Mr. Fred Young of Bake Oven, who, with his father, Mr. Geo. Young, is one of the most prosperous sheep men of this country, returned last evening from the east. Mr. Young bought and brought home with him 52 head of Shropshire bucks, which were bred and raised on the stock farm of Mr. A. O. Fox of Oregon, Wisconsin. They are all registered in the national stock register, and to us are the finest lot of blooded sheep we ever saw. They are all yearlings. We noticed one that weighed 220 pounds gross. As a mutton sheep they are at the head for profit, as the wool clip is at an average and the carcass is above, and with it comes the profit of the sheep industry. Mr. Young says he has changed the sheep business from that of wool to mutton for the block, on account of necessity. The democratic party must eat, even if they go in sackcloth and ashes on account of the democratic platform, which must stand.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johnstown, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I knew of several cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists. Im.

An Indian's Oratory.

The following colloquy took place on one of our street corners last night between a couple of Warm Spring Indians on the present condition of national affairs. Mr. Indian, who is one of the best informed on the political situation, remarked that "Washington tyghe, Mr. Cleveland, has sick tumtum. Yaka clatawa coga salt-chunk. Yaka quas. Yaka wake cuntux, alta halo chickamin, hala mamook, halo mukkamuck. Cotta alta?"

The sombre shading of the Indian's thoughts can hardly be expressed in English, but this is as near as we can reproduce it: The president is heart-sick; he has gone to the seacoast to get away from his troubles, because he is afraid of them and don't know what to do. He knows we have no money; there is no work, nor anything to eat. What does it mean?

Mr. Thomas Batte, editor of the Graphic, Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is well worth remembering. He says: "Last summer I had a very severe attack of flux. I tried almost every known remedy, none giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief. I continued to use the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to any person suffering with such a disease, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists. MARRIAGE MAXIMS.

NEVER both be angry at the same time. NEVER talk at one another, either alone or in company. LET each one strive to yield oftenest to the wishes of the other. NEVER find fault, unless it is perfectly certain that a fault has been committed, and always speak lovingly. NEVER let any fault you have committed go by until you have frankly confessed it and asked forgiveness. THE very nearest approach to domestic happiness on earth is in the cultivation on both sides of absolute unselfishness.

A MAD POET

rushed into a newspaper office recently, and threatened to "clean out" the establishment, because they printed his verses wrong. Said he: "I wrote, 'To dwell forever in a grove of peace,' and you idiots put it 'a pot of grease.'" The mortified editor presented him with a vial of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, a year's subscription and an apology.

The little "Pellets" positively cure sick and nervous headache, biliousness, costiveness, and all derangements of the stomach, bowels and liver. It's a large contract, but the smallest things in the world do the business—Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They're the smallest, but the most effective. They go to work in the right way. They cleanse and renovate the liver, stomach and bowels thoroughly—but they do it mildly and gently. You feel the good they do—but you don't feel them doing it.

They're the cheapest pill you can buy, because they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You only pay for the good you get. That's the peculiar plan all Dr. Pierce's medicines are sold on, through druggists.
