

COLLAPSE OF A HOTEL

Many People Are Buried in the Ruins.

THE CHICAGO ANARCHISTS FREE.

Gov. Altgeld Says They Did Not Have a Fair Trial and Pardons Them.

FORT SCOTT, Kan., June 26.—The Tremont hotel collapsed at half-past 9 this morning, without warning. There were 100 occupants in it.

Three men were taken out soon after noon, but their injuries are such that their deaths are expected in a few hours.

Chicago Anarchists Free.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 16.—Governor Altgeld today pardoned Fielden, Neefe and Schwab, the anarchists serving life sentences in the Joliet penitentiary for complicity in the Haymarket riot in Chicago on the night of May 4, 1886.

THE COMING SESSION.

Legislation That Will Occupy the Attention of Congress.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—General Catchings, of Mississippi, who was a member of the last house committee on rules, in speaking of the legislation which will occupy the attention of congress at the special session this autumn, said:

"The repeal of the Sherman act and the reform of the tariff are the two great subjects with which we will have to deal. The numerical strength of the free silver vote is uncertain, but it is certain many members will oppose its repeal unless something nearer to free coinage is offered.

THE CRISIS HAS PASSED.

Feeling in New York Money Market Much Easier.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Money is stringent, call loans ranging at 10 to 30. There is a good deal of calling in of loans preparatory to July interest and dividend disbursements.

leading banks report this morning the demand from country banks for rediscount and loans are smaller than for many weeks, and that the indications are the crisis has passed.

MR. KOSHLAND ON TRIAL.

He Has a Formidable Array of Legal Talent.

PORTLAND, Or., June 26.—It has been many months since a case has appeared in the criminal courts of Portland in which so much interest has been taken by the public generally as that against merchant Matthias Koshland.

Henry McGinn, for the prosecution, stated that the prosecution was based on the statute passed by the session of the legislature of 1885, referring to the receipts issued by warehouses for goods stored in the building.

J. W. Whalley presented the case for the defense. He said that the defense lay in the denial that the statute under which indictment was made referred to the defendant's case.

The attorney then gave a short history of the firm's business relations with the bank of British Columbia, their failure in business and their assignment to that corporation.

Lamar's Successor.

Howell Edmunds Jackson, who succeeded Justice Lamar on the bench of the United States supreme court, is a native and resident of Tennessee.

H. E. JACKSON.

He then studied law at the Lebanon Law School where he graduated in 1856. After three years practice in Jackson he removed to Memphis. Judge Jackson has twice been appointed to the supreme bench of his state.

Will Be Court-Martialed.

LONDON, June 26.—It transpires that Rear-Admiral Markham was on board the Camperdown and in charge of the maneuvers at the time that vessel sank the Victoria.

THE SILVER MUDDLE

An Early Session Seems the Only Solution.

THE CABINET DISCUSSES IT

Congress Will Be Called Together in September—Thinks it Better to Wait Until That Time.

WASHINGTON, JUNE 27.—Two hours were consumed by the cabinet today discussing the new phase of the silver question, when other matters demanded their attention.

HAWAIIAN NEWS.

Speckles Fighting the Annexationists—Blount Wants to Come Home.

Claus Spreckles has won the first skirmish in his fight against the Star, the annexationists' organ.

Minister Blount was much disappointed at not receiving word by the last steamer that his successor had been appointed.

As an argument for annexation, the Star prints a revised list of taxpayers who pay taxes on property valued at $10,000 and over.

Ruskin an Imbecile.

The great lecturer and art critic of London, England, John Ruskin, has become an imbecile.

JOHN RUSKIN

He then published the first volume of "Modern Painters," criticism of which brought him prominently before the public.

Koshland is Acquitted.

PORTLAND, June 27.—"We, the jury in the action of the State vs. M. Koshland, find the defendant not guilty."

out of court. The result was a surprise to all, and a murmur of applause ran through the court room when the verdict of the jury, who were instructed by the court to acquit the defendant, was read by the clerk.

Tomorrow Mr. Koshland must answer to a second indictment of the grand jury, which accuses him of issuing a warehouse receipt for goods not in his store, which goods were 36,914 sheepskins.

BIG LAKE STEAMERS.

Four New Boats Are Ordered by the Great Northern.

Since the recent visit to Cleveland, Ohio, of President Hill, of the Great Northern, to the Globe Iron works, where the two big twin-crew passenger steamers are being built for this line, it has been decided to build four more steamers of the type now under construction.

India's Mints Close.

LONDON, June 26.—Telegrams from Calcutta say the Indian government has stopped the coining of silver for private account at the mints.

In the house of lords Earl Kimberley, secretary of state for India, stated the Indian council had passed an act for the immediate closing of Indian mints to the free coining of silver.

President Diaz Will Not Run.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 26.—It is reported on good authority that General Diaz will not be a candidate for re-election as president of Mexico, and that the government candidate will be General Reyes, the present governor of the state of Nuevo Leon.

A Suggestion From Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 27.—The tremendous drop in the price of silver yesterday and today, bringing exchange in New York to 66 per cent, has caused much discussion among Mexican bankers.

Senator Dolph on the Sherman Law.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Senator Dolph, of Oregon, the only Pacific slope senator in the city, said this morning:

"I am opposed to my colleagues, you know on the subject of free coinage, and am in favor of maintaining all currency on a par with gold; but it seems to me this action of the Indian government will diminish, instead of increase, the prospect of passing a repeal of the Sherman law by the senate."

Repeal of the Sherman Law Necessary.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 27.—Thirty merchants and manufacturers of this city today sent a dispatch to President Cleveland, expressing the conviction that a sound stable currency of equal value in the money markets of the world is an absolute necessity for the safe conduct of business.

McCLURE'S MAGAZINE to Everyone Subscribing for The Dalles Daily Chronicle for 12 Months at 60 Cents a month.

OR The Weekly Chronicle AT $2.50 PER ANNUM.

CUT THIS OUT AND SEND IT TO US.

Publishers CHRONICLE, The Dalles, Or.: You will please send to my address the DAILY CHRONICLE for 12 months from date, for which I agree to pay 60 cts. a month, it being understood that you are to have sent to my address for 1 year without extra charge, McCLURE'S MAGAZINE commencing with the current number.

Name, Address

CALL AT OUR OFFICE

McCLURE'S MAGAZINE,

which has among its contributors the most famous authors in such writers as the following: R. L. Stevenson, Rudyard Kipling, J. T. Trowbridge, A. Conan Doyle, Octave Thanet, William Dean Howells, Bret Harte, Clark Russell, Joel Chandler Harris, Mrs. Robt. Louis Stevenson, F. Marion Crawford, Margaret Deland, Harriet Prescott Spofford, Edward Everett Hale, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, Thomas Hardy, J. T. Trowbridge, Jerome K. Jerome, Frances Hodgson Burnett, Theodore Roosevelt, Joaquin Miller, Gilbert Parker, John Burroughs, Camille Flammarion, Lillie Chase Wyman, Harriet Prescott Spofford, Edward Everett Hale, Louise Chandler Moulton, Hamlin Garland, Prof. E. S. Holden, Prof. C. A. Young, H. H. Boyesen, Robert Barr, Henry M. Stanley, Archibald Forbes, Andrew Lang, Sarah Orne Jewett, Dr. J. S. Billings, W. E. Henley, Capt. Charles King, Alphonse Daudet, Camille Flammarion, Edward Everett Hale, Prof. Graham Bell, F. Hopkinson Smith, H. H. Boyesen, Stanley J. Weyman.

THE DAILY CHRONICLE, The Dalles, Or.

IF YOU WANT Government, State, or Dalles Military Road Land

THOMAS A. HUDSON

Successor to Thornbury & Hudson, 83 Washington St., THE DALLES, OR.

CHRISMAN & CORSON,

GROCERIES

Flour, Grain, Fruit and Mill Feed HIGHEST CASH PRICE PAID FOR PRODUCE

Cor. Washington and Second Sts., The Dalles, Or.