

The Weekly Chronicle.

THE DALLES, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

From the Daily Chronicle, Tuesday. It costs about $105,000 per year to run the asylum at Salem.

The Ladies Glee club will meet with Miss Jeanette Williams this evening.

St. Valentine's day. Today is also known in church circles as Shrove Tuesday.

Lumber arrived yesterday for the propelling wheel of the Regulator, which is to be enlarged.

FOUND—A rosary. Owner can have same upon application at this office and paying for this notice.

Capt Johnson, of the Western Queen, says he will cross on the free bridge today for the last time, as it is getting too rotten to be safe.

The name of the queen of the Sandwich Islands is best pronounced (lee-lee-wok-illany) by any of our church pipe organs during a tender passage.

Bacteria may be transmitted through newspapers. Don't borrow of your neighbor, as it may be the death of yourself and family. Subscribe.

The ice is now rapidly going off the river, and the delayed chinook which arrived yesterday, fast faded the immaculate locality of the snow on the ground.

The case of Jonathan Morrison vs. estate of Wm. McAtee on appeal from the circuit court of this county was affirmed by the supreme court yesterday.

The members of Harmon lodge, I. O. G. T., wish to tender their sincere thanks to all those who so kindly assisted in the entertainment last evening, Feb. 13th.

The Kliekikat Leader which came to our office yesterday, devoted one whole side to an illustrated picture of the snow in that locality. It didn't show the "scratch of a pen."

We are in receipt of a communication quizzing the several great men who have lately departed, and greatly regret that our limited space precludes us from publishing it, which is quite lengthy.

Mr. H. Horn, in Thompson's addition, has dug his well ten feet deeper. It is now 48 feet deep. At that depth he struck a large volume of water which soon filled the well up ten feet, and has now plenty of water for irrigation. He has his place all set out in choice fruits and berries, and will soon have a place second to none around The Dalles.

The meeting of the Wiquat Chautauqua circle last evening at the home of Mrs. G. C. Blakeley, last evening was one of the pleasantest ones of the season.

In place of the usual quotations a description of one of the great battles of Greece was given by each one of the circle. Mrs. Brooks conducted the recitation in German history and Mrs. Blakeley Callas, the Greek romance, which the circle is reading. Those present were Mesdames Blakeley, Brooks and Grandall, Misses Frazier, Brooks and Mr. H. H. Riddell. The next meeting will be at the residence of Mrs. S. L. Brooks.

Wednesday's Daily. "Who Aak Papa," she softly said when I implored that we should wed. "Ah! human tongue can never tell how much I worshiped and loved—Oh hope of her ray soul had led."

And tho' I'd hoped for "yes" instead, Her words did not inspire dread: I did not know my funeral knell was "Aak Papa."

And when I found that he was dead, And learned the kind of life he'd led, I knew she meant—alas too well—that men would mean by "Aak Papa" "I know she smiled and softly said "Aak Papa."

A few cases of scarletina of a mild form are reported on the hill.

L. I. Burget started today to take a census of the school children.

By a vote of the senate of Washington, the rhododendron has been adopted as the state flower.

The bill authorizing $100,000 for a jute mill, modified only by a cutdown of $10,000 is now a law.

Cabinet members of the Epworth League will meet in the pastor's study this evening at 6:30.

We received a sample of Campbell Bros. "Lillian Mordica" cigar yesterday. The brand is already celebrated.

Mr. L. Payette is busy in lengthening the iron braces for the enlargement of the wheel on the steamer Regulator.

Rev. Father Bronsgeest read mass in the Catholic church this morning for the first time since his recent illness.

The river gauge marks four feet and three-tenths above zero, and shows a fall of six-tenths during the past 24 hours.

Loes.—A small purse containing some money. The finder will oblige the owner, a widow lady, by leaving it at this office.

Dufur enjoyed a Valentine's ball last night, to which town a large number of our people went to enjoy the magic of Terpsichore.

There has been 9 31-100 inches of precipitation since Sept. 1st last year up to the present time. This included melted snow, hail and rain.

The police court has been running light of late. This morning there were only two commitments, one for drunkenness, the other a hobo.

Messrs. Saltmarsh & Co., shipped a carload of alfalfa hay to Portland yesterday.

GOOD TEMPLARS.

Their Entertainment Last Night at Fraternity Hall.

We are always appreciative of correspondents' contributions and invite any of our readers to send us short, original letters containing news of their neighborhood.

The stoppage of the meandered lights last night was due to the burning out of some babbitt connected with the machinery, and the difficulty was obviated early this morning.

Mr. Saltmarsh informs us that prices of fat stock keep wonderfully low. One lot of stall fed cattle that were in prime condition were sold a few days ago at prices ranging from $3 to $3.50 per 100 lbs. according to size.

Not more than 50 per cent. of horses sold at the Union Stock yards, Chicago, sell above the $100 limit. Over 100,000 horses are received there and 50,000 of them sold at scrub prices.

The Merchants Protective Union held a special meeting in the city hall last night. There was nothing done except a few motions passed, which were for the good of the organization.

The new rates of the Transcontinental Association adopted by the Northern Pacific in conjunction with the W. & C. Ry., which go into effect today, gives Walla Walla and Pendleton almost terminal rates.

O. P. Hubbard, an attorney of the department of justice, is at Walla Walla, taking testimony of persons who have claims against the government for Indian depredations. When Mr. Hubbard has finished his Walla Walla work, he will visit Baker City, Pendleton and The Dalles.

Thursday's Daily. He was a six times millionaire Who sat behind her at the play; The maid took off her bonnet there; He married her very day.

The roads are very bad and there is little travel from the country.

The Oregon legislature will present its P. P. C. tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock sharp. In other words adjourns sine die.

Sixty-two head of cattle averaging 1,100 pounds were shipped from The Dalles to Portland last night. One steer weighed 1,800.

J. F. Parrott and W. E. Sylvester have taken the contract for erecting the new printing office at Rockland. It is to be a two story frame, 40x100. Work commences tomorrow.

P. W. Parker has purchased from Samuel Elmore, his entire interest in the Astorian-Columbian Publishing Co. and has now complete proprietorship and control of The Astorian.

Loud cries for help were heard coming from the direction of the river, but he was not "in the swim," he simply wanted some one to help him find where they are giving away enlarged pictures. Herrin is the place. Gallery over post-office.

Mr. John Batty, living near Des Chutes, while putting up ice for Mr. Taft at Celilo a week ago last Tuesday, had the second and third fingers of the right hand frozen. He came to this city last evening, and this morning had the members amputated near the third joint by Dr. Logan.

Herrin, the photographer, took a flash light picture of the whist club at 11 o'clock last night, which in many respects, was more faithful than those ordinarily taken in daylight. It is true to life, and the grouping, the room's adornment, down to the minutest object within range of the camera are faultlessly pictured.

The petit jurors seem to be having a lazy time of it this week. But one case yet has required a jury and even that was dismissed before the jury had an opportunity to display their wisdom in unraveling the knotty questions of fact. It is not probable that there will be very much business for the trial jury this term.

Today begins the Chinese new year, and the Celestials will celebrate it for about three or four days, by feasting and exploding fire-crackers. At this period they are extremely hospitable, and among themselves they are very sociable. For the time all rank is dropped and the coolie is as good as his more fortunate neighbor in silk.

The many friends of Dr. Siddall will be pleased to learn that he will not remove to Portland, as was once reported, but will still continue to practice dentistry in The Dalles, where he has resided and practiced for the past fifteen years. In fact the doctor is the only dentist who has successfully withstood the vicissitudes of fortune here for so long a time while so many others have come and gone. The doctor is one of our pioneer dentists. He but shortly patented an instrument for extracting teeth that is coming into universal use throughout the east.

A Mysterious Death. Union Journal. The death of the 18-year-old daughter of A. C. Russell has created a profound sensation. After the girl's death, which he had endeavored to keep a secret, the neighbors made an investigation and found that the girl had become a mother. Warrants were sworn out for the arrest of A. C. Russell, the father, Ed. Russell, brother, and Mrs. Russell mother. All were held without bail.

THE NEWLY-ELECTED OFFICERS

A Substantial as Well as Delectable Lunch served by the Fair Entertainer.

Pursuant to invitation of the numerous host of Good Templars in this city, Fraternity hall was taxed to its full seating capacity last evening, the occasion being an entertainment for the friends of the Templars and well-wishers of the order. A programme of unusual excellence was presented, as follows:

PROGRAMME. Recitation—"The Dutchman's Serenade," Archie Barnett. Recitation—"Why I'm Working for Temperance," Grace Willerton. Duet—"Save My Mother's Picture from the Sale," Misses Betta and Myrtle Stone. Recitation—"Prohibition Battle Call," Fannie Chessman. Recitation—"The Boiler Shakes," Little Frazer. Solo—"My Wandering Boy," Miss Jennie Russell. Solo—"The Orphan Boy," Miss Jennie Russell. Recitation—"Little Miss Tucket," Mr. Harry Epling. Duet—"Father is Drinking Again," Winnie Frazer. Recitation—"The Pearty Vases," Misses Betta and Myrtle Stone.

Reading of the Lodge paper, the Temperance Advocate. Duet—"The Pearty Vases," Misses Betta and Myrtle Stone. Every number was well done and heartily applauded.

"The Dutchman's Serenade," by Archie Barnett was in costume and quite mirth-provoking.

The Misses Stone have much native musical talent and give promise, when older, of attaining a high order of merit.

Miss Jennie Russell's selection "The Wandering Boy," was well suited to that lady's versatile powers, and as usual, she delighted the audience.

The lodge paper contained the customary good supply of local hits and was attentively listened to.

A delectable lunch of sandwiches, coffee and cake was an agreeable diversion, and, served by the fair ladies of the order, elicited much favorable comment from the delighted guests.

The newly-elected officers are as follows: Mrs. Anna Sylvester, W. C. T. Mrs. Alice Frazer, W. V. T. Levi Christmas, W. P. C. T. Miss Lettie Johnston, W. Chap. Miss Nettie Hill, W. Sec. Mrs. Alice Ball, W. A. S. J. S. Winkler, W. F. Sec. Mrs. A. Urquhart, W. T. Miss Clementine Martin, W. M. Delbert Chessman, W. D. M. R. C. Fleck, W. G. Miss Mable Riddell, W. Sent.

FLORAL EXHIBIT. A Semi-Yearly Display of Flowers in Oregon.

A semi-yearly floral exhibit will hereafter be held at various places in Oregon. This exhibit is under the fostering care of the State Horticultural Society and interest is steadily growing in the matter all over the state, particularly in Portland. The idea is to encourage a healthful sentiment in the flora of the state that will tend to increase the culture of beautiful flowers by all. The first exhibit will be held in Portland about the time the roses are at their best. Current expenses will be paid for the present by subscription. Dr. Cardwell is the president of the association, and is assisted by Mr. Wymar, botanist. The Dalles representatives are Mrs. S. L. Brooks, Mrs. Smith French and Mrs. A. C. Phelps, of which the former lady is chairman.

Dancing Party. It was a gay party that went out to Mr. M. Cushing's commodious farm house, three miles from town, last night. The air was cool and bracing, and the sleighing delightful. The party enjoyed themselves till a late hour in music and dancing, and was pronounced by those present as one of the most successful parties of the season. Those in attendance were: J. H. Blakney and wife, W. H. Young and wife, Henry Teague and wife, Hugh Christian and wife, Fred Fisher and wife, Richard Brookhouse and wife, J. J. Norman and wife, Mrs. Klindt, Miss Mollie Klindt, Misses Phirman, Richer, Joles, Teague, Jim Smith, Aland Walter Klindt, Dr. Logan, Robt. Teague, Will Vanbibber, Will Norman, Chas. Corson, Chas. Stone, Bart Stone, Jas. Falmer, Geo. Byers and lady and several others from the country whose names could not be learned.

Funeral of Mr. E. P. Roberts. [By an unfortunate oversight, the following was omitted from our columns yesterday.—Ed.] The funeral of Mr. E. P. Roberts occurred Sunday from the Congregational church. Despite the mass of snow upon the ground, the funeral was one of the largest ever held in The Dalles, many coming from ten miles out in the country to attend the last sad rites of a personage who has been a history-maker of Eastern Oregon. Rev. Curtis gave an epitome of Mr. Roberts' life, fitly eulogizing the many virtues of the deceased, and was listened to with marked attention. The remains were interred in Sunset cemetery.

A Wonderful Home Library.

The great Encyclopedia Britannica, over 20,000 pages, 10,000 illustrations, and 200 maps, large type, good cloth binding, and to be had for only $20, and even that (with $1 extra), payable in installments of five cents a day, if you want it so—this is certainly wonderful, as true, and ought to make many homes happy, and rich in knowledge at least. See the advertisement elsewhere, and a sample volume at the office of this paper. We are ordering a set; will you join us and save some expense?

Ice Going Out. It is reported that the ice has all moved out from below Menaluse Island and is breaking up at that point and is fast clearing out. The whole body of ice is softening rapidly through the influence of the warm weather and from appearances the river will be freed from the blockade in a few days. At this city it begins to show that the channel is getting in its work of clearing.

Fire at Tygh Valley. Frank Swift's house burned, with all its contents, at Tygh Valley last Thursday, while himself and family were attending a party. Cause, a defective flue.

BROUGHT BACK.

D. S. Allison Expected to Arrive With Deputy Phirman.

CHARGED WITH POCKETING MONEY. Belonging to W. H. Sharp, Realized From the Sale of 800 Bushels of Wheat.

This afternoon's train is expected to bring Deputy Sheriff Phirman with one D. S. Allison, for whom the grand jury has just found a true bill for swindling.

Last fall Allison was entrusted by W. H. Sharp, of 5-Mile, to store in Moody's warehouse 800 bushels of wheat, awaiting further orders. Allison sold it immediately, realizing something like $400 and skipped with the booty to Kansas. In the meantime Mr. Sharp has been corresponding, learned of Allison's whereabouts, and procured a warrant for his arrest, with the result as stated in the opening paragraph.

It has since been learned that Allison is an old criminal and that Silverstone, Murphy & Brody, a Portland firm, have a grievance against him. Those who knew Allison here were greatly surprised to learn that he was an old criminal, as he had no bad habits, and moved in the best society. It will doubtless be news to some, also, that he has a wife and children east, as he represented himself as a single man while here.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Gas Lauer and a Mail Carrier Precipitated Into the Columbia. Gus Lauer and the Goldendale and H. H. land mail carrier crossed the Columbia on the ice about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. They provided themselves with a long board each, in case the ice should not hold them up, and to this precaution they owe their lives. There were a number watching them from the bank who knew the dangerous condition of the river and when about half way across they were seen to fall through. Lauer did not go in very deep, but the mail carrier went in up to his arm pits. As he did so the board came down flatwise, and to this he tenaciously hung, succeeding by the now useful plank in getting across. They were watched until they got to the opposite shore and lost to sight after gaining the top of the steep bank.

The only attraction at the East End is at Saltmarsh's stock yards. They have their yards full of fat stock today, being fed prior to a continuation of their trip to the abattoirs near Portland. One car of fat cattle was shipped last night, and this evening five more will follow, consisting of two cars of fat hogs, from Union county, and three of fat calves.

John Thouney, the well known orchardist, living two miles east of Walla Walla, informed a Union-Journal reporter Monday that fruit in his section was badly damaged by the recent cold weather. Peaches, pears, plums, and cherries, he said, suffered the heaviest, but would not be a total loss. Reports from other parts of the valley are that fruit is only slightly damaged in most sections and will be an average crop.

Miss Juliet Corson, director of the cooking school exhibit, has issued a new cook book, on which the New York Herald has commented: "A woman must needs be very silly at the present day to be ashamed of the ability to cook a good dinner. Much of this growth of thought is due to Miss Corson's honest work and admirable books."

The militia force of the United States is estimated at 112,496. Every state in the union, except Utah, has organized militia forces.

A DISCOVERY.

The Scale Apparently Killed by the Winter's Severity.

I. J. NORMAN'S TREES ARE FREE. The Native Climate for Them Warm—Not Known in the East.

I. J. Norman, who has made the scale an especial object of his attention for the past two years, was most agreeably surprised yesterday to observe his trees, which were badly covered with scale, of a dull brown color. A closer examination showed that it was the scale, and scraping them up on his thumb nail, noticed that they were quite lifeless and of a color strikingly different than the usual reddish-yellow.

Mr. Norman has about forty trees in his enclosure, and all efforts to permanently rid them of the scale were unavailing, though spraying would temporarily check them. They have got so thick that now even the pine trees are covered.

If the destruction has been general it will be the greatest boon that could happen to orchardists in this country. It is known that they are a native of a warmer climate, coming originally from Africa, and thriving in the semi-tropical region of California. In the east, however, where the winters are severe, they are not known, and the conclusion is pretty certain that they cannot survive the cold.

TIRED OF IT.

A Case Settled Which Relieves the Court. Judge Bradshaw resumed his labors in the circuit court this morning. In the case of the state vs. Hanson the defendant withdrew his plea of not guilty and entered a plea of guilty. He will be brought up tomorrow morning for sentence. The case of Barrie vs. Moody, which has been at issue so long that it was becoming a sort of chestnut to the court, was announced as settled, a statement which brought a joyous expression to the face of the court, who was becoming wearied with its long continuance. There being no present work for the jury, they were excused until tomorrow morning.

THROTTLE AND CAB.

Meaty Morsels of News and Gospel for Trainmen. Tuesday's Daily. Fireman Marshall has resumed his run on No. 546. Billy DeHuff is temporarily hostler in Mike Nolan's place. Fireman Landreth is highly pleased with his new engine, 500. Observe the beautiful headlight reflector on Engineer Haslam's engine 542. Engineer Wyke, who has been running the rotary steam plow, is again in The Dalles. Foreman De Huff is having a number of car-loads of ice unloaded at the shop's ice house. Hostler Mike Nolan has taken a leave of absence to his home in Portland for a couple of days. Engineer Hugh Farmer of the switch engine took a party of young people up the Columbia yesterday afternoon to see the ice gorge. Engineer Patterson, with his engine 388 of the Heppner branch, came to The Dalles for a few repairs Saturday night, returning Sunday. Wednesday's Daily. Twenty cars of company ice is being unloaded at the east end of town, under the supervision of Master Car Repairer Velarde. Two trains of stock went through to Troutdale this morning. "Capt." Halfanoff has been giving the wrecking car and outfit a general overhauling, getting ready for the spring opening. He received 3,000 feet of 3-inch rope to replace the old. Mr. R. Kelly has been on a vacation to a warmer climate for the benefit of his health. He forgot, however, to take the flat wheels along. Mr. Ben Wilkes, who is now doing second engineer act on the yard engine, has taken a vow to not drive his liase until his old friend and companion Richard D. Boxer returns. Thursday's Daily. J. E. Andrews, employed in the round house, received word yesterday that his father had died at Cascade Locks, and Mr. Andrews took first train for that point. The death was totally unexpected, as only a couple of days before he had received a letter in which all were well and happy. W. H. Congdon contemplates moving to Umatilla soon. Switch engine No. 1377, which has been in the shops for repair, is now out again. Its place was temporarily taken by No. 1355. Engineer Barrett is highly pleased with his new engine, No. 860. Since business has dropped off, the firemen have more leisure time to attend to their "bright works," and the locomotive, in consequence, look much prettier from their polishing.
