THE IRRIGATION CONGRESS.

An interesting and important congress will meet at Los Angeles, California, on October 10th, to sit for five days. This is the National Irrigation Congress, the last session of which was held at Salt Lake City in September, 1891, about 700 delegates being present.

THE RETIRING COUNCIL.

More than half the city council retired from their arduous and generally thankless duties with the meeting of last night. These are the mayor, Hon. Robt. Mays, Recorder Menefee and Councilmen Wood, Haight and Williams.

THE LAST MEETING.

The Two Year Term Closes for More than Half the Council.

The city council held their regular monthly meeting last night, a little in advance of the usual time, which should have been on the 3d of July, on account of the regular annual meeting, which takes place on that day.

brought before their attention the practice might be stopped. The fact, he said, was intended to prevent crime, but it seems to be employed to perpetrate it. Judge Bellinger might have stopped at this point had he not asked if there was anything else to come up.

The Oregonian has done some excellent service in the way of educating the masses on the silver question and to it we are indebted for a very simple illustration of the results that would follow the adoption of free and unlimited coinage.

THE OLD SYSTEM PUNCTURED.

Selling Whisky to Indians Brought Up With a Jerk By Judge Bellinger. Portland Dispatch. Judge Bellinger this morning threw a keen poniard through the vicious system that has been in vogue with deputy United States marshals in the matter of the violation of the intercourse law, and it is very probable that there will be less cases of whisky to Indians now than there has been for many years.

Chicago elected Gov. Altgeld because of his well-known socialistic tendencies, and he has paid the debt to the bombthrowers by pardoning the Haymarket murderers. A vigorous howl has been sent up from the state, and it is possible the governor will be impeached.
