THE DALLES. . .

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

From the Daily Chronicle, Friday M. L. McCann of Columbus, is at the Umatilla today. H. A. Hansen, of Monkland, is in the city on business. S. P. Gould and L. L. Tallman, of Pendleton, are in the city.

J. A. Keely and W. J. Davidson, of Pea kidge, are in the city.

W. K. Corson was a passenger on the early train today for Portland.

Beulah Glover and wife, and J. M. Lawson of Prineville, are in the city.

Hon, W. H. Biggs, of Wasco, Gilliam Co., is in the city, and will return home tomorrow.

Messre. Dicken Bros. have gone to Pasadena, but expect to return to The Dalles next spring.

It is claimed that the finest vessel afloat is now at Astoria, the British ship Mowhan.

The Dalles business interests daily show the want of telegraphic communication with Dufur, and other points south.

The versatile express-robber who stole $100,000 and hid it in a haymow, seems to have acquired the rudiments of wildcat banking.

Every fifty cent cash purchase at Floyd & Shown's secures an opportunity to take a Christmas gift of a fine odor set. Call and see the goods, corner of Second and Union.

Col. John Adair, E. A. Sealey, and W. C. Smith, passed through on the 11:40 train last night en route to New York on important business in connection with the Astoria railway.

As the midnight train from Portland approaches The Dalles, the city electric lights present a beautiful appearance. The train curves change so rapidly and acutely that in the darkness the lights resemble a flock of wild geese in their movement.

The "editor," to be fully appreciated, should be seen as reproduced at Cordray's theater, the best place of amusement in Portland. Good comedy is the rule at Cordrav's. "The Editor," which is one of the most amusing comedies ever written, is a laugh-provoker from start to finish. No better matinee or evening enjoyment can be had than by attending Cordray's in Portland.

The Grand Rapids Press, a 6-col. patent inside, has been started in the Clatsop woods, where there is not even a postoffice, "to fill the bill" and secure lucre from the publication of land office notices. It was six weeks of age Dec. 2d, '92; yet it had more money in its ads that day than reputable newspapers. This is an evidence that all legal advertising should be published in some responsible paper at the county seat of the county wherein the land in question taken a good view of the fine display of handkerchiefs in the first window of Pease & Mays this evening.

The city is very lively today and trade seems brisk, but there is a general complaint of bad roads, and travel to and Hon. J. B. Condon moved into his that account.

They report the shooting as very fine. As the No. 1 freight train was coming west last night, they run into a snow storm just the other side of Umatilla, and was in snow down this side of the mouth of John Days. The deepest on the road was at Covote station where it was about four inches deep.

Stacy Shown, of Floyd & Shown, has just the nicest Christmas present in the market. It is a beautiful letter basket, of dainty make and exquisite style.

The beauty of the present, however, consists in the fact that the purchaser of a basket gets a fine gold watch for ladies wear, free with the basket.

The public schools in the city are in a flourishing condition under the new management. All the rooms are full to overflowing and a keen interest is maniest in the pupils in their studies. Prof. Gavan has already got a fine hold on his corps of teachers and scholars, and is doing excellent work and withal, is very popular.

There is going to be war to the hilt on the Union Pacific by the opposition roads. The representatives of these different lines, accomplished a deal more than was supposed in their recent meeting in Portland. They were instructed to formulate a scheme for retaliation and to say nothing, which is construed to mean sharp hostilities regardless of conequences A merry party consisting of students from the Academy, was last evening entertained at the residence of Geo. Snipes.

The evening was passed in pulling candy and other amusements. Those present were Misses Clara Davis, Beulah Patteron, Mable Riddell, Maie Beall, Emma Bonney, Pearl Williams, May Seckler. Ethel Baker, Daisy Allaway, Nona Rowe, Bessie French, and Messrs. Homer Angel, Freas Saunders, James Maloney, Forest Fisher, Fred Snipes, Walter Johns, Harry Kelly, George Dufur, John Cooper, Willie Fields and Walter Norman.

Another runaway accident occurred last night on the Dufur road to Mr. Jacobsen. He had been to Dufur, in his buggy, and had been belated there. When darkness surrounded him on the road he took the precaution to prepare himself for any emergency that might arise, by lowering the top of his buggy and removing the storm robe from his knees. He let his animal take the road and trusted to her, as it was so dark he could not see a foot from his face. All

Mr. Jess Blakeney had left Dufur ahead of Mr. Jacobsen, but the latter passed him before the accident occurred. The mare was somewhat cut up, but she was found and brought to the city. They reached here about 10:30 p. m., much fatigued from the trip.

Heppner Gazette. "The next session of the legislature is near at hand, and our Eastern Oregon legislators ought to be getting ready to whack away for an open river. We need a portage at Celilo."

There can be but little doubt, that the next session will be almost a unit on that question. It is seen now that the Inland Empire demands such legislation and a deaf ear cannot be turned away from so important a measure as a portage road at Celilo. It is generally conceeded that the government will under-

The outlet for 35,000,-000 bushels of grain annually demands an open river, and unless vessels can go untramelled to the sea, agriculture is a failure in Eastern Oregon. People of the Inland Empire must not be confused by the name of the man Norton, who is reported to be in the country securing signatures to remonstrances for an appropriation by the Oregon assembly for the dalles portage; with the name of the civil engineer Norton, who made the surveys for The Dalles and Celilo railway. The Norton in the field now is another man, secured perhaps because of his name, to represent the enemies of the portage railway, and, by the name, be better enabled to misrepresent the facts. Have nothing to do with him, nor his remonstrances.
