MARKET REPORT.

Lines Duil.

FRIDAY, Dec. 22.-The holiday season is at hand and locally trade is brisk in notions and holiday goods. Business in general lines is quiet, prices in general merchandise are steady and onchanged. The produce market, while in fair supply is particularly dull, and there is no change in quotations, save in eggs; urrivals are increasing and the market is a little weak, and 20 to 25 cents per dozen are the outside figures paid. Today the stock on hand is large and a decline is in sight. The butter market is also dull : 35 to 50 cents per roll is the range of quotations.
