

CATHOLIC CONCLAVE.

Archbishops of The United States in Annual Council.

THE GATHERING IN NEW YORK CITY.

The Great Questions in The Church Which Will be Discussed.

CARDINAL GIBBONS TO PRESIDE.

Most Rev. W. H. Gross, Archbishop of Oregon, Present—Secret Society Problem.

Special to THE CHRONICLE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Fourteen archbishops will be entitled to seats in this week's annual gathering and only one of these will not represent a diocese of the United States. This is Monsignor Satolli, Archbishop of Lepanto. There are questions of momentous importance coming up for discussion, and the first will be the school question, which has now for over a year divided the clergy and laity into bitter factions. Archbishop Ireland has fought the battle of the liberal element and he is said to have on his side the faculty of the Washington university, and even Cardinal Gibbons. Archbishop Corrigan may be said to lead the opposing faction, and as the partial decision of the Roman pontiff has been inclined in his favor, the compromise which he will offer at this conference will probably be accepted. A decision of the Pope would itself naturally be final, but the missive sent by him on the question had in it the words "tolerare potens" and on the translation of this phrase hangs the present contest. Archbishop Corrigan believes that the Pope favors simply the toleration of what the church regards as an evil, the interference of the state in parochial schools, while Archbishop Ireland calls it toleration in the wide sense of the word. Archbishop Corrigan stands, bitterly opposed to state aid for parochial schools, and to state selection of teachers, and hopes for a compromise which will accept state aid simply for the non-sectarian work of the schools and will in no way allow the state a voice in the selection of teachers.

But there are other questions of importance to come up. One of these is the final disposition of the vexed secret society problem. The result will probably be that the Sons of Temperance and Odd Fellows will be classed under the head of "Secret Societies under the ban of the church."

The question of the establishment of a consistory for the settlement of minor disputes arising between clergy and bishop will be discussed, although no decision is looked for on this question. The Pacific coast will be represented by Most Rev. W. H. Gross, archbishop of Oregon City, and most Rev. P. W. Riordan, archbishop of San Francisco. Archbishop Kenrick will probably be absent, as he is very old; and last year's conference, the first after the Centennial at Baltimore, was held in St. Louis in deference to that aged prelate.

A Generous Action.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—A Paris dispatch says that the United States of Colombia has extended the time of the Panama canal concession a year, and urges the French government to abandon the idea of prosecuting the directors of the canal company. This extension is regarded as a gracious act on the part of the Colombian government, considering that within a few months the vast work already done could have lapsed into Colombia's hands. H. Hilliard is now placed in a position to raise the 180,000,000 francs estimated necessary for the completion of the canal, as doubtless a further extension of time can be obtained if the Colombian government should be convinced that an earnest effort is to be made toward a continuance of the work.

Would Not Have It.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—It has been reported in political circles that President-elect Cleveland would offer to William Steinway the post of minister to Germany, as a reward for his services in the campaign, and that the offer would be accepted. When called on, Mr. Steinway yesterday said: "Not a word has passed between Mr. Cleveland myself as to my taking office. It is unnecessary. There is no political office in existence with which I could or would be burdened."

Chasing After Outlaws.

MERIDIAN, Miss., Nov. 15.—The remains of Dave Tolbert, father of the Kemper county terrorists, has been found in a brush heap a mile from where he was taken from the sheriff's posse a week ago. It was surmised he had been lynched, but the body could not be found at the time. Tom and Walter Tolbert, the hunted outlaws, were seen twelve miles from here yesterday, and a chase after them with bloodhounds was begun, but they managed to escape.

DENTISTRY IN THE DALLES.

Partial Description of the Skillful Work of Dr. G. E. Sanders.

Dr. G. E. Sanders, successor to Dr. Tucker, located over French's bank, is prepared to make artificial teeth upon gold, silver, cast flowed or swaged aluminum or rubber plates, Chase's method of combining gold with rubber, which lessens the expense and gives the good qualities of the gold plate; also continuous gum-work, which is the highest type of artificial teeth. Dr. Sanders has had eight years' experience in crown and bridge work in two of the largest cities of Michigan, hence is prepared to employ the best and latest methods of introducing substitutes for the lost teeth. He is also prepared to do porcelain inlaying and all kinds of crown work, and comes to The Dalles with sixteen years of experience with anesthetics and has provided himself with one of Dr. Long's celebrated gas apparatuses, for the purpose of administering nitrous oxide, mono oxide gas, chemically known as N^o O, which is sometimes called by other names to mislead and deceive the public. For long and difficult operations he is prepared to give Hays, hypnotic, ether, chloroform or the application of cocaine, if desired by the patient. The above anesthetics are employed according to the condition of the patient and the time required to perform the operation. During an hour with Dr. Sanders we were shown models of mouths operated upon by him, illustrating the correction of irregular teeth, both before and after treatment, which speak well for the methods employed by him in this class of work. In fact, he is prepared to do anything from the extraction of a tooth to the making of an artificial palate, or velum, to the setting of a broken jaw, and retaining the parts by means of dental splints.

Dr. Sanders has one of the best equipped dental offices on the coast, and this, together with the fact that he is a graduate from the best dental college in the United States, and what we have seen of his work since he came to The Dalles, bespeaks for him a successful future among us.

TOPEKA, Nov. 15.—Gov. H. Lowery, speaking of probable legislation on the interest question, said in an interview to-day: "There can be no doubt that interest rates have been too high when we consider that the total increase of wealth in the United States since the beginning of the government has not exceeded thirteen per cent. per annum. I think it will be very evident to the legislature that we cannot pay 8, 10 and 12 per cent per annum without committing business and commercial suicide. The urgent demand for and increase of currency comes largely from the desire for a lower rate of interest. Gov. Lowery was under the impression, when he made the statement, that the populists had both branches of the legislature. It is thought the republican house and the populist senate will exhibit the antagonism toward each other that the republican senate and populist house did two years ago, and block legislation.

National Farmers' Alliance.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 16.—A meeting of the National Farmers Alliance and Industrial Union was opened here yesterday. Among the questions to come up will be an attempt to change the national headquarters from Washington to some other point, on the ground of economy. Probably the most important matter to come up will be an attempt to amalgamate the three orders which have representatives here. It has been tried before and failed, but prominent members of all these organizations think now the scheme will go through, and that finally there will be an amalgamation of all the farmers and laborers' unions in the country. The convention will get at the election of officers today. As there is an unwritten law of the organization that a man shall not seek office, there are no candidates.

The Regular Chestnut.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—A special from Fresno says it is reported here that Evans and Sontag have escaped from the United States, and have been traced to London, England. Whether there is any truth in the report or not cannot be stated. Visitors from the mountains say that the belief is prevalent there that Evans and Sontag left that place early in October, about the time the dynamite was found in the old slaughter-house near Fresno. It is said that Evans took the train at Mojave as a miner, and Sontag at Truckee, disguised as a preacher. They met in Baltimore, sailed for Liverpool, and were from there traced to London. A portion of this information was learned from an officer who has been engaged in the pursuit, and a portion from people from the mountains.

The Weave not, Neither do They Spin.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Rochdale mill-owners have decided to put their employes on short time. The decision affects 1,250,000 spindles. Mill-owners of North and Northeast Lancashire have joined the half-time movement.

Thompson Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Among other appointments by the president yesterday was the name of Hon. David P. Thompson, of Oregon, United States minister to Turkey.

HARVARD PLAYS YALE

The Battle in Springfield Today Expected to be Warm.

HAMPDEN PARK WILL BE FILLED.

Chances Fairly Even, Although Yale Feels Extremely Confident.

HOPE OF ANOTHER CORMACK YEAR

Fifty Thousand People Expected to be Present—Town Full of College Men.

Special to THE CHRONICLE.]

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 19.—Once only in seventeen years Harvard has beaten Yale in the great annual contest at football. That single time, in 1890, is known as the Cormack year, for it was Cormack, Harvard's greatest player, to whose work victory was due. The town is filled with the usual thousands of college men graduates, professors and a great array of pretty women, who as a rule, take as deep an interest in these games as their brothers and sweethearts. Yale at the beginning of the season had but little hope of putting a strong eleven into the field. Heflinger, McClung, Morrison and Barban of last year's great team had graduated, and in fact McCormack, Bliss and Hinkley seemed to comprise the only good material on hand. But Camp, Heflinger, Wallace, Howard, Knapp, and a dozen others as famous have come to the rescue and have done some remarkable coaching. The result is that Yale has an eleven which to Yale critics and to many outside the pale of the influence of that college seems invincible. Among the players who will face Harvard this afternoon, the most prominent are McCormack, Cap. Hinkley, Wallis, Winter, and two Bliss boys, Butterworth, a son of Congressman Butterworth of Ohio, Norton, Sanford, Adee and Hickox.

Capt. Berne Trafford, of Harvard, is not so confident today as earlier in the season. The game with Cornell, in which Harvard barely won, is one cause for the general lack of spirit, but many of the weak points have been strengthened and much is expected of Brewer, Lake and Lee, all splendid players. Corbett, Gage, Upter, Walters, Lewis, Blake, Collamore, Foster and Capt. Trafford himself are probably all certain to be in the field today. Many Princeton men are in town and will watch Yale's game with especial care, as it will contest for championship with the Blue at Manhattan field, on Thanksgiving day. Hampden park has been much improved since last year. Instead of the 4,500 additional seats ranged on each side, room has been made for 7,500 spectators at each end, in addition to the regular accommodations.

MARKET REVIEW.

Summary of Trade and Business for the Current Week.

THE DALLES, Nov. 17.—There has been a slight falling off in business during the past week, on account of the late stormy weather, which has visited this section. The farming classes have improved the favorable time with the plow and seeder, and are rushing their work with a vengeance.

In merchandise lines there have not been any changes in prices to note. Staple groceries are moving more rapidly, and former quotations are maintained.

In produce, the market is steady, and in some things prices are firmer with an upward tendency. Eggs are scarce at 30 cents per dozen cash. Gilt-edge butter is in fair supply, as is packed. Prices are steady at former quotations.

The poultry market is unsteady, prices range from $2 to $3.50 per dozen; extra fine sell at $3 to $3.50 per dozen; inferior from $2 to $3. There is no change in our last week's quotations on turkeys, ducks or geese. The market is not as well supplied with these fowls this season as last, and unless there should be more brought into the city soon, prices will advance.

Potatoes are more freely offered at the following quotations, ordinary qualities are quoted at $1.25 per 100 lbs, while extra good find ready sale at $1.35 to $1.40 per 100 lbs, with a limited offering.

The foreign wheat market is dull, weaker, and options lower, on Liverpool spot. Public cables report Walla Walla, prompt shipment, at 31s 5d, to 31s 6d, per qrs. on an easy market.

The exports of wheat into the United Kingdom for the past week are 360,000 qrs. and 251,000 barrels of flour. The quantity afloat for Europe has increased 150,000 qrs. during the week, and the weekly exports from the Atlantic ports as telegraphed yesterday, is 1,737,000 bushels of wheat and 204,000 barrels of flour, Chicago and New York markets are dull and weak.

Our Western markets are inactive and weak. San Francisco market quotes a slight change for the better, today, she names $1.33 1/2 to $1.33 3/4 per cental.

Portland has a weaker tone to-day, through the influence of foreign advices.

Extreme quotations by shippers are $1.12 per ctn. for Walla Walla, and $1.20 per ctn. for valley. The Dalles market is steady. Buyers offer 60 to 62 cents per bushel for No. 1, and 50 to 55 cents for Nos. 2 and 3. At the Regulator wharf 62 cents per bushel is paid for No. 1 choice.

BARLEY—The market is nearly lifeless in barley, prices are down to 70 and 75 cents per 100 lbs.

OATS—The oat market is stiff and offerings are light at $1 25 cents per 100 lbs. Rye 75 cents per bushel.

MILLS—Bran and shorts are quoted at $18 00 per ton, middlings $22 50 to $23 00 per ton. Rolled barley, $23 00 to $24 00 per ton. Shelled corn $1 25 per 100 lbs.

FLOUR—Salem mill flour is quoted at $5 50 per barrel. Diamond brand at $3 90 per bbl. per ton and $4 00 per bbl. retail.

HAY—Timothy hay ranges in price from $12 00 to $15 00 per ton, according to quality and condition. Wheat hay is in full stock on a limited demand at $10 00 to $12 00 per ton. There is no inquiry for oat hay, and prices are off. Alfalfa hay is not much called for, and is quoted at $10 00 to $12 00 per ton. These quotations are for baled hay exclusively.

BUTTER—Fresh roll butter is in fair supply at 50 to 55 cents per roll, in brine or dry salt we quote 40 to 45 cents per roll.

EGGS—The egg market is short in supply and good fresh eggs find ready sale at 30 cents per dozen cash.

POULTRY—There is a fair demand for fowls for a home market and for shipment to Portland. Chickens are quoted at $2 00 to $3 50 per dozen; turkeys 8 to 10 cents per lb; geese $7 to $8 per doz, and ducks $3 to $5 per dozen.

BEEF & MUTTON—Beef cattle is in moderate demand at $1 75 per 100 weight gross to $2 25 for extra good. Mutton is held at an advance of last years prices and is quoted at $3 50 to $5 00 per head. Pork offerings are light and prices are nominal at 4 to 4 1/2 gross weight and 5 cents dressed.

FOR A ROAD DEPARTMENT.

The Subject of Good Roads is now Properly Before the People.

On sending his blank petitions to THE CHRONICLE for signatures Albert A. Pope of Boston knew where they would meet with responsive action "and do the most good." When filled out with the names of American citizens the sheets are to be returned to him, he presses the button, and congress will do the rest. Copies of the petition may be signed at this office, the Utamilla house, and at the office of Linus Hubbard. They clearly represent that the times are ripe for the organization of a Road Department at Washington, similar to the Agricultural Department, "for the purpose of promoting knowledge in the art of constructing and maintaining roads," and for teaching students so that they may become skilled road engineers. We feel that Wasco county has at least one skilled road builder in the person of T. J. Driver; but the time has come when "no one individual can educate the world," and we favor the plan of letting the next congress set up this road bureau, and by means of its efficiency do away with any future bad roads in these United States. In his letter to THE CHRONICLE Mr. Pope says: "Permit me to invite your attention to the enclosed copy of a petition which I have sent to college presidents, railroad presidents, postmasters, and others, with the request that they sign it, and also aid in getting others to sign. The time has now come when the people are thoroughly aroused to the importance of improving the highways. Let us all together endeavor to do something practical to secure better roads. The establishment of a road department, an institute of road engineering, and a permanent road exhibit in the city of Washington; and a comprehensive exhibit of road construction and maintenance at the Chicago exposition would accomplish much in the way of practical results. This is a subject of both local and national interest. Will you not earnestly request all to favorably consider this petition, advise people to sign it, and suggest that superintendents of factories, proprietors of hotels, merchants, and others place these petitions in their establishments so that they may be generally signed? Copies of this petition will be sent to any person interested in the subject. I wish to secure editorial comments to print in a memorial to congress that will be presented with the petition. If you publish anything, will you kindly send me a marked copy."

Peaceful Revolutions.

This is a wonderful country, says Father Patrick Cronin, in the Buffalo Catholic Union and Times. In a single day all the offices and emoluments of government are transferred from one party to another and the leaders of both sides promptly accept the result as the inevitable decree of the people. How different in other lands. Hardly a day passes but we hear of bloody outbreaks and civil tumult in foreign governments, and every presidential election held in any of the South American republics is the signal for revolution or rebellion. Here the defeated candidate for president will escort his successful rival to the inauguration stand, and the whole people, irrespective of party, will greet with tokens of enthusiasm and respect the next Chief Magistrate of the American Republic.

The Fence of the Future.

There are a number of strong points in favor of the Tuna Hedge as the fence of the future, the advantage of this kind of a fence may be briefly enumerated as follows: It becomes a perfect barrier against all kinds of domestic animals after three years growth; does not sap or impoverish the ground, being a strictly atmospheric plant, and will not grow from the seed or by cutting the roots hence will not spread, it grows only to a certain uniform height; and therefore does not require trimming, it has been thoroughly and successfully tested in northern climates and does not kill out in the winter time, it serves the double purpose of usefulness and ornamentation, as it is an evergreen and blooms during three months of the year, an invitation is extended to thoroughly test its merits, and every one will be convinced that it possesses all the advantages claimed for it. Messrs. Johnson & Payne are now taking orders for the Tuna Hedge and have met with uniform success. Any one wishing a living growing fence something that will not spread and will be a fence for all time to come should give their orders now and get their fence started this fall.

A Cure for Cholera.

There is no use of any one suffering with the cholera when Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy can be procured. It will give relief in a few minutes and cure in a short time. I have tried it and know.—W. H. Clinton, Helmetta, N. J. The epidemic at Helmetta was at first believed to be cholera, but subsequent investigation proved it to be a violent form of dysentery, almost as dangerous as cholera. This remedy was used there with great success. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

Married. In St. Peter's Catholic church in this city by Rev. Father Brongest, Mr. Henry J. Maier and Miss Josephine A. Schanno, all of this city.

The happy couple take their departure this afternoon on the 4 o'clock train on their bridal tour. They have a host of acquaintances in The Dalles, and other portions of Oregon and the Inland Empire, who will join in wishing them all the pleasures attending a long life of happiness.

It was Ben Johnson, we believe, who, when asked Mallock's question, "Is life worth living?" replied, "That depends on the liver." And Ben Johnson probably saw the double point to the pun. The liver active—quick—life rosy, everything bright, mountains of trouble melt like mountains of snow. The liver sluggish—life dull, everything blue, molehills of worry rise into mountains of anxiety, and as a result—sick headache, dizziness, constipation. Two ways are open. Cure permanently, or relieve temporarily. Take a pill and suffer, or take a pill and get well. Shock the system by an overdose, or coax it by a mild, pleasant way.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the mild means. They work effectively, without pain, and leave the system strong. One, little, sugar-coated pellet is enough, although a whole vial costs but 25 cents.

Testimonial.

To whom it may concern: April last I was thrown from a horse near The Dalles and was seriously injured on my head. I held two policies in the Standard Accident Insurance Co. of Detroit, Michigan, at the time, and if I had waited I should have drawn indemnity for 52 weeks. I needed funds to enable me to visit California for relief of climate and scenes hoping to get better therefrom and last week I compromised my claim with the company and received from C. F. Briggs general manager of Portland full indemnity for 33 weeks being nearly ten months full indemnity and advance payment from the date of settlement of my claim. The honorable treatment received from the Standard prompts me to commend it to my friends and others needing insurance. G. W. INGALLS.
