Marcus Vanbibber loses his reason. But Not His Power to Act. Marcus Vanbibber, son of W. H. Vanbibber, received an injury from being thrown from a horse yesterday...

The brain and the forces which direct control it will always furnish material for psychologists to puzzle upon. An instance is recorded where a pupil who had just graduated was struck on the head, causing him to forget his entire education...

THE TWO STATES.

Oregon. Governor Penney will not call an extra session. The funeral of Lieut. Charles E. Nelson took place yesterday. Grasshoppers are doing much mischief throughout Grant county.

Michigan Valley Items. Harvest is in full blast. A. B. Fairchild has been on the sick list but is convalescing. Krasow and Oldes will soon complete their cut of several hundred acres.

Frank Sloan, a very prominent stockman of Heppner, accompanied by J. A. Thompson, his assistant, left Heppner Sunday morning for Butter creek, about twenty-five miles from Heppner, to pay for and receive cattle.

At the coroner's inquest held over the body of Lieut. Nelson, A. T. Workman testified that he first saw Nelson leaning over the tongue of a caisson and scuffling with two members of the opposing force.

WASHINGTON. Reports received from sections of the Walla Walla valley indicate that the yield of wheat this season will average about 30 bushels.

The Union Pacific will put in a 17-stall roundhouse at Starbuck. Hop culture is a leading industry in some sections of the state. Crops this year will be abundant. A Blaine man got a job in a sawmill and took hold of a buzz-saw about the first thing he did.

A fire in Winlock destroyed two valuable blocks, including a bank, millinery store, barber-shop, general merchandise store, saloon, drug store, Central hotel and butcher shop. Nearly a dozen principal business houses were burned Tuesday morning at Fairfield.

Forest fires are raging in the woods about South Bend, and there are fears that portions of the town will be burned if the dry weather continues. A number of settlers have lost their cabins and others are not only anxious for their homes, but for the hemlock bark they have peeled for market.

John Palmer, of the Wasco warehouse, met with an accident Monday that, while not deserving of mention at the time, has developed into a serious apprehension. While cutting the wire around a bale of sacks, he was struck on the back of his left hand by the recoiling wire, drawing blood.

A refined and cultivated young lady, living unobtrusively with her guardian, a good housekeeper, financially independent, and fond of country life, wishes to correspond with some honorable agriculturist or stock raiser, who is matrimonially inclined.

A man came into Salem yesterday to see the circus. His face was clean shaven but his neck was covered with whiskers, cut in such a shape as to make him look like a grin framed in Oregon moss.

OREGON HORTICULTURE

At the World's Fair--The State and Its Resources. Unfortunately no appropriation was made until in February of this year, and not until the 25th day of March was it fully decided to attempt a show of Oregon's resources at the world's fair.

Is extensively carried on and is fast becoming the principal fruit industry. The yield is large, and the fruit the most perfect of its kind, commanding the highest prices. Growing pears and apples is next in extent to prunes, and has proved to be very profitable when wisely managed.

In the exhibit are the well known Rhode Island Greening, Winesap, Yellow Newtown Pippin, Spitzenberg, Baldwin, Janet, Blue Winter Pearmain, Rome Beauty, Red Cheek Pippin, Roxbury Russett, Maiden Blush, Romanite, Ben Davis and Swaar. The growth of fruit trees in a single season frequently reaches ten feet and the health and vigor is marvelous.

PROPOSALS FOR Flour, Bran and Feed. U. S. Indian Service, Warm Springs Agency. WARM SPRINGS, Crook Co., Or., Aug. 5, 1893. Sealed proposals, indorsed "Proposals for Flour, Bran and Feed," as the case may be, and addressed to the undersigned at Warm Springs, Oregon, will be received at this agency until 1 o'clock P. M. of Tuesday, August 29, 1893, for furnishing and delivering at the agency about 25,000 lbs. of flour, 25,000 lbs. of bran, and 25,000 lbs. of feed. Flour must be either what is known as "straight full stock" of good sound wheat--90 the ground down to allow 1 lb. of bran, and 10 lbs. of shorts to be taken out; or it may be what is known as patent flour, and delivered in extra strong single center sacks to weigh a net weight to the yard. Sacks must be of good quality, and must not contain bran and shorts mixed; samples of net loss from 25 lbs. must be furnished by bidders. Flour must be clean, bright, fresh rolled, free from dirt and must contain not less than 22 lbs. net to be furnished by bidders. Delivery--of the above flour, it to be delivered to the Warm Springs Station, located 25 miles north of the agency, 25,000 lbs. of flour, 25,000 lbs. of bran, and 25,000 lbs. of feed, and at the agency, 25,000 lbs. of flour, 25,000 lbs. of bran, and 25,000 lbs. of feed. All articles are to be stored in a cold storage house. Proposals must specify the proposed price of each article, and must be accompanied by a contract by the contractor, and a certified check or draft upon some United States depository or savings national bank in the vicinity of the residence of the bidder, payable to the order of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, for at least five per cent. of the amount of the proposal. Bidders whose check or draft will be returned to the bidder if he fails to accept his bid or to promptly execute contract, otherwise to be returned to the bidder if he fails to accept his bid. Bids are to be opened by cash in lieu of a certified check will not be considered. For further information as to time of delivery and other particulars, apply to J. C. LEECH, U. S. Indian Agent.
