THE DALLES WEEKLY CHRONICLE, FRIDAY, MARCH 3, 1893.

street.

THE DALLES, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL. Tuesday's Daily.

It's really time the editors had killed that "Cry ing Need." And the "Long-Felt Want" should seek obliv-ion's hower: But there's one phrase sticks to 'em, and they're everyone agreed. To hold on to "The Duty of the Hour."

Demorest prize contest tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Miss Alms Schmidt will entertain the Ladies Glee Club this evening.

The great battleship Indiana was launched at Philadelphia today.

Winter lingers in the lap of Spring. The latter ought to give him the shake. Keep your ulster where it will be handy. There is no telling what the weather may do now.

The ferry beat steamed up today and nade the first trip across the river for several months.

The ice gorges in the upper river have here today piecemeal.

The White Swan mine of Baker county has yielded a $4,000 gold brick as a result of only a fifteen days run with their ten stamp mill.

Free poison will take the place of the quirrel bounty in Lincoln county Wash., is year. It is intended to furnish ach farmer with two ounces of the drug.

and saving with a parting bow : "Good- energy to develop. bye for forty days !"

Chicago receives a severe blow this year through the hoop skirt. Street car companies will now be compelled to double the number of their care and space everywhere will be at a promium in the world's fair grounds.

We have received a copy of the 1893 report of the canal and locks at Oregon n 1868, the authorized capital was $300,-000. The bill authorizing the state of Oregon to buy them at $200,000 failed of trees in the burnt district, passing.

Mr. Mohr, who returned yesterday from a trip to Grants and Goldendale, has been doing some surveying. He finds that the river at Grants is 70 feet higher than at The Dalles and the highest point on the road between Grants and Goldendale 1,600 feet.

Does advertising pay? asks the Nowspaper Man. Newspaper men say so when soliciting patronage. Do they believe it? The San Francisco Examiner has contracted to pay $7,800 for a page for 1893 in Printer's Ink, a publication that circulates among advertisers and ournalists.

The interest manifested by the ladies of The Dalles in the Demorest medal intest should meet with a hearty reponse. The price of admission is so w as to be of little importance to each ndividual; but 25 cents will buy a good agazine, which will amuse, instruct entertain some youth who might otherwise go into the wards of vice. For tonight see programme in another column. Doors will open at 7:30. Admission fee for children 15 cents.

The Weekly Chronicle. comes in like a lamb; now is the winter of our discontent made glorious summer; comes in like a lamb; now is the winter December's as pleasant as May; and several other things we stop the press to announce Enterprise pays. Just look at the display in front of Herrin's gallery and see the class of work he does. Free with every dozen cabinet photos., one enlarged picture.

Sam Kline got a Columbian half dollar with some change recently. The owner perhaps did not know it was worth a dollar, and he did not discover it until too late to recall who gave it to him.

In the north end of the county the new grass is about an inch high, furnishing excellent sheep feed. Two weeks for all kinds of stock .- Ochoco Review.

A new suit has been commenced in defendant at his Celilo cannery.

Charles Conningham, the sheep king broken up and are floating down past 000 head of sheep. He came to that year, a very flattering increase. country in 1869 and began life as a sheep herder in the employ of Major Barnhart. A pamphlet issued by the Pacific stone company has been issued, describing the value of their stone. The quarry is in Benton county, and though separated from us by a natural boundary. we are glad to see the resources of Oregon being developed. The stone, al-A suggestive cartoon apropos to Lent though doubtless very fine, could probappeared recently in an eastern daily. ably be duplicated on this side of the It represented the devil in a dress suit range, as could many other hidden shaking hands with a society young lady treasures, which await only capital and Thursday's Daily.

A lovely maid is fair to see When grace and wit bedeck her, And while we ponder o'er the thought, In comes the bill collector.

Our thanks are due Senator Jno. H. Mitchell for public documents.

Now is a good time for a spring cleanup of the lawn and unoccupied lots. Business will now pick up rapidly, setting out ornamental, fruit and shade per scre.

The ground is in better condition than it has been for several years. The prospect for wheat was never better. A meeting of the stockholders of the Sun Publishing Co., is called at the Court house March 4th, to determine on the future management of the paper.

Services in the Scandinavian language will be held tonight in the German Lutheran church on Ninth street, at 7:30 p. m., by Rev. A. O. Dolven, from Portland.

Some of the alleys between First and Second street are in a filthy condition, and should receive the attention of the city council. Foul alleys are a prolific cause of disease.

Third street will be one of the prettiest before Justice Schutz for assault and The conclusion reached is that, while battery on the person of Wm Deitsch- the author is gifted, and evidently has miller.

MOSIER MUSINGS. The Peach Crop Will Be Short-Mosler's Four Hundred.

From our Regular Correspondent.)

Our thrifty immigrant is making a furious charge on both stump and tree as well as stool grabs. Mrs. J. D. Mosier, arrived home from a visit with friends and relatives in the western part of the state on last Wednesday's train.

The Hardwick bridge gang, which had been here for about two weeks's repairing trestles near by, was taken to Rowena on Monday.

Snow is fast disappearing on the surrounding foot hills. Much stock has of warm weather will make good feed been turned out to graze and is looking remarkably well.

Another Mosierite was made extremely School clerk Mosler has finished tak ing the enumeration of school children of Umatilla county, owns between 12,- in this district. The result is seventy-000 and 15,000 acres of land beside 20,- five, as compared with forty-three of last

Miss Dollie Mosier, Mesdames Brown and La Piere, and Messrs. Davenport Ireland, Hardwick, Lynch, Deitzmiller, Lewis and several other of our citizens were at The Dalles this week, either on pleasure or business bent.

Upon investigation of the peach orchards in this vicinity, it is found that the severity of the past winter has killed nearly all of the fruit buds. The peach crop will consequently be short.

Probably the immigrant (from the prairie states) has the greatest amount of profanity in store, when trying to extract a stool grub, of anybody in this section. Trying to do the matter justice is a trying ordeal. We would say, use kind and pursuasive words, boys, they will be just as effective. The sale of the Shephard place by Administrator Lynch in front of the court house on February 22d, took a number of our citizens to the county seat. Rev. Frank Ireland was the fority. When the works were incorporated the dull season having come to an end. tunate purchaser, getting forty-eight A great many property owners are acres of as good land as we have at $5

> Every community has its "four hundred," Mosier's consisting of about twenty-five individuals, who met at the residence of A. Prather on Friday evening last, the occasion being a ball. The cock crowed lustily, announcing Saturday's dawn, before the gay revelers ive homes, feeling highly pleased and inviting place he has seen in several weeks of travel. well entertained. SUB.

Ideala.

Ideala, "a romance of realism," by Charles Grissen, has just been issued from the press, a copy of which was received at this office yesterday. The author has endeavored to modernize, for Umatilla. the service of his work, the mythology Third street will be one of the prettiest of the ancients and interweave it with the events of today, but the East End comprise some handsome resthe requisite knowledge demanded for a N. E. Bentson, while standing on the book of its class, he would have won early or late varieties. All parties receiving seed potatoes are expected to report as to yield and value, when desired for the benefit of the agricultural interests of the state. Address all orders to H. T. FRENCH, agriculturist, Exp. station, Corvallis, Oregon.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Tuesday.

W. S. Cram, of Portland, is in town. Sister Superior May Peter is ill at the academy. Mrs. C. H. Brown is now stopping with Mrs. Bert Campbell, on Third

Edgar Daley, sgent for the St. Charles Evaporated Cream Co., Portland, is in the city today. Mrs. J. Obarr is still confined to her room with a very severe attack of ner-vous prostration.

Ben Southwell, of Endersby, is in town today. He reports that the revi-val meetings, held by J. H. Baker, are very successful, there being many conversions there. HOTEL ARRIVALS.

Columbia.—James Hass, Grants; Al-bert Friesan, Goldendale; O B Hartley and wife, Hood River; J B Jackson, H M Lambert, James McDonald, Port-land; F M Hampton, Moro; O W Miller, M A Doff, Baker City.

Hotel Skibbe .- Allen Lewis, Nansene J Jackson, Simon Barcielle, Sherars Bridge; Wm McGovern, F Garland, Portland; Joseph Geshwinder, Dutur; Wm Payett, Kingsley; J D Hier, 10-Mile.

Wednesday.

week a gathering was had at the house B. F. Bonny of Wamic, came in today. of Joe Elliott, at which whisky was W. C. McClure of Viento, is in the freely drank. There were present becity.

sides Elliott and Kennefick, Al Hembree Mrs. O. J. Bales, of Wasco, was in and another man whose name could not town yesterday. be learned. An altercation arose, in the

J. B. Current, a merchant of Golden-dale, returned today. course of which, it is alleged, Hembree struck Mr. Kennefick over the head

Mrs. Capt. Sherman went to Portland today on a visit to her sister. Mrs. Smith French and her mother, Mrs. Magee, left this morning for Portland.

Capt. S. V. Short, of the Steamer Dalles City, spent last evening in The Dalles.

Wm. Kelsay and daughter, well known to Dalles people, are quartered at the Umatilla.

Mr. Glenn, one of the contractors of the Columbia Railway & Nav. Co., ar-rived today noon. He will go across the river tomorrow and size up the sit-A large audience assembled at the uation.

day's dawn, before the gay revelers stopped tip-toeing "grand right and left" and promenaded to their respect-

A party of well known Portlanders A party of well known Portlanders came up to The Dalles today, and will return tonight. They consist of W. E. Coman, a U. P. railroad official, Mrs. E. B. Coman, Mrs. C. Norton, Miss Martha Coman, Miss Mae Coman, Miss Claynor, Miss Amanda Zan, and Ed. Norton. They are registered at the Unsatible it with the events of today, out the East End comprise some handsome res-idences and considerable attention has been paid to tree planting. Richard Powers, of Mosier, came up today in company with Sheriff Ward. He will have a hearing this afternoon He will have a hearing this afternoon 5 A Kinyon, Tygh Valley ; Joseph Cham-berlin, Lyle; J W Sinville, Collins Landing; J B Richardson, Chenoweth. Thursday.

HOTEL ABRIVALS.

JOEL G. KOONTZ, AGENT, The Dalles, Oregon.

Money to Loan!

Six Per Cent. Interest.

the Kennefick Case

John O'Leary, who arrived in town vesterday from Moro, throws more light on the Kennefick mystery, who was reported last week to have died through injuries received by being thrown from a horse. It is now thought he was mur-

It seems that on Wednesday of last

Agents Wanted!---Address the Portland Office.

WAS IT MURDER? Wasco Warehouse Co., Some New Facts Brought to Light in

> Receives Goods on Storage, and Forwards same to

Receives Consignments

their destination.

For Sale on Commission.

Rates Reasonble.

-MARE GOODS-

W. W. Co.

THE DALLES. OR.

Administrator's Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the un-dersigned, the administrator of the es-tate of John Mason, deceased, has filed his final account in said estate, and that Monday, the 6th day of March, 1893, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, at the county court in the court house in Dalles City, Wasco county, Oregon, is the time and place fixed by an order of the Hon. Geo. C. Blakeley, county of the Hon. Geo. C. Blakeley, county judge of Wasco county Oregon, as the time and place for hearing said account, which order bears date the 7th day of January, 1893. All parties interested in said estate are hereby notified to file their objections to said account, if any, on or before said time. Dated this 7th day of January, 1893. S. V. Mason, Administrator of the Es-tate of John Mason, Deceased tate of John Mason, Deceased. DUFUS & MESSIFEE, Attorneys for said Estate. wi13f10

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

[Timher culture, final proof.] U. S. Land Office. The Dalles, Or., Dec. 25, 1892. Notice is hereby given that James W. Gox has filed notice of intertion to make final proof be-fore the register and receiver at their office in The Dalles, Or., on Tuesday, the 7th day of Feb-ruary, 1898. on timber culture application No. 3001, for the E52 SW3 of section No. 4, in Tp. No. 3 S. R. No. It enst: He names as witnesses: O. H. Russell, J. W. Russell, Isaac Fattenande and M. K. McLeod, all of Kingsley, Oregon. 12,28-2.3 JOHN W. LEWIS, Register.

SUMMONS.

with a bar or club, which produced a fatal injury. Bloodstains were found in Elliot's house and leading along the trail for a half mile to where the body was found. Hembree has been arrested and the others are held as witnesses. The facts will come up before the grand jury, which will meet when the next term of court is held at Moro, which will be on the 13th of March.

dered.

The Demorest Contest.

court house last night to listen to the contest for a silver medal. Walter Reavis won the medal, his selection being "Patriotic Prohibition." His voice was well suited to the oratoric demands of the piece, and gesture and expression were not wanting. The judges professed great difficulty in assigning the prize, and with justice. Their position was not enviable. "The Deacon's Match," by Fannie Cheeseman, was admirably rendered, the selection abounding in incident and dramatic action. Equally as well did Jessie Butler in "How to Curtail the Liquor

A tramp called at a house in North Milton the other day, says the Milton agle, and asked for something to eat. the Christian lady handed out some ad with the remark : "It is for God's ke I give you this piece of bread-only God's sake," "Thanks," said the ap, "thanks; now for Christ's sake some butter on it."

A Salem banker suggests that the money appropriated by the state of Oregon be devoted to inserting advertisements in the Chicago papers, certain days during the fair, when Oregon fruit, wheat, etc samples would be given away. He thinks in that manner Oregon would e thoroughly advertised and a large incase of population be the result.

Wednesday's Daily.

The bride was led up the broad siste, not up in the most killing stainle; When asked if she d be A true wife to me, he promptly replied: "I should smalle."

on should always require a receipt or money you lend on the streipt. For there's many a debt Which would fail to be mebt a chance were discovered to chetpt.

Do you call that a fit, Mr. Isaacs?" My frendt, that was more than a fit-It was a convulshun."

We would esteem it a great favor if ill to receive their paper.

ltmarshe will ship tonight two carads of fat cattle to Portland.

W. H. Stone brought in a pullet's egg pound and measuring 314 inches longest diameter.

The stores generally will remain open ntil 9 o'clock, from now on, the conerted prohibition among them as adertised in the windows, now being at an end.

The usury tax was defeated in the mate for the reason, it is stated, that it would conflict with the provisions of the mortgage tax law and indebtedness alause.

Spring, gentle, balmy, etherial spring, and in a panoply of genial sunshine and clad in a panoply of genial sunshine and The opportunity to get the encyclope-glowing verdure, is upon us; March dia will soon close.

top of a bank below which the steam greater laurels had he written a philoshovel was working, went down with a sophic essay, of which the preface of sudden cave off the bank, yesterday, re- "Ideala" gives rich promise. ceiving injuries about the face. He arrived today and will be patched up.

The recent diamond excitement in velopment of valuable opal mines. A great many fine specimens are being found, and one is shown that is estimated to be worth $200. A town called Opaline has been founded.

There are a number of boys in town from 10 to 14 years old, who break windows in unoccupied houses whenever they have an opportunity. Douglas Dufur, while away for a week some time ago, lost about $10 worth of window glass. An example should be made of the next one caught at this kind of work.

Telephone Company.

Articles of incorporation of The Dalles, Dufur, Kingsley, Tygh Valley and Wamie Telephone Company have been filed in the county clerk's office. The incorporators are M. A. Gordon, F. M. Driver and L. P. Dorais. The capiabscribers will notify us at once if they tal stock is $1,400 divided into 1,400 shares at a par value of $1 each. The All quist at the stock yards today. principal office of the company will be at Wamic. The object of the incorporation is to establish a telephone line between The Dalles and Wamic.

MARRIED.

In the Lutheran chapel on Ninth St., on Monday, Feb. 27th, Charles Koehler of Nansene to Mrs. Emma Schoren, a daughter of Mr. G. Bartell of this city. Mrs. Koehler was married two years ago to Mr. Schoren who died by accident while employed by the U. P. R. R. at Albina a few weeks after marriage. We wish the young couple God's blessing in a happy and contented life.

BORN.

This morning, Feb. 28th, to the wife of George Keller, a son.

Whist Party.

The Union Whist Club held its weekly Owyhee county has resulted in the de- meeting last evening, and entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Hostetler, the time passed very pleasantly. Twenty-five passed very pleasantly. Twenty-five hands were played, the first prize being won by Mrs. L. E. Crowe, Mrs. C. E. Bauser, Leo Veel, Rockland; F Cun-Bayard capturing the boohy. The prizes ningham, Johnstown, Cal; C G Lindett, were very handsome. Those present were Mr and Mrs C E Bayard, Mrs Hostetler, "Miss Jessie" Hostetler Miss Rowland, Mr and Mrs Crossen, Mr and Mrs W Lord, Mr and Mrs Hobson, Judge and Mrs Blakeley, Mr and Mrs Hough-ing Mrs More, Des Chutes; George Whitehead, Tim Tooney, N E Benton, Cascade Locks; M W Freeman, Boyd; Cascade Locks; M Preeman, Boyd; Cascade Locks; M Preeman, Boyd; son, Judge and Mrs Bennett, Judge and Mrs Bradshaw, Mr and Mrs Morgan, Senator and Mrs Hilton, Mr and Mrs Portland. Crowe, Dr and Mrs Rinehart, Mr and Mrs Beall, Dr H Logan, Messrs E Hostetler and L Ainsworth.

Oregon Horses Demanded.

Leo Neustadter, of Bake Oven, has just returned from a California trip, where he sold to San Diego parties four carloads of horses. These were raised on his large horse ranch and will arrive down the river, with a fair prospect of for shipment in a few days.

Several years ago Mr. Neustadter came here for his health. He was previously wealthy. He was fortunate and good record of Oregon horseflesh.

Seed Potatoes for Trial.

CORVALLIS, Or., Feb. 21st, 1893. The Oregon experiment stature is prepared to send to the farmers of the state tion $1.00. for trial, a limited number of varieties of seed potatoes. The potatoes will be labeled and mailed to individuals in to pay postage and expense of packing. 10 E. W. M. No more than two varieties will be sent Captain McNulty is in the city.

James Baldwin, of Portland, is in the The Misses McDonald, of Grants, are in the city. Mr. O. P. Hubbard, U. S. special Harry agent on Indian depredation claims, is expected in the city about Monday next. tionist.

HOTEL ABRIVALS.

Cascade Locks.

Columbia-Gusford Sleinburlder, La Grande ; Richard Kelley, Camrs Prairie ; Dennis McCulley, Hartford ; C Sturman, Albert Bertschie, B B Cole, Fulda; W Spencer, James Harman, Lyle; W R Popplewell, J S Harpham, C B Reece, Floating Ice.

About midnight last night the river at train left. this point was again blocked solid with ice, continuing for about an hour. On one of the cakes floating by this morning was a bridge bent. A man in a boat started out to capture it, and the last heard of it he had it lassed about a mile landing his prize.

Real Estate Transfers

B. F. Laughlin and wife to D. W. Edgot strong again, besides establishing a wards, part of lot 2, block 10, Laughlin's paying business and maintaining the addition to Dalles City. Consideration

$1.00. C. L. Phillips and wife to W. S. Cram, undivided one-sixth interest in lots 1 and 2, section 20, tp 2 u, r 14 e, and lots 2. section 36, tp 1 n, r 13 e. Considera-to a single individual. Persons ordering ham, lots 8 and 9, block 2, Waucoma. friend, during the cold spell, a blanket spurwaaces the Dying," while her intonation and emphasis were perfect, evinced a consciousness of her surroundings which is always hard to overcome, and which detracts from a meritorious rendition; further practice will, however, make her a formidable contestant. The same fault might be attributed to Harry Bowman, who possesses all the native talent required in an elocu-

The choir singing, duct and trio were deservedly applauded.

LOST HER PURSE.

A Midnight Adventure Which Turns Out All Right.

Mrs. S. A. Clinton, of Arlington, was shopping yesterday in The Dalles, and finishing her purchases and arranging everything to her satisfaction, prepared to depart on the 11:40 train last night for home. She seated herself on the train, with her baby in her arms, and discovered at the last moment that her purse was missing, which also contained her railroad ticket. She got off and the Stating her less Mr. James Blakeney and others interested themselves in the matter and for more than an hour, looked up and down the streets for the missing purse. The search was finally given up, everybody concluding that it had been picked up, and the disconsolate lady sought her room at the hotel. Lighting the lamp she was delighted to find her money lying on a rocking chair, where she had left it just before starting for the train.

A Swede's Trouble.

John Winter, a Swede, who has just finished a thirty days' sentence in the county jail, proposes to sue Aleck Nel-son, at Cascade Locks, for $52, claimed to be due him for labor. Winter says that when he asked Nelson for the amount due him, he was repulsed and soon after arrested for petty larceny at the instigation of the latter. The only foundation for the charge, Winter says, is that he loaned a moneyless friend, during the cold spell, a blanket out of the hotel. John Winter, a Swede, who has just United States to Albert J. Graham, and soon after arrested for petty larceny pound packages upon receipt of ten cents Hood River, NW1/2 Sec. 29, Tp 1 N, R at the instigation of the latter. The

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Waseo, Instor Lang, Kelward Lang, Max Lang and Louis Lang, partners doing business under the firm name of Lang & Co., Plaintiffs, vs. A. J. Wall, Defendant. To A. J. Wall, the obove-named defendant:

To A. J. Wall, the observanced defendant: in the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the com-plaint filled against you in the above-semifiled action, on or before the first day of the next regu-lar term of this court after completion of the service of this summons upon you: and if you ful so to answer, for want thereof, the plain fill will take judgment sgainst you for the soun of $225.63 and interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent, per summon You. Sol, 1862, and the interest thereon at the soun of 184.25 and interest thereon at dight per cent, per annum from May 15, 1862, and for their costs and disbursements herein. This summons is served upon you y jubilities.

and for their costs and unconvergence of a publica-This summons is served upon you y publica-tion thereof by order of the Hom. W. L. Brad-shaw, judge of said Circuit Court, made at chambers in Dalles City on November 4, 1992. MAYS, HUNTINGTON & WILSON, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

LAND OFFICE, The Dalles, Or., Sch. 7, 1833. Notice is hereby given that the following-named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof fit support of his chain, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver at The Dalles, Or., on Thursday, March 22, 1853, viz:

James K. McClure.

Pre-emption Declaratory Statement No. 7288, for the NM NEM, and NM NWM of Soc. 6, Tp. 5.8, R. 13 E. He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said hand, viz: George Gordan, L. M. Woodside, D. E. Hurst and M. Delore, all of Waphritia, Or. JOHN W. LEWIS, Register.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

LAND OFFICE, The Dalles, Or., Feb. 19, 1888, Notice is hereby given that the following-named settler has filed notice of his infantion fo make final proof in support of herebaim, and that said proof will be made belore the Bogister and receiver at The Dalles, Or., on Saturday, March 8, 1893, viz.:

Edward Henderson.

Homestead Application No. 8697, for Lots 5 and 6, and the 815 8E15, and 8E35 8W34 of Sec. 20, Tp. 1 S. R. 10 E. He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon, and cultivation of, said land, viz.: Marion Thompson, W. H. Stasts, M. C. Painter and Joseph Generodiner, all of Dulur, Or. JOHN W. LEWIS, Register.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

William A. Langille to Albert J. Grawill please state whether they desire Consideration $225.

Deeds Filed.

