MEXICAN ANNIVERSARY.

Tuesday of this week was the 68th anniversary of the adoption of the first constitution of the republic of Mexico. Latter-day peace and prosperity are still further signified by the fact that Porfirio Diaz has just been re-elected president of Mexico for another term of four years.

It will be welcome news to the whole country that Mrs. Harrison's condition appears to improve somewhat with the advent of the cool fall weather, and her friends are now more hopeful than they were a few weeks ago.

It is to be hoped that in spite of the obstacles in his way Mr. Cleveland will finally decide to accept the invitation in the Columbus fair dedication exercises two weeks from today.

J. W. Jochim, candidate for secretary of state in Michigan (on the republican ticket,) is a Swede and was a book-keeper in Stockholm a little over twenty years ago.

Henry Irving recently made a valuable "find" of stage properties in the little town of Holsworthy in Cornwall. An old villager named Fry died at the age of 90 and left behind a collection of old silks and brocades and hats of various kinds and dates all of which Mr. Irving secured.

The late Gideon Wells, the cattle king of Maine, is said to have paid to the farmers of that state in his long reign of business more than $50,000,000 for live stock, hay and wool.

Mrs. Lease is described as peppery. We all know that other distinguished Kansan whom that adjective fits so perfectly. It must be in the Kansas climate.

It is feared that the careless way in which Venezuela is being left out of doors nights without protection is blunting Great Britain's sense of the rights of property.

Col. Sidney Dell submitted to an interview at Omaha, which is published in the Bee of the 5th. From this we learn that his mission is to look after the interest of his clients in relation to Astoria water frontage, for argument before the United States supreme court October 17th.

The third biennial report of the railway commission to the Oregon assembly, will treat upon a very long list of complaints from the people. Commissioner Colvig says: "My colleagues on the commission, Messrs. Hamilton and Clow, have just completed an inspection trip over the Oregonian line from Woodburn to Coburg, and we will continue the inspection of all the lines as soon as the railroad companies are ready."

The opening of the Siletz Indian reservation will turn over 150,000 acres of fine land to settlement. The commissioners are now negotiating with the Indians and will soon report the terms upon which the lands will be ceded by them to the government.

Senator Mitchell arrived in Portland on Saturday. To an Oregonian interviewer Senator Mitchell said, of New York: "The republicans are united, and are confident of carrying that state, while it is a matter of very great doubt as to whether there is any degree of unity in the democratic party of New York."

Gen. Weaver spoke in Pulaski, Tenn., Saturday to 175 people. The mobbing advertised to come off didn't occur because there were so few people present.

Stock Holders Meeting. The regular annual meeting of the stock holders of THE CHRONICLE Publishing Company will be held in the hall over THE CHRONICLE office at 8 p. m., October 14th, 1892.

Too Much of a Risk. It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hang on all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold.

FARM FOR SALE.

I offer for sale all or a part of my farm of 480 acres in Sec. 24, Tp. 1 south, range 14 east, 15 miles southeast of The Dalles; good improvements, good young five-acre orchard now bearing, plenty of good water for house use and stock; 175 acres in cultivation, good outlet north, east, south or west via county roads.
