A MOCK PRAYER.

Faithful Democrat Humbly Beseeches the Great G. Cleveland

A friend hands us the following, taken from the Gunnison (Col) Tribune, which is worth reading. It is as follows:

TO ALMIGHTY CLEVELAND. Previous to the close of the democratic county convention, Edward Croke, mayor of Irwin, arose and all the delegates reverently bowed their heads while every name and nature, are The voice was filled with emotion and

Oh, almighty and all-powerful Cleve-For every disease land, who art in Washington, when not caused by a torpid liver or fishing; thou who art the father of Ruth impure blood, it is the only and Ruth's sister, and of Mary Halpin's remedy so certain and effec- boy, Oscar, and the god-father of the $26,861,145, and from the express comtive that it can be guaranteed.

If it fails to benefit or cure, name as the great political prophet of service of railways on June 30, 1892, the century. We bow down before thee Eczema, Tetter, Salt-rheum, in political obedience. When thou sayest Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, go, we go, when thou sayest come, we come. We have no desire but to serve

Enlarged Glands, Tumors, and thee. If thou sayest black is white we Swellings, and every kindred will swear to it and lick the everlasting ailment, are completely and stuffin' out of the man who disputes it. When thou takest snuff we will sneeze; when thou sayest free silver we will echo thy words; when thou sayest gold To every sufferer from Catarrh, then gold it is. We are democrats after no matter how bad the case or of the improved modern type. Our busihow long standing, the proprietors straight. What is it to us whether we of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy have free silver or not? We are but say this: "If we can't cure it, dogs, that eat of the crumbs that fall perfectly and permanently, we'll from our masters' tables. When the pay you $500 in cash." Sold by crumbs fall we wag our tails; whet they fall fast we wag faster; when they don't fall we stand and wait until they do. This is democracy. This is the kind of democracy which elected thee, our great and almighty Cleveland. Oh, most adored master, we love thee for what thou hast not done for us. We love thee because thou art Cleveland. We humbly surrender ourselves to thee. Do with us as thou wilt. Though wheat is but 40 cents a bushel we love thee; though cotton is low we love thee; though business is dull we love thee; though thousands, millions, are out of employment we love thee; though our wife, the dear companion of our bosom, is scant-Hy dressed and looks so shabby she can't go to church we love thee; though we are sinking deeper in debt and poverty is knocking at the door, and hunger is staring us in the face, we love thee still. This shows our great faith and love for thee. Our wives and children we are willing to sacrifice, even as the Hindoo mother sacrifices her offspring by throwing it under the crushing wheels of the juggernaut. Oh, mighty Cleveland words cannot express our love for thee. We love our party, too. What care we about the many promises it made. We know it promised free silver, and we know it won't give it to us, but we stick to the party. We know we said if it dld not do the things it promised to do we would leave it, but we lied when we said it. We thought then we had some manhood about us, but we min't. We have no independence. Thou, oh mighty Cleveland, hast all the manhood and independence in the party. We are fools, ERIE MEDICAL CO. liars, lickspittles, modellis. We have We favored it then because we thought it was right. We oppose it now, most adored master, because thou tellest us to. Ain't we a honey of the first water? Did ever dog serve his master more faithfully? Did ever a dog get less for it? Oh, mighty master, we are ever ready to serve thee and party. All the pay we ask is to be patted on the back by some local politician and called a good democrat. We ain't got any sense. We don't want any, only enough to vote the ticket. It don't take any sense to be a good democrat. What a joyful thought! We don't have to think. We don't have to worry. Our work is all mapped out for us. All that is expected is to do what we are told to do. We thank thee, oh Cleveland, that we are democrats. We thank thee for the panic. We thank thee for the hungry and idle men and women in the land. We thank thee for low prices. We thank thee for the banks that have busted and the thousands of business failures since thou has come into power.

We thank thee for hard times. We
