

The Weekly Chronicle.

THE DALLES, - - - OREGON LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

The Young Americas returned to papa's this afternoon.

Messrs. Wm. Copeland and J. B. Yeagley of Checto are in the city.

Mr. C. P. Heald, of Hood River was in the city yesterday on official business.

Mr. Lem Burgess left the city yesterday for his sheep ranch with his winter supplies.

Mr. Orin Kinersly returned at noon yesterday from a jaunt over in Klickitat county.

Messrs. A. R. and Wm. Lyle, and C. McPherson, of Cross Keys, are in the city today.

The weather forecasts today indicate light rains with nearly stationary temperature.

Steward J. J. Wiley, who has been on the sick list for nearly a month, is again able to take his position.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crossen and daughter Emily, returned yesterday from San Francisco.

The chilly atmosphere of the last three days is particularly severe on the familiar household.

Miss Gertrude Meyer returned to her school duties in Portland, after a vacation spent with friends in this city.

Dufur is represented in the city by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Frazer, Miss Ingraham, and Messrs. Wm. and N. Kelsay.

Mr. Josh French believes in lots of manual exercise, and is today assisting the workmen at pipe laying on Washington street.

Mayor Harrington of Pillar Rock, is up for an inspection of his cannery interests at Seufert's today, and will be at the Umatilla tonight.

The republican county central committee will hold a meeting at The Dalles on Saturday next in McKinley hall, the Chronicle building.

Hon. F. P. Mays spent a few days in The Dalles. His family is still at Cloud Cap Inn, but expect to return to Portland this week.

Mr. F. T. Sargent of Wapinitia, has changed his residence to The Dalles, chiefly on account of the superior educational facilities attainable here.

F. Johnson, of Mountain Home, Idaho, the desert region which has been made to blossom as the rose by irrigation on a large scale, is in The Dalles today.

Mr. Jas. Benson, of 5-Mile, has contributed to the Wasco collection of fruit for the Portland exposition and worlds fair, peaches which measure 1 1/4 inches in circumference.

Mr. Manley, who came in yesterday with another load of wheat, says the shower was quite a brisk one on the road, completely saturating an ordinary coat.

There are no rrr in Campbell's name, but the oysters served at the Columbia Candy Factory prove that the words Brothers and September supply all deficiencies lacking to the delicate bivalve.

Mr. W. H. Smith, formerly of The Dalles, but now a resident of Portland, in the city on a visit among old friends this week, has returned to the consolidated city.

Mr. Kelley has returned from Portland, but he left the pacer there. He was only passed once on the road, and then by a two-minute horse, driven to a pneumatic sulky.

A party of young ladies were out on Ninth street, also one on Fourth street last night, hammering the nails down in the sidewalks, using rocks for hammers. This ought to move property holders to a sense of duty.

Mr. J. O. Mack has returned from the Salem fair. He says it was the best exhibition ever given by the state, and if the articles could be taken to Chicago next year, would of themselves make a creditable display for Oregon.

Mr. H. Corson, an old-time and highly-respected citizen of The Dalles, is reported seriously ill. About two years ago Mr. Corson was practically paralyzed, and has never since fully recovered from that affliction.

The potato crop has been reported short in spots; but the prospects are that the reports will prove to be too previous, according to the work of the clouds yesterday and today, as was the case with grain last June.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brenner returned from Portland today. While away Mr. Brenner was under treatment of an artist and returns much improved, but Mrs. B. is now ill, and their stay in the city will depend upon her condition.

Mr. Frank Roach returned from Portland this morning. He says the rain yesterday did not in the least interfere with the Sovereign Grand Lodge procession, and the consolidated city showed off in its gayest attire, the admiration of all its guests and residents.

Another important industry is to be added to the list of manufactories in Spokane, which will be a large paper mill, to be operated by a St. Paul company, of which Mr. J. B. Streeter, of that city, is at the head.

Mr. Lovejoy left by the steamer Regulator today with the fruit samples prepared by Mrs. Dr. Ingalls for the Portland exposition and worlds fair.

Mr. McNeil, foreman of Mr. Hugh Glenn's work in The Dalles, has contributed some superb samples of apples for the Portland exposition and worlds fair.

Judge Bennett's office during his absence, is presided over by Mr. N. J. Sinnott in a very urbane manner.

A Mr. Geo. Berry was taken off the train here this morning, on a dispatch from Pendleton, and detained for a warrant from the sheriff of Umatilla county.

Mr. Charles N. Wait, secretary of the democratic state central and campaign committees, 125 First St. Portland, wishes us to say that all democrats visiting Portland are invited to call and confer with members of the committee in regard to matters in their respective localities; and, it is presumed, receive an antidote for THE CHRONICLE doctrines of national preservation.

In calling attention to the elaborate display of Dress Goods and Cloaks, in the handsome show windows at Pease & Mays today, Mr. Pease desires us to say that the credit of the nice arrangement is due to Mr. Briggs' taste.

Frank G. Lentz, a Pittsburg wheelman who is making a tour of the world, will pass The Dalles some day this week.

An insane man, name unknown, but who claims to hail from Cour d'Alene, gave Marshal Maloney a troublesome chase to capture him yesterday.

The Columbia didn't have a ripple on the surface Sunday, from the Cascades to The Dalles, and the fast steamer Regulator was given a chance to test her steaming qualities.

The marriage ceremony of Miss Almira Calef and Mr. Isaac Pitblado will be solemnized at the First Methodist church in Portland this evening.

A letter from Harry Liebe, dated at Aix-la-Chapelle, Sept. 4th, states that since the cholera epidemic broke out in Europe every means of precaution is taken by the board of health officers to prevent the advance of this dread disease to the yet uninfected districts.

Wm. B. Thune, of Mitchell, is in the city today.

Hon. F. A. McDonald and wife, of Seattle, are visiting in The Dalles.

S. P. Haines of Buffalo, and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stockwell, of New York, are at the Umatilla.

Mr. W. E. Garreston is visiting with the family of Hon. Peter Paquet, at Oregon City.

It is in again today. Page 7, col. 5, Oregonian. Keep your eye on Handbury, until Nov. 15, 1892.

J. G. Julien, and Mrs. W. P. Morris, of Hay creek, and Mr. N. Froeber, of Wasco, are in the city.

Scandinavian Lutheran services will be held by Rev. A. Dolven tomorrow at 3 p. m. at the Lutheran chapel on Ninth street.

The amount of moisture in The Dalles the past few days was not sufficient to check the rounds of the sprinkling wagon.

Judge Blakeley and wife are still in Portland, also Justice Schutz, taking in the Sovereign Grand lodge of Old Fellows.

Hon. C. W. Cartwright arrived in the city last evening from Hay Creek. His imported sheep reached their destination in fine condition.

J. W. Gilman of Fossil, is in the city. Mr. Gilman is a member of the famous Gilman & French Stock company, known all over the Inland Empire.

Rev. A. C. Spencer writes to Leslie Butler that he is nicely located as pastor of the M. E. church at Salamanca, N. Y., and is well pleased.

Wheat is king at the East End this week. A long string of teams at the warehouses, awaiting their turn to unload, is a fine subject for a picture.

Mr. Malcolm MacInnes, assistant secretary of the agricultural society, may be found at the office of Wm. Butler & Co., corner of Second and Jefferson streets, The Dalles.

An advertisement for proposals for disinterring the remains of twenty-six soldiers at Fort Colville, filled the space of the ad. for bids on the Cascade canal in the Oregonian yesterday.

Francis Conlin and Elizabeth Agnes Lyman, have permission of the state authority to become linked in the bands of matrimony, license to that effect having been issued by the county clerk.

Another offender was locked up by Deputy U. S. Marshal Jameson last night for selling liquor to Indians. He gave his name as Henry Meir, late of Utah, a member of the Juvenile Temple.

Collector Taylor of Astoria has filed a libel against the steamer Wilmington on account of the 400 cans of opium captured on board. The "stuff" was found among the cargo, and was without stamps or marks, and was not manifested.

Frost was so distinctly traceable in the East End this morning that cats' tracks were noticed. There must have been frost all about us. The mercury stood at 41' minimum. But we had a royal sunrise and a delightful day.

Col. J. B. Yeagley, of Coos county, now in the city, is a gentleman well posted on the political issues of the day, and he will be heard from, probably, in Wasco county, before he returns to Coos.

It has been found that the town of Spokane is built on gold. Perhaps this is why the citizens have been getting in and digging. Can't some benefactor get in and discover a gold mine under The Dalles.

Who says Astoria has not reached a high state of civilization? Her tragedies are the most startling and original on record. She blew up a sawmill in the department of the Sovereign Grand Lodge for Flavel last Saturday.

Mr. E. C. Pentland takes charge of the editorial columns of the West Side, at Independence this week. We are glad to hear this, as Mr. Pentland is a thorough newspaper man all round, and will bring the West Side up to its former standard of excellence.

The cannery at Seufert's is again running to its full capacity putting up salmon. The crew which operated Pillar Rock during the summer are employed. Mr. Haveley, and his crew which operated the Seufert cannery during the summer, have been transferred to Seattle, for the cannery of Hon. Geo. T. Myers.

The controversy which Cass, our faithful Cascade Locks correspondent has stirred up about the block house, and the Indian massacre of March 26th, 1856 (not February as given in the Oregonian), will receive due attention, and the history of that stirring scene will be straight, for the first time, perhaps, since the fight; through an article in the columns of THE CHRONICLE.

Mr. R. W. Baxter, general superintendent of the Union Pacific, has just returned from a trip over all the lines of this division. He says the outlook generally throughout the country he visited is very good, and he thinks there is more wheat this year than ever before.

Newspapers are sometimes employed in fiction as the medium of some startling bit of intelligence to one of the personages of the story, but truth is sometimes stranger. The father of Johnny King, while in A. M. Williams & Co.'s store last night, received through a newspaper the first intelligence of his boy for five years, whom he has mourned as dead.

In speaking of oysters, and where the finest are grown, Sam Campbell says that at Lynn Haven bay, Virginia, there grows an oyster that is supposed to be the finest in the world, but that the bed is owned by four families who hold the entire product for their own use, except that every Thanksgiving day, a bushel of the luscious bivalves are sent to the president of the United States.

The bureau weather report from Portland yesterday admits a proposition in words like this concerning Eastern Oregon crops: "It seems that grain generally is turning out a little better than expected."

Mr. Lucky of Hood River is in the city. Call upon MacInnes and make arrangements for exhibiting something at the coming fair.

Congregational church prayer meeting at the residence of G. M. Patterson, on Fourth street this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. S. L. Youngs advertisement notes the fact that he may be found ready for work at the store of I. C. Nickelson on Second street.

The first day's proceedings of the Oregon Press association will be held on board the steamer Regulator, coming up from the Cascades.

A gang of horse thieves are operating in the vicinity of Des Chutes. They have stolen and run off quite a number of good horses recently.

Up in the Willamette valley people are arrested for stealing sheep. In Portland a whole carload of freight can be stolen with perfect impunity, and the thief is not molested.

New York may as well stand up and confess that Corbett can attract a larger crowd to Madison Square garden than young Mr. Damrosch and his Wagnerian fiddlers.

City Marshal Maloney informs us that yesterday he had nine cows in the pound awaiting owners, and the number is increasing. People must pay attention to the ordinances, as the officers are in duty bound to enforce them.

The photos of the members of the Sovereign Grand lodge, as published in the Oregonian suggest that possibly the climate of Oregon, or the fruit, or something, doesn't agree with them.

Mrs. Wilson and her son Fred left on today's east-bound train for Baltimore, where Fred has entered this year's graduating class at Johns Hopkins University. Mrs. Wilson will spend the year visiting friends in Washington and other points.

The popular restauranter C. E. Haight nearly had his phiz knocked off him a few days ago, by its coming into friendly contact with the toe of a boot worn by a high stepper from Wanic.

A great many business men are complaining about hard times in Astoria, and yet Clinton & Sons wanted ninety men to work on the streets last week for $2.50 per day, and couldn't get but two or three extra men.

Bright and newsy, neat, and spotless as a mirror, comes to our table The Daily Tribune from Pendleton. Besides being a thoroughbred Republican, the Tribune evidences the fact by its appearance, that it reflects the intelligent sentiment of the representative citizens of grand old Umatilla county.

Collector Taylor, in getting after vessels at the mouth of the Columbia for violations of marine laws, has included the Truckee, on complaint of the board of local inspectors, who charge that she went to sea without a licensed pilot on board.

Mr. Frank H. Lamb, Supt. of the W. U. Tel. Co., paid The Dalles a hasty visit at noon today. He told us that there hadn't been a kick coming from The Dalles for so long that at headquarters they had begun to believe that the office here had been abandoned.

When O. N. Denny was taking a stroll through a Marion county orchard the other day he started up a Mongolian pheasant. The bird probably knew the close season was past, so it flew away in a hurry.

A gentleman who is a constant reader of the current political literature of the day, having closely observed the situation of business under the McKinley act, gives it as his opinion that McKinley is responsible for the exodus to the New World from the Old World.

Enjoys a Joke. Nobody enjoys a joke any better than W. S. Ladd of Portland. He is down at North Beach now having a good time, as may be inferred by the following from the Oregonian yesterday:

Snipe are coming in down at the beach, and Mr. W. S. Ladd, who is still rusticiating at his cottage, is enjoying very fine sport. His method is to take out two or three men in his backboard, and let them shoot the snipe, while he drives around the swamp and scares the birds up.

Some Pumpkin. Klamath Express. John Shallock takes a natural pride in exhibiting a photograph of his little son astride a big pumpkin that is growing in his yard that borders on Main street.

Birthday Party. A very pleasant party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Liebe to their daughter Lena on Saturday, the 17th of Sept., it being her 13th birthday.

How to Change an Address. Many people do not seem to understand the inconvenience they put publishers to when a change of address is desired, by not giving full particulars.

Carved Tree Records. Twenty-eight years ago the past summer Dr. Hugh Logan, of this city, then a boy living with his father at Warm Springs agency, accompanied his father, Lieut. James Halloran, and Dr. W. C. McKay, on a tour into the Cascade mountains, in search of "a mountain of salt."

Dissolution of Co-partnership. Notice is hereby given that the firm of Abrams & Stewart has been dissolved by mutual consent.

Disolution Notice. Notice is hereby given that the firm of Yee Hop & Co. is dissolved by mutual consent.

From Lack of Attention. A correspondent of the Union-Journal says the Tekoa fire was rendered destructive because of a lack of power to pump water for fire purposes.

Those desiring Chinese laborers for any kind of work can secure them by calling on this firm.

OREGON'S SHOWING AT CHICAGO NEXT YEAR Remains in doubt, but there is no question about the PORTLAND INDUSTRIAL EXPOSITION—which opens September 21st and closes October 22d, being the best Exposition ever held on the Pacific Coast.

Disolution of Co-partnership. Notice is hereby given that the firm of Abrams & Stewart has been dissolved by mutual consent. W. R. ABRAMS, WM. STEWART, THE DALLES, OR., Aug. 15th, 1892.