

HOW DO YOU DO when you buy shoes or clothing? Don't you go to the place (if you can find it) where they tell you that you may wear the articles out, and then, if you're not satisfied, they'll refund the money? Why not do the same when you buy medicine? Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is sold on that plan. It's the only blood-purifier so certain and effective that it can be guaranteed to benefit or cure, in every case, or you have your money back.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

The Democrats Had Umbrellas, But No Life-Preservers.

From our Regular Correspondent. WASHINGTON, Nov. 10, 1893. Panic-stricken is the only expression that will correctly describe the condition of the administration and the democratic congressmen in Washington.

Gov. McKinley's name is on the tongue of every jubilant republican you meet, and they are all jubilant. Gov. McKinley has always been popular with republicans in congress and in Washington.

Speculation is rife as to what effect the great republican victories will have upon the democratic tariff bill. Your correspondent does not pretend to enjoy the confidence of the democratic bosses who are directing the construction of that measure.

Hon. Patrick Egan, who so creditably filled the position of U. S. minister to Chili under the Harrison administration, was in Washington this week.

The administration must have had a sort of pronouncement of the republican landslide, as Secretary Carlisle was sent to New York by Mr. Cleveland before election to try to get the Wall street men to promise to aid in carrying out the financial policy of the administration.
