

The Weekly Chronicle.

THE DALLES, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

From the Daily Chronicle, Tuesday.

Judge Bradshaw leaves this evening for a coast trip to Tillamook.

A pleasant visit today is acknowledged from Mr. Polk Butler, of Nansene.

No excuse will be accepted for non-attendance at the Armory tonight.

In the soak. Small boats hanging from the davits on the steamer D. S. Baker.

Mr. H. Maier is the recipient of a splendid grey hound. The gift of a friend at Grants.

Mr. S. G. Rigdon's Spencerian autograph decorated a line in the Umatilla register this morning.

E. W. and Miss Rosa D. Weaver, of Columbus, Ohio, are among the late arrivals at the Umatilla house.

Miss Annie Thompson, who has been attending the state Normal School at Monmouth, is home for a vacation.

Mr. W. K. Corson left yesterday for an outing with some friends from below at Trout lake. They met at Hood River.

A flock of pigeons visit the beach north of the U. P. depot nearly every morning. They come from the east.

The venerable Hampton Kelly, the sage of Wapinitia, returned from a flying trip to the consolidated city this morning.

The O. N. G. have business of an official nature to transact this evening. Some of the staff of Gov. Penneyer will be present.

The steps up the bluff at the head of Laughlin street will be greatly appreciated. The wonder is that they were not built long ago.

Fish Commissioner Myers came up on the noon passenger today. He complains that some of the saw mills are violating the saw dust law. They will be prosecuted.

J. A. Crossen, acting as deputy United States marshal, left on the noon passenger today for Grants, to serve some papers in a suit pending in the United States circuit court.

Very little complaint can be made about the Dalles streets, they are far better than the average so far as cleanliness goes, but those protruding nail heads are a nuisance.

Dr. Siddall leaves tomorrow for quite an extended trip. His first visit will be to Ellensburg, where he has a nephew living. Notice of his return will be given in THE CHRONICLE.

C. R. Cooper is in from the mountains. He says the woods are full of eastern people camping out, and a great many are looking for locations to settle, up in the vicinity of Mount Hood.

Fen Batty, the popular hotel clerk, for five years located at The Dalles, has taken the position of night clerk at the Umatilla house, made vacant by the departure of N. J. Corish for Ireland.

"For want of sufficient notice" Judge Bradshaw, on a motion to dismiss the suit of J. M. Huntington vs. J. B. Crossen, for a contest of the county clerkship, sustained the motion and dismissed the case.

Harvesters report that there has never yet been a season in the Inland Empire when the grain of wheat was more plump and well filled than it is this year. The straw and heads are short, but the berry is nice and plump.

It required an extra team to haul the salmon over from Winant's fish wheels at Grand Dalles yesterday. Fifteen tons were taken from three upper wheels, and three tons from the lower wheel. In all eighteen tons.

It is about as interesting pastime watching the Columbia recede now, as it was a month ago to witness the uprising. "The beautiful snow" has done its work, for 1892, and as the rocky, turbulent stream courses by it seems to say: "Once I was the beautiful snow, but I'm fallin' now."

Lumber is on the ground for repairs to the old-time wharf boat, until recently in use at the upper cascade landing on the Washington side. It is said the U. P. R. Co. intend to use this boat at Rockland, this season, in an effort to drive the Regulator off the river. The people say they will not stand it.

We learn incidentally, that the Oregon Press association, is to meet in Dalles City next month. The visiting members should be properly entertained. It is to the press that people look for information, but in events such as this about to occur the rule is reversed. The press will look to The Dalles for information.

Mr. S. L. Brooks has been advised by Observer Pague that Portland is now a central station of the United States weather bureau. This ought to make The Dalles a regular station. Mr. Brooks, who has for a long time been a volunteer observer at The Dalles, made application for this point to become a regular station some time ago. One of his arguments was that the atmospheric conditions are such in this part of Oregon, and so distinct from Western Oregon, that for accuracy of detail it seemed absolutely necessary that a weather bureau station should be established here.

From the Daily Chronicle, Wednesday.

Dr. Tucker returned from a trip today. Troops are preparing to leave Homestead.

Dr. Siddall will be absent about three weeks.

The miners union in Coeur d'Alene is to seek of the past.

The Dalles Royal Arch Chapter meet this evening in Masonic hall.

B. of L. F. Division, No. 167, meet this evening in K. of P. hall.

J. D. Whitten and J. W. Russell, of Kingsley, are registered at the Umatilla.

Andy Lyle left for Cross Keys this morning. The only passenger on the stage.

Lippincotts, Cosmopolitan, and other leading magazines, at the Postoffice book store.

A nice new sidewalk invites you to the Regulator wharf today. No more dust in the path.

At the stand of Strubling & Williams may be seen a beautiful pair of white Welsh-mountain goat heads.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hanson, of Portland, are at the Umatilla. Mr. Hanson thinks of locating in The Dalles.

Elsa Coon, who is in the county jail on a charge of uttering counterfeit coin, has part of the periphery of an outfit for casting the queer.

As yet no quarantine has been established at Portland against small pox, but this will be done should cases begin to arrive either by boat or train.

An attempt will be made to ascend Mt. Rainier this week, when the advisability of establishing a weather station on the summit will be determined.

The Chinese of this city have gone into the business of producing vegetable forks. Geo. McKinney left one at this office today, four-tined, of the onion variety.

There was a long procession of wind passed through The Dalles yesterday. It took it four hours to pass the Umatilla house corner, traveling at the rate of fifteen miles an hour.

The coroner's jury empaneled in the post mortem case met last evening pursuant to adjournment, but as no returns had been received from the chemist, adjourned until Friday next.

Quite a delegation from Moro were registered at the Umatilla last night. Amongst them were J. A. West and wife, Jas. Frazer and wife, J. J. Thompson, T. M. Anderson and W. H. Moore.

Mrs. Carter, wife of Hon. Thomas H. Carter, chairman of the national republican committee, was once a young lady of The Dalles. She accompanied her parents to Montana, where she became Mrs. Carter.

Five land patents have been filed for record with the county clerk the past two days. They warrant lands to H. Kelley, of Wapinitia, Alva P. Jones, Adam Lohg, John Nachler, and Martin Reeder, of Bake Oven.

Mr. Hugh Gourlay is in today from his Tygh ridge farm. He says the farmers out there, for a scope of ten miles square have no kick coming on the score of crops. That the grain is of first-class quality and up to the average.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hadley, recently of Aransas Pass, Texas, are visiting Mrs. Hadley's mother, Mrs. L. Clark. They are going to make their future home in Sissons, California, where Mr. Hadley intends to engage in the mercantile business.

The photo of a magnificent salmon recently to have been taken by Herren, but he is no small fly; was not taken, because one of the two gentlemen who were to appear in the picture, with the salmon on a bar between them, objected. He said his friends might take him for a sucker.

A San Francisco house, writing for information (without a stamp for reply, of course) concerning the whereabouts of a recent employe of the writer, is respectfully referred to the registers of the Pacific Northwest penitentiaries. They ought to be able to find him in some one of these, if justice holds its own.

Last week one day the express delivery wagon stopped at the residence of Mr. Norman and left a package labeled Bird. As Norman had the promise of a rare bird from a friend who had gone east he thought the feathered songster had arrived. So it had, but it don't sing—it was a big fat frog.

Eugene city has a queer law. Listen to this notice by the city marshal: "Notice is hereby given to all property holders that they are required to cut all thistles on their property, and in the streets adjoining, immediately. If they neglect so to do, the thistles will be cut by the marshal, at the expense of such property holders."

It is said that Wasson, the Polk county farmer, who lost his orchard by an application of kerosene is alone to blame for it. He took the recipe literally, like the fellow who swallowed the leach. He was told to apply it. He simply allowed it. Wasson read the recommendation to use kerosene to destroy borers, and accordingly procured a small syringe and loaded it up with the inflammable fluid, injecting a small quantity into the opening made by borers in the roots, having first dug away the earth to expose the roots. He has abundant proofs that the borers are dead in 522 peach and prune trees, chiefly prunes, but unfortunately the 522 trees are all dead, dried and shriveled up.

A farmers team ran away in the east this forenoon, wrecking things generally.

Secretary J. A. Armstrong, of the Moro meeting of the peoples party, held on the 16th, sent us a set of resolutions, one of which "denounces the laws of any state of this union that permits corporations to employ Pinkerton forces to butcher men who labor for bread in mills and mines." Most anybody, of any party, would stand in with such a proposition as that.

A lively runaway occurred at Hood River this forenoon. A team attached to a buggy became frightened at a kite. They left without previous warning. The driver jumped and let all strings go. In their mad flight the buggy struck the corner of a building. Mrs. Howlett and a little child who were in the buggy were here thrown out. Fortunately neither of them were hurt. The buggy was strewn all over the town.

Mayor Mays arrived in the city yesterday from his Antelope farm. He says the Saturday shower spread out over an expanse of at least 100 miles. He has a header at work in a barley tract near Dufur which will thresh from thirty to thirty-five bushels per acre safely, that three weeks ago was pronounced actually of so little value that it was hardly considered fit for hay. The highest hills are our most productive lands this year.

A man who gave the name of Elza Coon, "formerly from Michigan," was brought from Linn county yesterday by Deputy Sheriff J. H. Phirman, charged with passing a bogus $20 on Mr. Mosier last fall. He two and companions had stopped at Mosier's over night, and after breakfast the next day tendered the counterfeit coin and received change in exchange for it to the amount of about $18. Mr. Mosier has kept his eyes and ears open, to detect the fellow ever since. Last week he heard of him at a point near Spicer. He was caught and returned as above noted. This afternoon Justice Schutz gave him a hearing, and he was held to answer before the grand jury.

From the Daily Chronicle, Thursday.

Judge Condon returned from Arlington this morning.

Grover Cleveland writes his letters on pure Irish linen paper.

F. P. Sargent, of Terre Haute, Ind., is registered at the Umatilla house.

Temple lodge No. 3, A. O. U. W., meet at K. of P. hall this evening.

Mr. A. S. Baty, one of the popular young men of the road, is again registered at the Umatilla house.

Mrs. S. R. Babcock, of Berkeley, Wash., is at the Umatilla house, visiting her sister Mrs. C. H. Brown.

The directors of the Wasco Independent Academy have secured the services of an able principal from the east.

A model market is to be opened at No. 89 Second street. Workmen are now employed putting in a modern front.

Paymaster Boire and his assistant Dunn, came in last night, and the boys of the U. P. R. Co. are correspondingly happy.

Justice Schutz, contemplates a trip to his Camp Watson ranch. Jas. Blakeney has let him have an extra pair of horses for the drivesaw horses.

The Columbia is now too clear for general fishing, but up in the rapids Winan's large fish wheel continues to scoop 'em up pretty liberally.

The yard engine of the U. P. R. Co. at The Dalles had a test of her strength last night. A string of cars, six blocks long, were side tracked at one push.

Next Wednesday is the day fixed for steamers Dalles City and Regulator to connect again, on the through Peoples line between Portland and The Dalles.

There is a chance for a combination between Athena and The Dalles. The ladies of both places threaten to organize hammer brigades and drive the nails down in the big walks.

Mr. D. M. French, whose imprisonment at Ilwaco is mentioned in another place today, is out on parole. He came up to The Dalles last night on a visit to the few of us who are left at home.

Conductor Fowler came in two hours late with the early passenger today, bound west. He took the train four hours late, but he is something of a flyer, and generally gets in at the terminal on time.

A fine job of painting on the Regulator attests the skill of a Dalles artiste, who, while not a professional, is about as handy with the brush as any one trained to dexterity in the art by years of experience.

Mr. John Meepie has 15 acres of wheat on his Mill creek ranch which will thresh 30 bushels to the acre. It is a fine berry, plump and clean. He cut some wheat for hay recently which went a ton and a half to the acre.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Stacy Shown and Miss Bernice Floyd were united in marriage, at the residence of the brides' parents on Ten-Mile, and left on the evening passenger for a bridal trip. The parties are well known and highly respected in this city, and they will receive the heartiest congratulations of the community on the assumption of their new relations in social life.

The variation of the compass at The Dalles, which is given at 29°15', is an evidence of the existence of material hereabouts to enable The Dalles to become a second Pittsburg, as well as a leading Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Floyd are spending a few days in the city. Mr. Floyd has just returned from the east, where he has been engaged in the horse business. He reports a failure of crops in Iowa on account of too much rain.

Mr. W. R. Menefee, of Dufur, was in the city yesterday. He came in with his daughter, Mrs. S. W. Emerson, of Baker city, who was leaving for her home, after a very pleasant visit with the family, including her brother, Recorder Frank Menefee, of this city.

Mr. Lord returned from Ilwaco yesterday, but expects to remain only a few days. The Dalles colony is doing fine on North beach. The number of visitors is legion. Some of the finest steamers in the waters of the United States are making regular trips on the route, but there has been as yet no cut in rates.

R. H. Norton, formerly of The Dalles is in Tacoma. He positively denies the allegation of having skipped to Victoria, as intimated by the press of Portland. The work he mapped out here, if carried to completion, would be a good thing for the whole Inland Empire, and particularly for The Dalles.

The famous painting of the "Voyage of Life" was yesterday exemplified realistically by a large boat floating on the Columbia past The Dalles, from the Indian village above Grand Dalles to the Memorial Indian burial grounds laden with the living relics of a once powerful tribe, and the remains of a corpse for sepulcher.

Messrs. G. W. Jackson, Wm. Montague, Gus Bonn and Fred Pandt returned from an outing to Clear creek, thirty miles from The Dalles, last night. They were well stocked with dust, experience and trout. All report a jolly good time and fun galore. They lost a horse which rolled down into a fathomless crevice with a bare lashed to its back. Which one of them shot the bare our reporter failed to ascertain. They report dears abundant.

From last weeks News of Canon city, we find an account of the celebration of the 4th near Dayville, and from private letters learn that it was one of the most successful and enjoyable occasions of the kind ever held in Oregon county. There were about four hundred people, present and all enjoying themselves to the utmost. One man donated a beef and another gave two, besides making lemonade by the barrel-full, a regular old fashioned 4th of July and barbecue.

The story from Ilwaco that Mr. D. M. French of this city was a prisoner over there, is explained by the statement that he was one of many who had taken the regular steamer from Astoria, which is now the opposition; and was in the warehouse on the wharf with his family, looking after his baggage, when the door was shut against him with a bang. After a somewhat forcible demand he was liberated. With the exception of the annoyances incident to the squabble between the Ilwaco and the Union Pacific companies, things are moving along in the even tenor of their way about Ilwaco and the beach.

As the schooner Perhaps, Capt. W. S. Cram, was hauled out into the stream last evening preparatory to taking her departure from the port, a photographer chanced to come along. A bright idea struck Capt. Cram. Says he "I'll be Robinson Crusoe," so he went to an island near by, and while the deck hands, Charley Phillips, L. Brown, A. S. and Jim Davis remained on board carrying out the instructions of the Captain, the photographer got a fine negative. Phillips says that if they could have secured a full view of the scene he intended to have the picture blown into the glass as a trade mark for his soda and sarsaparilla works—it would be so fresh and nice.

Mr. Linus Hubbard of The Dalles, never leaves a stone unturned if he suspects there is a worm under it to entice another early bird to enlist in the cause of an open Columbia river. As an old-time friend of Ex-President Cleveland, he recently sent him a photo of the whalebacks coming to The Dalles, and solicited the use of his influence toward opening the river. Among other things in his answer Mr. Cleveland says he is fully appreciative of the benefits to the farmer of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, resulting from convenient and cheap transportation of their products to the markets of the world, and that everything which will bring about that end is of great interest to him.

The only fish wheel about The Dalles doing anything today, is the upper Winants wheel, in the very edge of the rapids. It is a magnificent wheel, too, and it cost something. There is 100,000 feet of lumber in this one wheel, and the cribs supporting it are filled with 200,000 tons of rock. The wheel that first occupied that site cost $2,500, but before a salmon had been caught in the wheel the swift water of the Columbia washed it away as if it were a mere toy. Then Messrs. Winant concluded to put in one that would stand. They calculated right—it has been a profitable investment.

No Encampment This Year.

At the meeting of the board of officers held Monday evening it was decided not to hold an encampment of the O. N. G. this year. This, however, was the first official decision in this respect, and up until within a few days of the meeting the committee appointed for that purpose was still endeavoring to devise some way by which the encampment could be held. To the last it had been hoped that the state military board would do something to assist them financially, but that body is overwhelmed with financial difficulties now, and does not feel like incurring any additional expense. The companies at Salem held encampments, it is true, but did so by the financial aid of the citizens and going into their own pockets. This lack of funds, together with the laxness of the season and the indifference which the members have at last come to feel, was the reason of the final decision.

In Abeyance.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—The provision in the fortification bill introduced by Senator Felton and adopted by the senate, authorizing the appointment of a board to examine and report upon the best location for a gun foundry on the Pacific coast, and appropriating $2,500 for that purpose, is now being considered in conference committee. What the result may be cannot be stated definitely, but there is a good chance for its acceptance by the conference. It carries no appropriation for the foundry, the appropriation of $1,000,000 having been disagreed to by the senate.

At the head of all blood-purifiers is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

But it's different from all of them. What- ever is claimed for this, it's guaranteed to do. The money is refunded in every case where it fails to benefit or cure. It's because it is different that it can be sold so. All diseases originating from a torpid liver or impure blood yield to it. It cleanses and purifies the system, freeing it from all manner of blood-poisons, no matter from what cause they have arisen. For Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Scrofula, Salt-rheum, Tetter, Erysipelas, or any blood-taint or disorder, it is an unequalled remedy. Nothing else can take its place.

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol to inebriate, and no syrup or sugar to derange digestion.

It's a concentrated vegetable extract; put up in large bottles; pleasant to the taste, and equally good for adults or children; works equally well all the year round.

A HOME INSTITUTION.

What a Building and Loan Association Does for Astoria.

People in The Dalles who think favorably of a local building and loan association, are not obliged to leave Oregon to seek a reference as to the benefits conferred by it upon the community in which it is located. The model of an association for The Dalles to pattern after exists in Astoria. It is a young but vigorous institution, about which the Astorian says: "The building and loan association held a meeting, Friday evening, and resolved to submit to the stockholders a proposal to build a brick building with the surplus funds. If the stockholders authorize the directors to do so, it is their intention to erect a splendid building that will do credit to the city and yield a good income to the association. The indications are now that the plan will be ratified. The association has positive offers which ensure that it can rent the proposed building on good terms. The public are likely to regard the project with approval for it will put money in circulation and the building will improve the appearance of the city. The association is now flourishing and is well managed. It pays as high as 14 1/2 per cent. on investments, and even agrees to return deposits with profits if people have other use for their money. The association has already obtained options on several lots that would do for the building which is to be erected in the business portion of the city. In one instance the directors have been offered a lot for $15,000, which the owner said, he would not sell to any one else for less than $20,000."

Headache

Usually results from a deranged stomach or a sluggish liver. In either case, an aperient is needed. Ayer's Pills, the mildest and most reliable cathartic in use, correct all irregularities of the stomach, liver, and bowels, and, in a brief time, relieve the most distressing headache. These pills are highly recommended by the profession, and the demand for them is universal. "I have been afflicted, for years, with headache and indigestion, and though I spent nearly a fortune in medicines, I never found any relief until I began to take Ayer's Pills. Six bottles of these Pills completely cured me."—Benjamin Harper, Plymouth, Montserrat, W. I.

"A long sufferer from headache, I was two boxes of Ayer's Pills."—Emma Keyes, Hubbardston, Mass. "For the cure of headache, Ayer's Cathartic Pills are the most efficient medicine I ever used."—Robert E. James, Dorchester, Mass. "For years I was subject to constipation and nervous headache, caused by derangement of the liver. After taking various remedies, I have become convinced that Ayer's Pills are the best. They never fail to relieve my bilious attacks in a short time; and I am sure my system retains its tone longer after the use of these Pills, than has been the case with any other medicine I have tried."—H. S. Sledge, Weimar, Texas.
