OFFICIAL ANARCHISTS.

We would be pleased indeed to note some indication somewhere that the corporations and wealth of the country are not above the reach of the law.

As a last resort, a commission is appointed to examine into these same questions of labor and capital, both being charged with the same offense—boycotting; but the labor is tried, while the corporations are asked no questions.

Let the railroads pause, and the United States courts and congress change their course. Let them be law-abiding before their example is followed and the people also become anarchists.

THE ONLY SOLUTION.

The price of wheat has steadily decreased for a number of years and now it has reached a point where production except under the most favorable circumstances is unprofitable.

OF GREAT FAITH.

Professor Falb's predictions of earthquakes and tidal waves have their amusing side. We are reliably informed that many persons are leaving the seaside on this account, showing that some people are prone to believe.

TO BE A CITY.

Hood River today publishes a notice of her intention to incorporate. This is an excellent move and one that is being handled judiciously.

located on the grandest river in the world, a Switzerland for scenery and a Holland for prolificness, her possibilities are incalculable.

The office of superintendent of water lines for the O. R. & N. has been abolished, and Captain Pegrum, who held that position, is on the retired list.

The dispatches announce the engagement of Miss Florence Pullman, daughter of the sleeping car highwayman, to the Prince of Isenburg-Birstein.

The president is still at Gray Gables, and has given no indication of his intentions concerning the senate bill.

The Oregonian today gives a general review of the business situation, from which we gather that there is a distinct improvement in all lines of business.

It is no doubt true that Weather Observer Pague knows more about handling this Oregon weather than any man living.

The curious old Latin phrase "Habet bovem in lingua," has puzzled many good Latin scholars.

The first thing the legislature should do next winter is to pass a bill increasing the salary of the assessor.

Goldendale is to have a new paper—the Independent. It will make its appearance Saturday with W. J. Story as editor.

IT NEEDS WATCHING.

Utah is to be admitted as a state, and since a provision has been made that the constitution must provide for the suppression of polygamy and guaranty the rights of gentiles, it may be quite proper to give it statehood.

The infamous Mountain Meadow massacre on the 26th and 27th of September, 1859, where 119 men, women and children were murdered in cold blood by the direct orders of Brigham Young.

This era has passed away, is true, but it has passed away because the Mormons are no longer isolated, and the Gentiles have gained strength.

HE SAVED HIS BOOTS.

Col. J. M. Winstead killed himself at Richmond, Virginia, yesterday by jumping from one of the towers of the city hall, the jump measuring 170 feet, all down.

There may perhaps be some method in President Cleveland's actions concerning the tariff bill.

It is said that the champion jaw-smiths, Corbett and Jackson, have at last agreed upon the terms and place for a meeting to settle a little difference of opinion between themselves as to which is the better man.

The Pendleton Tribune tells of a dog being run through a threshing machine near that place and concludes the statement by saying the half minute's run cost $100 for convales, and $100 for dog, and the dog disappeared backwards.

That silly question "Is marriage a failure?" is again being debated in the newspapers.

The Chinese claim to have whipped the Japs at Ping Yang, and also at Chung Ho.

Congress will probably adjourn next week. The tariff bill will be settled Monday afternoon, and the minor matters pending will be dropped as soon as that is done.

THE MARKETS.

FRIDAY, Aug. 24th.—There is a quiet, steady tone to business in nearly all departments of the merchandise trade.

The market for dry goods is steady, and a fair business is done.

There is a sluggish tone to the green and dried fruit market, with downward tendency.

The poultry market is exceedingly dull and prices range nominally from $1.40 to $2 per dozen.

The cereal market at home and abroad is unconditionally quiet and dull.

The wool market has nearly exhausted its stock on storage, and what few lots that are disposed of realize to the seller 8 1/2 to 10 cents per lb.

The butter market is light at 60 to 80 cents per 100 lbs.

The flour market is light at 24 to 26 cents per bushel.

The hay market is light at 75 to 85 cents per ton.

The coffee market is light at 24 to 26 cents per lb.

The sugar market is light at 24 to 26 cents per lb.

The rice market is light at 7 to 8 cents per lb.

The oil market is light at 24 to 26 cents per lb.

The salt market is light at 24 to 26 cents per lb.

The soap market is light at 24 to 26 cents per lb.

The starch market is light at 24 to 26 cents per lb.

The tin market is light at 24 to 26 cents per lb.

The iron market is light at 24 to 26 cents per lb.

Photographs of "Lip-Speech."

What is regarded as the greatest triumph of the photographer was the recent successful experiment by Prof. Danceny, of Berlin, in taking photographs of "lip-speech."
