THE DALLES, - - - - OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

From the Daily Chronicle, Friday. Messrs. Wilcox and Mackin, of Kent, are in the city. Mr. James Jordan of Dufur, paid us a pleasant call today. Phil Smith, one of The Dalles pioneers, is very ill at the Cosmopolitan.

The Dalles now has a bill poster. A regulation brush and paste artist. The last of the strawberries for this season at The Dalles, came in today. A number of empty cars went up at noon today for an excursion in Idaho tomorrow. Mr. McCorkel is buying wheat at his mill. He turns out a fine quality of flour now.

Judge Blakeley today.

Judge O'Day arrived on the noon train, and will speak democracy at the Court house this evening.

Hon, Ralph Dement was a passenger up today, on a trip to Burns. He is not armed, and has no body guard with him. Judge Bradshaw says that Crossen told him that Morgan said the allegation was false, and that the alligator knew it. The new photo, gallery going up on Second street will be occupied by Mr. J.

Hon. L. L. McArthur and Judge O'Day will address the democracy of Wasco county at The Dalles Court house this evening. It is to be a grand democratic rally, and everybody is invited.

A lot more lots will be sold at public again be so low in The Dalles as it is

At an auction sale of horses up at the East End this afternoon the only bid for a fifty-seven dollar horse was six dollars. As the bidder wanted the auctioneer to throw in a bale of hay the sale was indefinitely postponed.

Very likely that many of the farms in Wasco county now disfigured with the mutilating barb wire as well as other perishable fences will soon give way to the Tuna Hedge, and the change will be a welcome one to everybody.

The gentleman who struck a vein of kaolin, while digging a well, a bluish vein which turned white after exposure to the air; will learn of something to his advantage by addressing this office. We think he resides in Klickitat county.

Jud. S. Fish is credited with driving one of the best single roadsters in the Inland Empire, his favorite horse Sim Reed; but Tom Kelly says Jud can't pass him on the road with his pacer except in one way, thus:

Northern officials claim that the Union is getting business by cutting rates, and the Union replies in kind. It will be remembered that a few weeks ago it was stated that the Northern Pacific was accused by the other roads of carrying five men to Chicago at $30 each. This is almost half of the regular first-class to five men at $29 each.

Dr. Blalock has returned from the dedication of the Columbus fair at Chicago. There were said to be in the one building in which the ceremonies took place 130,000 people, and the chorus of 6,000 voices was one of the most inter-Scotty Donaldson a sick man from the esting features of the ceremonial. The interior was provided for comfortably by two addresses, one delivered by Mr. Depew and the other by Mr. Watterson, were received with a great deal of enthusiasm, and commented upon as being the best addresses ever delivered before satisfactory feature was that of transportation from the city to the park, which was wholly inadequate, but the management of the exposition claim that will be remedied before the first day of May, when the great exposition will open. Every state in the union was representented there by its officers or place of exhibit, Oregon excepted; and various were the comments upon this because of its being the one rare exception.

In a conversation today Mr. E. Schanno referred to an article in THE CHRONICLE yesterday recounting an incident on the stage road in 1866 between here and Canyon city. The fearful decimation of the ranks of the Oregon democracy is more and more observable every day.

Men who profess to be republicans and who are doing all in their power to defeat Harrison, may be set down as traitors today.

A stud train of two passenger coaches passed through west bound yesterday, being the Spokane edition of the 3 a. m. train belated for connection. The steamer Regulator towed the sun-

The republicans of the state of Washington have every reason to feel satisfied and more than satisfied with the political outlook. Their party has been gaining ground rapidly for the past two weeks and is still gaining, and is now in excellent fighting condition. Unless all signs fail it will win.
