DALLES, OREGON

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Wednesday's Daily.

What makes the men love Mary so? The saints' maidens cry, "Mary doesn't sing, you know; but more—she doesn't cry."

Twelve spring turkeys, sold today to Matilla house, average 13 pounds.

How is it that this year Christmas New Years do not come on the same of the week?

Mr. Frank Maloney is acting as marshal in place of his brother Dan, who is to be ill at the house.

The Umattilla house announces a turkey dinner tomorrow evening, in celebration of Oregon's dual Thanksgiving.

The grand march of the Mignonette commences at 9 o'clock. Invitations are to be presented at the door.

Case of MacEachern & McLeod vs. Adams is yet on trial in circuit and there is nothing new to note.

Governor Penoyer has written a letter to the Alliance Herald at Pendleton in which he announces his determination to support the populist ticket next June.

The board of physicians leave Salem for Eastern Oregon. They will proceed to Baker City, and visit all points named, concluding at The Dalles.

Hayden and Harry Hansbury, boys of Hood River, were brought before Justice Schutz today on a charge of larceny of a boat at Mosier. They were discharged.

Drinks before the recorder this evening. One of them very considerably left himself in the marshal's office, and that functionary had to do was get the door and drag him in.

Plans for the literary and musical program to be given by the sisters of Mary's academy, Nov. 30th, can be obtained at Blakeley & Houghton's, or at J. P. McInerney's.

Ladies Aid society are making arrangements to give the finest entertainment of the season on the evening of the 26th of December. Our own local talent is assisted by some outside, which is celebrated in this line.

The Hop & Co., who have been in business on First street, keeping a China store about three years, have closed out to Kee & Co. There is little social difference in the characterization of the two, but it is a business change nevertheless.

It is so seldom that a tramp knocks at the door of any of our good people, relying on a hand-out, that it has come to our attention. The reason is owing to the case of our marshal, who is more diligent when on the trail of one of our countrymen, than a Jersey mosquito in the summer tourist.

The public schools will observe Thanksgiving day, as designated by the law for tomorrow, also the one appointed by the president a week later. It has been customary with the schools to close Friday, as well as Saturday, but this year the schools will session both Fridays, as usual.

Uncle Jerry Rusk, whose death is mentioned in our telegraphic columns, was in Dalles with President Harrison months prior to the last presidential election. Though he made no speech, he showed his genial countenance with that of the distinguished party, and had good-natured repartee from the Waeco county admirers.

At a rascally set of officers they have Multnomah county, to be sure, to accept the grand jury find-true. Our own grand jury have adjourned, and it has been an exceptionally good one, and if anything wrong with the Waeco county officers they would have said so. The grand jury are identical with Cesar's wife in an important particular.

"Sub," our sprightly Mosier correspondent, has resumed his post and we hope to hear from him regularly each week hereafter.

It snowed last night. Tell me something I don't know. [The last sentence is added by our devil while we went out to measure how deep it was.]

Rev. Mr. Corwin, the deposed Congregational minister, is preaching at Salem, endeavoring to gain a following, though outside the pale of the church.

Mr. H. H. Campbell has opened out his store, lately occupied by Mr. Leslie Butler, in fine shape. Mr. Geo. Kraus, who is so favorably known, will remain with Mr. Campbell.

The asylum party for some reason have cancelled their arrangements to start to Eastern Oregon, and it is now announced they will leave Salem about the 1st of December.

A special meeting of the King's Daughters will be held Friday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. S. L. Brooks to consider important business. A full attendance is requested.

An electric light at the corner of Ninth and Pentland would be a very good thing. We understand Mayor Kreft will interest himself in the matter and lay it before the next meeting of the city council.

In a telegraphic heading the Telegram announces that the queen is restored to the throne. According to today's dispatches she is still thrown, for the steamer which arrived in San Francisco this morning states that Willis is waiting for further instructions before proceeding in the matter.

We are in receipt of an invitation to attend the annual commencement exercise of the Arkansas Industrial University, beginning Nov. 24th and ending Nov. 28th at Fayetteville, Ark., through the courtesy of Prof. H. Willis, formerly professor of Wasco Independent academy. Prof. Willis is one of the few philologists of America and exception an ally able instructor.

Friday's Daily.

She searched his pockets through and through, Yet felt no jealous thrill, Though she found some lines from an old, old flame.

A great unpaid gas bill.

In connection with the entertainment on the 19th of December there will be Kris Kringle doings.

Will the party who got the wrong "Derby" hat at the ball please return it to Garretson's jewelry store.

A number of friends of Miss Lizzie Schooling surprised that young lady last night at the residence of Mrs. Fowler. A very enjoyable evening was passed by those present with games and refreshments.

The new piece of road on Union street is likely to be washed away this winter by the rivulets of water which are already making it sippy. It does no good to build a road without providing a place at the side for water to run off.

A late edition of Webster's dictionary has just been received at this office. It is the most complete instructor upon the English language ever published. Webster's keeps up with the times and the language which undergoes daily changes. It should be the standard with schools and families, and after purchasing it, you are sure of having "got the best."

Mr. A. McCorkle, a young man about 29 years of age, was killed in Sherman county near Kent. His body was found Sunday evening and it is supposed he was run over by a wheat wagon upon which he was seated, and driving four horses, the inequality of the road at that point throwing him out. His father, Mr. W. M. McCorkle, is well known in the Tygh valley section, and his son's violent death will be deeply mourned.

The Snow Storm.

The heavy snowfall so early in the season is rare. Between the hours of 1 o'clock last night and 7 this morning there was an average depth in The Dalles of ten inches, later reaching twelve and a precipitation of 1.03 inches. The depth at Hood River is 17 inches but at the Cascades much less. No perceptible effort in traffic is apparent, though the heavy fall in the Blue mountains, about four feet, will undoubtedly delay trains which are now in that vicinity. The weather at present is variable, though indications point to warmer weather, when a bright sun shining out from a blue sky will rapidly dissolve the "beautiful." However the Portland forecast for the next twenty-four hours calls for more snow.

Got It Down Fine.

Tom: Bill, what is this gastric fever they are talking about?

Bill: Why, it's a kind of a fever that's caused by inhaling the gases from sewers and things like that; the bad smell makes them sick and it runs into a fever.

MOSIER MUSINGS.

"Sub," Hibernates in the Summer and Is Now Out Again.

Lee Evans has a fine exhibit of apples at the store.

Charles Dugan has left for Medford, Oregon, on business.

The wagon road west of Mosier is badly washed out and in need of repair.

Merchants Flaherty and Power are having a large cellar excavated under their building.

Joe Watt has invented and built a grubbing machine, which promises to be a decided success.

Rev. Frank Ireland has left for Oysterville, on the coast, where he goes to act as pastor for the Missionary Baptist church.

A Thanksgiving offering of provisions was made to Rev. M. C. Aleridge and family at the school house last Sunday, in which quite a number took part.

Our citizens are pointing out snow on the surrounding mountains and talking quite unconcernedly. Talk on, good people, chat for you is chatter for us.

The present cold snap reminds us most forcibly that winter is coming on. Many of our citizens—figuring on this event—have put in their winter supplies of provisions and have their woodshed well filled. About the only preparation we've made is to let our whiskers grow and try to not think about anything.

Quite a number of new orchards have been put out in this vicinity this fall. N. Sturgis has put out 1,500 trees, A. Root and Geo. Salinger have put out quite an acreage, about nine acres have been planted on the Harlan ranches, while a number of others have put out family orchards.

Wishing to lay in a stock of groceries, provisions, dry goods, boots and shoes before the winter season, we will sell to the highest bidder 2,000 pounds of fine Italian prunes. Bids will be received until Dec. 1, '93. Fruit will be guaranteed in good condition, and shipped as soon as possible. Fifty per cent of the purchasing price will be demanded forthwith. The trees will be planted in the spring.

No More Democratic Presidents.

Dr. D. Siddall, who has just returned from an extensive eastern tour, has had a good opportunity during his absence to note the political pulse. He says that throughout the states the feeling against the administration is intense and that he will never live to see another democratic president. In Canada, where he has also been, the people closely watch the politics of the United States, becoming almost as much interested in them as those across the border. They are very bitter against the democratic management of affairs and while they have no vote, have an undoubted influence in political campaigns in New England and New York. In Colorado there are no democrats and no democratic newspapers can be purchased of newsboys in Denver. The doctor speaks very highly of the world's fair and was present at its closing. He also availed himself of the opportunity of visiting many of the leading dentists and colleges in Canada and the United States, and obtained many new and useful appliances pertaining to dentistry, and brought with him an entirely new invention for making the cast aluminum plate work which is now all the rage in the east. The doctor has made a specialty of this beautiful work for the past four years, and claims to be the only one who has ever made a success of it on the Pacific coast.

A Revival of Good Times.

The CHRONICLE has it from reliable authority that on the first of the month loaning agencies in Portland will have plenty of money to loan on good security. This will mainly come from the east, which is already experiencing easier times. Investment is being sought and money has come out from its hiding places and good city and county bonds are being eagerly sought as investment. This money will find ready employment, and will be used for improvements, payment of debts, etc., and thus reaching the channels of trade, our monetary stringency will soon be at an end. It is safe to say that spring will see a revival of good times, and the vast army of the idle will for the most part again find employment.

Oregon at the Midwinter.

Senator Steiwer and others report to the Telegram that they are in favor of transferring the unexpended balance of money used for the world's fair to the use of the midwinter exposition at San Francisco.

Wishing to gain the opinion of our representatives, a CHRONICLE reporter conferred with Hon. E. N. Chandler upon the subject, who said: "Most assuredly, I am heartily in favor of spending the balance at the midwinter exposition, which is really but a continuation of the world's fair. I am in favor of spending every dollar of it at San Francisco."

Hon. T. R. Coon of Hood River has not yet been heard from, but it is very probable he will be of the same opinion. Those who are best acquainted with him here say there is no doubt but that he is of the same sentiment and will heartily endorse this use of the tied-up balance of the appropriation.

WOOD, WOOD, WOOD.

MIGNONETTE REVELERS.

Their Successful Ball at Wingate Hall Last Night.

The grand Thanksgiving ball given by the Mignonettes last night was the social event thus far this season. Whether it was because of a general desire to honor the governor's appointed Thanksgiving, or because of the popularity of the mirth-loving and mirth-creating Mignonettes themselves, it is certain that a great number of people availed themselves of the opportunity to "trip the light fantastic" under their auspices. The decorations were superb. Wingate hall is spacious, but the walls were completely covered with a wealth of evergreen and the national colors shone with brilliancy on every hand. The numerous large American flags, gracefully draped in all parts of the building, gave a thoroughly patriotic air to the festivities fitting to the event. The music was the Birgfeld orchestra, which is all that need be said as to its merit. All the conditions were favorable for a grand good time and this the Mignonettes and their invited guests certainly enjoyed. Dancing was continued until about 2 o'clock, and then the gay revelers dispersed for their homes. The beautiful decorations will probably be left to do duty for the Chrysanthemum club, if they conclude to give a dance on Cleveland's Thanksgiving night.

A SHAKE-UP.

An Explosion at the Cascades Greater Than Anticipated.

Early this week a blast was set off at Cascades which resulted in considerable damage, and the discharge of the one who engineered it, though luckily no fatality occurred. One hundred and fifty pounds of giant powder had been placed in the canal, at different points which were set off simultaneously by electricity. A tremendous upheaval resulted. A body of earth and rocks containing many thousand cubic yards was thrown into the air and the whole vicinity shook with the force of the explosion. The glass was shattered in the commissary department, and one huge rock crashed through the roof of the engineer's house in the canal. It is thought by some that a part of the charge was placed in a natural crevice of which the operator was ignorant, rendering a much less quantity of powder sufficient for the purpose. At any rate the manager of the blast was discharged, and the general shakedown will render his successor more careful in the execution of this part of the work.

Duffer Items.

Pleasant weather prevails here.

Farmers in this vicinity are busy plowing and sowing.

The orchestra is practicing every evening for the coming social.

The chopper runs every Saturday which makes our lively town more lively in appearance.

Several new houses are being built and our town is growing, although Cleveland is our president.

The Delphian Literary society is to give a social on the 24th of November and a good time is anticipated.

Rev. Jenkins is holding protracted meetings in the U. B. church. We think he will gain more worshippers in his church.

Surprise Party.

A number of the young friends of Elmer Ward pleasantly surprised that young gentleman last evening at the residence. We are informed the party went off smoothly and a very pleasant time was enjoyed. Those present were Rex Ward, Fred Chase, John McNeil, Orla Connelly, Joe McNeil, Rowland Wiley, Walter Norman, Chas. Burgett, Misses Bertie Glenn, Bess Cram, Anna Hawthorne, Anna Sandrock, Sophia Nichols, Bessie Rowland, Rachel Morgan, Minnie Sandrock, Francis Fouts, Virginia Cooper, Hattie Marden and Edna Glenn.

About Ben McAttee.

Mrs. Luckey writes from Union that her husband, J. C. Luckey, saw Ben McAttee in Union on Nov. 2d, the day after he left here, and had a short conversation with him. He said he had intended to leave on the stage to see a man on business, but as the stage was gone he would go on horseback, and that he must have been misinformed as to the time of the stage leaving, as this was in the forenoon and the stage left at 2 p. m.

Winans' Latest.

Mr. W. R. Winans, not satisfied with nature's bequest of a coal mine, has recently run across a gigantic ledge of gray granite, of fine texture and a very beautiful quality of rock. The ledge is in plain sight, as it comes out in the face of a precipice and extends back for three-quarters of a mile. There is an inexhaustible quantity of it and as it is the first well defined ledge to be found in this section, should be very valuable. Float rock of the same kind can be found at Grand Dalles, but it probably came from a distance with a glacier.

Circuit Court.

The jury in the case of McEachern and McLeod vs. S. B. Adams returned a verdict for plaintiff for amount of the note, $1,362.

The case is today being tried of the state vs. Thos. Pryor for larceny of some checks at Cascade Locks. The following is the jury: J. E. Bennett, G. M. Sterling, J. L. Harper, J. W. Allen, W. McCrum, E. C. Dickenson, A. J. Linton, J. Millard, Ed. Smith, E. P. Koontz, A. Grammond, Robt. McIntosh.
