

Redeeming a Stray.

Father Bronsgeest, left Tuesday for Portland, having in charge Mary Wolfarth, a miss of some 16 years, who, by the worthlessness of her parents and her associates, had commenced the downward career leading to moral and bodily ruin.

The Glacier throws cold water upon the proposed "deostriek skule" entertainment here. The fact is that the Dalles possesses dramatic talent of a high order, and is no better proven than by the large houses which have invariably greeted them in the winter seasons, proving the most remunerative of any of the numerous church or society schemes to acquire funds.

New Placer Mines.

A Portland syndicate has had eight placer fillings made, aggregating about 160 acres, on Three Creeks, situated about ten miles northeast of here. It has been known for a good while that this part of the country was rich in gold and the people have been patiently waiting for capital to come in and develop these placer findings.

No Selection Made.

Whitney will be appointed ambassador to Great Britain, it is stated on unquestionable authority that neither Whitney nor any other man has been selected for the position. In fact, it is asserted positively, on the same authority, that the matter of appointing a successor to Mr. Lincoln has not been considered.

Three days is a very short time in which to cure a bad case of rheumatism; but it can be done, if the proper treatment is adopted, as will be seen by the following from James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Ills.: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right today; and would insist on every one who is afflicted with that terrible disease to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well at once." 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

"The people of this vicinity insist on having Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and do not want any other," says John V. Bishop, of Portland Mills, Indiana. That is right. They know it to be superior to any other for colds, and as a preventive and cure for croup, and why should they not insist upon having it. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
