

The Weekly Chronicle.

THE DALLES. . . . OREGON

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Saturday's Daily. If at first you don't succeed. Try, try again.

The Portland exposition has been extended another week.

Goldendale has made up a purse for Frank Miller and his balloon next week.

The Regulator took 750 head of sheep to Troutdale this morning.

The Regulator will make a trip to Cascade and return tomorrow.

Blank petitions may still be obtained at this office.

What are you marking the price of that at 50 cents for? It only cost 3 cents?

Fred Hillert, a boy about 12 years of age, living on the hill, fell and broke his hand while at play yesterday.

Rev. O. D. Taylor, manager of the Columbia River Fruit Co., says that anyone out of work or otherwise wanting to dig potatoes, pick fruit or grub land, for shares for payment, can secure the opportunity on application to him.

Remember the guessing contest at Pease and Mays tonight. A pleasant entertainment has been prepared for those in attendance while the count is being made.

A very pleasant time was had by a number of the friends of Mr. Ernest Jensen last evening at his new home near the Methodist church.

A Dalles woman was notified by her bank that she had overdrawn her account by one hundred dollars.

The estimated expense of running the rock crusher one month is $335.

A fight between shepherders in which shooting irons were freely used, occurred Tuesday evening on Tygh Ridge.

The grand march at the domino party tonight will begin at 8:45 sharp.

Prof. Frank Miller made another ascension this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The passage of the repeal bill has produced a buoyant tendency on the people.

The Weekly Chronicle is not reduced in size, but is sent out in two parts.

Snow fell at Antelope a week ago Saturday.

Ducks are very plentiful along the river and lakes.

The Regulator took out 700 head of sheep this morning.

N. Harris' auction sale will be continued later on, of which due notice will be given.

The sewer ordinance is being enforced in a new way, judging from the numerous overturned outbuildings below the bluff.

The Chronicle has held the forms later than usual this evening waiting for

WORK AT THE LOCKS.

Progressing Finely with I. N. Day to the Van-Stevenson Flouring-Place.

The Cascade Locks is a lively place to put 300 or 400 people inside its borders.

The great governmental undertaking of constructing a ship canal is being pushed to completion.

Stevenson, the young aspirant to fame, and the capital of Skamania county, presents four square fronts to view.

SAW MILL PROSPECTS.

Mr. F. H. Rowe Arrives to Remain Permanently in the City.

Mr. Fred H. Rowe arrived on the Regulator last night, and a load of his household effects also came up on the same boat.

A reporter of THE CHRONICLE met Mr. Rowe this morning, who claims a former acquaintance with the gentleman in Southern Oregon.

While the plans are not virtually completed looking to the location of his mill at this point, it is certain that he will locate with his family at The Dalles.

The primary reason for making his home here is on account of his wife's health, which requires a dryer climate.

It is also certain that he will put in a planing mill and box factory at The Dalles.

The passage of the repeal bill has produced a buoyant tendency on the people.

The Montgomery Advertiser says: "Simmons Liver Regulator has secured a reputation solely on account of its extraordinary merits as a medicine for the liver, stomach and kidneys."

The county board of equalization will meet at the court house on October 23d, 1898.

Mexican Silver Stove Polish causes no dust.

Sheriff W. A. Booth of Crook county passed through The Dalles this morning.

THE PORTLAND EXPOSITION.

An Observer Speaks of it in Terms of Highest Praise.

The exposition is fine. Liberator is superb. The President informs me they will continue it all next week.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Saturday.

Mr. Ray Davis returned to Portland this morning.

Mr. F. C. Driver went to White Salmon this morning.

Miss Grace Laner left this morning for a few days' visit in Portland.

Mr. J. T. Lucas and family of Centerville went to Portland this morning.

Mr. W. H. Donaglass of Buffalo is visiting Rev. O. D. Taylor and family.

Mrs. W. J. Strong of Portland is in the city, visiting Mrs. B. S. Huntington.

Mr. B. F. Laughlin was a passenger to Portland this morning by Regulator.

Mr. S. A. Lister, clerk of the Warm Springs Indian Agency, was in the city today on business.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Brooks, who have been attending the Portland exposition, are expected to return on the Regulator tonight.

Mr. F. M. Amen, of Oregon City, arrived last evening on the Regulator, visiting friends and relatives in The Dalles.

Monday.

Mr. B. S. Huntington went to the Cascades today.

Messrs. M. Jameson and H. French returned last night from Portland.

Hon. F. P. Mays left for Portland Sunday morning. He will return this week.

Mrs. G. C. Blakeley returned last night, after spending a few days in Portland.

Mr. A. W. Patterson, of the Heppner Gazette, came up on last night's train and left this morning for Heppner.

Dr. J. Sutherland came in from Spokane this morning, and in company with Mr. H. S. Wilson, left today for Goldendale to attend the Splawn case.

Mrs. J. G. Wilson, accompanied by her daughter Mrs. C. W. Taylor of Wallula, returned from Portland Saturday evening.

Hons. H. S. Wilson and E. B. Dufur are in Goldendale attending court.

Rev. G. H. McGuffey, pastor of the First Christian church of The Dalles, took the train last night for his home in the Blue Grass region of Kentucky.

Mrs. Potter, of Goldendale, is in the city visiting her daughter, Mrs. Pearl Ryan.

Mr. C. F. Patterson, superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Co., is in the city today.

Mrs. M. French, Misses Laura Thompson and Cattie Booth were passengers on the Regulator this morning for Portland.

Rev. A. Bronsgeest, who as our readers are aware is travelling abroad, writes to a friend in this city, after having travelled through Ireland, Scotland, England and Holland, he arrived safely on the 12th inst. in Cleve, a city in Rhenish Prussia.

Born, eight pigs one year ago, twelve pigs seven months ago and eleven pigs two months ago, to the same white China sow, the property of Lee Henkle.

During my term of service in the army I contracted chronic diarrhoea.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good."

LEE GUM KILLED.

Was One of the Robbers of the First National Bank.

Lee Gum, one of the three Chinamen who robbed the First National bank of The Dalles a few years ago, and afterwards made a confession, implicating the others and set free, has been found dead in Portland.

The Oregonian relates the circumstances of the killing, but is at a loss to know whether it is a case of murder or suicide.

The dead man was employed in Quan

LEE GUM KILLED.

Was One of the Robbers of the First National Bank.

Lee's wash-house, on Couch street between First and Second. He was strong and healthy, 23 years of age, and a hard worker.

Lee Tong claimed that the deceased was subject to attacks of heart disease, and during the past few days had been suffering from a severe attack.

The circumstances have given rise to a strong suspicion of murder, for Chinamen are very rarely guilty of self-destruction.

Coroner Hughes intends to sift the matter to the bottom. He will hold an inquest over the body at three o'clock this afternoon.

Real Estate.

Clara L. Jeffers and W. J. Jeffers to Eliza M. Jeffers, lot E, block 28, Fort Dalles Military Reserve to Dalles City; $1.

Elizabeth and Wm. Chambers to Albert Weigel, lots G, H and I, block 22, Ft. Dalles Military Reserve to Dalles City; $500.

All Free.

Those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery know its value, and those who have not, have now the opportunity to try it free.

Cashing Certificates of Award.

The premium list is compiled for awards at the second district fair and all those holding certificates can have them cashed at the secretary's office.

J. O. Mack, Secy.

LOUIS J. VANDEREVE, One of the best known business men in Chicago, representative of the great Bradstreet Co.

HEADACHE, SLEEPLESSNESS, NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

Dr. J. H. Shiloh, of Chicago, Ind., writes: "I take pleasure in informing you of the wonderful results which have followed the use of Dr. King's Restorative Nervine."

THOUSANDS GAINED TWENTY POUNDS. ALL THIS OCCURRED AFTER LEARNING AND WELL KNOWN PHYSICIANS HAD FAILED.

TRY DR. MILES' PILLS, 50 DOSES 25 CTS. SOLD BY BLAKELEY & HOUGHTON.

ONE DAY CURE HATTEES

Advertisement for Congo Oil featuring an illustration of a person and text: 'THE MARVEL OF THE PRESENT AGE' and 'C.W.R. MFG CO PORTLAND O'.