LOST IN THE SNOW

General Carlin's Son and Party Given Up for Lost.

THE RESCUING PARTY IN DANGER

Senator Dolph Says Blount's Report Reads as if Made Just to Please Cleveland.

MISSOULA, Mont., Nov. 21.—The search for the Carlin party, consisting of a son of General Carlin and friends, has been abandoned by the military authorities, the expedition having been given up as hopeless. Every human effort at rescue was made, even to endangering the lives of soldiers and the loss of wagons and other equipments. The snow is too deep and impenetrable, and where no snow exists the streams are greatly swollen. In fact, it is now feared the rescuing party will be unable to return at once, as the Lolo river, which must be crossed over 30 times, is impassable. General Carlin, from Vancouver, expressed the belief that his son and companions will perish in the mountains, though he has offered a large reward to any one who will venture their rescue. Still there is a possibility that they may have found shelter with trappers, though this will not be known before spring.

Dolph Hits the Nail.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Senator Dolph, member of the senate committee on foreign relations, who has read with considerable care the report of Blount, says the report reads very much as if prepared by a man sent to the islands for a certain purpose, and that purpose was to show that what had been done was wrong. He did not think the administration had been strengthened by the present action in Blount's report, but the more carefully it was considered the more apparent it would be that Blount was sent to the islands to report against the action of Minister Stevens and the provisional government. Dolph says it is, perhaps, true that our minister acted somewhat hastily, but it is not shown the revolution would not have occurred or the queen have been dethroned, nor had it been proven, there having been an established government recognized by this government, that this government had any right to overthrow it and re-establish either the old or new government. The senator added there was not so much interest in Blount's report, but that the most important document and what all would like to see is that containing the instructions to Minister Willis.

UNCLE JERRY RUSK.

The Ex-Secretary of Agriculture Died Yesterday Morning. MADISON, Wis., Nov. 21.—General Jeremiah Rusk, ex-secretary of agriculture, died at his home in Viroqua at 8 o'clock this morning.

Though not unexpected, the announcement that the end had come to the life of this strongly individual character in the political life of the nation caused a profound shock. He had been ill some time and dangerously, but up to a day or two ago it was thought his iron constitution would pull him through. Since then, however, his constant failing strength led his friends to anticipate the worst. "Uncle Jerry," as he was affectionately known, was a familiar figure in this city. No man was ever brought here in official life with so many friends, political and non-political, in the Wisconsin capital as he during his three terms as governor. Flags are at half-staff on all the public buildings, and a public meeting was held in Governor Peck's office to arrange for a special train to Viroqua to attend the funeral.

BECAUSE OF LOW PRICES.

Another Hold-Your-Wheat Circular Sent Out to Northwestern Farmers.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 18.—The farmers of the northwest, realizing the shortage of wheat, have held several meetings to discuss the situation and decry the causes of the unprecedented low prices in the face of this shortage. As a result, another "hold-your-wheat" circular has been issued from Pierre. It reads in part as follows:

"Every country in Europe, except Russia, has this year had a short wheat crop. Our own crop is at least 100,000,000 bushels under that of last year, and 300,000,000 less than raised in 1891. The general financial stringency of the last six months has brought out large supplies for all. The harvest this year has been a very poor one, while the exports this fall have been large, amounting to about 80,000,000 bushels since the harvest began. After a thorough investigation of the conditions existing, we feel certain that the year 1894 will bring much higher prices, and do not hesitate to urge northwestern producers to hold their wheat in hand for a few months."

Afraid of Public Opinion.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Minister Thurston, of Hawaii, is not likely to receive his passports, although it was said at the state department this morning there were abundant grounds for such action. Were it in any other country under any other circumstances, his passports would be issued immediately. It is claimed his letter is a breach of diplomacy, and amply sufficient to warrant this movement, immediately severing all relations with the Hawaiian minister. Such action might be taken but for the reason the American people might not think it fair play; that the right of any man to talk and give his side of the controversy is always conceded, and to force Thurston to leave this country would be considered by the people as a disposition not to allow the other side a hearing. The department chooses to consider the publication of the statement by Thurston as a vitally interested party in the outcome of Hawaiian affairs, and not an official statement of the Hawaiian minister.

A Hotel Holocaust.

BEAVER, Pa., Nov. 21.—At Merrill station, on the Cleveland & Pittsburgh road, at 4:30 this morning, Bradley & Keener's three-story hotel, in which many men employed on the new dam boarded, was burned to the ground. Many jumped from the second and third-story windows and were badly cut, bruised and burned. A census of the boarders after the fire was out showed the following missing: Jerry Wrenn, stonemason, and son Dan; John Kelly, laborer; Robert Stanley, engineer; James Hughes, engineer, and Barney Wilker, stonemason. Five bodies have been taken from the ruins so badly charred they cannot be identified.

The bodies of James Hughes and James P. Miller, laborers, have been recovered from the ruins, both burned to a crisp, making seven recovered.

Minister Thurston Will Reply.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Hawaiian Minister Thurston read with interest such portions of Blount's report as have been published. He is preparing a statement in reply which will not be given out before this evening. Thurston seems in a cheerful frame of mind, and feels that the administration has now fired its heaviest gun. At the office of secretary of state there seems a marked falling off in interest in the Hawaiian question. The knot of newspaper men that has for many days past haunted the room waiting for information, was not on hand this morning.

The Lehigh Strike.

GALESBURG, Ill., Nov. 21.—Twenty Burlington & Quincy engineers left here last night to take the places of the strikers on the Lehigh Valley road. Several persons here are hiring men for the Lehigh Valley. There is a large surplus of men on the Burlington and it is believed many will go. The Burlington furnishes transportation and 30 days' leave of absence. Some of those going came here six years ago to take the places of the strikers on the Burlington. The feeling against the men going is very bitter in labor circles.

Accidentally Shot Himself.

OGDEN, Nov. 21.—When the Rio Grande Western train arrived early this morning, Express Messenger Sayre failed to open his car. The door was forced, and the messenger was found dead, with a bullet through his heart and a pistol under him. His books, money and everything were intact. It is supposed he accidentally shot himself.

The Cronin Murder Mystery.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—The state's attorney says he has unearthed startling evidence which he thinks will enable him to secure the conviction of two men besides ex-detective Dan Coughlin for the murder of Dr. Cronin. The names of the other two, he says, have not been heretofore mentioned in that connection.

Sheep Lost.

Lost on the range between the head of Mill creek and Tygh Valley, 160 head of ewes and lambs, branded S. H., ear mark crop in right, swallow fork in left n ewes and same mark reversed in weather lambs. Suitable reward will be given for information that will lead to the recovery of the same.

HE SPOKE FOR GOLD

Address of Carlisle at the New York Chamber of Commerce Banquet.

THE ONLY INTERNATIONAL MONEY

Does Not Believe in a Double Standard of Value Any More Than in Different Standards of Measurements.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The 125th annual banquet of the chamber of commerce took place tonight, 300 prominent business men being present. Secretary Carlisle in part spoke as follows:

JOHN G. CARLISLE

"While it would be unfair to attribute the unequal distribution of our trade with the outside world to the character of their fiscal legislation, I think it may be safely asserted this country could not long maintain its present position as one of the most conspicuous and important commercial nations which now control the trade of the world unless we preserve a monetary system substantially, at least, in accord with the monetary systems of other principal nations. We cannot possibly change the situation, and consequently the only practical question is whether it is better to establish by law an inferior kind of money for use at home exclusively and another kind for use abroad, or have all our money good enough for use in every market where our people trade. Gold is the only international money. It is useless for the advocates of a different system to insist that this ought to be so. It is so, and we cannot change the fact.

"I have never been able to understand what is meant by double standard of value and have never found any one who could tell me. To my mind it seems as absurd to contend that there be two different standards as to insist upon having two yardsticks of different lengths or two gallons of different dimensions. If two standards are not equal in value, it is evident one of them must be a false measure; and if they are equal in value, it is evident, no matter what law might declare, there will be in fact but one standard. The question of whether the obligations of the United States be paid in coin current in all the markets of the world has already been settled in my opinion for all time to come. This does not imply that silver is to have no place in our monetary system. What is to be the ultimate fate of that metal is one of the problems which time and events can solve; but for many years fluctuations in its value have been so rapid as to demonstrate the fact that it cannot be safely coined without limitations."

Anarchists' Headquarters Discovered.

BARCELONA, Nov. 22.—The police this morning unearthed the headquarters of Spanish anarchists in this city, from which the movement of the anarchists in all parts of the country are directed. They arrested Miquel Nacher, president of the Spanish anarchists, and two women who have acted as messengers in carrying orders to other points to others waiting outside the city. The police also obtained a large quantity of materials and chemicals used in the manufacture of bombs, beside a quantity of bombs loaded and unloaded, a large number of pistols and a mass of anarchist literature. Beside these they secured incriminating documents which will probably lead to arrests in Spain, France and Italy, beside other foreign countries. It is reported that anarchists are already fleeing from Spain in the hope of escaping to France. The French government has been asked to search all persons crossing the frontier. Over 200 reds are already under arrest for connection with the recent explosion.

KILLED THE SEDUCER.

A Brother Avenge His Sister's Dishonor.

DAVISVILLE, Cal., Nov. 22.—A mysterious murder occurred here last night. H. M. Eaton, night telegraph operator, was shot and killed on the platform of the depot. After receiving the fatal wound Eaton crawled some distance, where he was discovered in a dying condition. He was unable to speak. The indications are that he was shot while leaving the depot by a person concealed on the platform.

This morning at 9 o'clock Charles Dodge, a resident of Davisville, walked into the sheriff's office here and gave himself up, saying he had got into trouble and wanted to surrender himself.

He did not admit the shooting, but said it was a painful matter about which he did not wish to talk and in which his sister was implicated. He also said that he had been brooding over the matter for several weeks. His sister is a student in the telegraph office in which Eaton was operator.

A man named Olsen is in custody here, having given himself up and stating that he was an accomplice of Dodge, who is in jail at Woodlawn on suspicion of having killed young Eaton at this place last night. Olsen when questioned by detective Burke, of the Southern Pacific Company, said that he was with Dodge last night and went to the railroad depot with him for the purpose of murdering Eaton. He says that he and Dodge went to the office and knocked at the door, and when Eaton opened it they sprang on him, then shot and killed him. Olsen has not yet made any statement as to the motive for the crime.

In an interview with Chris Olsen, partner of Dodge, the following facts were elicited: Some moments before 10 o'clock last evening Dodge requested Olsen to go with him to the depot, as he wished to see Eaton in regard to the seduction of his sister. Dodge made no threats, and showed no great agitation, and together the two went to Eaton's office. This was 10 o'clock p. m., or a few moments later. Dodge knocked on the door, which was opened by Eaton, but on discovering who his visitor was he threw himself upon Dodge, forcing him to the floor. The struggle lasted a few moments; Dodge finally getting his opponent under. The two then separated, and as Eaton raised to his feet Dodge fired. Both Dodge and Olsen then left, while Eaton staggered across the street for assistance, and died at the door of the Lillard house. Mrs. Lillard from her chamber, overheard the rattling of the office or saloon door, and afterward the fall but as the sounds were not unusual, paid no attention. It was not until some minutes later that Eaton was discovered, but he was then about dead and never spoke. Olsen is under arrest and Dodge has surrendered himself to the sheriff at Woodlawn. At present public sympathy is strongly in favor of Dodge, whose sister is a bright, intelligent young lady, and a general favorite with those who know her. Dodge in his confession differs but little from the foregoing statement made by Olsen. It may be proper to add that Miss Dodge is at present lying at death's door as the result of Eaton's crime, which if rumor may be credited, carries with it consequences graver than generally occur in cases of seduction.

ANARCHISTS IN SPOKANE.

They Threaten the Review Newspaper With Their Vengeance.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 23.—While no overt act has been committed, a good deal of incendiary talk is afloat. At 11 o'clock a mob of one hundred men gathered in front of the Review office and was harangued by the leader, an anarchist named Helm. He threatened the paper dire vengeance unless it altered its editorial course. The crowd then marched to A. M. Cannon's bank building. By this time it had swelled to 200 or 300 men. There Helm repeated his harangue. Mr. Cannon and Mayor Powell addressed it, counseling prudence and reason. At this hour, 1 o'clock, the crowd has dispersed. A blinding snow storm is prevailing, and disagreeable weather seems to have chilled the ardor of the mob.

SUNK WITH HER CREW.

One of Admiral Mello's Warships Gone.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—President Peixoto telegraphed the Brazilian minister in this city that the insurgent ironclad Javary has been sunk by the batteries at Nictheroy, and that the crew of the Javary perished. The Javary was an iron armored turret ship of 3,700 tons, carried 10-inch Whitworth muzzle-loading rifle guns, six 5-inch rapid-firing guns and five machine guns. She had 2,300 horsepower and 12 inches of armor. She was a powerful vessel of light draught, suitable for coast defense or river service, and was built in France in 1875.

THE HAWAII MUDDLE

Everything Still Seems at Sixes and Sevens.

QUEEN NOT YET ON THE THRONE

Minister Willis' Speech Sounds Strangely to the Annexationists, who are Arming.

According to the Associated Press dispatches the most significant happening which has taken place occurred last Monday, when a committee of the American League, a lately organized auxiliary of the Annexation club, called on the new minister. After welcoming Mr. Willis, the committee stated: "The members of the league earnestly desire that the Hawaiian islands should be a part of the United States, and with that object in view the organization will support the present provisional government of Hawaii and in all honorable ways aid in accomplishing annexation." The address also contained an offer of aid, if at any time the minister saw fit to command them. Minister Willis' answer has not yet leaked out here, as the committee is pledged to secrecy, but the Associated Press is enabled, after diligent inquiry and a careful comparison of the versions of the minister's remarks, as remembered by three members of the committee, to give the following as nearly, if not quite, a verbatim report of the reply. After welcoming the committee and speaking pleasant terms of his visit to Hawaii, Minister Willis said:

"I am an ardent American. I would like to see the Stars and Stripes waving not only over Hawaii, but over all the islands of the Pacific, or any other territory which would be beneficial to the United States. I have my instructions which I cannot divulge, you will understand; but this much I can say, that the policy of the United States is already formulated regarding these islands, and that nothing which can be done, either here or there, can avail anything now. I don't come here as did Mr. Blount. I come as an executive officer. I come to act. When the proper time arrives I shall act. I am sorry I cannot tell you when or how. I wish you to understand, however, that knowing the policy of the United States I could not have accepted the position of an executive officer had it been in conflict with the principles I hold. The Americans here will have nothing to regret. While performing my duties in carrying out the United States policy I shall have no need of aid from you or other resident Americans. However, I wish to state positively that any outside interference will not be tolerated by the United States."

The provisional government does not know what to think, but have taken the precautions of increasing the armed force at the palace, and distributed 30 rounds of ammunition to a citizens' reserve. There is no doubt that they will effectively fight any attempt at restoration. All "news" from Hawaii, however, is a week old, and this must be considered in that light. There is no telegraphic communication with the islands and all news comes by steamers. The status of affairs as it exists now is purely conjectural.

Pacific Coast People Are Angry.

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 23.—Congressman Hilborn, of California, who has been confined to his hotel on account of illness, said in regard to the Hawaiian situation, that he thought Californians must be surprised at the action of the present administration. The trade relations between San Francisco and the islands is so close that Californians cannot bring themselves to think of Hawaii as a foreign country. Continuing, the congressman said the dispatches from his district demanding the impeachment of Cleveland were very significant, and showed the excited condition of affairs in California. Pacific coast people are also incensed at the president because of the non-enforcement of the Chinese act. In conclusion he expressed a hope that the matter would soon be amicably settled, but asserted that the restitution of the queen meant a reign of corrupt influences.
