

The Weekly Chronicle.

THE DALLES, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

From the Daily Chronicle, Friday: The 12-55 train from the west was on time today.

The rise in the Columbia river at this time is four feet above zero. Washington's legislature did not elect B. Allen today after all, he was so last night.

The beautiful (?) snow is again "falling gently falling" wonder if the migrants won't feel cold in their calico coats.

The mercury marked 36 degrees today. It began snowing about 2 o'clock this afternoon, and is coming down in a good earnest as we go to press.

H. H. Weir, who was chief justice of Idaho during the Cleveland administration, died of apoplexy at Boise City at 12:30 Wednesday morning, aged 71 years.

The first mail train came in from the west at 9:30 last evening with a full passenger list and a large delayed mail. This was the first train since Monday morning last.

A Washington dispatch of yesterday says Senator Erwin's concurrent resolution urging the president and congress to take steps to establish a protectorate over Hawaii, with the view of ultimate annexation, was unanimously adopted.

Mrs. E. P. Roberts and part of her family arrived with the remains of her late husband last night. The funeral will take place from the Congregational church on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Roberts and family have the sympathy of a host of friends in their bereavement.

Little Walter Dickey was run into by one of the large bob sleds last evening in consequence of which he suffered a fracture of his leg. This is the second time this season that a serious accident has occurred. It is at the best a dangerous sport, and the utmost caution should be exercised to avoid accidents.

An Astoria paper says: Twenty-two boy pupils were recently expelled from the Milton school for smoking cigarettes. They were given a chance to come back on condition that they submit to merited punishment and promise to indulge no longer in the demoralizing cigarette. Fourteen accepted this offer, and at last accounts the remainder were negotiating for a compromise.

Judge and Mrs. Bradshaw entertained a few of their friends at progressive whist last evening. Mrs. Grossen secured the honors of the evening in the shape of a handsome vase, and Mrs. Glenn carried off the booty, which was a game entitled "In the soup." A dainty lunch was served, after which all repaired to their homes. Those present were Judge and Mrs. Bradshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Beall, Mr. and Mrs. Crossen, Mr. and Mrs. Rinehart, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn.

Osasco Review 4th: C. W. Elkins returned Wednesday from his ranch on Beaver. He reports stock in that section standing the winter well. Mr. Elkins has been in Eastern Oregon over twenty years, and says last Wednesday was the most disagreeable day he has ever seen on this side of the mountains. Notwithstanding the very disagreeable weather, Mr. Parish gets his stages in on time every evening. When Mr. Parish took charge of the line between here and The Dalles, the Review said he was one of the best stage men on the coast, and the service he has given us the past six weeks is certainly evidence of the fact. The Prineville mail, under the supervision of Mr. Parish, arrives on regular time daily, notwithstanding the snowdrifts and bad roads.

Master Clifton Condon celebrated his second birthday yesterday, by entertaining a few of his young friends at the residence of Mr. S. French. Part of the time before lunch, was spent in admiring and amusing themselves with the numerous toys of the host. The young ladies and gentlemen took their places at the table, and were admirably served with the dainties, a maid standing behind each chair. Some of the little ones sat in a "really truly" chair for the first time. While the nurse maids were enjoying their repasts, the young folks were entertained by a solo, by Miss Leah Boyer. Their behavior all through would be a model for some older ones to copy, and each mother went home happy.

Those present were Genevieve Fish, Miss McCleod, Leah Boyer, Maud Kirby, Helen Jacobsen, Helen Augusta Peters, Glenn Cushing, Clinton Bradshaw, Alfred Thompson, Clifton Condon.

The passenger train wreck at Weiser, Idaho, on the 6th, is reported in the Baker Democrat by a correspondent who gives the following additional news says: "Because of the derailment cannot be positively stated as the track showed no signs of having spread and the train was not running to exceed 35 miles per hour. Opinions differ, but from the best information obtainable by your correspondent the accident was unavoidable and unaccountable. The engine, under the control of Engineer Allen, did not get off the rails. But the rest of the cars, consisting of mail car, express and baggage, passenger, chair car, dining car and Pullman sleeper, left the rails and ran some 200 yards on the ties of the roadbed before plunging into the ditch. The express car, smoker and chair car leaped at least 50 feet down a 15 foot embankment and slid on their sides some distance to the ice now frozen along the waters edge of Snake river. The Pullman dining car and sleeper remained right side up and not a passenger either contained was injured. This is the most serious wreck that has ever occurred on this division of the U. P. system and while it is to be much regretted no blame is attached to any one, and all are thankful it is no worse.

From the Daily Chronicle Saturday: The Moro Observer comes to us old glory in color, and a half-sheet at that.

The ex-queen of the Hawaiian islands pronounces her name "Lil-lee-woke-lany."

Judge Gresham has been selected by President Cleveland for secretary of state.

Another case of diphtheria of a mild form is reported in the southern part of the city.

It has turned warm, the mercury registered 38° with a light rain falling as we go to press.

Fire in The Dalles last night—in fact almost every house had one. Gallery over the postoffice; Herrin artist.

Mr. R. W. Crooks, of Glenwood, Wash., is lying very ill at Mr. John Fillion's, his son-in-law, of this city.

Owing to the funeral of the late Rev. E. P. Roberts tomorrow from the Congregational church, there will be no Sunday school service.

A party of twelve gentlemen and ladies visited the ice gorge at the dalles today. That point is the object of great attraction now-a-days by our citizens.

The postoffice established on the north side of the Columbia known as Grand Dalles will be opened on Monday, the 13th, with J. W. Jenkins as postmaster.

Christian church services will be held in the Congregational church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Preaching by Elder J. W. Jenkins. Subject "What must we believe in order to be saved."

We acknowledge the receipt of a sample of high grade merino wool taken from a four-year-old weather in Mr. Fred A. Young's band at Bake Oven. The specimen is eight inches long and the texture is A 1, and is hard to beat as to sample at this season of year.

The Telegram says those fellows in the Oregon legislature who object to almost every leading measure and then try to get a bill through of their own, should remember the golden rule: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

The Oregon legislature closes its arduous labors next week, with the exception of a few important bills passed, the session has been fruitless of any good so far, it is cursed with several "objectors and obstructionists" that would do their country more good by retiring into the shades of obscurity.

Southern and middle California are flooded by the late rains. Kern river near Bakersfield, broke over its banks and is rushing through the streets of that city. The Southern Pacific road is badly washed out and many freight trains are wrecked. Kern river has taken its old course followed up to 1868. In middle California the late storms have caused a great deal of loss of property through floods.

Condon Globe says the news of Cal Hale's conviction is a great surprise to us all. Our people are all asking themselves the question: "Can it be possible that Cal is guilty, when so many witnesses testified to seeing him in this county on the very day the robbery was committed?" The general impression seems to prevail that had the Fossil and Arlington papers not had so much to say in the matter, the boy would have had a better case. It sometimes turns out very poor judgment for newspapers to try a case before the court does.

Last evening, as Mr. S. A. Johns and father were going home in their cutter, drawn by a spirited black roadster, just as they were approaching Union street on Third, the animal became unmanageable and used his hind feet without ceremony, and the consequence was the gentlemen were precipitated into the snow, but held fast to the lines, and by giving the horse some well directed blows on his nose stopped his maneuverings and thus quieted his reckless spirit. Messrs. Johns were compelled to foot it home followed by the horse.

There are a great many classes of people who do a town no good, and they might be enumerated as follows: First, those who go to some other town to do their trading; second, those opposing improvement and public expenditure; third, those who prefer a quiet town to one of push and business; fourth, those who imagine they own the town and can run everything as they please; fifth, those who think business can be done slyly, without advertising; sixth, those who deride public-spirited men; seventh, those who oppose every movement that does not promise to benefit them personally; eighth, those who seek to injure the good name and credit of their fellow citizens.—Ex.

Last evening the Mignonette Club at its weekly meeting gave a calico party that was largely enjoyed by the members. About twenty-five couples were present; the ladies without exception nicely arrayed in many colored calico costumes, while among the gentlemen calico ties were in profusion, though a few had rigged themselves out in complete calico costumes, and appeared much like butterflies out of season. The programs were quite unique, and ingeniously devised. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Maier and Mrs. F. L. Houghton, Senator and Mrs. Chas. Hilton, Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Snedaker, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Crowe, Mesdames G. C. Blakeley, M. French, H. Heppner and H. Phirman, Misses Virginia Marden, Clara and Ettie Story, Mary Frazier, Grace Marden, Almee and Evelyn Newman, Minnie Gosser, Ruth Cooper, Jessie Lohn, Jeannette Williams, Matilda Hollister, Iva Brooks, Grace Campbell, Van Vleck, Dustin, Messrs F. Garretson, J. Byrne, S. G. Campbell, J. H. Worsley, John Booth, H. French, M. Donnell, J. Vogt, John Hertz, M. Jameson, F. Faulkner, John Hampshire, J. C. Coatsworth, Wm. McCrum, F. A. Sharp, E. M. Williams, Carl Gottfried, H. Lonsdale, Dr. H. Logan.

The Fossil Journal of the 10th has the epitome of the testimony given in the Cal Hale trial at Ellensburg in the bank robbery case, and prefacing it says: "Our readers are so thoroughly acquainted with the Roslyn bank robbery case, and the manner in which our county has been connected with it, that there is no need of going over the ground again. Suffice it for us to say that Cal Hale was the first man tried, and that he was found guilty by a jury composed of twelve citizens of Kittitas county, Washington. The prosecuting lawyer presented a train of circumstantial evidence to the jury, and they evidently preferred to take that in preference to the positive testimony of Oregon citizens, whom the jury, by their verdict, find guilty of gross perjury."

From the Daily Chronicle, Monday.

The days of the bob are numbered.

The new Columbian half dollars may be obtained at Snipes & Kinnersly's.

"This year's rubbers won't do for next," many a man has fallen to remark.

The Boston Operatic Concert Co. will give a benefit performance for the reading room, aided by the ladies of The Dalles.

Bill Nye and A. P. Burbank will make a tour of the coast the latter part of March.

Pineapple juice is said to be a good preventive when there is diphtheria about.

Farmers ought to be happy over crop prospects if there is any virtue in plenty of snow.

The railroad company Saturday finished putting up ice at Celilo. They put up 2,000 tons.

Next Wednesday being Ash Wednesday there will be mass at 8 o'clock, at the Catholic church.

Paste this in your hat. The U. P. freight trains are not allowed to carry passengers any more.

The river last night was 4.6 above low water mark. Sixty-five inches of snow have fallen here so far this winter.

It is thought that range stock in this immediate vicinity will not have suffered much loss if the present warm weather continues.

A. P. Venen, piano tuner, will be here some time next week. Those desiring pianos tuned, may address him through the postoffice.

A surprise party was given Miss Marion Kennedy Saturday evening, at which the young folks enjoyed themselves in the usual manner.

Plumbers have had a serious time with water pipes this winter. At one time over half of them were frozen at once, apart from the regular mains.

There was no service in the Catholic church yesterday. Father Bronsgeest is not yet able to leave his room and the priest that was expected from Portland did not arrive.

"Amos," in today's issue, gives us a cleverly-written letter on some of the questions at present under discussion by our law makers. It is sound, spicy and altogether readable.

Julius Wiley received word from his mother, living twenty miles south of Portland, that the peach trees are all in bloom in that vicinity, and orchardists fear they will lose this year's crop.

The funeral of the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McHaley at the Sunset cemetery occurred yesterday. A large number of friends came in with sleighs from 8-Mile to do a last honor to the little favorite.

Free to everybody. For the next 15 days, Herrin will give away one enlarged picture with every dozen cabinet photos. Call and see sample. Gallery over the postoffice.

A poultry firm advertises: "Our hens lay fresh eggs daily." The announcement will doubtless prove a relief to the thrifty housewife who has heretofore had to shake them, on her daily evening gathering, to see whether or not they were stale.

A funny accident happened to a sleighing party yesterday. The party, loaded into a small cutter, were joyously driving about the town, when, without warning, the vehicle broke in two, spilling the riders ingloriously into the snow, whence they slowly picked themselves out and wended their various ways homeward. No damage other than the broken cutter and lacerated feelings of the riders ensued.

Timothy Glenn, of Glenn & McKenzie, railway contractors, was in town Saturday, buying hay for the use of teams while engaged in constructing the Mohr portage across the river. Work will be commenced, we are informed, as soon as the river at this point is navigable.

The Yamhill county Register wants $1,000 for the privilege of pulling a hand press, being kicked at by subscribers who never put up a cent, being invited to jim crow entertainments and expect half column write-ups, work, sweat, starve, be abused and all the other joys appertaining to a country newspaper.

The Chinook Wind. The following communication from the Telegram yesterday will be read with interest by the later arrivals to Oregon. "H. R." is an Old Oregonian and says there has been a good deal of discussion as to the direction from which the chinook wind comes. Under date of yesterday, "H. R." sends the following note:

"A newcomer maintains that the chinook wind comes from the northwest, while his friend, a resident of the city for some years, holds that it is from the southwest. By giving the true direction from which it comes you will confer a favor on both."

The Chinook Indians, famous for flattening the heads of their infants, lived at the mouth of the Columbia river. The warm winter wind that came from the sea to melt the snow was for a long time supposed to originate off the mouth of the Columbia; hence the wind was named after these Indians. Old Oregonians say that there is no chinook wind, except that which blows from the mouth of the river; but the same genial influence, taking its beginning from the Japan current, spreads itself all over the Pacific Northwest, including British Columbia, and even warms the frozen plains of Montana.

Seattle Dispatch.

SEATTLE, Wash. Feb. 9, 1893.—This is the first clear day we have had for over two weeks, and it gives promise of rain. The street-car lines are blocked, and the means of transportation in and out of the city have been materially effected. There has fallen, in all, about four feet of snow, and it is feared that with the warm weather, floods will follow the melting snow.

The preliminary hearing of the "Yeeler Will" case is yet unfinished, it having already occupied over one week of examination of witnesses. It is thought that another week will be consumed before the completion of this preliminary investigation. This suit promises to be one of the greatest in the history of the west, owing to the fact that the parties interested are widely known, and the amount involved very great.

It seems to be the expression of the people of Seattle, and especially the business men, that it would be for the best interests of the United States to have the Hawaiian Islands attached to this government. It would be of inestimable value to all the Pacific Coast. Olympia cannot break her deadlock—the balloting remains the same.

Rotten Ice.

The ice in the river is thoroughly rotten and it is foolhardy to try to cross the river or be on it at all. A young man while crossing yesterday morning, broke in, but fortunately escaped with no other damage than a thorough wetting. R. S. Andrews of Hood River tells of another man who crossed on snow shoes at that point, who punched through the ice all the way across with a stick which he carried.

1,000 Tons of Ice a Day.

J. H. Taffe writes as follows: Under date of the 9th: We are now cutting and housing about 1,000 tons daily of clear ice about 14 inches thick. It would be a treat to anyone to see our ice elevator work.

Boyd Pleasure Party.

Boyd, Or., Feb. 9, 1893. TO THE CHRONICLE: The Liberty whist club was entertained last Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rice. A large number of their friends were present. Mrs. Dr. Bell secured the first prize and G. W. Rice the booty. After the prizes were awarded they had an old fashioned candy-pulling and Dr. Bell closed the entertainment with some of his choicest music.

Advertised Letters.

Following is the list of letters remaining in the postoffice at The Dalles un-called for, Friday, Feb. 10th, 1893. Persons calling for same will give date on which they were advertised: Adams, Mrs E Adams Mrs Chas Allen Miss Minnie Barrow G N Chapman John Copeland Iva V Cozel George Dras Emma Darling J W Galbreth E W Gilsinger Frank Jory Mrs Mary E Kolf Meloin Mulligan E W McKensy & Glenn McKelvia D Smith Ed Turner Albert W Wolfe F B Wilson N A (2) M. DIED.

On 8-Mile, Vernie, the youngest daughter of Wm. and Lida McHaley. The interment will be in the Sunset cemetery tomorrow afternoon.

THROTTLE AND CAB.

Meaty morsels of News and Gossip for Trainmen.

The bridge carpenters have recently had their force increased by sixteen men.

Foreman DeHuff has had a number of men shoveling snow in the yards for several days.

Joe Earhart, of No. 546, on his last trip, killed four head of horses, one of which lodged on the pilot, necessitating a short stop.

The rotary snow plow, which was borrowed from the Idaho division, went back Saturday night, after doing effective service near Bonneville in raising the blockade.

Hoetler W. H. Congdon has been succeeded here by Mike Nolan, who stood first for promotion in the company's employ. Mr. Congdon is now a main line engineer.

One of the noblest of the iron horses is engine No. 500, which has just entered service on this division. It is the largest locomotive on the line, formerly of the mountain division, and has just been subjected to a thorough overhauling and refitting at Albina. Engineer Olie Barrett and Fireman Geo. Landreth took it out the first time on No. 8 Saturday.

Ben Eben, the veteran caller, is a man of unwearying patience, and is thus the butt of many a good-natured joke by the boys in the yard; but the continued snow-fall has taxed both his strength and patience to the utmost, in consequence of being obliged to call so many more because of the storm, and Saturday, when the flakes were falling as big as dollars, he boiled over for once in a few choice words of his own language.

Circuit Court.

Monday.

The February term of the state circuit court convened this morning. Judge Bradshaw called court promptly at ten o'clock and at once proceeded to business. The following grand jurors were called: Messrs. F. A. Saefert, Polk Butler, B. C. McAtee, O. S. Morgan, Samuel Broyles, James Brown, Van Woodruff and Jas. Blakeney was appointed Grand jury bailiff. The docket was called and default was granted in Patten vs Patten.

The case of Barrie vs. Moody was set for trial. The judge then took up the demurer in Collins et al vs Herbring. The docket is a light one and will not consume a great deal of time.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Friday's Daily.

Mr. Smith French is confined to his bed by illness.

Judge Blakeley and Mr. B. F. Laughlin were passengers for Portland last evening.

Mr. H. Gourlay is in the city and made this office a very pleasant call this morning. Mr. Gourlay expects to return to the Warm Springs next Tuesday.

Mr. Arthur Gourlay, of the firm of Arthur Gourlay & Co., wholesale lumber merchants of Chicago, accompanied by his wife, is visiting his brother Hugh Gourlay, of this city.

Hon. E. B. Dufur returned home by the blockaded train last eve. Mr. Dufur made a full hand at shoveling snow while a guest of the U. P. en route to the Dalles. It reminds early Oregonians of starting out on a stage in the great Willamet with a fence rail and a pair of gum boots in addition to his wardrobe.

Monday's Daily.

Father Bronsgeest is convalescing.

Mr. Polk Butler of Nansene is in the city.

Mrs. Fred Sherman is recovering from a sick spell.

Flora and Alice Mulligan arrived here today from Missoula, Mont., on a visit to friends.

G. I. Sargent, special examiner of the Equitable Mortgage Co., is in the city today on company business.

The following attorneys are in attendance on the circuit court: A. S. Bennett, H. R. Wilson, J. L. Story, J. B. Condon, B. S. Huntington, H. H. Riddell, W. H. Wilson, E. B. Dufur, Frank Menefee and E. Schütz.

Capt. J. W. Lewis has so far recovered from his illness as to be able to resume his duties at the U. S. Land office, which will be gratifying news to our readers. Appropos, Grand Mogul Harrison has winged his flight eastward, which is just as gratifying.

J. H. Miller, of Crook county, a brother of Joaquin Miller, came in from Prineville today. He got as far as Biggs with an eight-horse team, but snow drifts prevented coming farther. Stock is doing well in Crook county and roads are in good order.

Ladies.

The March number of "Toilettes" is out with a grand display of new spring styles. An attempt to describe the hundred or more beautiful garments illustrated would take columns of this paper; even then we could not do the magazine justice. The publisher deserves the praise of every lady in the land for placing this handsome book on sale with every newdealer at the low price of 15 cents a single copy, or $1.50 for a year.

USED THEM IN HIS BLOW-GUN.

Doctor—"Well, my fine little fellow, you have got quite well again. I was sure the pills I left for you would cure you. How did you take them, in water or in cake?"

Boy—"Oh, I used them in my blow-gun."

The little fellow put the nasty, great, gripping, old-fashioned pills to a good use. At most, all his internal economy needed was a dose of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules, easy to take, and are gently aperient, or actively cathartic, according to size of dose. As a laxative, only one tiny Pellet is required.

The "Pellets" cure Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels.

The "Pellets" are purely vegetable, and operate without disturbance to the system, diet, or occupation. Dr. Pierce's Pellets are the cheapest pill, sold by druggists, because they are guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or their price (25 cents a vial) is refunded. Can you ask more?

MRS. ELSMIRA HATCH.

HEART DISEASE 20 YEARS.

Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. DEAN SIMS: For 20 years I was troubled with heart disease. Would frequently have falling spells and smothering at night. Had to sit up or get out of bed to breathe. Had pain in my left side and back most of the time; at last I became despondent. I was very nervous and nearly worn out. The least excitement would cause me to faint. I was also much troubled with fluttering. For the last fifteen years I could not sleep on my left side or back until I began taking your New Heart Cure. I had not taken it very long until I felt much better, and I can now sleep on either side or back without the least discomfort. I have no pain, smothering, dropsy, no wind on stomach or other disagreeable symptoms. I am able to do all my own housework without any trouble and consider myself cured.

THOUSANDS CURED.

Elkhart, Ind., 1888. MRS. ELSMIRA HATCH. It is now four years since I have taken any medicine. Am in better health than I have been in 40 years. I honestly believe that Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure saved my life and made me a well woman. I am now 62 years of age, and am able to do a good day's work. Mrs. ELSMIRA HATCH. May 29th, 1892.
