

The Weekly Chronicle.

THE DALLES, - - - OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

From the Daily Chronicle, Friday. F. M. Marquis of Grass Valley, is at the Columbia hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. John Doyle of Eight Mile, were in the city today.

C. P. Heald of Hood River, came up on the noon passenger today.

Uncle Billy Kelsay and J. Anderson of Antelope, came into town this morning.

Attorney W. B. Presby and Sheriff Stinson of Goldendale, were in town today.

P. Willig, the merchant tailor has moved from Union street, next door to John Booth, the grocer.

Tickets for the Conductor's excursion may be obtained at the U. P. depot, or at the W. U. Tel. office.

The noise of the cricket is heard everywhere in The Dalles about twilight these pleasant evenings.

Malcom MacInnis has made arrangements to go into business at Grants and will open there in about a month.

Part of the cargo of the Regulator up last evening consisted of ten tons of Washington wool from White Salmon landing.

People who know how to please the printers are not slow in bringing around strawberries and such, these hungry afternoons, to the Hood River Glacier folk.

The twenty-seventh quarterly meeting of the Oregon state horticultural society will be held at Hood River, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 12th and 13th.

Mr. W. C. Alloway has returned from a trip to Puget sound. He was accompanied by Mr. Truman Butler, whom he left behind, as he had not yet finished his jaunt.

Here is another discouragement to Hymen. The customs authorities at New York have opened a betrothed young woman's baggage and taxed her bridal trousseau.

At 7 a. m. today the Regulator water gauge showed a fall of three tenths of an inch in the Columbia, at this point, during the previous twenty-four hours. It has been falling lively today.

Umatilla county land comes high. A big deal in Adams farming land was completed lately, Jack Morrison purchasing a half-section from Rev. Gallaher five miles west of that place, for $9,000.

The Columbia is now about at its finest stage for pleasure craft, and the stretch from Mill creek up, for the distance of a mile or two, is dotted over with boats pulled by ladies and gentlemen, nearly every evening.

Baker city seems to be in a bad way. The Bowers rubber company holds scrip to the amount of $1,600 which is not collectable and suit has been brought to enforce payment. This is the second suit brought against the city.

Mr. T. A. Ward filed his bonds today as by law provided, with Messrs. H. M. Beall, J. S. Schenck, and W. H. Van-Bibber as sureties, and will assume the responsible and arduous duties of Sheriff of Wasco county next month.

A youngster fishing off the Regulator pier yesterday fastened a large salmon on his hook, but as he wasn't after such game the fish got away. Later on in the season, farther down the Columbia, fishing for salmon with the hook is great sport.

The latest invention is a self-opening envelope. All you have to do, when your letter comes, is to pull a string; much after the fashion of the old time latch string; and the letter opens itself. The first one to reach The Dalles came today from the Illinois office, Beardstown Illinois.

The run of salmon is not large but some fine big fellows are being caught. Chas. Lauer had one on his block this morning, caught by Capt. Stone which was said to weigh 65 pounds. Winans Brothers brought from the other side of the river about a ton and a half, many of which weigh in the neighborhood of 50 pounds.

Three old death traps collapsed last night in Portland and killed several persons. Cause of the collapse was rotten sills and high water. It came so suddenly that people were taken without a moments warning, and lighted lamps in the various places set the wreck on fire. Eighty firemen worked for two hours, besides volunteers, saving several lives. The buildings were located on North 1st and E and F streets.

Mr. George Riddall takes issue with those who say that crops are not good in this county near the Columbia river. On his ranch in Columbia precinct he has as good a crop as he ever raised and more hay on less ground than he ever had. He says the Cooper place on Ten Mile has the best crop ever raised on it, and possibly the same is true of the Southwell, Floyd, Seufert and Cushing places. O'Neil on Ten Mile has the best field of wheat Mr. Riddall ever saw in Eastern Oregon, while Falton, Wilhelm, Decker, and others in that neighborhood have all good crops. All these good crops are on hill or bench land as dry as any other in the country.

From the Daily Chronicle, Saturday. Miss Minnie Michell who has been for some time past in Pendleton, returned yesterday.

Prof. W. L. Gorman, principal of Pendleton public schools, is the guest of Mr. W. C. Alloway, for a few days.

Trouble is still brewing in the Coeur d'Alene. Gov. Willey, of Idaho, has asked President Harrison for troops.

Miss Krehbiel leaves on Monday for Cleveland, O. She has been connected with the Wasco Independent Academy.

The Conductors special excursion train for the Bonneville excursion, will leave Heppner tomorrow at 6 o'clock a. m. It is advertised to leave The Dalles at 8:45 a. m.

B. S. Huntington and family, Mrs. H. S. Wilson, Rev. Mr. Wilson, and others, are in summer camp at Wind River, one of the loveliest spots along the middle Columbia.

Mr. Hugh Glenn will make his first trip to the consolidated city, since the flood, tomorrow. At no time, within thirty years, has sixty days passed over his head before without a visit to the metropolis on business of some kind.

The Steamer Regulator now lands at Hood River within one hundred yards of the depot. The round trip rate of 50 cts. made by the D. P. & A. N. Co. should induce all to avail themselves of the opportunity to make a pleasant trip on Sundays or Thursdays.

Nearly all the old settlers on the line of the Willamette valley and Cascade mountain military wagon road, have been subpoenaed to appear in the United States district court in Portland, to give testimony in regard to the condition of the road, previous to 1888.

Leo, Schanno, son of Emil Schanno, of this city, has returned from attending Mount Angel seminary, bearing with him the senior gold medal for good conduct. The junior gold medal was awarded to Mathew Thorburn jr., of Kingsley. This is a high testimony to the character of Eastern Oregon boys.

Patriotic people on the 4th of July want to see Dalles City decorated in a manner that will attract the attention of every visitor, and show that our citizens appreciate the occasion. It has been suggested that this decoration take upon itself a general character, in a grand commingling of national colors and emblems.

The effort to keep cool in summer is often attended with difficulties, and perhaps the greatest success is found when soft drinks of cream soda, the various mineral waters, etc., are used. The Dalles people during the heated term will enjoy especial advantages for reducing individual temperature. Blakeley & Houghton have a magnificent soda and mineral water fountain, which has been put in position, and the firm is now ready to serve the lovers of palatable and cooling beverages.

Hon. F. C. Reed, state fish commissioner for Oregon, while up to Canyon city last week looking after sawdust in streams, was promoted by the News to an official of the general government. The News says Mr. Reed "should have gone over to Silvies and Harney valleys and torn out the dams along the river, so that fish could ascend the stream from the lakes." The office is now no sinecure position and to impose such tasks might possibly so overburden the commissioner as to break his back.

This is the sort of encouragement the girls of Klickitat received from the local papers, while their beaux are off doing military duty: "Won't a lot of the young ladies feel lonesome while the boys are away at camp. They may come across some nice looking girls on the sound." Lots of interest was taken in the company previous to their departure for camp, but several of the boys had no military clothes so could not accompany the others to the encampment. Lieut. Hodson gave the company some good drills, which the boys greatly appreciated, and if the same interest is maintained on their return. Capt. Billington and the officers will have every reason to be proud of their militia company.

The Oregonian today appears to be under the impression that since the democratic party has positively declared that the government should improve the "great waterways of the republic, so as to secure for the interior of the states easy and cheap transportation to tide-water," and has also pronounced for sufficient appropriations for continuous work, there should be no difficulty encountered by Senator Dolph in inducing the house conferees to consent to ratify the senate amendment for the boat railway at The Dalles. It says: "The house may go ahead now and complete the business, assured that, whatever the individual voter may think, the democratic party as an organization has assumed the responsibility for its work."

From the Daily Chronicle, Monday. The awning makers harvest is upon us.

Yesterday the thermometer read 90 1/2 in this city, northern exposure.

Rev. Mr. Sulcliffe left for the east today. He will be absent until October.

T. B. Merry has been discharged from the asylum and returned to San Francisco.

Mr. H. C. Nielson met with a painful accident, by dropping a tailors iron goose on his foot.

Mrs. Wallace Mahn has given up her Dalles boarding house and returned to her home on Mill Creek.

Rev. O. D. Taylor and several friends from various portions of the east, left for the Atlantic states today.

Inspector C. P. Heald of Hood River, is after all orchardists who are selling fruit known to have the scale.

Spasmodic efforts are being made to establish a democratic daily paper in Boise City.

The recent rain was worth hundreds of thousands of dollars to Umatilla county, Oregon.

If you wish to keep the doctors from your house and your children at home, raise a good garden.

A fish-wheel near Texas ferry in Columbia county caught 400 pounds of salmon in one night last week.

The Columbia river is again on a stand today, within the tenth of an inch of thirty-three feet above low water mark.

Hon. J. D. Lee, of East Portland, came up on the Saturday night train, and is packing up his household effects for removal to the metropolis.

Snow is reported as still quite deep in the blue mountains, being in some places forty feet deep. It is packed so hard that horses can travel over it.

A careless smoker set the mail bags on fire in the Prineville stage Saturday night. One pouch had a hole burned in it, and some of the mail was scorched.

Instantaneous photography has revealed the fact that the former method of representing lightning as a fire zigzag was entirely false, a sort of optical delusion.

The dwelling house of Mrs. Dow now for rent has been newly repaired, inside and out, is one of the most desirable, tenements in the city. Should be seen to be appreciated.

Master Brad, Bonney, son of A. A. Bonney, was picked up insensible near the east end circus track, where he had fallen from a horse, this forenoon. It is feared that his case may prove to be a serious one.

A company has been granted permission to experiment with electric omnibuses in London this summer. That would be just the ticket for The Dalles. The Cosmopolitan can furnish the omnibus.

The fire alarm bell tolled this forenoon. In sad relays the news spread over the city that Wolf Schrader was dead. Mr. Schrader was an old time citizen, and an active member of the department.

Tunnel riding, with a car load of jolly young people returning from Amos Quit camp at Bonneville yesterday, was rather animating sport, in which everybody indulged except the snoozer who wasn't permitted to snooze.

The champion Royal Chinook of the season, sixty-seven pounds, was caught Saturday evening just as the wheel was hauled up off the mouth of Three mile. It was properly embalmed in ice and shipped east by C. L. Phillips.

Col. Cris. Taylor died at his home in Dayton on the 23d. He was one of the early pioneers, and a man of the highest honors in the United States. The funeral was largely attended by the fraternity from Portland yesterday.

The latest fad in the line of collecting is that of colored posters; the bills with which the enterprising poster adorns boards and fences and dead walls about town. In France and in several of the German cities this mania has taken a deep hold and is spreading rapidly.

Mr. Lord returned from his ranch over in Klickitat today. His foreman Wm. Dunn, was buried yesterday. The funeral consisted of thirty carriages. The widow and her two little children, so suddenly left fatherless, have the tender sympathies of the people.

A brilliant display of the aurora borealis was witnessed last night between twelve and 3 o'clock, by all who were fortunate enough to see it. The banner was crimson hued, and stretched about 64' above the aurora, which appeared to stretch into space of about 40'.

The Dalles tenders a cordial invitation to the people of Wasco and adjoining counties to join with us in celebrating the 4th of July. Let all our neighbors come and take part in the amusement that will be provided for their entertainment. There will be lots of fun. Every one will be in good humor. The owners of the old wooden shells that collapsed in Portland last week, have been charged with all the blame for loss of lives by the fall of the structures. So long as excessive rents can be got for such miserable shacks owners care little as to their condition and refuse to incur any expense in making them safe.

Harley Andrews, the Pacific Expressman at The Dalles, has some good news today from a mining camp in Montana. His friends in the camp have struck it! and the prospect here is that Harley will catch that old time contagion, the mining fever, that has in times past carried off so many people—good, bad and indifferent—from this city. That there is just as good gold in the ground as was ever mined, nobody has a doubt, and the farther the camp the coarser the gold is, perhaps, but we've seen something that tells that the secret of success is like the bird in hand being of more value than the one in the bushes.

The Eastern Oregon Grange store in this city, will be closed perhaps today. It might be made a good paying business, as it has been in the past, but loses by the fire and other discouraging circumstances has rather forced the directors to a conclusion to close up. Mr. Chandler will still remain in The Dalles.

The Vancouver Independent discovered Farmer Jim Vernon passing through that city on the way to his ranch and says: "The delicate task of teaching feeble minded calf-lets to drink out of an old lead bucket, has left traces of care and disappointment on his face, and splashes of milk and cream on his boots and trousers, but in other respects he is the same old 'James'."

Seven car loads of people from Portland, and six car loads from Heppner, The Dalles, etc., met at Bonneville park yesterday and gave the mosquitoes a feast of blue blood from 10:10 a. m., till 5:15 p. m. The pesky mosquitoes, however, didn't prevent many of the excursionists from enjoying themselves. It was the occasion of the Conductor's annual basket picnic.

The Astorian and other papers, with the most laudable intentions, seem to think something should be done promptly, to uphold Senator Dolph in his action on the dalles boat railway. Opinion at The Dalles is divided on this question. A good many people think that Senator Dolph's adherence for the dalles project may peril the cascades locks. We want an open river.

Carrie Burnham, in a note to the Record, says the Ralston brothers of Montana, who bought 350 or 400 head of stock from Blurock & Peters, crossed their stock on the Arlington ferry and drove them to Wallula Junction to ship over the N. P., as they said the price for shipping from Arlington to Wallula Junction would be nearly one-third as much as from Wallula to Helena, Montana, on the N. P.; and this is the reason why people take stock to different points and other roads for shipment. About stock from the Washington side of the Columbia, Mrs. Burnham says: "Robt. Graham of Bickleton was at the ferry one day last week, and we gave him rates, as he intended to ship three or four carloads of horses; but after consulting the U. P., agent at this place, he said he could do better on the N. P. railroad, and took the horses to Prosser for shipment." So it would seem, from this, that even a ferry boat isn't in it, alongside the "system."

Mrs. Lawler, a widow woman, formerly living in The Dalles, was arrested during the week for the heinous crime of allowing a motherly old hen and a brood of young chicks to run at large in the streets of Albina. A Mrs. Dyer was the prosecuting witness and the arrest seems to have been the culmination of a neighborhood row. Judge Carey promptly discharged Mrs. Lawler, when he heard the evidence and should have read somebody a lecture regarding the making of frivolous arrests.

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past twelve years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w

Rapidly as the work at the Astoria end of the Astorian and Portland railroad line has progressed since the mills have been able to supply lumber in quantities to keep pace with the operations of the builders, the progress made by the Corey Bros., the chief contractors, and those who have secured sub-contracts under them has been more rapid. About 4,000 men are now employed on the work.

Saved from Death by Onions. There has no doubt been more lives of children saved from death in croup or whooping cough by the use of onions than any other known remedy; our mothers used to make poultices of them or a syrup, which was always effectual in breaking up a cough or cold.
