Judge Blakeley has a petition, accompanied by a letter from Supt. J. H. Misener, asking aid for the Boys and Girls Society of Portland. The approach of winter calls for necessary extras, and as the society cares for boys and girls from all portions of the state, it is no more than right that all parts of the state should contribute. The society now have four children from Wasco county, and Judge Blakeley informs us that there are three more here that should be taken to the home as soon as

The Bergfeld Case.

The following jury was empanneled on Wednesday, to try the case of the state v. Bergfeld. Tim. Mahew, H Egbert, Thos. Harper, J. W. Wallace, Robert Lowe, S. F. Blythe, Charles Cramer, D. W. Holgate. L. E. Ferguson, T. E. Wickens, W. J. Harriman, and John Murphy.

After the jury was impanneled court adjourned until Friday morning at which time the examination of witnesses began on the part of the prosecution.

The following witnesses have been examined today up to the hour of going to press with this edition: Dr. O. C. Hollister, Jos. Nitschke, Jerome Lauer. N. M. Eastwood, A. S. Bennett, Dr. O. D. Doane, Dr. Rinehart, Dr. Logan.

Nothing in the nature of new evidence from that reported in THE CHRONICLE at the time of the preliminary examination has so far been adduced.

The court room is crowded with spec tators, many ladies watching the progress of the trial with interest.

The court room was densely packed ast evening to listen to the testimony in the case of the State v. Wm. Bergfeld. The evidence of Capt. J. H. Fisk, Miss L. V. Hampton and her brother, W. H. Hampton, was completed. The analysis visit. He bears the marks of Indian of the stomach of Mrs. Rogers, submitted at the preliminary examination, was made by Capt. His testimony last evening showed that a large quantity of zinc had been taken into the stomach of deceased, when the proportions of the body and the conditions are considered in connection with the small quantity of the fluid analyzed. It is expert testimony and may perhaps not be sufficiently plain to be clearly understood generally, except as to the particular point that there is evidence in the trace of a considerable quantity having entered the stomach.

The Quickest Way to Cure a Cold.

Do you wish to know the quickest way to cure a cold? We will tell you. To cure a cold quickly, it must be treated before the cold has become settled in the system. The first symptoms of a cold is a dry, loud cough and sneezing. The cough is soon followed by watery expectations and the special property of the cold is a dry, loud cough and sneezing. pectoration and the sneezing by a pro-fuse watery discharge from the nose. In severe cases there is a thin white coating on the tongue. What to do? It is only necessary to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in double does every hour. That will greatly lessen the severity of the cold and in many cases will effectually counteract it, and cure what would have been a severe cold within one or two days time.
