THE DALLES, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

From the Daily Chronicle, Friday.

C. P. Balch of Dufar is in the city. W. M. Barnett, the Wasco banker, is in the city.

Hay creek gave 25 majority for Harrison. Hay creek has wool to sell.

Van Horn is again in the city to the delight of ladies having pianos to tune.

If you want a safe moved quickly employ Charley Fouts and Frank Egan.

There are two prohibitionist in Wamic; the next election there will be 202.

J. C. Lucky, of the Warm Springs agency, passed through for Portland last night.

The Lewiston Teller and the Oregonian are still discussing the price of wire nails.

H. E. Hayes, the Alliance state lecturer of Salem, an old time tillicum, is in the city.

Wamic gave Cleveland three majority. Don't forget Wamic when the state is made up.

Wasco county has as good an article of fire clay as can be found in Germany, but we didn't know it till the German clay arrived.

Joe Holliday is the Inland Empire horse man's friend. He is the only man living who pulls a street car with mule power.

Goldendale, Wasco and Centerville lodges K. of P., will pay the fraternity of The Dalles an official visit sometime this month.

Prineville gave forty-eight majority for Cleveland. Prineville has a candidate for every office in the gift of the president.

By request Rev. W. C. Curtis has withdrawn his resignation and will remain as pastor of the first Congregational church of The Dalles.

Judd S. Fish has invested in a thoroughbred 2-year old Ingraham colt, nearly related to Oro Fino, winner of the 22 race at Spokane. He purchased the colt of Dick Hinton.

The heavy safes in Thornbury & Hudson's and the United States land offices were removed yesterday after the fashion of Bowser taking a trunk down stairs, only Bowser wasn't present.

T. J. Driver was in the city last night with three car loads of beef cattle which he sold to Butler. If Butler don't look out he will clean the Inland Empire out of all its available fat stock.

Have you seen Hubbards latest picture? His work for educating people up to a sense of the situation respecting an open Columbia river cannot be eclipsed by all the Blanchards in congress.

John Dolan and C. O. Blakely, of East Portland, offer a reward for Burdett Wolfe, but the way in which the Oregonian prints the figures one is unable to say whether the sum is $2150 or $21.50.

Judge W. Lair Hill, now in this city, says people may be misled by a item in THE CHRONICLE yesterday. Mrs. Hill will make her home in California, but he still clings to webfoot and hails from Seattle.

A report has reached Klamath of the death of Peter French, cattle king of Oregon, at Stein mountain. His ranch in Harney valley is seventy miles long and thirty-five wide, worth $2 million and a half. He was very much disliked; and leaves no family.

N. H. Biggs, in whose honor the lively station was named, is at The Umatilla House. He proposes that Cleveland call a special session of congress as soon as he is inaugurated, to furnish the country with "free trade blessings" immediately. Biggs is all right.

If you know of a news item give it to THE CHRONICLE reporter. If you have relatives or friends visiting you let us know it and it will add interest to our local columns. Notices of marriages, births and deaths are published free of charge. Send them in promptly.

Mr. Linus Hubbard of this city, is one of the few constant democrats, from principle alone, presiding in the Inland Empire, hence we rejoice with him in his appreciative reception of a full pledged rooster yesterday which is to ornament his library in the future.

Campbell Bros. of the Columbia Candy Factory have made arrangements with Geo. Ruch proprietor of the Pioneer Bakery to handle bread, cakes, etc., the product of that popular bakery. They can assure their customers that these goods will always be fresh and of the very best quality.

Some really fine horses have been added to the stalls on the fair grounds this week for training. One of these is a two-year-old stallion owned by Frank Button of Hood River, who traces his almost blood back to some 2-03 pacers. S. B. Adams has also placed a fine Blacksmith colt in the hands of Welch, which weight 1,100 pounds, and is as fine as silk.

Arrangements for the chrysanthemum festival, and high tea, to be given Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 16th and 17th, in the Baldwin buildings opposite the Umatilla house, are now completed. The flower room will be open from one o'clock till 10 p. m. where a magnificent display of choicest chrysanthemums can be seen for 25 cents. The price of the high tea, at which will be served every substantial edible as well as all the delicacies of the season, has been fixed at 50 cents. Families of four or more taking high tea, will be admitted to the flower display free of charge. The tea room containing the chocolate and ice cream booths will be open at 5 o'clock to which there will be no charge of admission.

From the Daily Chronicle Saturday.

The roads are very dusty today.

Hon. W. H. H. Dufar was in the city today.

Free babies tomorrow at Herrin's gallery near postoffice.

Circuit court will begin the fall term in The Dalles next Monday.

Hood River Odd Fellows are to have a masquerade ball Thursday night.

The Hood River water supply company are to elect officers this afternoon.

Charley Bascomb has returned to The Dalles, arriving here this morning. party last evening.

Wheat hauling has been at its height this week, but farmers in this vicinity say it is nearly all in now.

The Glacier says M. P. Isenberg publicly worked for the democratic ticket election day. He was in luck.

The first social hop of the season was given by the Young gentlemen's club. It was a very pleasant and successful affair.

A horse kicked a lantern over in the Odell barn near Hood River Wednesday evening, and destroyed the barn and contents. Loss $750.

Old Boreas kicked up the dust in good shape today, and to add to his glory, whipped the river until it was a young ocean, in billows and spray. The steam ferry boat rocked like a cradle on the deep, in its crossings.

The best copying press in use is a clothes wringer. It got its start in the Western Union telegraph company's offices a few years ago, and is now used all over the world. They are sometimes put up in fine shape, cased, and are then called the rapid roller copier.

A man giving the name of O. E. Jones, was arrested by Deputy United States Marshal Jameson this morning for selling liquor to an Indian, and upon searching him in the county jail he was found to be in possession of $4,300. About $200 in gold, $700 in currency, and the balance in certificates on the Harney county bank.

The Woodmen and Workmen, at a meeting held last night, tendered a vote of thanks to the members of the congregational choir, the Gesang Verein Harmonie, Miss Daisy Allaway, Rev. W. C. Curtis, and those ladies who aided in decorating the hall; also the members of the two orders for their efforts in making the dedication such a successful event.

Last evening as two sons of Mrs. A. B. Moore of 3-Mile were going home from school on a horse a dog frightened the horse and the boys were thrown to the ground. One of them, Johnny, was terribly hurt from a kick in the face by the horse. The bones of one cheek were crushed, and he may lose an eye. Dr. Rinehart was sent for and dressed the sufferer's wounds.

The choir of the M. E. church are engaged in practicing the music to accompany the impersonations of Miss Stannus at the M. E. church Tuesday evening, Nov. 15th. The music is by Schubert and others, and is very beautiful as well as difficult. During the cathedral scene from Marguerite and the Last Days of Pompeii a concealed choir will add greatly to the effectiveness. Those who prefer humor, however, will not be disappointed, as Miss Stannus is first class in dialect and high comedy and can easily set the house in a roar by her make-up and facial expression.

If all of the parties given by the young men's club this winter are as much of a success as the one last evening proved to be, our young people may congratulate themselves that at least one evening of the week may be most pleasantly spent. The young men are determined to make Friday the evening of the week, and the following persons who enjoyed this occasion feel assured that they are succeeding admirably: Senator and Mrs. Hilton, Mr. and Mrs. Crowe, Dr. and Mrs. Snedaker, Judge and Mrs. Bradshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Schenck, Mr. and Mrs. Garretson, Mr. and Mrs. Ahola, Mrs. French, Mrs. Ryan, Misses Jessie Lowne, Jeannette and Annie Williams, Aimee Newman, Ione Ruch, Virginia and Grace Marden, Etta Story, Lulu Bird, Matilda Hollister, Messrs. S. Campbell, F. Faulkner, J. Hampshire, J. Booth, W. Montague, F. Garretson, H. French, E. Williams, H. Lonsdale, H. Riddell, F. Montgomery, L. Joslyn, B. Estabrook, M. Donnell, J. Weigle, J. Byrne. The music was furnished by Messrs. Gottfried, Benton, Burchstorf and Paulsen, with Miss Alma Schmidt at the piano, and was excellent.

A score or more of the friends of Miss Pauline Buchler, met at the residence of her father last evening and passed a few hours very happily together, the occasion being the anniversary of the young ladies birth.

On Tuesday next Capt. John McNulty will take a needed vacation and Capt. Sherman, first officer of the steamer Dalles City, will go on as master of the kegnlator. Capt. McNulty has earned a vacation and wherever his lot may be cast he will carry with him the best wishes of a host of friends and acquaintances, formed during the many years he has so safely piloted them up and down the Columbia. Capt. Sherman is a young man, but has had considerable experience in steambating, and brings with him a most excellent reputation for skillfulness in handling a steamer, and painstaking efforts to please the public.

The admission to the chrysanthemum festival, to be given next Wednesday and Thursday will be twenty-five cents, and the holder of a ticket may enter any number of times on the date printed on that ticket, which will not be transferable. Families of four or more taking supper will be admitted to the display of flowers free of charge, and those not wishing to partake of the substantial and elaborate high tea, will find ice cream and chocolate booths, where light refreshments will be served. The chrysanthemum room opens at one o'clock in the afternoon and the high tea at five. The display of cut flowers and floral pieces will far exceed anything ever given in our city, and a full attendance should reward the ladies of the guild for their untiring efforts.

From the Daily Chronicle, Monday.

A. W. Brenner of Nansene, is at The Umatilla.

Hon. J. H. Mosier and wife of Mosier, are at The Umatilla.

Miss Rosa Stannus arrived in the city last night, and is at The Umatilla.

Mr. Ray Green has returned from Portland, and will winter in The Dalles.

W. H. Odell has returned to his 10-Mile ranch from a visit to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hinton, Mrs. Bird and Miss Lulu Bird, left for California yesterday.

Fresh bread of the Geo. Ruche bakery, for sale at the Columbia Candy factory. Campbell Bros., daily.

Mr. Houghton left for Portland this morning without an umbrella. He expects to return this evening.

The King's Daughters will hold the regular meeting tomorrow at the residence of Mrs. Harris, at two o'clock p. m.

Tickets on sale, and seats reserved, for the Miss Rosa Stannus' entertainment tomorrow night, at Snipes & Kinnersly's.

Dr. Logan's son Ray, who has been on a visit to his father in The Dalles, returned to Bishop Scott Grammar school today.

The latest fad is the miniature magic pocket camera. Photos taken instantly Jacobsen & Co., have them, and they go off like hot cakes at a bakery.

Hon. A. S. Macallister and family left The Dalles today for their farm near Contention, in Crook county. Mr. Macallister expects to return in January.

Tim Mayhew, a subject of Queen Victoria, today renounced his allegiance to Britain, and was admitted to citizenship in the United States through the courts of Wasco.

Messrs. Dicken Bros., of Kentucky, who are here for the benefit of their health, have formed a very favorable impression of The Dalles as a point for bona fide business in the near future.

The common council held a special meeting Saturday evening to expedite committee reports on taxes, etc. No business was transacted, and the board adjourned to meet on the 18th, Friday evening next.

There is a lot of worthless curs and dogs in The Dalles which are becoming a public nuisance. Unless they can afford a corporation collar, with a tag number, they should be sent to the happy hunting grounds.

The train which arrived at 11:40 last night from Portland came in with a whirl of the storm behind it. Conductor said it had been that way all the trip up. The rainfall here during the night was twenty-six hundredths of an inch.

Master Garfield Moore, the little ten-year-old son of Mrs. Moore who was so shockingly injured by the kick of a horse last week, is resting as easy as could be expected for one so badly hurt, and may pull through all right as he is of robust constitution, but will undoubtedly be disfigured for life.

Billy Corson told a lady friend this afternoon that he intended to add a hardware store and wood yard to his present business right away. Any one can readily see from this that Corson is jealous of Maier & Benton, who have taken two new partners within about a month past.

Mr. D. E. Hall of Walla Walla, made a bet of a champagne supper, with Judge Bennett today, that four months after Cleveland takes his seat as president, a large majority of the manufacturing establishments of the United States will close up. Tom Kelly took "a slice of this," also. The Judge will have to pay this bet, sure as the 4th of July is celebrated.

Those of our exchanges who reported Peter French, the millionaire cattle man of Harney as having died without leaving heirs, make a mistake. He was married to a daughter of Dr. Glenn, the extensive ranchman of California, who was murdered by an employe, by whom he had three children. Mrs. French was a relative of Geo. W. Barnes, esq., the Prineville attorney now attending the Wasco Circuit court.

The funeral of Mr. Joseph Beezley took place yesterday from the family residence, Rev. Mr. Wisler and Rev. Wm. Michell officiating. The funeral was largely attended, and the good old gentleman was finally laid to rest in Masonic cemetery by the fraternity of which he has been so long a member, and a great number of sympathizing friends. His family requests THE CHRONICLE to tender their heartfelt thanks to the kind friends and neighbors who so long and patiently contributed to his comfort in the lingering hours of his great distress.

Admission to the chrysanthemum festival, for Wednesday and Thursday, will be 25 cents. No entrance fee will be charged for the high tea room, and families of four or more taking supper will be given free admission to the flower display. The price of supper will be 50 cents and a good substantial one will be served. Premiums for the finest display of chrysanthemums, for the largest exhibit, and for the best five specimens, will be offered; and those having flowers are cordially invited to compete. The festival opens at one o'clock on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons.

The Circuit court for Wasco county, Judge Bradshaw presiding, met in this city at 9 o'clock this morning. The following grand jurors were drawn for the term: James La Duc, foreman; Frank Lieblein; C. H. Stranahan; Leon Rondeau; D. P. Crabtree; W. W. Rawson and J. W. Ingles. J. W. Blakney was appointed grand jury bailiff.

The bailiffs appointed for the term are J. H. Jackson and George Herbert.

The court calendar was called off, and the first case set for trial, for which a jury was empaneled this afternoon, was that of Roberts v. McCain.

Maz of Mirrors a New Fad.

The magic maze, a maze of mirrors, is the latest novelty at the horticultural exhibit in London. The visitor enters the maze by a crooked passage, walled entirely by mirrors, into the central hall, toward which a number of seemingly endless avenues appear to converge. Reproductions of the visitor are presented at every imaginable point and angle. A figure stands at the entrance to the hall, beckons with uplifted hand, and the reproductions show the figure in a hundred different places at once. The bewildered visitors walk about in a cautious, half-scared way, running into their own reflections and looking with distrust on every one who approaches, unable to tell substance from shadow. The space occupied by the maze is only forty by thirty feet, but the arrangement of mirrors gives it the appearance of being acres in extent.

Advertised Letters.

Following is the list of letters remaining in the postoffice at The Dalles uncalled for, Friday Nov. 11th, 1892. Persons calling for same will give date on which they were advertised:

Anderson Miss M P Baker C F	Bentley Ira	Bochan H E	Chapman John	Elkins M C	Foster Squire	Green J M	Holman F Dellard	Lyon Mrs H B (3)	Moyer Rev R D	Smith Dr Leon	Smith Leon

Another Crater Lake.

A large lake situated in the Olympic mountains, at an altitude of 5,000 feet, was recently discovered by two hunters, who describe it as in all probability the crater of some extinct volcano, and the lake was christened Crater lake in consequence. It was about two miles in length by half a mile in breadth, with depth unknown, as the cliff descends perpendicularly into the water on all sides, while a huge glacier runs into the southern end. A small stream forms the outlet, which is one of the tributaries of the Duckabush.

Oregon's Railroad Commission.

Salem Statesman. There is room for the railroad commission to earn its salary, but it can't do it riding around in palace cars, with two nigger cooks and a case of champagne on tap. The state pays a good sized sum for this luxury, and it, with a lot of other commissions, should be made to do something useful or be suspended from the pay-rolls indefinitely.

Unfortunate Henry Slade.

A Sioux City, Iowa, dispatch says that Dr. Henry A. Slade, the spiritualist, whose career in London and subsequent trial for fraud created a sensation fourteen years ago, and who in late years has been the leading medium of Paris, was taken to a sanatorium hospital in that city, suffering from nervous prostration bordering on insanity, without money and utterly friendless, last Saturday.

Gone to California.

Deacon Roberts, long and favorably known in The Dalles, a sufferer from rheumatism for the past year and a half, started to Paso de Robles springs in California this morning, accompanied by Mrs. R., and two sons, in hope that the trip may be the means of doing him some good, although it must be considered doubtful. The old gentleman was carried to the train on a stretcher and was fixed comfortably in the baggage car. Mr. Roberts has long been connected with the ministry in the Congregational church. He was an early missionary to the Sandwich Islands, from Boston, and one of the most scholarly men in the missionary service, being a graduate of Andover.

No Ground for Complaint.

We understand that several of our people, delayed giving their orders until this week, and now find their orders will not be accepted at headquarters as the offer for Oregon City has been withdrawn. Some of these are now denouncing the Oregonian for thus cutting off their order before all had an opportunity of taking advantage of it. Of course it is a great disappointment to find themselves a day too late, but we are of the opinion that in this matter there is no ground for complaint against the Oregonian as they were certainly explicit enough in announcing the expiration of their offer, and those who delayed availing themselves of the opportunity, have only themselves to blame for their disappointment.—Oregon City Enterprise.

NOTICE

To Settlers Under the 3rd Sec. Act, September 29, 1890.

Department of the Interior, General Land Office, Washington, D.C., September 30, 1892.

Register and Receiver, The Dalles Oregon—Sirs: Referring to office instructions of February 3, 1891, issued under the forfeiture act of Sept. 29, 1890, and of March 5, 1891, issued under the act of February 18, 1891, which so amended the act of 1890 as to cause the time, within which claimants thereunder were required to properly present their claims, to run from the date of the promulgation of the instructions for the restoration by this office, I have now to advise you that Congress, by act approved June 25, 1892, amended section 3 of the act of September 29, 1890, so as to extend the time, within which persons actually residing upon the lands claimed by them might present their claims, to three years from the passage of said act of 1890.

This latter amendment relates only to claimants under section three, of the act of 1890, who actually reside upon the forfeited lands, and the Secretary of the Interior, on September 16, 1892, decided that as to such claimants the time was extended to September 29, 1893, the act of February 18, 1891, in so far as it related to them, having been repealed by the act of June 25, 1892, by implication. The instructions of March 5, 1891, (supra) will govern you in the cases of all other claimants under said act.

Very Respectfully,

(Signed) W. M. Stone, Acting Commissioner.

 Dr. Miles' Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
 Gentlemen: I take pleasure in informing you of the very beneficial results which have followed the use of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine in the case of myself and wife. For a year I was subject to a distressing pain at the base of the brain and upper portion of the spinal cord. I was troubled with sleeplessness. Your Nervine was highly recommended to me. My case had been so obstinate that I had no confidence in the efficacy of any medicine. Yet as a last resort I consented to give it a trial. Much to my surprise, I experienced marked benefit; my sleeplessness disappeared; my headache was removed; my spirits and general health greatly improved.
THOUSANDS
 GAINED TWENTY POUNDS. ALL THIS OCCURRED AFTER TAKING TWO BOTTLES OF DR. MILES' RESTORATIVE NERVINE. My wife is taking the Nervine with the best of results. LOUIS D. VANDERVEER.
