

JOHN SONTAG IN JAIL

Desperate Fight With the Collier Trainrobbers.

EVANS ESCAPED TO THE HILLS

Badly Wounded and Will Probably Be Captured--Sontag Shot in the Abdomen.

VISALIA, Cal., June 12.--United States Marshal Gard and his deputies; H. Rapelle, deputy sheriff of Fresno county; Fred Jackson, an officer from Nevada; and Tom Burns, who was with Black at Camp Badger when he was shot ten days ago, did effective work last night 17 miles east of here. Sontag was shot in the right shoulder and the shot possibly entered the breast. Evans started for the hills and the ground is bloody where he stopped. He left his two guns lying there, and his hat all covered with blood. Sontag lay behind a small stack of hay all night, and the posse who went out this morning found him there. Gard and party were camped on a side hill, waiting for daylight, to see if the desperadoes made any move, or if gone to follow their tracks. Marshal Gard thinks he fired the shot that hit Sontag. Sontag says he spit blood all night. There is a glancing wound along his forehead, and one on each side of his nose. It is claimed he shot himself in these three places, though this is denied. Evans' tracks showed he started toward Visalia, and his house will be watched day and night. Being without arms or ammunition and undoubtedly wounded, and his partner in crime captured, he must give up pretty soon. Sontag talks freely, saying the jig is up and he cares nothing for the future. It is possible Sontag may recover from his wounds, the doctor thinks, though he expresses no decided opinion.

INSANE FROM TROUBLE.

Loss of Her Child and Fortune Drove Her Crazy.

TOLEDO, June 12.--One of the saddest cases of a woman broken down with sorrow has developed in this city. The unfortunate woman is Mrs. John Herzog, once a well-known belle in society. Some two years ago she and her husband quarreled, and a suit for divorce followed. They soon adjusted their differences, however, and lived happily together again. A few months later she was tried to learn that her husband had secretly obtained a divorce, which she claims was without her knowledge. Some time later her husband died, leaving considerable property; but she was astonished upon the settlement of the estate to learn that the attorney who had secured the divorce had been appointed administrator, and had filed numerous claims through the courts. The matter dragged along for months, leaving her nearly destitute. To add to her troubles, a short time ago her only child disappeared. Weighed down with her sorrows, she has followed the steps of Judge Millard all over the city, beseeching him to assist her in the restoration of her child and property. Today she was thought to be an unsafe person to be at large, and was locked up. Arriving at the jail, she became violently insane. She is a beautiful woman, and highly intelligent.

THE BORDEN MURDER TRIAL.

Stenographic Report of the Former Trial concluded.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., June 12.--At the opening of the second week of the Lizzie Borden trial this morning over half the spectators were women. After the court formally opened the jury were directed to retire, and what promises to be a protracted argument over the admissibility of the stenographic notes of Miss Borden's testimony at the inquest began. After the arguments were concluded, the court retired for consultation. Returning, they stated that they had decided to exclude the testimony. Dr. Dedrick was then placed on the stand. He testified that from an examination of the bodies he believed Mrs. Borden died first. Policeman Hyde testified that he saw Miss Borden and her friend, Miss Russell, go down into the cellar shortly before 9 o'clock on the night after the murder with a pail to the closet and sink. The prisoner made another descent later alone. They had a light, but Miss Russell looked nervous.

Ex-President Harrison at the Fair.

CHICAGO, June 12.--Ex-President Benjamin Harrison arrived at the world's fair grounds shortly before noon. After a drive about the grounds he was entertained at luncheon in the administration building by the world's fair officials. When his presence on the grounds was known there was a vigorous clapping of hands and waving of handkerchiefs wherever he went. The Infanta Eulalia also appeared on the grounds and breakfasted at the reproduction of the famous London White Horse Inn, afterward going on a sight-seeing tour through the grounds.

Passenger Rates Also.

CHICAGO, June 12.--The lines in the Western Passenger Association are uneasy on account of the threatened reduction of rates from the West by the Great Northern. They induced the latter road to withhold its reduction for a few days, but the news today that it had declared a $25 rate from Seattle to St. Paul was unpleasant, and knocked the wind out of the proposed proceedings in the interest of harmony. It is believed the Northern Pacific will meet the cut by bringing down the through rate to Chicago. This will involve the other lines.

Graphic Story of the Fight With the Posse--Sontag is Very Low.

MONTREAL, Que., June 13.--Another Briggs case in the Presbyterian church has loomed up in Montreal. Rev. Dr. Campbell, professor of church history in the Montreal Presbyterian college, is on trial today before the local presbytery on the charge of heresy, based on an address delivered by him last February in Queen's college, Kingston. In that address Dr. Campbell declared that he could not believe in the typical Old Testament of God. The meeting is being held with closed doors. Dr. Campbell is at present away on a vacation.

Dying By Thousands.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 13.--The cholera has appeared in many districts of Asiatic Turkey, and is spreading rapidly. Along the lower Tigris and the Shat-el-Arab River people are dying by thousands. Villages have been deserted by those fleeing from the pest. The panic has become so great that few families wait to bury their dead or even to nurse their sick, but flee to the next towns to escape the infection. The fugitives from stricken towns are spreading the epidemic with appalling rapidity. Letters from Bassora city say that 70,000 people have fled from Bassora province alone.

Oregon Woolens Recognized.

ALBANY, Or., June 13.--The Albany Woolen Mills Company, which was recently awarded the contract for furnishing clothing for the Oregon National Guard, today received a telegram from the Indian department announcing that it was the successful bidder for the contract for furnishing the United States Indian department with blankets, kersey and cadet coats. Having competed successfully with the largest woolen manufacturing establishments of the country, this speaks volumes for this industry in Oregon.

Federal Appointments.

WASHINGTON, June 13.--The president today made the following appointments: Holmes Conrad, of Virginia, to be assistant attorney-general. Henry C. Grady, United States marshal for the district of Oregon. Daniel R. Murphy, United States attorney for the district of Oregon. Thomas J. Black, collector of customs for the district of the Willamette, Oregon.

CARRIAGE COMPANY ASSIGNS.

The Corvallis Factory Pressed to the Wall by an Overstock.

CORVALLIS, June 13.--The Corvallis Carriage & Wagon company filed a deed of assignment last evening. Walter T. Williams, assistant cashier of the First National bank of this city, is named as assignee. The inventory shows the total assets, to be $30,506, and the liabilities $37,572. As soon as the assignee's bond is approved, the factory will be reopened, and all material now on hand made up into finished work. Several reasons are assigned for the recent turn in affairs, the principal one being the unusual lateness of the season, which has caused work to move off very slowly, and as a result some $20,000 worth of finished jobs have accumulated in their storeroom on which there are no returns.

The News in Portland.

IT WAS ECOB. The Briggs Decision Was Too Much for Pastor and People. The sensation of yesterday, says an eastern paper, was the stand taken by Rev. J. H. Ecob, D. D., pastor of the Second Presbyterian church in this city. It was known that he sympathized with Dr. Briggs in his recent treatment by the general assembly, but it was not thought he would go so far as to withdraw from the Presbyterian church. He took that step, and his church will probably be with him and act independently hereafter, leaving open the question of connection with some other denomination. In Dr. Ecob's opinion now is the time for liberal Christians of all churches to come together. His sermon outlined the steps that led up to the final action of the assembly. "There is no hope," he said, "of doing anything by staying inside of the Presbyterian church after that act. The minority was not treated even decently and the majority is too large to be overcome within the ranks. Large as it was, it did not represent the great majority of the Presbyterians outside who have no use for a confession of faith made over 200 years ago."

A Row at the Barracks.

ORANGE CITY, June 13.--At the Salvation Army barracks last night some young rowdies were creating a disturbance. Mayor Sullivan, while assisting Policeman Kelly to put out the toughs, received a severe blow behind the ear. The result of the fracas was the arrest of one Riley, and warrants are out for three others.

Graphic Story of the Fight With the Posse--Sontag is Very Low.

VISALIA, Cal., June 13.--Lije Perkins, who lives in Wilcox canyon just east of where Sunday night's fight took place, arrived in town last night with the information that Evans was at his house badly wounded and could be taken. A posse was immediately organized and left about midnight and hurried through the darkness and over rough roads and arrived at Perkins' house about 2 o'clock this morning. A little boy of the Perkins family went upstairs and informed Evans that the officers had arrived. Mr. Perkins then went up while the posse remained below and told Chris that the officers were below and advised him to give up the fight and surrender before he was killed. Chris, dependent and sick at heart, replied, "All right," and requested that the officers come up stairs and he would give himself up. Deputy Sheriff Hall and posse then entered the room, and Hall said, "Chris, I have come to arrest you;" and Evans replied, "All right, Billy." When asked if he had any arms, he replied he had a pistol under his pillow, he being in bed. Sontag is very low. The doctors say the bullet in the lungs is very dangerous. About midnight his friends, the Byrds, were summoned to his bedside, as he thought he was dying.

Crop-Weather Bulletin.

Weather--The week has been cooler than the preceding week. There has been less sunshine, and since Friday there have been frequent showers.

Crops--The weather has been most favorable to the growth of all vegetation. Both fall and spring wheat are much better than they were last year. Reports indicate an unusually heavy hay crop. Pastures are luxuriant, and as a result stock is in prime condition. Strawberries are becoming very plentiful and they are a good crop. Reports do not show that the peach and cherry crop will be over one-half a crop, except in Douglas, Josephine and Jackson counties, where the prospects are good for an average crop. The prune crop will be unusually heavy. The onion crop bids fair to be one of the largest on record.

EASTERN OREGON.

Weather--During the fore part of the week warm easterly winds prevailed for two days, changing to cooler and cloudy weather, with occasional light sprinkles during the latter few days, especially on the 10th. The mean temperature varied from 48 to 64 degrees, as against 50 to 62 degrees of the preceding week.

Crops--Strawberries are ripening rapidly, and are very large and fine. The peach crop is not full, except in the Snake river orchards. The fruit prospects are on the whole not the most encouraging, except berries, and they will be fully an average crop. More rain would prove beneficial to the cereal crop, but its absence, with a continuation of cool, partly cloudy weather will work no serious injury.

Rivers--The Columbia, Snake and tributary rivers are gradually rising and the prospects are for a continuous rise. Considerable danger yet exists and while high water is yet to be expected, yet it is not probable that they will attain a higher point than they have in 1880, 1882, or 1887, when in each of these years the river was from 26 to 28 feet at Portland.

Gas Supply Struck.

FINDLAY, O., June 13.--The city drilled in a 20,000,000 foot gas well on the Creighton farm, five miles east of the city today. When the gas was struck the flow was so strong that the tools were blown out of the well. An effort to shut the well in failed, and tubing was blown higher than the derrick. This well outrivals the famous Karg, and the roar of the escaping gas can be heard for five miles.

Hopper's Fourth.

HEPPNER, Or., June 13.--Five hundred dollars have been subscribed for a grand celebration here the 4th of July, which will consist of horse racing, fireworks, a balloon ascension, etc.

A Mother-in-Law Molested.

SALEM, Ind., June 12.--Mrs. Maria Holmes has set a precedent for wives deserted by their husbands through the influence of mothers-in-law. She sued her mother-in-law for $10,000 damages for alienating the affections of her husband, and the court gave her $1,600.

Hot Weather and No Rain.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 12.--The heat was intense in the northwest today. In parts of Minnesota, the Dakotas and Iowa the thermometer ranged from 92 in the shade to 100. At Milbank, S. D., the crops are slightly damaged. Rain is badly needed.

SHE REMEMBERED HIM

MOBILE, Ala., June 14.--Twenty-four years ago George Morris was shot and killed at Wholerville, this county, by his friend, Robert Hudson. The slayer fled the country, but ventured to return last month. He was known to no one, having greatly changed; but his voice was recognized by an aged blind woman, Amelia Chatham, and the sons of the man swore out a warrant for him. Today Hudson was indicted by the grand jury. The sheriff has gone to Scranton, Miss., where Hudson now is, and will bring him to Mobile. Morris and Hudson quarreled while on their way home from a visit to Mobile, and Morris hit Hudson with a bottle. The two appeared later at Morris' house, when Hudson's injury was attended to by Morris. Hudson went home, but shortly after returned with a gun. Morris went out to meet him, carrying an unloaded gun, and saying that he didn't care to load it as he didn't want to hurt Hudson. As Morris crossed the fence and turned to replace a rail which had fallen down, Hudson shot him in the back, killing him. Amelia Chatham and two sons of Morris, aged 11 and 14, saw the deed. Mrs. Morris refused to prosecute, and would not let the sons do so. She died about a year ago. Upon Hudson's return he visited Wholerville, and was recognized by none until the blind woman cried out, "That is Bob Hudson." Hudson turned and walked away quickly, but his movements were noted, and he was located at Scranton. Amelia Chatham is over 70 years of age, and the boys are stalwart men of middle age. The three have vivid recollections of all the incidents of the killing.

THAT COWBOY RACE.

Governor Altgeld of Illinois Issues a Proclamation.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 14.--The following proclamation was issued yesterday by Governor Altgeld:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 15, 1893. To ALL OFFICERS OF THE LAW: Being reliably advised that a long-distance horse race, from Chadron, Neb., to Chicago, Ill., a distance of over 700 miles, is about to take place, and that a similar race in Europe a year ago for only half this distance resulted in the death of the horses used, and was productive of such barbaric cruelty to animals as to shock humanity, and having reason to believe that this proposed race will be accompanied by equal or even greater cruelty and barbarity, which will be in violation of the laws of this state for the prevention of cruelty to animals, I hereby call upon all officers upon whom devolves the execution of law, as well as upon all good citizens, to see to it that no violation of the law takes place, and that any one guilty of it shall be promptly brought to justice. We will welcome the so-called cowboys into our state and bid them come in all their glory and have a thoroughly enjoyable time with us, but we cannot permit the laws of Illinois to be trampled under foot simply as a matter of sport. JOHN P. ALTGELD.

The Chinese Farce.

Portland is manifesting a decided affinity for Chinese immigrants. The Danube is a case in point. That steamer arrived at Portland May 18th with 504 Chinese. The happy thought occurred to the health officer that there was smallpox on board, so he ordered the Danube, with its over-crowded, suffocating human cargo into quarantine. When, as might have been expected, no case of smallpox appeared on board, the Danube was turned over to Collector Lotan and his deputies, who are supposed to have devoted twenty-five days to determining how many of the Chinese are entitled to admission. How long will the farce continue? How long will the Portland press maintain criminal silence? The whole affair is tainted with stupidity and fraud. Baffled at San Francisco and in the Sound, the Chinese smugglers have found in the heart of Oregon, a place where the law is practically nullified and the doors are thrown wide open. Mr. Lotan should rise up and explain how such things are possible.--Astorian.
