Mr. Frank Connelly has left at this office a remarkably beautiful wood petre-faction, which he picked up in the Mosier neighborhood. It is black as ebony, and the grain is as distinctly marked in lines of grey as if painted by a skilled artist.

At the first ward primary held last night, Dr. Hollister was nominated for water commissioner, and Charles Lauer for councilman. At the second ward primary W. H. Wilson was nominated for water commissioner, and Thomas Joles for councilman.

Mount Hood Hose company No. 4, at a test-drill at the hydrant corner of Union and Eighth street last evening, threw a stream, 1 1/2 nozzle, over the tops of the high poplar trees in that locality. This may be considered a very highly satisfactory test, and assures confidence of security on the part of residents on the bluff.

Messrs. Schanno, Thornbury, Haight and Burget, returned last evening from their trout lake excursion highly pleased with the results. They caught 792 fine trout. Judge Thornbury caught the biggest lot, Burget the biggest fish, but it is difficult to say who enjoyed the biggest amount of the combination of sport furnished by the "outing." Thanks for remembrance.

Yesterday afternoon bridge 93 on the Union Pacific track near Wyeth took fire and before it was extinguished 200 feet of the bridge was destroyed. The west bound passengers, 119 in number, who arrived here at 4 p. m. were transferred to the D. S. Baker and at 7:30 the boat took them down the river to a point below the burnt bridge and transferred them to a waiting passenger train. The rebuilding of the bridge was rapidly performed, as the noon passenger to-day came through from Portland only about 20 minutes late.

Dr. W. E. Rinehart returned this forenoon from attending the annual meeting of the State Medical Association which convened on the 14th inst. at Portland and closed last night. Dr. Rinehart not only brings home with him the presidency of the association, he having been elected to that distinguished honor, but he brings with him the pleasing information that he succeeded, after a hard struggle, in obtaining the consent of the association to hold their next annual meeting on the second Tuesday, in June, in The Dalles. The doctor on behalf of our citizens promised the 150 to 200 physicians who are expected to attend, a right royal reception and a kindly welcome amid nature's grandest, wildest, richest scenic handiwork, in this gorge of the mountains and city at the head of navigation of one of the noblest and grandest rivers in the universe. And the citizens of The Dalles will see that the doctor's promise is kept good.

All reports from the Dufur and Tygh Ridge countries indicate that crops are in fairly good condition, with an encouraging prospect of a good outcome.

Russell & Co. will have one of their fine traction engines in The Dalles fourth of July procession. It will be under full head of steam, and run without horses.

A man may cry: "Church, Church," at every word. With no more piety than other people: A daw's not reckoned a religious bird. Because he keeps a-cawing from a steeple.

The Barlow road over the Cascade mountains is now open. Several wagons have arrived over this road. The snow has not entirely disappeared, but it is going fast. In a few days the road will be in a very good condition.

Yesterday was the anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill, and the day was duly celebrated in Boston. The banks were all closed and business generally suspended. Even the regular daily papers did not publish their regular editions.

Astoria comes to the defense of Capt. Whitehead who has been relieved of his command of the Baltimore because of petty jealousy at San Diego, Portland, and on Puget sound. It is perhaps true that some of this muss has been investigated by a desire of some subordinate for promotion.

Readers of Mr. Spurgeon's sermons will be glad to know that the publishers have at least eight hundred discourses that have not yet been published, so that the weekly issue can be continued for sixteen years longer. Each sermon is now accompanied by an exposition given by the preacher.

Portland has finally awakened to a sense of the situation and decided to celebrate. Some of the old committee are harnessed for the job of getting up a show, more for the purpose of keeping the people at home, perhaps, than anything else, and to spend $1,800 on hand, left over from last year.

Jacob Kamm and the N. P. R. Co., will make things lively for the "system," on the lower Columbia river soon. He has an understanding with Hon. H. B. Parker of the steamer Astorian, and they, together with the business which the N. P. R. Co., afford, intend to carry passengers at $2.00 for the round trip, Astoria-Portland, and freight at $1.00 per ton.

Some vigorous thieving is being done in the Dufur, Nansene and Deschutes precincts. Quite a number of horses are missing and several stables have been raided of nights and valuable saddles and other things taken.

The steamer Regulator leaves at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning on another one of those popular excursions to the Cascades. Fare only fifty cents for the round trip. Be in time to secure a front seat, as the weather will be fine and much pleasure may be anticipated.

Wm. Butler & Co. have moved their business office over on to Second street, and put on an extension which more than doubles the room. Butler says he can now keep a set of books without having to put the ink stand on the outer side of the window sill. The north side of their sign is now the east side, and will be whitewashed.

In the house yesterday Mr. Hermann made an earnest and able fight for the appropriation for the dalles boat railway. He bitterly denounced the attempt of some unwise influence to prejudice congressional action upon this subject and referred to a libelous pamphlet which had been placed upon the members' desks which attacked the boat railway scheme. A further conference was ordered.

The Episcopal convention, which is now in session at Astoria, has been very handsomely welcomed by the Rev. W. S. Short, of Grace church, and Rev. T. A. Hyland of the new Skipanon church. The members form an intelligent dignified body of men, and they represent a prosperous, growing church in Oregon. Rev. E. D. Sutcliffe of The Dalles, is the guest of Mrs. A. W. Ferguson, formerly of this city.

In consequence of the bridge burned at Wythe, cars were unable to run between Dalles city and Portland. Passengers, mail and express, were transferred by boat, and this gave rise to a rumor, which spread like the itch, that the Regulator company had purchased the Union Pacific railroad. It is probably unnecessary for us to state, for the benefit of intelligent readers, that there is no foundation in fact for the rumor.

That sack of political inflorescence which reposes on the safe at the Umattila house was sent to F. W. L. Skibbee for distribution, and briefly the facts are about this, no matter what anybody may say to the contrary: It is said there was $1,500 in the sack. Skibbee entrusted it to a man who was to take it with him to Antelope, but somebody got on to the racket, and for fear of prosecution he shipped without it, and now the sack and its contents is considered contraband.

The city election is proceeding quietly as we go to press. The office of marshal is being hotly contested as is that of councilman and water commissioner for the second ward, with what result the count tonight alone can tell.

Whatever may come out of the dalles boat railway discussion, it is quite safe to say that it will not interfere in any way with the cascade locks measure. Boats from Atlantic, as well as Pacific ports, are expected at The Dalles within two years.

According to the Pendleton Tribune, the way the election was carried on in South Pendleton precinct, is enough to make the goddess of liberty weep and veil her eyes. It claims, as well as did the East Oregonian, that vote buying was conducted in regular shop fashion, openly and publicly—as high as ten dollars being paid for votes.

It is not generally known that M. A. Moody of this city received ten votes for coroner in the Kingsley precinct at the late county election. The Kingsley alliance men vow that if they had known he was in the field they would have elected him, sure.

It is unfair to charge every appropriation for the Columbia river to Oregon, and then claim that the cream of the Inland Empire lays in Idaho and Washington. The Columbia would have been an open river years ago, only for such monkey business as that.

Two much salt in the system dries up the blood and the healthy moisture of the membranous surfaces, and is evidenced by a dead yellow pallor of the skin, with a blanching of the lips and cheeks, and a morbid craving for the condiment which nothing but its use in enormous quantities will satisfy.

The Fossil Journal says: Thousands of acres of grain in this end of the county which the prolonged drouth has not damaged, is being literally mowed down by squirrels. Unless the county as a body take immediate action in this matter the farmers need never sow another crop. Between here and Conden whole fields have been devastated.

Uncle Linus Hubbard has returned from the Willamette valley, bringing with him a bouquet sweeter to his olfactory senses than the sweet brier breezes of the Hebridian isles. He kindly gave us one smell. Talk of your otter of roses, the fragrant odor of Uncle Linus' bouquet can see them all and go many scents better, with generally beneficial results.

The Oregonian today gives up twenty-two columns of its valuable space to Hon. Penumbra Kelly, which explains his position on the subject of taxes delinquent. Mr. Kelly was re-elected on the independent ticket at the election this month, and the boys say if he wants to be governor, next election, he has simply to announce himself, without the formality of a party nomination.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she became a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

TO THE PUBLIC.—It having come to our knowledge that a party in The Dalles in selling lime has made the assertion that he charges more for other brands than the "Oregon" because they are better, thereby implying that the "Oregon" is an inferior article, we desire to state that the "Oregon" is the strongest lime on the market; that it will work more plastic and leave the work when set stronger and firmer than any other lime at present manufactured in either Oregon or Washington. Wm. Butler & Co., Agents at The Dalles for the "Oregon" lime, are instructed to furnish, free of charge, any and all Oregon lime, which does not fully come up to the stipulations above set forth. The object of this notice is solely to defend our goods against the false insinuations and statements of any person whatsoever. The Or. Marble and Lime Company, by T. F. OSBORN, General Agt. 5-24w1m

Mr. John Pashek, who lives a short distance up Mill creek, and is an early riser, says the joy of the feathered songsters in his vicinity is beyond description when they seek the shady nooks for morning ablutions. The music of their little throats is a grand inspiration, and it is perhaps aided by some of the songsters imported by bird fanciers. If not so, then it is pretty certain that the native birds of Wasco would come close to first prize in a contest for honors.

For a year past the Portland cable road company has been in the courts with actions, most of which, however, have been friendly suits brought for the purpose of unifying the conflicting titles and property interests of the different elements in its ownership.
