

The Weekly Chronicle.

THE DALLES, OREGON FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1892

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

From the Daily Chronicle, Friday. J. W. Ashby, of Antelope, is in the city.

Wool is beginning to arrive quite freely, and business in the East End is looking up in consequence.

J. S. Cooper of Independence, brother of D. S. Cooper of this city, is registered at the Umatilla house.

P. P. Underwood of Boyd, has been placed on the democratic ticket for surveyor; vice, F. S. Gordon of Tygh resigned.

Mays & Crowe received yesterday, a car load of refrigerators for family use. They are opening them today and they are beauties.

George S. Chandler of Bake Oven, returned last night from an extended visit to England. Mr. Chandler has come back with the intention of remaining here.

It is to the credit of the Dalles' press that only one paper manifests any desire to introduce mud-slinging into the present campaign. The gentleman from Virginia, sab, is aching sab, to turn his sheet into a mud sewer, sab.

John Leaby, traveling freight agent of the Northern Pacific, and well known in this city, has resigned and has accepted the position of manager of the Briola hotel at Purdy, Warm Springs, in eastern Oregon.

Dr. Logan received a call last evening at 7:10 to come by the first train to Grants to attend a Mr. Morey, a very sick man. He expected to go by the 12 o'clock train, but at 8:50 received another dispatch, from N. W. Thompson, saying that Mr. Morey was dead.

Jay Gould's mother-in-law is said to be living in a poverty-stricken district of Portland, Or. Her house is a humble rented tenement one, occupied by two families. She is poor in all that the word implies, but is too proud to ask aid from her son-in-law. She came from Missouri with the early immigration to Oregon and has ever since resided here.

Governor Pennoyer says he does not see how he can go out and make speeches this year for the democrats without either stultifying himself or attacking the platform. He says he would like to see Veatch elected to congress but does not see how, as a free silver man, he can consistently remain a candidate. The governor thinks he will have to sit still.

Fifteen Turn Water Indians were passengers on the Regulator this morning for Vancouver. They go down to lodge a complaint with the "Tyee man" at that place about their fishing rights on the Washington side of the river. One of them had amply fortified himself with a hide full of the white man's fire water, in other words he was drunk as a lord.

Mr. A. Howes and party, tourists from Rockland, Me., came up by the Regulator yesterday, returning homeward after a tour of California, the Sound, etc. They say the best railway attentions they have received on the trip was by the S. P. R. Co., and the greatest of all was the trip to The Dalles by the D. P. and A. Nav. Co., which could not be beat in any respect.

Hon. J. T. Crook, of Goldendale, formerly of Miller's station, Linn county, passed through town this morning on a visit to his old home. Mr. Crooks is the father of B. W. Crooks and grandfather of Mrs. John Fillion of this city. Mr. Crooks was a member of the Oregon constitutional convention and several times represented Linn county in the Oregon legislature.

A warrant has been sworn out by Joseph Folco for the arrest of Jack Lawler, both of this city. Lawler is charged with the double crime of assault and larceny. The alleged crimes were committed yesterday at Folco's cigar and candy store in the east end. Folco says he suspected Lawler of stealing tobacco and determined to watch him. Yesterday the opportunity came and while Folco was busy in another part of the store, he says Lawler went behind the counter and stole a plug of tobacco and a cocoa nut. When detected, Lawler returned the property but took out his revenge by striking Folco a violent blow on the nose, which broke that member and involved a doctor's bill of $20 for repairs. Lawler is reported to have left town and has not yet been arrested.

From the Daily Chronicle, Saturday. C. F. Bayard is in the city.

F. H. Kemp, of Hood River, is in the city.

C. W. Magill, of Wapinitia, is at the Umatilla house. G. W. Smith, of Rockland, returned this morning from a business trip to Chicago. Hon. A. L. Lytle of Crook county is in the city on his return from a trip to the Willamette valley. A moonlight excursion, by steamer Regulator, May 13th, is to be the attraction next week. All good people will want to go. Mrs. E. M. Wilson, and her son Fred, who has been attending Hopkins University, have returned to this city from Baltimore.

Hon. J. T. Eshelman, of North Yakima, and his mother, arrived in the city today and are the guests of Dr. Eshelman.

Mrs. Dr. Simons, a former resident of this city, now of Vancouver, came up on the Regulator last night and is visiting Mrs. Donnell.

A mass meeting was held in Hood River this afternoon for the purpose of making arrangements for a Fourth of July celebration.

The state board of railroad commissioners were in the city today, on their annual inspection of the Union Pacific. It is understood that one bridge between Portland and The Dalles is to be condemned.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Brooks, Mrs. E. Wingate, Miss Katie Craig and Miss Ida Brooks, are off by the Regulator Monday for a week's vacation. They go to Astoria, and will participate in the Columbia centennial celebration.

Dr. Siddall is going to Astoria to take in the centennial. He expects to be absent for about a week. It is 31 years since the Dr. crossed the Columbia river bar, and he is naturally anxious to see what it looks like now.

Arrangements are being made for organizing an agricultural society at Hood River and providing grounds for an exhibit. It is proposed to lay off a half mile track for speeding purposes. The scheme will be engineered by a joint stock company.

Mrs. W. S. Myers favored the CHRONICLE office today with a singular freak of nature in the form of an apple blossom as large as a good sized rose. It was plucked this morning from a tree of the Gravenstein species from which all the blossoms had fallen some time ago. It is perfectly white and came alone. It is easily four or five times larger than an ordinary blossom.

Of the improvements made to the east approach to the Hood River bridge, under contract let to J. L. Harper of this city, the Glacier says: "Two turnouts have been made, the grade widened, and a substantial railing placed the entire length of the grade. It is a good piece of work, and Mr. Harper is entitled to every cent the contract called for, because he earned it."

The citizens of Wasco precinct in Sherman county have determined to build a court house for the county at their own expense and give it to the county free of charge. They will file a $6,000 bond as a guarantee that the work will be carried out according to contract. The money for completing the work has already been subscribed. So says the Wasco News.

Billy Marder and Nick Cornish of the Umatilla house went on a fishing trip to the Floyd place, yesterday. Nick succeeded in capturing a salmon trout that must have weighed close on four pounds. It was a beauty, and Nick vows he caught it himself with his little fish pole. Both were so well pleased with their catch that they had their pictures taken when they came back, by Photographer Hunt.

Harry Maheur of Eight-mile, informs us that no fruits have been injured on Eight-mile by the late frosts. The trees—peach trees and all—are loaded down with young fruit. On Five-mile and Fifteen-mile, however, peaches suffered quite severely. Mr. Maheur reports having a pear tree in his orchard that was set out this spring, a two year old from the bud, that has 23 pears on it. What country on earth can beat this?

The prospect for a fine grain crop still continues exceedingly bright. Abundance of rain has fallen at opportune intervals and another fine shower fell last night, while today, we had frequent light showers and at this writing the clouds threaten another down-pour. A. W. Branner of Nansene, today informed a CHRONICLE representative that fall grain, in his neighborhood, is now taller than it was at haying time last year.

Whist Party.

A whist party was held last night at the residence of F. J. Clark. There were present Mr. and Mrs. Kinersly, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Young, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stephens, Mrs. Barrett, Misses Clara B. Story, Grace Marden, Aubrey Story, Etta Story, Messrs. Max Vogt, jr., M. Donnell, Chas. Clark, Fred. W. Clark and Victor Marden, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Clark. Mr. Max Vogt was awarded the gentlemen's first prize. Mrs. C. F. Stephens the ladies first prize. Mr. M. Donnell received the gentleman's booby prize and Miss Clara Story the ladies booby prize.

Teutonic Cuteness.

A man who thinks a Teuton is not as cute as anybody else is away off. Today John Schenck in company with Capt. Lewis while in front of Snipes & Kinersly's drug store, saluted Andrew Keller on the opposite side of the street with the remark, "It's going to be a fine day tomorrow." Theodore Prinz overheard the salutation and quick as a flash shouted across, "Don't you want tickets for the picnic?" It is needless to add that two tickets were sold in less time than you could wink. From enquiries at headquarters it is learned that the picnic will come off tomorrow, unless it actually rains dogs and cats. The picnic grounds at Mosies have been nicely fixed up for the occasion and they are said to be a veritable bed of flowers. The Germans are famous, the world over, for being able to enjoy themselves in a quiet, orderly manner and those who will take the trouble to steal away from the dust and smoke of the city to spend a day in the fields and woods with these children of the "Waterland" will be amply repaid for their pains.

A cloudburst in Kansas yesterday created a flood in and around Topeka, stopping railway traffic and doing other damages.

Saved from Death by Onions. There has no doubt been more lives of children saved from death in croup or whooping cough by the use of onions than any other known remedy, our mothers used to make poultices of them, or a syrup, which was always effectual in breaking up a cough or cold. Dr. Gunn's Onion Syrup is made by combining a few simple remedies with it which, make it more effective as a medicine and destroys the taste and odor of the onion. 50c. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton.

Judges Bradshaw and Watkins and W. H. Wilson returned yesterday evening from attending court at Prineville.

Wood, at McKees Rocks, Pa., says while he was waiting to see Mr. Wood, a little girl came in with an empty bottle labeled Chamberlain's Pain Balm and said: "Mamma wants another bottle of that medicine; she says it is the best medicine for rheumatism she ever used." 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w

Mr. and Mrs. Klindt, and Judge Liebe, join the Astoria excursionists today, having left on the Regulator this morning.

Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of that state during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and that in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w
