

The Weekly Chronicle.

THE DALLES, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Tuesday's Daily.
A stiff east wind blew all day today.
Astoria rejoices in a Keeley institute.

There are only a few calves in the country where stock are yet being fed.
The river is extremely low for this season of the year.

J. H. Sherar's wool arrived in Boston and New York in better condition than it has ever arrived when shipped by the cars.

Farmers are very busy plowing in all sections except close to the foot of the mountains where there is yet considerable snow.

From Louis Davenport it is learned that a considerable number of families will move from Missouri to Mosier in the spring.

It cost Clatsop county nearly $1,000 to find out whether one of its citizens was a liar or not.

A considerable number of freight teams from toward Antelope and Prineville arrived today.

As the season progresses, prospects are more encouraging for fruit.

Hon. J. H. Mosier, of Mosier, is in the city today on business connected with the examining court of spoliation claims.

A pleasant surprise party was held at the home of Miss Winnie Ulrich on Saturday evening.

This morning's west-bound train was delayed ten hours by a burned bridge on the Idaho division.

The people of Multnomah county are agitating the question of handling all wheat in bulk.

Gov. Penoyer has postponed his trip of inspection to decide upon the location of the insane asylum until Thursday.

Yesterday was the last day allowed by law for school clerks to report to the county superintendent.

The following claims are presented before O. P. Hubbard, assistant attorney of the department of justice.

H. H. Wheeler, of the John Day country, near Mitchell, loss of stage stock during '64 to '68, $14,800.

Closter and Blake, The Dalles, loss of pack train, $6,350.

Thornbury and McDermott, Camp Watson, loss of stock and burning of store, $71,700.

Mrs. Susan Angel, 8-Mile, loss of animals belonging to freight team, $675.

H. Heppner, Heppner, loss of a large pack train of mules and horses, $6,050.

J. C. Lewis, Mosier, damages sustained in the Rogue river war, $14,999.

P. T. Sharp, The Dalles, loss of pack train and general spoliation on the John Day, $17,050.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good."

than ever before known in the history of the territory, and some people think that half the cattle will die.

While the eastern portion of this state is in the clutches of winter snows and the frost king, this section is reveling in warm spring weather.

Burnham & Robertson, enterprising liverymen, are proprietors of "The City Stables," their card appearing in another column.

George W. Slack, of Wenatchee, disappeared February 28th, leaving his wife and infant child.

United States Attorney F. P. Mays has received instructions from the attorney general to dismiss the suit now before the court of appeals of the United States against the Willamette Valley Wagon Road Company.

Beautiful weather.
Croquet and tennis is in order.

The lambing season begins next week.
The overland west-bound train, due here at 3:40 is twelve hours late.

The mouth of the Columbia is reported lower than it has been this year.

A poll tax is a punishment inflicted on a man for the horrible crime of being on earth.

The salmon season will open in another month, and fishermen are preparing for an active season.

Pendleton is commencing a crusade against filthy streets and alleys.

Prospects for wool were never more flattering than this year.

Regular drills of A. Co., Third Regiment, O. N. G., are suspended for one month dating from the 15th inst.

The report of the stock inspector of Marion county relative to trichina has considerably agitated that region.

Yesterday was the last day allowed by law for school clerks to report to the county superintendent.

The following claims are presented before O. P. Hubbard, assistant attorney of the department of justice.

H. H. Wheeler, of the John Day country, near Mitchell, loss of stage stock during '64 to '68, $14,800.

Closter and Blake, The Dalles, loss of pack train, $6,350.

Thornbury and McDermott, Camp Watson, loss of stock and burning of store, $71,700.

Mrs. Susan Angel, 8-Mile, loss of animals belonging to freight team, $675.

H. Heppner, Heppner, loss of a large pack train of mules and horses, $6,050.

J. C. Lewis, Mosier, damages sustained in the Rogue river war, $14,999.

P. T. Sharp, The Dalles, loss of pack train and general spoliation on the John Day, $17,050.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good."

AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The Commission for Oregon Asks General Co-operation.

To the Citizens of Oregon:
The Oregon World's Fair Commission has been legally organized.

The world's exposition opens shortly, and no time should be lost if we would be properly represented.

The Oregon exhibit will be collected and displayed under the following headings:
The department of agriculture, forestry and forest products, and live stock.

The department of agriculture, forestry and forest products, and live stock, W. F. Matlock, superintendent.

The department of mines, mining, and metallurgy, C. W. Ayers, superintendent.

The department of horticulture, including floriculture and viticulture, Dr. J. R. Cardwell, superintendent.

The department of fishing and fishing apparatus, manufacturers, electrical and mechanical inventions, Geo. T. Myers, superintendent.

The department of woman's work, comprising the fine arts, household economy, and products thereof, Mrs. M. Payton, superintendent.

The department of education, including educational exhibits, literary, special, general, music, etc., E. B. McElroy, superintendent.

The department of civil government, including state and county, Geo. W. McBride, superintendent.

Persons wishing to make exhibits in any of the departments enumerated, will please communicate with the superintendents of the departments in which they wish to make entries.

Good Templars.
The Good Templars gave another of their excellent entertainments last night at which a large number of friends of the order were invited.

PROGRAMME.
Recitation—"Early to Bed and Early to Rise." Miss Winnie Fraser.

Recitation—"The Last Blow." Miss Daisy Alloway.

Recitation—"Not I." Miss Lillie Fraser.

Recitation—"Our National Game." Miss Martha Schooling.

A box lunch was a feature of the evening which was highly enjoyed.

A Correction.
In your paper of the 9th inst., you have an account of my having met with an accident while returning from the Fulton school district.

The matter is not of great importance, but the incident as published in THE CHRONICLE was learned from a young lady who called at the house of the supposedly injured lady.

Social at Dr. Rinehart's.
The ladies of the Congregational church gave a social at the home of Dr. Rinehart last evening.

The New Asylum.
Governor Penoyer and Secretary Meteschan expected to leave Salem Sunday evening for Easter in Oregon for the purpose of locating a branch of the insane asylum.

At Treasurer's Office.
The grand jury have not yet considered the case of Hembree, who is charged with the murder of old man Kennefick.

MOSIER MUSINGS.
There is some snow yet in sight.
Fall sown grain is looking remarkably well.

Everybody is ransacking boxes and drawers for early garden seed.

COURT AT MORO.

The Docket Being Vigorously Pushed--Grand Jury Still Busy.

Judge Bradshaw opened the March term of the circuit court for Sherman county, yesterday morning at Moro.

The case of the State vs. Z. P. Jones on motion of Jones' attorney was continued, a showing being made that Jones was seriously ill.

The case of the State vs. Minton was dismissed on motion of Prosecuting Attorney Wilson.

The civil cases on the docket were put in shape for trial, and disposed of in other ways.

The grand jury, who during the day heard the cases of the men who were held for gambling, returned not true bills in each case.

The grand jury have not yet considered the case of Hembree, who is charged with the murder of old man Kennefick.

There is some snow yet in sight.
Fall sown grain is looking remarkably well.

Everybody is ransacking boxes and drawers for early garden seed.

The Fisher saw mill is laid up for repairs, a broken flume being the trouble.

Mrs. James Wright, from Roseburg, and Mrs. Phillips, nee Mosier, from Portland, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. Mosier here.

The board of equalization of school district No. 52, met at the school house last week and attended to their usual grist of business.

"Positively N. Credit" is the withering notice that stares us in the face when after our allowance of beans and bacon at the store now-a-days.

The Oregon Lumber Co., which will begin operations in their logging camps about the first of next month, will furnish employment for a number of Mosier citizens.

Spring has a rather disappointing habit of coquetting with winter in this neighborhood.

A Mr. Hunter and family arrived from Los Angeles last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Young and Mr. Evans, all recently from Missouri, have returned to that state on business.

With all of our good people, Mosier has some individuals who would prove jewels at Salem, in striped suits of clothes, with a ball and chain attachment for a bangle.

"Promenade to the supper table," shouted the caller. There was no mistake, for the clock showed 'twas midnight.

The punishment fits the crime.
Last evening a stranger entered the Skibbe hotel and negotiated a check on a local bank for two dollars with Mr. Skibbe.

It would appear that $2 is a small sum to risk gaining in such a way.

The professor refers to the following ladies and gentlemen: Ex-Governor Stevenson, Boise City; Bishop Glorieux, Dr. M. E. Spaulding, Boise City; Prof. Marsh, Pacific University, Forest Grove.

Artificial glass eyes inserted to perfection.
Remember, the professor is the only one that carries a complete set of tools, where lenses can be ground on the premises if necessary.

Money to Loan!

Six Per Cent. Interest.
Six Years' Time, and
May be Paid On or Before Maturity.

Sinking Fund or Building and Loan Plans.

The New England National Building, Loan & Investment Ass'n, Oregonian Building, Portland, Or.

JOEL G. KOONTZ, AGENT, The Dalles, Oregon.

Agents Wanted!--Address the Portland Office.

AN INDIAN SHOW.

A Very Creditable and Entertaining Performance Last Night.

The Indians gave a very unique entertainment last night and those who attended say they would not have missed it for much more than the price of admission.

Everybody is ransacking boxes and drawers for early garden seed.

The Fisher saw mill is laid up for repairs, a broken flume being the trouble.

Mrs. James Wright, from Roseburg, and Mrs. Phillips, nee Mosier, from Portland, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. Mosier here.

The board of equalization of school district No. 52, met at the school house last week and attended to their usual grist of business.

"Positively N. Credit" is the withering notice that stares us in the face when after our allowance of beans and bacon at the store now-a-days.

The Oregon Lumber Co., which will begin operations in their logging camps about the first of next month, will furnish employment for a number of Mosier citizens.

Spring has a rather disappointing habit of coquetting with winter in this neighborhood.

A Mr. Hunter and family arrived from Los Angeles last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Young and Mr. Evans, all recently from Missouri, have returned to that state on business.

With all of our good people, Mosier has some individuals who would prove jewels at Salem, in striped suits of clothes, with a ball and chain attachment for a bangle.

"Promenade to the supper table," shouted the caller. There was no mistake, for the clock showed 'twas midnight.

The punishment fits the crime.
Last evening a stranger entered the Skibbe hotel and negotiated a check on a local bank for two dollars with Mr. Skibbe.

It would appear that $2 is a small sum to risk gaining in such a way.

The professor refers to the following ladies and gentlemen: Ex-Governor Stevenson, Boise City; Bishop Glorieux, Dr. M. E. Spaulding, Boise City; Prof. Marsh, Pacific University, Forest Grove.

Artificial glass eyes inserted to perfection.
Remember, the professor is the only one that carries a complete set of tools, where lenses can be ground on the premises if necessary.

The Columbia Packing Co.,

PACKERS OF Pork and Beef.

MANUFACTURERS OF
Fine Lard and Sausages.

Curers of BRAND

Hams and Bacon,

Dried Beef, Etc.
Masonic Building, The Dalles, Or.

Wasco Warehouse Co.,

Receives Goods on Storage, and Forwards same to their destination.

Receives Consignments For Sale on Commission.

Rates Reasonable.
MARK GOODS

W. W. Co.
THE DALLES, OR.

SUMMONS.
In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Wasco.

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above-entitled case.

Notice is hereby given that the following-named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of The Dalles, Or., on Thursday, March 24, 1893, viz:

James K. McClure,
Homestead Application No. 8977, for Lots 5 and 6, and the S 1/2, S 2 1/2, and S 3 1/2 SW 1/4 of sec. 6 Tps. 3 S., R. 12 E.

Notice is hereby given that the following-named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of The Dalles, Or., on Saturday, March 25, 1893, viz:

Edward Henderson,
Homestead Application No. 8977, for Lots 5 and 6, and the S 1/2, S 2 1/2, and S 3 1/2 SW 1/4 of sec. 6 Tps. 3 S., R. 12 E.

Notice is hereby given that the following-named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of her claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of The Dalles, Or., on Saturday, March 25, 1893, viz:

Edward Henderson,
Homestead Application No. 8977, for Lots 5 and 6, and the S 1/2, S 2 1/2, and S 3 1/2 SW 1/4 of sec. 6 Tps. 3 S., R. 12 E.

Notice is hereby given that the following-named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of her claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of The Dalles, Or., on Saturday, March 25, 1893, viz:

Edward Henderson,
Homestead Application No. 8977, for Lots 5 and 6, and the S 1/2, S 2 1/2, and S 3 1/2 SW 1/4 of sec. 6 Tps. 3 S., R. 12 E.

Notice is hereby given that the following-named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of The Dalles, Or., on Saturday, March 25, 1893, viz:

Edward Henderson,
Homestead Application No. 8977, for Lots 5 and 6, and the S 1/2, S 2 1/2, and S 3 1/2 SW 1/4 of sec. 6 Tps. 3 S., R. 12 E.

PROFESSOR J. ALOES

Artificial glass eyes inserted to perfection.
Remember, the professor is the only one that carries a complete set of tools, where lenses can be ground on the premises if necessary.