ROBBERIES WILL BE ARMED

Robbers Will Be Given a Warm Reception Hereafter.

A NECESSARY PROVISION.

Companies Will Provide Revolvers and Winchesters for all Train Hands.

Chicago, Sept. 26.—Armed men will accompany every train hauling express cars from Chicago to any point west or south in the future. Two men have already determined to arm themselves, and in a few days orders will be issued by other roads running into Chicago to supply Winchesters to all men connected with trains hauling express cars. This has been found a necessary provision, owing to the recent robberies and attacks on trains. Orders were issued by the Michigan Central railroad that every trainman should be supplied with a couple of revolvers and a Winchester repeating rifle. The revolvers are only to be used in cases of emergency, and these cases are considered to be so rare that trainmen have learned not to draw them until the moment. The Winchesters are to be used at any and all times when the train is held up by bandits, and a more liberal dose will be fired at the robbers. The latter have used recently on express trains. The Winchesters are to be loaded with duckshot, and the robbers appear with rifles or revolvers they will be treated to a dose of shot which will not necessarily hurt only serve as a strong invitation to every man on the Pennsylvania lines will also be armed in a similar manner. It is understood that the Michigan Central, Wabash, Illinois Central and other roads will take the same precautions immediately.

DRIVES THE CELESTIALS OUT OF LA GRANDE.

LA GRANDE, Sept. 25.—The anti-Chinese agitation which has been going on in this county for the past two weeks culminated last night in an armed mob of 200, who met outside the city limits at midnight, marched to the Chinese quarter and, after looting the houses, drove the Chinamen to the edge of the city and ordered them to leave. The immediate cause of the action of the mob is said to be a meeting at Rodger's schoolhouse, on the sand ridge, north of this city, yesterday, at which inflammatory speeches were made by one Eatleb, a disolute attorney. At this meeting the mob organized and moved toward La Grande, led by H. C. Cotner, a rancher, Joseph Truesdale, a saloon keeper, and recruits as it advanced, until it reached the city, there were at least 200 men in line. Marshals McDonald and Ardrey, Constable Walden and Deputy Sheriff Lindgreen attempted to stop the riot, but as it was entirely unexpected and no preparations had been made, they were soon overpowered. The city authorities took no action when apprised of the outbreak this morning. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of the ringleaders. Preparations have been made to prevent a recurrence of the attack.

NOT SUICIDE, BUT MURDER.

PARABO, Cal., Sept. 26.—The morning of the 10th Peter Williams supposedly killed himself in the head in a lodging house, dying soon afterward. His wife just left the room when the deed was committed. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of suicide. The official thought differently and this afternoon J. M. Burnham, who occupied an adjoining room the night of the tragedy, was arrested at Malaga near here, charged with the murder. Williams was also arrested and lodged in jail, being an accomplice in the crime. Last night another man named Matricio was arrested. A sensational case is expected.

DISCOVERY FOR THE OLD MAN.

PARABO, Ind., Sept. 26.—Dr. J. Robinson of Versailles arrived here today. He viewed the remains of E. Robinson, the dead robber, lying like his son. The old gentleman was overcome with grief. He was afterward taken to the jail and Moody brought into the room. The meeting was very cool, neither showing they were more than mere acquaintances. The father refused to acknowledge he was his son, but after considering the matter the young man confessed the dead man was his brother. Dr. Robinson stated he did not know what induced the boys to commit the act.

THE GILMOUR CASE.

An Unexpected and Sensational Development in the Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 26.—The sensational Gilmour murder case took a new turn today when a marriage contract between Dr. E. F. West and Annie Staley, who the police say was West's accomplice in the murder of Miss Gilmour, was recorded. This marriage, it is evident, was contracted so that Annie Staley, who acted as nurse for Dr. West's patients, could not be compelled to testify against her employer and lover. As West is now in jail, the regular marriage ceremony could not be performed, so the contract was resorted to. West's preliminary examination was postponed until tomorrow at the request of the prosecution.

He started on the search, but failing to find him, returned to the office, when after a few minutes Driscoll again walked in, and was promptly secured.

When they took Nez off the train at Forest Grove he was still unconscious and died Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the effects of the liquor. Their father, who is also a heavy drinker, was intending to take the treatment at once. Several years ago Benjamin Hayden ranked as one of the brightest criminal lawyers in Oregon.

The warships are also reported to have suffered from the fire of the forts, and on several of the rebel ships the shells of the forts are said to have caused death among the crews. ## Col. Espina Will Be Shot.

BURNOS AYRES, Sept. 27.—It has been learned that the officers and crews of the two torpedo-boats which attacked the government squadron off the coast yesterday, and which were incited to revolt by Colonel Espina and the officers and members of the crews, gave their captors information which, when it was laid before the government, led to orders being issued for Colonel Espina's arrest. He was taken in custody, and the probabilities are he will be shot as a traitor. The government has asked congress to authorize the prosecution of General Alem on a charge of suborning the army to rebellion.

A CRAZY MAN'S FREAK

Caused a Panic in the Chicago Wheat Pit.

THREE KILLED IN A TRAIN WRECK

Col. Espina Will Be Shot as a Traitor for Giving Information to the Enemy.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—A fusillade of bullets was fired into a wheat pit on the board of trade about noon. Traders scattered in a hurry, business came to a standstill and the wildest excitement ensued. A. N. Bennett, a broker, received a frightful wound in the neck; Chas. Roswell, a telegraph operator, was shot in the leg, and a woman in the spectator's gallery was also said to be wounded. The shooter was a red-headed man in the gallery. He was quickly overpowered and taken to the secretary's office. He is supposed to be insane.

LATER.
Both the wounded men will die. The shooter gained access to the visitor's gallery a few minutes before the tragedy. He fired five shots at random into the pit. Bennett was secretary of the Board of Trade Mutual Benefit Association and a prominent member of the board. The report that a woman was wounded proved unfounded. The man, after being taken in charge by the police, gave his name as Cassius Belden, of 365 La Salle avenue, Chicago. He is undoubtedly a maniac. The shooting caused the wildest excitement on the floor. Panicked brokers dashed for the exits, creating a jam, which threatened to become serious for an instant. The sounds of the shots and the rushing out of the board habitués notified outsiders that something unusual was transpiring, and in a few minutes thousands gathered in and around the big building, and the utmost excitement prevailed for a time.

The prisoner, after reaching the police station, asked to see a reporter. He said he was a carriage painter by trade, and told a long and rambling story about having been hypnotized by a man named Jones three years ago, and having been under hypnotic influence ever since. He at last reached the exalted stage. He declared it had been a hard struggle for bread, but when they began to sell his soul on the board of trade he resisted. They had already sold his two children in Philadelphia, where he says he has a wife. He was dressed as a laboring man. It appears that a woman was wounded after all. Mrs. W. W. Lewis, of Titusville, Pa., one of the spectators in the other gallery, started down the stairs as soon as the shooting began. The last bullet glanced and struck her in the back, causing a flesh wound, from which she fainted and was removed from the building. It was at first supposed she had fainted from fright merely.

Another Attempted Hold-Up.

CONNEYSVILLE, Pa., Sept. 28.—It is reported an attempt was made last night to hold up an east-bound midnight express on the Baltimore & Ohio road, near McKeesport. The train carried over $60,000 in cash. The officials deny it, but the passengers were greatly excited when it arrived here. They said the train was suddenly stopped and the passengers kept back, while the train men rushed to the front. It is understood the officials got wind of the proposed hold-up and sent a heavily armed train ahead of the express.

DRIVEN ON THE ROCKS.

A German Bark Wrecked on the Mexican Coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—The story of the loss of the Mexican coast of the German bark Carl Burchard is given by two seamen who arrived here. She sailed from Liverpool in January last, coal laden for Peru. A few weeks out she experienced a gale which threatened to capsize her. The sailors were unable to handle the sails, which with the ropes were encrusted with ice. About half the crew were laid up. Rounding the Horn terrific seas were encountered. April 16th, in a dense fog, the bark had a narrow escape from collision with an iron ship. They were close enough to tangle the rigging. The Burchard finally arrived at Port Angeles, where, owing to a defect in her papers, she was taken for a smuggler. While anchored in the roadstead, three miles from shore, in a fierce storm, with both anchors out, she began drifting. The bark struck on the rocks four times; the foremast split, taking the rigging overboard with it. A great wave lifted and carried her within a mile of shore. The mizzenmast fell, injuring two of the crew. A second wave drove her upon the rocks, and she split. She was abandoned by the crew, all of whom were rescued but one. The crew, with the exception of the two men who reached here, were sent to Germany, via Panama, by the consul at Port Angeles.

Married His Housekeeper.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 28.—Henry B. Fray, the millionaire lumberman, finished a palatial residence a few days ago, and social circles have been on the qui vive of expectancy, owing to a report that Fray was about to bring here as a wife a wealthy Massachusetts girl. It was true that Mr. Fray was bent on matrimony, but the bride never lived in New England. Mr. Fray was quietly married yesterday afternoon at the home of a friend to Lina Marie Strand, a remarkably pretty Norwegian girl, who for the past three years has acted as his housekeeper. It is said Mrs. Fray is a woman of no ordinary ability and will make the millionaire connoisseur of pine and hemlock an excellent wife. She formerly resided at Kakato, Minn., and was born of humble parents in Norway 23 years ago.

White House Crank.

A Crazy Man Looking for President Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Police officer Heller had a violent struggle today with an insane man who, in some mysterious manner, got into the White House and was looking for President Cleveland. The appearance of the officer probably saved the president from assault. How the fellow got inside the building no one knows. He was not seen to enter the front or rear door. He appeared in a hall on the lower floor as suddenly as though he had come through the ceiling. A colored cook, whom he met, he questioned: "I want to see father." "Who is father?" the cook asked him. "Cleveland, of course," was the response.

Just then Policeman Heller appeared upon the scene and asked what he wanted. He saw at a glance that the man was not altogether right. "Your father is out in the garden," he told the mysterious visitor. "Come with me and we will find him." They immediately started toward the door, the intruder thinking that he was going to meet the president, but the officer knew he would land him at the watch box in a few minutes. They appeared in the little watch box, where Policeman Hible was on duty. Before he knew what was going on, the prisoner grabbed Hible's black-jack from his pocket, evidently thinking he was getting a pistol. He tried to use the black-jack on the officers, but they grabbed him, and the struggle lasted only a few minutes before the man was overpowered. At the station the man gave the name of Joseph Washington. He refused to tell where he lived. No one at the station remembers ever having seen him before. When asked what he wanted at the White house, he replied: "I wanted that chair."

"What chair?"

"The president's chair."

"Don't you think the president fills it satisfactorily?"

"No I don't," was the reply. "I intend to get it by fair means or foul, give me a pistol and I'll show you who will get it—quick." He will be held for examination.

A DISGRACEFUL SCENE

Members of the House Call Each Other Liars.

VERY NEARLY CAME TO BLOWS

A Crazy Man Looking for Cleveland Who Wanted the President's Chair.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—The lie passed at the opening of the session of the House this morning between Morse of Massachusetts and Fithian of Illinois. Morse in a brief speech attempted to justify his course in his filibustering yesterday. He charged Fithian with being solely responsible for the refusal of the house to permit him to print in the Record newspaper extracts attacking Pension Commissioner Lochren. Fithian, replying, said that Morse had endeavored to induce him (Fithian) to withdraw his objection to printing by coming to him and intimating that he (Morse) would, as a member of the committee on buildings and grounds, help Fithian get through any public building bill in which he might be interested.

"That is absolutely false," shouted Morse, striding menacingly toward Fithian.

"If the gentleman from Massachusetts denies the statement, I have proof that will satisfy any member of the house. My colleague Goldzier heard the conversation," retorted Fithian.

Morse backed against the rail and replied meekly: "What the gentleman says has the color of truth" (laughter), "but the construction he places on it is unqualifiedly false."

"If the gentleman denies my statement," yelled Fithian, shaking his fist angrily at the Massachusetts man, "he is willfully lying himself."

The house was then in an uproar. The speaker pounded vigorously for order, declaring both out of order. This closed the incident.
