch to the left of the medium line, passing out about the same point opposite. The ball did not strike the bone nor any of the large blood vessels and Dr. Eshelman who dressed the wound, anticipates no serious results unless blood poisoning should set in. At last report the patient was resting as well as could be expected.

The home of Mrs. George P. Morgan was, on Wednesday last, the scene of one of the most enjoyable events in the annals of the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church. The occasion of the event being the near departure of one of their loved members, Mrs. Drew. It was planned as a complete surprise to her, and after spending an hour or so in the agreeable way which the ladies of Aid Society know so well, Mrs. Drew was invited by Mrs. Curtis to visit the dining room, where, before her astonished eyes, appeared two long tables, very artistically arranged by Mrs. R. F. Gibbons, extending the whole length of the large dining room. Before each guest was a lovely button-hole bouquet, supplied by Mrs. Marden. Just before the guests were seated one of the members stepped forward and presented Mrs. Drew with a beautiful decorated souvenir album, on the pages of which were written words of love and remembrance by the members, and if any one had peered in the window at that time, he would have seen more than one pair of eyes moistened by the thought of the breaking of the ties which severed one loved member from the rest. With a regretful good bye to each other, and to their perfect hostess, the ladies departed, the following being present: Mrs. Isabella Gray, Mrs. S. K. Brooks, Mrs. C. Donnell, Mrs. W. S. Myers, Mrs. Drew, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Beers, Mrs. Marden, Mrs. A. R. Thompson, Mrs. Geo. Blakeley, Mrs. Condon, Mrs. Cushing, Mrs. Pease, Sr., Mrs. Pease, jr., Mrs. B. S. Huntington, Mrs. A. A. Brown, Mrs. J. M. Patterson, Mrs. R. F. Gibbons, Mrs. Ralph Gibbons, Mrs. Curtis, Mrs. C. C. Cooper, Mrs. Fred Bayley, Mrs. W. E. Rinehart, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. E. P. Roberts and Miss Roberts.

From the Daily Chronicle, Saturday.

T. H. Johnston of Dufur, is in the city.

Robert Kelly of Kingsley, came into town last night.

Elder P. P. Underwood of Boyd gave the CHRONICLE a pleasant call today.

Hon. W. R. Ellis, passed through the city today on the noon passenger.

O. L. Stranahan and L. E. Morse of Hood River, came up today on the noon passenger.

Penumbra Kelly, the present sheriff of Multnomah county has concluded to run for the same office on an independent ticket.

The contract for the lumber to be used in the Prinz and Nitschke building now in course of erection, was awarded today to William Butler & Co.

Night Watchman G. C. Bills pulled a couple of citizen yesterday whom he found fighting on the public streets. They had their trial before the recorder this afternoon.

The agency in The Dalles for the celebrated Albany woolen mills, has been placed with Mr. C. F. Stephens, and he has now on hand a full line of the goods. Call and inspect before purchasing.

Mr. Kelley, of Oakland, California, who lately drove in a band of prime beef cattle from the South, sold them to the Seattle market. The stock was weighed and delivered here in The Dalles, and all parties concerned were well satisfied.

The large vocalion organ bought by E. Jacobsen & Co., for the M. E. Church of this city, arrived from the factory this morning, and hands were busy all day placing it in position. Its first use, we understand, will be at a concert given in the near future for the benefit of the organ fund.

Supt. Troy Shelly, of this county, has prepared the annual apportionment of public funds to be disbursed to the various school districts. There are fifty-four districts in the county, and 2,870 pupils enrolled. The funds to the districts aggregate $2,625; to the pupils, $8,457.50; total $9,083.50.

A new postoffice has been established on Eight-Mile, to be called Endersby, after Captain Endersby. The post-office will be at the residence of George W. Fligg who has been appointed postmaster. Mr. Fligg's place is about a quarter of a mile south of the Endersby crossing. The service has not yet been established but is expected to be in a short time.

George Burlingame, of this city, has just got an increase of pension from six to ten dollars a month. Mr. Burlingame enlisted in 1861 in the sixth Rhode Island light artillery, and served sixteen months, when he was taken prisoner at the battle of Malvern hill. He was confined for nine weeks in Libby prison, entering that murderous den weighing 150 pounds and coming out weighing ninety pounds.

A party of ladies and gentlemen from this city went down yesterday to Hood River on the evening train, and "surprised" Mr. and Mrs. George Herbert, the genial host and hostess of the Mount Hood hotel. The visitants were Judge Blakeley and wife, Judge Bradshaw and wife, Editor Geo. P. Morgan and wife, J. M. Crossen and wife, D. L. Cates and wife, W. H. Wilson and wife, and Dr. Hugh Logan, thirteen in all. The party report that their visit was indeed a complete surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert and that a delightfully pleasant time was spent till the arrival of the train that brought them back to this city at midnight.

Last evening Judge O. N. Denny was presented with a group of Chinese pheasants by Willamette rod and gun club, Judge Whalley making the present, at a banquet of the club, in a few very neatly expressed words. The group of birds was prepared by Capt. S. S. Douglass, at the suggestion of the writer of this paragraph, and is one of the most handsome things of the kind ever seen in Oregon. The birds are life size, naturally grouped, consisting of the male, the female and little chicks, in an elaborate concave frame, with landscape background covered with a large convex glass. It was intended to convey to Judge Denny some idea of appreciation of his efforts to add to the attractiveness of Oregon by introducing here the beautiful and useful Mongolian pheasant.

Rev. Isaiah Burlingame has lost a cow and a mare, from his ranch on Fifteen-mile creek, four miles beyond Dufur. The cow is a blue color, horns sawed off, and a circle with a dot in it on one hip. The mare is white, two brands on her, one in the shape of an S. Any information will be suitably rewarded. 4-29-1m. Pure Yellow Dent Seed Corn, extra early, for sale at Joles Bros. 4-20daw10t

A traveling man who chanced to be in the store of E. V. Wood, at McKees Rocks, Pa., says while he was waiting to see Mr. Wood, a little girl came in with an empty bottle labeled Chamberlain's Pain Balm and said: "Mamma wants another bottle of that medicine; she says it is the best medicine for rheumatism she ever used." 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w

What with the rustlers, the hustlers, and the bustlers, this is getting to be a great country.

Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of that state during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to return, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and that in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w

Sailboats are sometimes upset by a squall, and the same catastrophe occasionally visits young paterfamilias.

Saved from Death by Onions. There has no doubt been more lives of children saved from death in croup or whooping cough by the use of onions than any other known remedy, our mothers used to make poultices of them, or a syrup, which was always effectual in breaking up a cough or cold. Dr. Gunn's Onion Syrup is made by combining a few simple remedies with it which, make it more effective as a medicine and destroys the taste and odor of the onion. 50c. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton.

It may sound strange, but the nightmare that sits heaviest on presidential candidates is the dark horse.
