

The Weekly Chronicle.

THE DALLES, OREGON

Clubbing List.

The CHRONICLE, which gives the news twice a week, has made arrangements to club with the following publications...

Table with 2 columns: Regular price and Our price. Rows include 'Sundays and X. Y. Tribune' and 'Sundays and Weekly Oregonian'.

LOCAL BRIEFINGS.

One drunk and disorderly this morning. The Regulator brought up a very large load last night.

The west bound passenger was five hours late this morning. Street Commissioner Butts resembles the devil in one respect.

The weather predictions for today were occasional rain, and for tomorrow general rain and warmer.

Superintendent Shelley has sent one of his daughters to Monmouth to attend the state normal school.

Two horses from Baker City arrived on the Regulator last night to take part in the races. They came up from Salem.

We never object to our exchanges wiping our editorials, but we do object to having the clippings run among the locals.

Scient Bros. have shipped so far this season eleven carloads of salmon to New York City, and will have another ready for shipment tomorrow night.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Wasco Warehouse Co., held yesterday, J. W. French, Smith French, B. F. Laughlin, W. Lord and G. J. Farley were elected directors.

A burglar or burglars broke into Herbring's store last night. They first broke into the woodshed, from which they got into the alley and then broke through a side window into the store.

The fruitgrowers of Hood River met the other day and discussed the matter of having a fruit fair this fall.

The weather predictions for today were showers followed by fair, and for tomorrow fair with probable frost.

W. E. Taylor arrived from Salem last night bringing his trotting horse Montana which he will enter for the races here.

The Dalles has quite a literary appearance today, nearly everyone you meet having a book under his arm.

The No Treadle sewing machine made expressly for ladies who are not able to run a treadle machine, can be seen at the Dalles fair.

The ladies of the M. E. church will serve meals during the fair in the building east of the First National bank.

One victim of misplaced confidence this morning called on the city recorder who assessed him five dollars.

Quite a lot of wool came in today, most of it from the neighborhood of the Warm Springs.

The Baptists have organized a new church society here with thirty-four members, and will build a church as soon as possible.

Mr. David Creighton is shipping pears to the cannery at Portland and finds the business profitable.

The two-minute horse has at last materialized, the pacer, Flying Jib, making a mile at Chillicothe, Ohio, with running mate, in 1:50 1/2.

A dispatch from Portsmouth, Ohio, on the Ohio river, states that the skeleton of a giant has been found in Kentucky, twelve miles south of that place.

The trestle across Mill creek has been planked and a substantial railing is in place.

The baseball season has ended and Baltimore wins the league pennant, with New York second and Boston third.

A dispatch from Portsmouth, Ohio, on the Ohio river, states that the skeleton of a giant has been found in Kentucky, twelve miles south of that place.

Don't forget that the fair commences one week from today, and at the same time make up your mind to encourage and build it up by bringing judge from its size it must be one that escaped from the late Congressman Breckinridge's family closet.

Do you want THE CHRONICLE and San Francisco Examiner for a year? If so send us $2.25 and you can have them, 156 papers for $2.25 or less than a cent and a half a piece.

The East End is filled with wheat teams, and the warehouses begin to show the effect of the steady stream of sacks that is pouring into them.

We have made arrangements with the San Francisco Examiner to furnish it in connection with THE CHRONICLE. Having a clubbing rate with the Oregonian and N. Y. Tribune for our republican patrons, we have made this arrangement for the accommodation of the democratic members of THE CHRONICLE family.

A letter was handed us this morning, written by a gentleman in Pennsylvania who wants a copy of the Wasco County Sun. The Sun having set, and that too without hatching, we forwarded a sample copy of THE CHRONICLE, knowing that what he sees in THE CHRONICLE he will know is so.

Complaints are numerous concerning thefts of flowers and vases from the cemetery. The offense is so contemptible that it does not seem possible civilized persons could be guilty of it, and certainly savages would not.

Five horses have been entered for the gentleman's roadster race, and it promises to be a good one.

The weather predictions for today were showers followed by fair, and for tomorrow fair with probable frost.

W. E. Taylor arrived from Salem last night bringing his trotting horse Montana which he will enter for the races here.

The Dalles has quite a literary appearance today, nearly everyone you meet having a book under his arm.

The No Treadle sewing machine made expressly for ladies who are not able to run a treadle machine, can be seen at the Dalles fair.

The ladies of the M. E. church will serve meals during the fair in the building east of the First National bank, formerly occupied by Mrs. LeBallister.

One victim of misplaced confidence this morning called on the city recorder who assessed him five dollars. Chronic impetuosity compelled him to accept a position on the staff of Street Commissioner Butts, until his services are considered equivalent to the amount of the fine.

Quite a lot of wool came in today, most of it from the neighborhood of the Warm Springs.

The Baptists have organized a new church society here with thirty-four members, and will build a church as soon as possible.

Mr. David Creighton is shipping pears to the cannery at Portland and finds the business profitable. If this can be done, surely there would be money in operating a cannery here.

The two-minute horse has at last materialized, the pacer, Flying Jib, making a mile at Chillicothe, Ohio, with running mate, in 1:50 1/2. As this style of going is not recognized by the sportsmen, it does not interfere with the record made by Robert J.

The trestle across Mill creek has been planked and a substantial railing is in place. The O. R. & N. have also built a sidewalk and railing from the track south to Mrs. Wilson's building on Union street.

The baseball season has ended and Baltimore wins the league pennant, with New York second and Boston third. Since the organization of the league in 1876 Boston has won the pennant six times, Chicago six, New York two, Providence two, Brooklyn one, Baltimore one.

A dispatch from Portsmouth, Ohio, on the Ohio river, states that the skeleton of a giant has been found in Kentucky, twelve miles south of that place. The skeleton is eight feet in height and four feet across the shoulders. We in your produce and stock, and if you have none by giving it the benefit of your presence. By following this plan for a year or two the local fair can be made something to be looked forward to and appreciated.

Wheat and Hogs.

In conversation with a gentleman from Portland last night, who is engaged in the stock business, we learned some things concerning the feeding of wheat to hogs that may be of importance to our readers.

Considerable amusement was caused in Washington by the attempt of democrats to appear surprised at Senator Hill's nomination for governor of New York by the democratic convention.

The Press Association.

The Oregon journalists to the number of thirty-six passed through on the 11 o'clock passenger bound for Pendleton. Many of them were accompanied by their wives or daughters, so that the total number was about fifty.

Five horses have been entered for the gentleman's roadster race, and it promises to be a good one. The weather predictions for today were showers followed by fair, and for tomorrow fair with probable frost.

W. E. Taylor arrived from Salem last night bringing his trotting horse Montana which he will enter for the races here. The Dalles has quite a literary appearance today, nearly everyone you meet having a book under his arm.

The No Treadle sewing machine made expressly for ladies who are not able to run a treadle machine, can be seen at the Dalles fair. See it before you buy, or address P. W. Brigham, 110 Court street, The Dalles, Or.

The ladies of the M. E. church will serve meals during the fair in the building east of the First National bank, formerly occupied by Mrs. LeBallister. Lunch will be served from 12 to 2 o'clock and dinner from 7 to 8. All meals 25 cents each.

One victim of misplaced confidence this morning called on the city recorder who assessed him five dollars. Chronic impetuosity compelled him to accept a position on the staff of Street Commissioner Butts, until his services are considered equivalent to the amount of the fine.

Quite a lot of wool came in today, most of it from the neighborhood of the Warm Springs.

The Baptists have organized a new church society here with thirty-four members, and will build a church as soon as possible.

Mr. David Creighton is shipping pears to the cannery at Portland and finds the business profitable. If this can be done, surely there would be money in operating a cannery here.

The two-minute horse has at last materialized, the pacer, Flying Jib, making a mile at Chillicothe, Ohio, with running mate, in 1:50 1/2. As this style of going is not recognized by the sportsmen, it does not interfere with the record made by Robert J.

The trestle across Mill creek has been planked and a substantial railing is in place. The O. R. & N. have also built a sidewalk and railing from the track south to Mrs. Wilson's building on Union street.

The baseball season has ended and Baltimore wins the league pennant, with New York second and Boston third. Since the organization of the league in 1876 Boston has won the pennant six times, Chicago six, New York two, Providence two, Brooklyn one, Baltimore one.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our regular correspondent. WASHINGTON, Sept. 28, 1894.

At every roundup of the information received by Chairman Babcock, of the republican congressional campaign committee, the indications point to a larger republican majority in the next house.

The object of these proceedings is to secure, if possible, an order from the court more favorable to the employees of the O. R. & N. Co., regarding Receiver McNeil's wage schedule.

The Coroner's Inquest.

In the matter of the inquest upon the body of a man killed on the O. R. & N. Co.'s line at Grant station, September 29, 1894.

We further find that he is a native-born citizen of Ireland, and has a mother whose name is Bridget Cain, now living at Cumber Cloudy, Kerry county, Ireland.

That he was a married man and has a wife residing at 437 West 52d street, New York City, N. Y., whose given name is Margaret.

That he came to his death through his own fault and neglect by walking on the top of a moving train, and while walking towards the caboose of train No. 1st 23, he accidentally stepped into the open space between two cars, and was precipitated down to the track under the train and about four cars run over him before said train could be stopped.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

large number of chairs were taken to the jury-room, and soon even standing room was at a premium. Miss Fleming, official stenographer, was on hand with a large stock of paper, and the employees of the company were represented by Attorney John M. Gearin.

The taking of testimony will occupy several days, and after the shorthand notes are extended the proceedings will be placed before Judge Bellinger for review.

The object of these proceedings is to secure, if possible, an order from the court more favorable to the employees of the O. R. & N. Co., regarding Receiver McNeil's wage schedule.

It is by making a proper showing that the employes now seek to have the court here adhere to the opinion of Judge Caldwell.

The Coroner's Inquest.

In the matter of the inquest upon the body of a man killed on the O. R. & N. Co.'s line at Grant station, September 29, 1894.

We further find that he is a native-born citizen of Ireland, and has a mother whose name is Bridget Cain, now living at Cumber Cloudy, Kerry county, Ireland.

That he was a married man and has a wife residing at 437 West 52d street, New York City, N. Y., whose given name is Margaret.

That he came to his death through his own fault and neglect by walking on the top of a moving train, and while walking towards the caboose of train No. 1st 23, he accidentally stepped into the open space between two cars, and was precipitated down to the track under the train and about four cars run over him before said train could be stopped.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

By its notice that the reciprocity treaty with the United States would cease to be operative on January 1, 1895, Brazil puts on record its disapproval of the democratic idea of abrogating treaties, regardless of their stipulations, by act of congress.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Saturday.

Dr. Logan is visiting Portland today. Mrs. Magee went to Portland this morning.

Charley Butler is over from Portland. Mr. Milton Harlan came up from Mosier today.

Mr. Fred S. Rogers of San Francisco is visiting friends here. Captain John W. Lewis arrived home from Portland yesterday.

Mrs. H. Corson returned this morning from a visit with relatives in Illinois.

Mrs. A. L. Newman and Mrs. Wallace Wilson and son went to Portland this morning.

Mike Welch, Cub Allen and Dick Porter, horse trainers, came up from Portland last night.

Miss Ruth Cooper left yesterday for Klamath, where she has accepted a position as teacher in the Indian school.

Mr. F. H. Button, who has been training his race horses at Portland during the summer, has returned to Hood River.

Judge Blakeley, who had been attending the session of the Pharmaceutical society at Portland, arrived home Thursday night.

Mr. Watt, who looks after the tax matters of the O. R. & N., was here yesterday. He is endeavoring to have the company's assessment reduced to $4000 per mile.

J. W. Morton, formerly of Hood River but who has been living at Tillamook for a couple of years, has returned to his old home a few miles below Hood River, and is glad to get out of the cold and rain of the coast counties.

Mrs. A. M. Williams returned to Portland this morning. Miss Maude Shulthis of Pendleton is a guest of the Misses Story.

Hons. E. B. Dufur and W. H. Wilson are attending court at Moro.

Mrs. O. C. Stevens has returned home for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stevens accompanying her for a visit to friends.

Judge Bradshaw and Prosecuting Attorney Jayne left for Moro yesterday to hold the fall term of court. The docket is light and the term will not last more than three or four days.

Tuesday.

Mr. Chris Cohrs ex-sheriff of Crook county is in the city.

J. L. Conifer and L. B. Kelly both of Victor, are in the city.

Mr. O. L. Paquet, Oak Grove's popular merchant is in the city.

Mr. J. M. Johnson of Mountain Home, Idaho, took a trip into the country today with Hon. A. M. Cartwright.

F. A. Geyton and W. Calver are buying horses and in a few days will go to Grants Pass via the Barlow route.

Mr. Frank Rogers of California, who has been visiting friends here left for home this morning.

Miss Stella Patty, cousin of Mr. C. F. Stephens, arrived here from Mc Minnville last night, and will take a position in his store.

Mrs. Knebel and daughter returned Sunday from Ventura county, Cal., where they have been visiting relatives and friends for the past four months.

Mr. D. B. Kelley of Oakland California, who has been spending a few weeks on his ranch in Crook county, passed through the city yesterday on his way home.

Mr. Wm. Watson of Mosier was in the city today. He did not seem to be enthusiastic over Mosier's mining future, but is a believer in her being a winner in the fruit business.

BORN.

In this city, Tuesday, October 2nd, to the wife of Hugh Farmer, a daughter.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

LAND OFFICE, The Dalles, Or., Oct 1, 1894. Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the register and receiver of the U. S. Land office, The Dalles, Or., on November 10, 1894, viz: James W. Dickson.

H. E. No. 2928, for the W 1/2 Sec. 36, NE 1/4 Sec. 34, Tp. 18, R. 13 E., W. 4. He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz: L. Rice, William Campbell, W. J. Herman, J. E. McCormick, of Endersley, Or. JAS. F. MOORE, Register.

Administrator's Notice.

The undersigned having by consideration of the County court of the State of Oregon for Wasco county been appointed administrator of the estate of George Hansen deceased, on the 10th day of Sept. 1894, creditors of, and all persons having claims against the said estate of said deceased, are hereby notified to present them, with the proper vouchers attached, within six months from the date of this notice, to the said administrator at the office of A. M. Kelsey, county clerk, in Dalles City, County of Wasco, State of Oregon.

Dated at The Dalles Oregon, September 29th, 1894. ANDREW HANSEN, Administrator of the estate of George Hansen, deceased. OCT. 3 to 31.

Administrator's Sale.

Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of an order of the county court of the state of Oregon for Wasco county, duly made and entered on the 22nd day of September, A. D. 1894, in the matter of the estate of Henry A. Pratt, deceased, directing the undersigned to sell at public sale the following described real property belonging to said deceased to-wit: Lot number five (5) in block number two (2) in Tract its addition to Dalles City, Wasco County, Oregon. We will on Saturday, November 3rd, 1894 at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m. of said day at the court house door in Dalles City, sell to the highest bidder the said described property. Terms of sale, one third at time of sale, one third in six months from date of sale, and one third in one year from date of sale. LESLIE BUTLER, J. F. ARMOUR, Administrators of the estate of Henry A. Pratt, deceased. sep24-oct29

Estrayed.

Came to my place, near Nansene, about the first of May, 1894, a bay saddle horse, between 10 and 12 years old, branded P on left shoulder. The owner can have same by paying for this notice and pasturage. W. ROBERTSON, sep12-1m Nansene P. O., Or.