DYNAMITE IN LONDON

Bomb Found On Westminster Bridge.

BLOW UP HOUSE OF COMMONS

Weighted Ten Pounds and Had the Fuse Attached—King Lobengula is a Captive.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The Globe this morning prints a report to the effect that a bomb was found Wednesday upon the approach of Westminster bridge, near the houses of parliament. It is under examination at Scotland Yard to determine whether it is loaded.

The bomb was just brought to light that two watermen discovered a small iron bomb weighing 10 pounds, with a fuse screwed into the little end, and a number of large cartridges loaded with bullets, on one of the abutments of Westminster bridge, on the side of the house of commons. The bomb was taken to Scotland Yard and exploded. When rumors of the explosion got out the police at first made no account of it when questioned, but when these implements of death were connected with a dynamite plot, though they insist it is of small importance. It is the general belief, however, it is a very grave matter, and that it was the intention to blow up the bridge. It is to blow up the bridge.

The police attach the importance to the matter, not believing it has any dynamite plot comes. It was found on the side of the bridge furthest from the house of commons.

King Lobengula Captured.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—A dispatch from Johannesburg states it is rumored that heavy fighting occurred between the British and Matabeles in the bush along Shangani river, and that King Lobengula has been captured.

SUICIDE OF A WIDOW.

Who Has Been Married in a Few Hours.

NEWCASTLE, Ind., Nov. 3.—Mrs. Mattie Canary, a strikingly handsome young widow, committed suicide in Newcastle yesterday morning, six weeks before the time set for her marriage with Walter F. Rosebro. Rosebro, a prominent citizen, and only a year or so ago was editor of the Argus News. He was engaged in business in Greenfield. He is a prominent Mason and an officer of the Knights Templar. His betrothal to Mrs. Canary attracted considerable attention, because of the difference in their social position. The lady yesterday received a letter from a former lover, asking her to come to him. This was greatly excited her, and Wednesday night she purchased 25 grains of morphine, and swallowed them this morning with fatal results.

THE CRONIN MURDER.

The Second Trial of Ex-Detective Coughlin for Murder.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—The second trial of Detective Daniel Coughlin, charged with complicity in the murder of Dr. Cronin, began today in the presence of a large audience. Coughlin pleaded "not guilty," and the assignment of a jury began. Coughlin at his first trial was convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment. After serving one year, the supreme court granted him a new trial. Doubts are expressed as to a conviction this time, many of the witnesses having died in the meantime. Beyond the knowledge of the authorities, most of these called as witnesses said they had formed an opinion, and the panel was soon exhausted. Judge Tuttle issued a special venire for 150 more, and court adjourned till tomorrow.

Brazil's Latest Purchase.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The Tribune says the latest purchase by the Brazilian government is reported to be the submarine torpedo-boat Peacemaker. This boat was designed and built in 1886 by John P. Holland. The Peacemaker is about the size of an ordinary steam launch. When on the surface the boat stands only a few inches above the water. The object of the vessel is to slip under the enemy's torpedo netting, place an explosive of some kind under her and then steam away, to fire it either by clockwork or by an electric wire from a safe distance.

Attempt to Rob a Train.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 4.—As the south-bound train on the Missouri Pacific was leaving Union Junction, just north of Nebraska City, this morning two negroes crawled to the engine and ordered the engineer and fireman to throw up their hands. The order was obeyed with alacrity, but in the hands that came up were clasped revolvers, and the engineer and fireman opened on the intruders, who fled. One man was recognized by the engineer as a resident of Nebraska City and a general tough there. A posse was made up on the train and started in pursuit of the robbers.

HAVOC AND DEATH.

A Fire Aboard a Ship Explodes Her Cargo of Dynamite.

MADRID, Nov. 4.—From Booc, a village near Santander, the capital of the province of that name, comes a frightful story of explosion, fire, havoc and death. A steamer with a cargo of dynamite arrived at Santander. The fact of the explosive being aboard was unknown to the authorities. Last evening the vessel took fire and the fire department hurried to the scene to prevent the spread of flames to the other shipping, to the docks and to adjoining houses. The governor of the province, chief municipal officers and many leading citizens were superintending the work of subduing the flames. Just as the news was spreading that the vessel contained dynamite and the people started panic stricken from the scene, the flames reached the terrible cargo and with a deafening roar it exploded, scattering death, fire and destruction on every side. The wharves, shipping and neighboring houses were torn to fragments. The whole city was shaken as if by an earthquake, and windows shattered in every house for miles around. Among the prominent people missing is the governor of the province, who was last seen on deck fighting the flames in the front ranks. Among those reported killed is Marquis Pombal. According to the official estimates, the dead will number over 300.

MAYOR OF CHICAGO.

Disgraceful Scene Enacted in the Council Chamber.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Such scenes were never before enacted in the city council chamber of this city as transpired there today. Before the crape-draped speaker's desk stood two aldermen, political opponents, each declaring himself to be chairman of the body. The reading clerk leaped upon the back of one of the contestants and tried to eject him. Another clerk tore up the resolution because it was not in line with what the party desired. Over the speaker's stand leaped another alderman upon the back of the clerk, and his colleagues flocked to his aid. Upon him jump an alderman of the opposing faction, and clutching at the throat of the man who, by force, was trying to get before the council that which should have legally been received. Police officials rushed into the enclosure to separate the struggling aldermen, and in the fight that ensued the crape which hung about the desk of the dead Mayor was rent, torn down and trampled under foot. The men who three days ago spent money and labor to honor Mayor Harrison disgraced his memory today by a disgraceful brawl over the right to sit for 20 minutes in his chair. Tonight the council chamber is guarded by police officers and no one is allowed to enter.

DANGERS OF THE DESERT.

A Prospector and Miner's Narrow Escape From Death.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Nov. 4.—One Miller, a prospector and miner, came near adding his bones to the list of unknown skeletons now bleaching on the desert. He left Campo about a week ago for Yuma, and though an experienced miner, became confused before going far on the desert, on account of the obliteration of trails by sandstorms. Within a few hours from the time he was lost, death stared him in the face in the form of thirst. With great will-power and presence of mind he calmed himself and decided that the only way to save his life was to take the back track and try to reach the Picacho, on the western side of the desert. He retraced his steps as rapidly as possible, suffering terribly from thirst, and occasionally in great peril from the hallucinations of delirium and the false attractions of mirages, which almost drew him from the trail to drink of imaginary springs. He finally reached the foothills and found his way to Campo badly used up. After recuperating and refitting he will again attempt to reach Yuma.

EPIDEMIC OF CRANKS

There is an Avowed Assassin Loose in Washington.

HE IS A MINER FROM IDAHO

Wants to Kill President Cleveland,

Whom He Holds Responsible for the Repeal Law.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—A number of officers in citizens' dress have been detailed to guard the white house and to protect the life of the president, which is supposed to be in danger from a murderous crank who is at large in this city. Last Wednesday there arrived in Washington a man who keeps a restaurant in Boise City, Idaho. The name of the man the police refuse to divulge. Yesterday he went to the chief of police and told his story. He said that about a week ago a miner, who was out of employment, came to his restaurant, and in a heated discussion about the silver question and the effects of the repeal bill on the mining interests of the west, declared, with emphasis, that he was going to Washington, and if the repeal bill passed unconditionally he would kill the man whom he knew should be held responsible. The restaurant-keeper did not know the man, but, as he disappeared from Boise, he concluded it was his duty to come here and notify the authorities. He arrived Wednesday, and that afternoon strolled up to the white house promenade. The first person he saw was the miner with whom he had the altercation. As soon as the man saw him he took to his heels. The restaurant keeper thought possibly it was a case of mistaken identity, and he said nothing to anybody until the next day, when he again went to the white house and saw the same man lurking there. As there was no mistake, he went to the chief of police and told his story, giving a full description of the man. As a precautionary measure a number of officers have been detailed to guard the white house and detectives are looking for the man who vows himself to be the intended assassin. The police declare they do not believe there is any danger, but say that precaution is being taken to guard against possible contingencies. The matter is being kept very quiet.

Armed for Fight.

Negotiations for the purchase of the small steamer Yankee Doodle, claimed to be the fastest in the world, are pending with McBride Bros., the owners, by the Brazilian government.

It is rumored that Flint & Co. are negotiating with the Metropolitan Steamship Company for the purchase of one of the two fine steamers Herman Winter and H. F. Dimock for the use of Peixoto.

Agents of the Brazilian rebel, Admiral Mello, have been in Birmingham negotiating for the purchase of arms and ammunition.

A New Barley.

A valuable new barley is the Egyptian variety. It yields more to the acre, at the same time being richer and making better feed. It is superior for soup and when ground and treated like corn meal, makes bread impossible to distinguish from corn bread. Call at THE CHRONICLE office and see sample. A limited quantity of seed can be obtained for a dollar a bushel.

It Should Be in Every House

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpsburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of "la grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for lung trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at Snipes & Kinerly's. Large bottles, 50c. and $1.00.

Alderman Smith was elected mayor of Chicago pro tem. A special election will be held the third Thursday of this month.

THE BEST PLASTER.—Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on over the seat of pain. It is better than any plaster. When the lungs are sore such an application on the chest and another on the back, between the shoulder blades, will often prevent pneumonia. There is nothing so good for a lame back or a pain in the side. A sore throat can nearly always be cured in one night by applying a flannel bandage dampened with Pain Balm. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

NEWS NOTES.

Ex-Congressman Buckner, of Missouri, has suffered a stroke of paralysis. He is not expected to live.

Sir Andrew Clarke, Gladstone's physician, and one of the most eminent men of his profession, died yesterday.

Charles Martin, the wealthiest young man in Dallas, Tex., shot and killed his mistress, Patty Cole, and then killed himself.

The president yesterday signed the bill extending for six months the time in which Chinese can register under the Geary law.

At the request of his counsel, the trial of Patrick Eugene Joseph Prendergast, the assassin of Mayor Harrison, was postponed to November 27th.

The Hon. George Syms, ex-congressman, a prominent attorney, one of Colorado's pioneers and one of Denver's most prominent and wealthy citizens, has suicided.

Tramps in Arizona and New Mexico are all organized, with a captain and lieutenant to each one, and the railway company anticipates serious trouble with them ere long.

Adjutant-General Williams, of the army, has retired on account of age. The appointment of his successor lies between General Ruggles, who is next in rank, and General Vincent.

Judge Brown of Chicago has sent to the insane asylum a crank named James Hawkins. He is a colored man, 35 years old, and declares that he is a "personal friend of Grover Cleveland, God Almighty and the devil."

The senate adjourned without confirming the nomination of Hornblower to the United States supreme bench. This has the effect of rejection. The president is therefore compelled to send in his name again or nominate a new man.

A negro named Clark, his wife and daughter were found in a cabin in the country near Oklahoma city with their throats cut and skulls crushed in. Mrs. Clark is dead, the others cannot live. The deed was done by John Milligan, a negro, who lived with them, for robbery.

The Chinese who are confined in jail pending deportation for failing to comply with the Geary registration law are to be released, and will enjoy the same privilege to register under the McCreary bill as their countrymen who are still at liberty.

The attempt to secure a jury in the case of Dan Coughlin for a second trial for complicity in the murder of Dr. Cronin continues. Over 200 men have been examined, out of whom the state has accepted four, and the defense four, but not one yet has been accepted by both sides.

In reply to inquiries it was stated at the treasury department that the actual resumption of the coinage of silver dollars has not as yet been ordered, but the mints are directed to manufacture ingots and blanks so as to be prepared to resume coinage at short notice, in case it should be decided to do so.

The charges against J. Hampton Hope, of Virginia, new consul to Amoy, are more serious than intoxication and a failure to pay his bills. It has been presented to the president and Secretary Gresham that Mr. Hope failed to account for money given in trust by clients, and he will be obliged to explain this grave allegation.

CHICAGO'S MAYOR.

The Aldermen Are Still Squabbling for the Position.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—The democratic minority of the city council met in what they claimed was a special session this morning, for the purpose of electing a mayor pro tem. to succeed the late Mayor Harrison. No republicans attended, and the democrats instructed the sergeant at arms to bring them in at 5 p. m., to which time an adjournment was taken. Alderman Swift, the republican, claims to have been elected at Saturday's special meeting, and will present a bond and offer to take the oath of office at the regular session of the council tonight.

The republican aldermen were notified of the action of the democrats, and their leaders corralled 37 of them, a majority of the council, locked them behind triple doors to keep the sergeant-at-arms out, and keep them in till after 5 p. m.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50 cts. Sold by Snipes & Kinerly.

ARE NOT YET BEATEN

The Silver Men Propose to Continue the Battle.

VOORHEES WILL BE THEIR LEADER

To Introduce a Free Coinage Bill in December—The Silverites are Determined.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—There are rumors that Voorhees will introduce a free-coinage silver bill at the opening of the regular session. Voorhees declines to talk about the matter, but it is pointed out that he has always been a silver man, and declared during the debate on the repeal bill that he was no less a friend of silver than he had always been. At any rate, it is thoroughly understood the silver question is not shelved by the passage of the repeal bill. On the contrary, the silver men say the fight has only begun. When congress assemblies they propose to keep it well to the front in connection with every great issue between the parties from the tariff to the repeal of the federal election laws. Every stage of the tariff discussed will be punctuated by pertinent queries by the silver men tending to prove it was the demonetization of silver, not the McKinley tariff which caused the financial depression. Indeed, it is intended the silver men shall act as a body of obstructionists, as did the Parmlite in parliament, till silver shall receive a hearing.

Three Girl Tramps.

Three female tramps recently arrived in California from Portland, Or. As the story runs, they sallied forth and climbed to the top of the first freight train they came to, and, seating themselves on the edge of a box car, they allowed their feet to dangle along the side and waited for the locomotive to roll away. It is said that a brakeman who was running over the top of the train was so paralyzed with astonishment when he saw the petticoated tourists that he almost fell overboard.

"Where are you going, my pretty maids?" he politely asked, and gallantly lifted his cap.

The girls told him plainly that they were going to California; that they had no money to pay their fares, and that they did not propose to be put off the train.

None of the train crew interfered with the women. At various stations the girls went about and begged food. At one place, it is reported, a tramp insulted one of the women, when the three sallied in together and gave him a trouncing that he will remember for many and many a day.

One of the Chinamen employed in the Humboldt placer mine, in Grant county, was killed by a cave of the bank this week. He was standing near the fire, from which he had been repeatedly warned on account of the danger when the bank should cave, and when he came down he was struck on the head by rocks and gravel and killed instantly.

A Valuable Stocking.

Edward Hutchinson Robbins was speaker of the Massachusetts house of representatives in 1793. His grandson, who describes him as a man of untiring kindness, "whose desire was to bless and serve others," says:

"Stephen Brewer, who knew him well, told me once that when he was a clerk in a store in Boston the old gentleman walked in with a gray stocking in his hand, the foot of which was full of Spanish dollars.

"Stephen, my little man," said he, "take care of this for me; it's a new stocking, and my daughter Cassy knit it for me."

"So Stephen put it away and grandfather forgot it from that hour. But three months later he came into the store in much affliction.

"Stephen, my little man," said he, "I've lost a stocking like this," showing the mate, "and I'm so sorry! My daughter Cassy knit them," he said, tenderly, "and I would not lose them for anything."

"I produced the stocking with the Spanish dollars tied up in the foot," said Stephen, "and there was no affection about it; he really cared more about finding the stocking that his daughter had knit for him than he did for the money."—Youth's Companion.

HOW THE BUFFALOES DIED.

The Terrible Destructive Methods of Indian Hunters.

A story teller of half a century ago gave an account of a terrible method which the Indians used in destroying the buffalo, and one which must have been the means of snuffing out an incalculable number of lives.

The red hunters, he said, were wont to lie concealed in the vicinity of some high precipice, and when a herd of bisons came roaming thither in search of food they would send one or two braves out among them, concealed in the edgery of a buffalo and covered with its head, hide and horns. The false buffalo being stationed between the herd and the precipice, the Indians would surround the herd, as nearly as possible, and then rush from their concealment shouting like demons. The animals being alarmed, and seeing no way open but in the direction of the false buffalo, would run toward it, and the false buffalo moving quickly to the edge of the cliff went over, but by some preconceived arrangement took refuge in a cave, cleft or shelf. The leaders of the herd would pause on the brink, seeing death before them; but those behind could not see the abyss, and would press madly forward, so that those in front were forced to leap to the rocky ground hundreds of feet below, while those behind were goaded forward by the hunters until they became mad with fear, and followed in to the same end. The Indians then selected as much meat as they wished and left the rest to the wolves.
