Mrs. Middleton and two daughers of Vancouver' are enjoying camp life at the upper bridge on the north fork of Hood river. They have about as desirable and convenient a camp as any one could wish for, and plenty of company, as the stages meet and exchange horses and passengers there twice a day daily.

A. J. Johnson, the Astoria florist, made a trip to Mount Hood last week, and secured 2,000 new plants. The flora of the highest altitudes in this county produce some astanishingly rare and beautiful plants. Mr. Johnson is stocking up to fill an order for the woman's building at the Chicago fair.

L. A. McNary and H. U. Cockerline, of Portland, reached the summit of Mount Hood yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. They were piloted by W. A. Langille. It is doubtful if anybody ever reached as high a point, as they shouted to Jud. S. Fish, N. J. Sinnott and Prof. Liscomb who were on the Eliot glacier, on the east side of the summit, only parties.

Walter A. Davis, an artist from Bert coaching party, has her camera, so it its claims to all the high margins. may be presumed there will be an abundant supply of snap shots to cause members of either party to long recollect the many interesting scenes and events of the trip.

Mr. L. D. Brown, a Portland capitalist sought his health at a camp up the north fork of Hood river, sixteen miles above the town. He is doing fine; but thinks as it is about time for another assessment in the consolidated city he must go down this week and be assessed again, after which he will probably again return to Wasco county, where as-
