GOATS THEY WILL BE.

The Mazamas are going to climb Mt. Hood, storm it as it were from all sides, the morning of the 19th, or next Thursday. To be more exact, we should have said that a number of ladies and gentlemen will make the ascent that day, for they will only be Mazamas when they get there.

A LYING HISTORIAN.

We have recently read, with mingled feelings of amusement and indignation, Hubert Howe Bancroft's History of Utah, a charming sketch, viewed as a literary effort, but as unreliable as a democratic senate.

COULD NOT BE CORRUPTED.

Mr. Debs says that Havemeyer has corrupted the United States senate. Mr. Debs is as badly mistaken in that statement as he is in many of his other positions.

corrupting, for by corruption most of them became senators. Besides from the time honored submission to the commands of "senatorial courtesy," most of them have become political "courtesans."

GOOD SENATORIAL TIMBER.

They have lots of fun down in Kentucky over an election. Congressman Breckinridge has been stumping the state for two months, closely followed by other speakers of his own political faith.

HOW DO THEY KNOW?

An Ohio editor says hay fever is caused by kissing grass widows. A Missouri editor says it is caused by the widows kissing a fellow by moonlight.

The above item is going the rounds of the press, and so, in the interest of the fraternity, and to protect the good name of editors in general, we would like to know how our fellow-scribblers obtained their information.

The strike is still on, but the strikers are no longer in command of the situation. Slowly the railroads are resuming business, but that they are resuming indicates that the end is coming.

Judge Grosscup says, in speaking of the grand jury he has impeached to indict all those who have interfered with the mails, that "it will widen the scope of its inquiry so as to include all persons who may have interfered with or obstructed interstate commerce or the United States mails in any way or by any means."

The strike situation is unchanged today, a private telegram so informing us. The blood letting in Chicago settled the element that has been raising all the trouble, and the strikers are simply doing nothing.

The conference committee, appointed by the senate and house to reach some agreement on the Wilson bill, is in session daily, or rather the democratic portion of it.

Astronomers tell us that two comets are now visible from the earth. Gates' comet is visible through an ordinary opera glass, while the other, known as Temple's, is so faint that only the most powerful telescope can distinguish it.

A disbanded Coxeyite, while looking at the cars standing on the track at Spokane, remarked, "Time sets all things even, and it is now hoos and hoos. Six weeks ago the railroad managers stopped the trains rather than let us Coxeyites ride. Now the other fellows are stopping them and they can't ride themselves."

TEMPORIZING GOVERNOR.

Governor Markham of California has at last got back to his capital. It will be observed that he found a way of getting there, just as soon as the United States troops had taken possession.

A HEFTY QUAKE.

Professor Fabb recently prophesied a series of severe earthquakes, which were to take place between July 31 and August 31st. His prophecy seems in a fair way of fulfillment.

Should matters continue as they are now in our neighbor to the south, and Markham remain governor, the shake can't come too quick.

The Oregonian arrives on the Regulator now with becoming regularity and is properly appreciated. The way everybody goes for it reminds one of the sudden and vivacious attack by the dentists of Trout lake, when a brown hackle disturbs the pellucid bosom of that mountain gem in the early summer.

Prendergast's attorneys applied to U. S. Judge Grosscup for a writ of habeas corpus Wednesday. The judge replied that he had too much business on his hands to go monkeying with the refined niceties of theories concerning insanity, and advised them to seek elsewhere.

A steamer collided with the United States cruiser Chicago at Antwerp, Wednesday, both vessels were damaged. The country may well take heart of grace from this, notwithstanding the imperfect plates furnished by Carnegie for our war vessels.

"Be sure you get Ayer's" is an important caution to all in search of a thoroughly reliable blood-purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla being the one on which there can be no manner of doubt.

Good Wood.

We again have an abundant supply of dry fir and hard wood for immediate delivery at the lowest rates, and hope to be favored with a liberal share of the trade.

"When I was a Boy,"

Writes Postmaster J. C. WOODSON, Forest Hill, W. Va., "I had a bronchial trouble of such a persistent and stubborn character, that the doctor pronounced it incurable with ordinary medicines, and advised me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and one bottle cured me. For the last fifteen years, I have used this preparation with good effect whenever I take and I know of numbers of people who keep it in the house all the time, not considering it safe to be without it."

"I have been using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for 30 years, with the most satisfactory results, and can cheerfully recommend it as being especially adapted to all pulmonary complaints. I have, for many years, made pulmonary and other medicines a special study, and I have come to the conclusion that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral occupies a position pre-eminent over other medicines of the class."—Chas. Davenport, Denver, N. J.
