BLAINE'S BIOGRAPHY

We publish in another column a letter from Mrs. J. G. Blaine, relative to the fraudulent "biographies" of the late statesman, published by unprincipled book houses. Gail Hamilton is the only person entrusted with the publication of the biography of the great patriot and statesman. She is a writer of worldwide fame and literary ability, and is better qualified to write the biography of Mr. Blaine than any other person. Speaking of the frauds of the aforesaid publishing houses, she comments thusly:

"When at the very foot of the cross, the executioners of our Lord parted his garments among them and cast lots for his vesture, they at least had the garments to divide. Certain modern publishers, outrunning even the Jews and soldiers in enterprise, add fraud to greed, and would palm off their old clothes upon the people as the true seattless cont.

"In the melancholy scramble to be first on the market with an 'authentic.' 'authorized,' 'money-making' Biography of James G. Blaine,' the competitore have reached a point where it behooves me to speak.

"I may also be permitted to avail myself of this opportunity to answer once for all those honorable men and women who, wishing to be agents for Mr. Blaine's hiography, have made inquiry whether the biographies so advertised issue his biography. To the first question this paper is sufficient answer.
