KILLED HIS MISTRESS

Murderer Then Blew His Own Brains Out.

TRAGEDY IN STOCKTON, CAL.

Indians in La Grande-Pallas, the Anarchist, Shot in the Back.

STOCKTON, Cal., Oct. 6.—A Portuguese named Al Rogers attempted to murder his mistress, a French girl named Alice, shooting her twice in the head, inflicting wounds with the butt of a pistol. She will die. He then shot himself through the brain.

The La Grande Fire.

LA GRANDE, Or., Oct. 5.—While returning home last night, Olsen, of the Alliance Flouring Company, heard a man whistle and run on the platform of the Hamilton elevator, also one inside the building. His suspicions were aroused, and he notified Titcomb, the agent, who accompanied the marshal to the elevator. Mitchell was evidently intended, the door was unlocked and open. He advanced the theory it was an incendiary, on account of the fire on Wednesday. Others thought it was robbery, robbers supposing money to be kept there. There is no clue to the men. The heaviest losers of Wednesday were: A. B. Conley, 25,000 bushels; J. L. Caviness, 1,500 bushels, and Pacific Coast Elevator Company, a few thousand bushels left from a season. The fire is believed to have been incendiary. There was no fire in the building for 24 hours. They do not rebuild soon.

Shot in the Back.

BARCELONA, Oct. 6.—Pallas, the anarchist who September 24th made an attempt on the life of Captain-General Martinez Campos by throwing two bombs at him, was shot at 8 o'clock this morning, according to the sentence of a court-martial which tried him. From first to last he refused the ministrations of the priests, sneered at their lamentations, laughed at their pictures of the future state of the unrepentant, and marched to the place of execution singing an anarchist song, as if to drown the words of the holy fathers of the church who walked by his side. The execution took place in an enclosure near the castle of Monjuich. A large body of troops with small arms formed three lines of a square facing the death wall, against which Pallas was placed. Outside the line of troops crowds of people gathered, though not so great as it would have been but for the fact that the place of execution was not announced in advance, with a view to prevent an opportunity to Pallas' anarchist friends from setting a dynamite outrage in connection with it. The preliminaries arranged, the firing squad were drawn up, with Pallas in the center. Pallas was placed against the wall, his back to the firing squad, a cap order was given, the guns came to the shoulder, and as the commanding officer's sword flashed downward a volley rang out, and Pallas fell forward dead. Then the body was lifted up, the troops marched away and all was over.

Northern Pacific Train Robbers.

TACOMA, Oct. 5.—The fight with Northern Pacific train robbers resulted in the capture of three men and the killing of another. This occurred Wednesday night about 10 o'clock, near Java, the second station on the Great Northern west of Summit Rocks. After the robbers had left a cabin near the summit, a posse of 85 men closed around them. The robbers pushed westward, but to doubt with hopes of crossing the Rockies and escaping into the Flathead country. When the posse at Java sighted the robbers, the latter were ordered to surrender. They refused and the officers opened fire. The robber killed was John Chipman. Ben Hall, alias Mattocks, is shot through the thigh and not expected to live.

They Will Some Day Be Sacques.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 8.—The Russian steamer Ketchik has arrived here with this season's catch of the Russian Seal-skin company, owners of the Copper Island rookery privileges. It is the most valuable cargo from the north that has ever entered this port. On the mainmast are 33,830 sealskins, valued at $15 per skin; 134 sea otter skins, at $100 each; 80-bear skins, and 800 sables, making a total valuation of over $500,000. This freight is all consigned to Alfred Frazer of New York, and will be shipped overseas at once. Captain Tchoukoff reports that the patrol in Behring sea has been very strict near the rookeries this year. Seals inside the thirty-mile limit did not suffer to any great extent.

THE AMICK TREATMENT.

The Medicine Sought After by Physicians From all Parts of the World. CINCINNATI, Oct. 7.—The fame of this city as a center of medical researches has gone to the end of the earth. Dr. C. Howard Strong, of Capetown, South Africa, has been here a week investigating the Amick cure for consumption and takes back with him sufficient medicine for 60 patients. He sails from New York, October 11. Dr. Joaquin Duenas, secretary of Cuba's delegation to the Pan-American medical congress, was also sufficiently impressed to order the Amick medicines, and yet another delegate obtained a supply for Venezuela. In far off Alaska an American physician, Dr. Arthur Jordan, is stopping the ravages of consumption amongst the natives of his island of St. George with Amick's help. The Cincinnati discoverer's offer, to physicians everywhere, of a free test of medicines for any number of patients, is as eagerly accepted in the frozen north as in the southern tropics.

NEWS NOTES.

The Franklinville, Erie county, N. Y., canning company put up $80,000 cans of sweet corn, or fourteen carloads, Wednesday.

A collision occurred on the Louisville & Nashville railroad on the 6th at Gethsemane, Ky., in which two trainmen were instantly killed.

Mrs. Cleveland is out again and has so far recovered that she takes an occasional drive with the president. The baby, too, is doing well.

The Vigilant won the first of the series in the international yacht races Saturday. Her British competitor shows superior sailing ability in a stiff breeze, but the wind was light.

"White Rose," wife of "White Bull," chief of the Iroquois tribe of Indians, while riding in a race on the fair grounds at Berwick, Pa., was thrown against the railing enclosing the track and received fatal injuries.

Three burglars were discovered by two policemen in the act of robbing a store at Grand Island, Neb. The thieves opened fire, wounding Policeman Joseph Smith in the leg. The officers returned the fire, killing one burglar.

The billiard match of a series of 10 games, 1000 points up each game, between Roberts, the English champion, and Ives, the American champion, came to an end Saturday. Roberts was the winner by the grand total of 10,000 to 8,738 for Ives.

Advices report that Chili is sending 400 cavalry horses, eight Krupp guns and 10,000 Mannlicher rifles to Bolivia. This is taken to indicate an alliance hostile to Peru, the two countries—Chili and Bolivia—believing that in her present straits Brazil could not lend a helping hand to Peru.

In the senate Saturday Mr. Voorhees arose and said: "I desire to state this morning, in the hearing of the senate and of the country, that Wednesday next, after the meeting of the senate, I shall ask that it continue in session until a vote is taken upon the pending measure, and I shall ask and expect the senators to maintain the necessary quorum for the transaction of business until the end of this protracted struggle is reached."

At Livingston Tuesday afternoon Jack Albright, a fero dealer, was shot through the head by Bertha King, a woman of the town. When the officers arrived they found the woman disrobed and in bed. She had her head buried in the bedclothes and was weeping and hysterical. On the floor lay the smoking revolver, with one chamber empty. Stretched at full length by the side of the bed was the body of Albright, with a hole in his forehead. He died three hours later, without having uttered a word. The woman is in jail. She acknowledged the shooting, but claims it was accidental. She dictated the following telegram to her mother: "I am in jail and expect to be hung. Pray for my soul."

Something to Remember.

If you're a weak or ailing woman—that there's only one medicine so sure to help you that it can be guaranteed. It's Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. In building up over-worked, feeble, delicate women, or in any female complaint or weakness, if it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back. It's an invigorator, restorative tonic, a soothing or strengthening nerve, and a safe and certain remedy for woman's ills and ailments. It regulates and promotes all the proper functions, improves digestion, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, brings refreshing sleep, and restores health and strength. Nothing else can be as cheap. With this, you pay only for the good you get.

MORE OF THE STORM

Another Section of the State Suffered the Fate of Cheniere.

FISHERMEN'S VILLAGE WRECKED

Not a Vestige of a House Remains in the Vicinity—For Miles the Shore is Strewn With Debris.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 7.—From fishermen arriving in the city today it is learned that another section of the state suffered the same fate as the unfortunate Cheniere. It is the district known as the Louisiana marshes on Lake Borgne, near Bayou Muscalo. There a number of fishermen banded together and erected a cluster of cabins convenient to the oyster beds. The cabins are now gone and the occupants unaccounted for, with a few exceptions. Not a vestige of the house remains in the vicinity and the shore for miles is strewn with the wreckage of loggers and other craft, while among the brush are to be seen bodies of sailors and others. Since Sunday night the survivors have suffered greatly from a lack of food and clothing and shelter. Supplies are flowing in from all sides, and several boats have gone today and will go on Monday to the stricken scene with rations and raiment. Coroner Berry, of Plaquemine parish, reached the city today and said it was impossible to picture the situation in his parish, where the death list was long. Men, women and children are starving and hundreds of corpses lie on the river bank.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 5.—The return of several of the relief parties sent to the storm-stricken districts of the state fully confirm the news of yesterday. The corrected lists put the total dead at 2,041. This may be increased by some 500 by subsequent news. The loss of life at Cheniere Caminada is now put at 1,290; at Bayou Andre, 72; and at Grand Island, 24 instead of 10. Fears are entertained for fishermen to the number of 200, living at Lake Borgne swamp. There is great complaint from throughout the Bayou Cook section of the stench of dead bodies lying in the swamp. A large number were buried, but there are still over 200 exposed. The damage at Chandlier island is more serious than thought at first. Nearly all the vessels anchored there were wrecked. The United States quarantine station and the transfer steamer Walsh were destroyed and everybody on quarantine was lost except the United States physicians. The loss to the government is $130,000. The steward, nurse and three patients were drowned. Relief for sufferers poured in today. The city of New Orleans subscribed $2,500, and the parish authorities of Jefferson and Plaquemine voted money and at once sent relief expeditions. A dozen of loggers reached New Orleans from portions of the storm country today, all crowded with refugees. There are now between 200 and 300 in town.

THE MOORS WELL ENTRENCHED.

The Spanish Troops Will Have Some Trouble in Dislodging Them.

MADRID, Oct. 7.—The Moors were reappeared before Melilla. During the night they cut entrenchments along the crests of three hills at some distance from the fort, but on Spanish territory. They have a strong position, which can be taken only by a charge across a stretch of open country. As they are well armed, the Spaniards will hardly be able to storm the position before receiving large reinforcements. Many of the Moors are still in concealment, and others are occupying works. The strength of their skirmish parties and reports of Spanish scouts indicate that the total Moorish force is at least 14,000. There was considerable desultory firing during the night, most notably when the Moors occupied Sidi Quaraiach, a fortress which, half completed, had been abandoned by the Spaniards. The first shots were fired by the Moors.

Cut His Throat.

TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 9.—William Goodwin, a prominent farmer of Riley county, committed suicide yesterday by cutting his throat with a razor. In company with his wife he was driving to Manhattan, and when passing a thick hedge stopped, and, asking his wife to hold the team, he jumped from the wagon and cut his throat. No cause is assigned.

Frank Ellison Sentenced.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Recorder Smythe this morning sentenced Frank Ellison, who was convicted last week of assault in the second degree, second offense, of having brutally beaten broker William Henriques, to five years in Sing Sing at hard labor. This is the extreme penalty. Motion for a new trial was overruled.

Bombarding Outside Ports.

RIO JANEIRO, Oct. 9.—The insurgent fleet again bombarded the outside ports today. There was also some firing on the other side opposite the city. It is believed the insurgents will attempt to capture the Estralla powder magazine, but the government will blow the magazine up if it seems likely to be in danger of capture.

There is no truth in the report that foreign warships are landing sailors to protect foreign subjects. The insurgent admiral has issued a manifesto disclaiming any intention of bombarding the city.

Eight People Drowned.

DEER PARK, Mich., Oct. 9.—A wrecked fishing-boat was picked up by the Musk-alonge lifesaving crew. It was found to be the boat which left White Fish Point, October 6, with eight persons on board, including Captain W. H. Carter and wife, one child and five seamen. It is thought all were drowned.

OREGON NEWS.

Dr. John I. Nicklin of Condon died Sept. 30th.

Roseburg receives a world's fair medal for marble.

The Portland Dispatch will shortly discontinue its daily.

The Oregon will probably be presented with a silver service as a testimonial from the state.

The financial depression has caused a cancellation of theatrical companies contemplating a Pacific coast tour.

Oregon has sent a 21-ounce pipkin to Chicago to beat the big Arkansas apple. The Oregon giant's girth measure is 15 3/4 inches.

The county fair at Chehalis has thus far been a failure on account of the rain, which set in the first of the week. Had it not been for this untoward circumstance the fair would probably have exceeded any of those held in former years.

The opal fields on Burnt river near the farm of Mrs. Eugene Smith are attracting considerable attention and the precious stones found there carry the fine and variegated colors that make the Mexican opal so valuable. Several persons are prospecting the fields and with good success.

A small boy was drowned in the sewer on East Second and Weidler streets, Portland, Saturday. It appears that the parents of the child sent him to a neighbor on an errand and in attempting to pass over the sewer he fell in and was drowned before assistance could reach him.

The quiet little city of Lebanon has been thrown into excitement over the shooting of Andrew Vail by himself. Vail says he shot himself accidentally as he went to scale the fence, but the general opinion is that it was a premeditated case of suicide. The cause assigned is that he was jealous of his wife.

The mayor of Portland has received a handsome steel plate engraved invitation from the Union Iron Works, bearing a finely executed picture of the Oregon, and the names of Miss Daisy Ainsworth and Miss Eugenia Shelby, who will be conspicuous figures at the launch, which will take place at 10:30 o'clock October 26th.

One of the most prominent lager beer saloon-keepers in Portland stated to a Telegram man that within the past six months the retail sale of beer in Portland had dropped 50 per cent. This he attributes to the involuntary idleness of a small army of laboring men, who, he alleges, are the largest percentage of beer consumers.

S. S. Grider's home, near Condon, burned last week, while he was working in the harvest field, and nothing was saved but a feather bed and two blankets. Mr. Grider seems to be particularly unfortunate as a victim of the fire king, this being the third time his home has been burned down. The insurance on the house expired two weeks ago.

John R. Atwood, who absconded from the Vancouver Transportation Company some months ago, has returned to Portland of his own accord and given himself up, saying he wants to be tried, and not have the crime hanging over him. He has visited Paris and other foreign cities and enjoyed himself in a manner, but could stand the swiftings of conscience no longer.

Lai Tai, well known to everyone in this country, left last Monday for Portland, where he will remain with his uncle, Kong Tai, until about the middle of October, when he will depart for his old home in China. Lai is an unusually intelligent Chinaman and has always been liberal and honest in his business dealings while in this country.—Antelope Herald.

A SLIGHT FORECAST

What Is to Be Expected This Week in Congress.

TO TRY FOR CONTINUOUS SESSIONS

A Proposition to Extend the Present Silver Law With Reduced Purchases Is Taking Shape.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The momentous event in the senate this week will be an attempt to secure continuous sessions of that body. That this attempt will produce important results can hardly be doubted by anyone familiar with the situation. There is a general belief in the chamber that the present week will bring a solution of the problem. The opinion is expressed that there will be a compromise of some character agreed to and put through. The proposition simply to extend the Sherman law for a definite period with reduced monthly purchases seems to be taking shape as the most likely of the various propositions to receive approval. The proposition to include bond purchases is also receiving attention, and the present indications are that while many democrats may not agree to such a proposition, it may be put through with the assistance of the republicans. Senators from the silver-producing states are constantly consulted and advised with as to the terms of agreement, but they will not be allowed to dictate in the matter of compromise. It may be stated, however, that the silver party in the senate, including democrats and republicans, is not so anxious to secure a compromise as is supposed. The silver men appreciate the fact that they are in the minority and cannot dictate terms of capitulation, but feel that if they can make it clear they are able to go on with the debate indefinitely, they will be able to secure very liberal concessions. One point on which they still seem determined to hold out is against fixing the limitation of time silver purchases shall cease within Cleveland's administration, and the chances are that they will win in the matter. What the silver men would like best next to free coinage would be a continuation of the present bill. That would be a triumph, and not a compromise. Senator Manderson intimated yesterday that he considered this result possible, and, having canvassed the chamber very thoroughly to secure a compromise, Manderson is quite competent to pass upon the point. Such a result could be brought about by taking recess until the regular meeting in December, or by taking up some other bill. The general desire among the senators is to get away. If, therefore, the night session experiment should not bring about the passage of the bill, the possibility is that a recess resolution would secure a majority in its support.

Arrested for Sending a Challenge.

RICHMOND, Oct. 9.—Jefferson Wallace was arrested Saturday night on the charge of sending a challenge to fight a deal to Joseph Bryan, proprietor of the Richmond Times. Mr. Wallace is secretary of the city democratic committee, and Mr. Bryan is one of the leading churchmen in Virginia and also president of the Georgia Pacific railroad. The trouble grew out of criticisms made recently upon the press of the city by Mr. Wallace, and upon which the Times commented sharply. Mr. Bryan declined to accept the challenge and sent it with a note to the chief of police. Mr. Wallace was thereupon placed under arrest.

"During my term of service in the army I contracted chronic diarrhoea," says A. E. Beneing, of Halsey, Oregon. "Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief they would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

BEATEN AGAIN.

The Vigilant Beats the Valkyrie in the Triangular Race.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—[Special to THE CHRONICLE.]—The Valkyrie crossed the line at 11:25 and five seconds later the Vigilant followed her. This is the triangular race, the second in the series of five international races for America's cup. The Valkyrie took the lead by four lengths, which she maintained until 11:20, when the wind freshening, the Vigilant passed her and at 12:30 was one-eighth of a mile ahead. When the starting point was again reached she came in winner by two good miles. During the race there was a strong wind blowing and the hopes of the British contingent received a cold dampener, as they believed, in common with many Americans, that the conditions were favorable for Lord Dunsraven's yacht. The Vigilant has so far proven the superior at every point.

Painfully Incorrect.

"I see a mistake in your paper that I thought you might want to straighten up," said the man in the linen duster, who had toiled up three flights of stairs to see the editor.

"Well?" said the editor.

"Why, it's just like this: You say that when the balloon went up a cheer arose from a thousand throats and that two thousand eyes were gazing upon the intrepid aeronaut. Now, that there ain't right, because I know they was three one-eyed men in the party and that only leaves only 1,997 eyes to be a-gazin' into space. I lowed you would like to know." And the linen-dustered man trotted downstairs.—Indianapolis Journal.

FLOWERS AND TREES.

The water lily is largely used in some parts of India as food. The fruit of some species that grow plentifully in the lakes of Cashmere is rich in starch and has much the flavor of a chestnut.

The Jerusalem artichoke has no connection whatever with the holy city of the Hebrews. It is a species of sunflower and gets its name from the girasole, one of the scientific names of that genus of plants.

All the West India islands down to Trinidad just off the coast of Venezuela, are recognized by their flora and fauna as being far more nearly related to the northern part of the western world than to South America.

The last annual circle of wood leaves an accumulation of living cells upon its surface, and toward midsummer these cells produce an abundance of new ones until the aggregate is sufficient to form a new annual layer. This process on common trees requires about six weeks.

"I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a specific for croup. It is very pleasant to take, which is one of the most important requisites where a cough remedy is intended for use among children. I have known of cases of croup where I know the life of a little one was saved by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." J. J.
