AFTER THE SPOILS

England as Usual Wants Some of the Pie.

RUSSIA IS ALSO VERY HUNGRY

And the Two, After Japan Whips China Will Endeavor to Pareel Out the Plunder.

England Wants a Hand in the Settlement.

MANCHESTER, Eng., Oct. 5.—The Guardian, in its issue today, says the ministerial council of yesterday was summoned for the purpose of authorizing a show of force on the part of England to compel Japan in case of the collapse of the "ua to make the settlement of the trouble between Japan and China an international one, and not merely a Japanese affair. In this stand England is backed up by Russia, Germany and France. Japan, that paper says, in her present mood, will pay no heed to the representations of the powers unless backed up by tangible evidence of an intention to force them. The Globe and Gazette also say the Guardian's article gives the real reason for the meeting of the council.

The Powers Are Interested.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—St. James's Gazette says interests of England, France and Russia are closely involved in the possible breaking up of the Chinese empire, and it is believed Russia has signified she cannot any longer regard the progress of events in the far East with indifference. The Manchester Guardian is informed Russia and Great Britain have definitely decided the settlement of the war must be international and not a Japanese affair. Germany and France are said to have acquiesced to this decision, while the policy of the United States is still regarded as uncertain. Russia, according to the Guardian, has already warned Japan that the future of Corea concerns the Russian government.

Chinese Hate Foreigners.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—Rev. W. B. White and Rev. R. O. Hayden, who come from the interior of China, arrived on the Gaelic. They say that the Chinese in the localities where they were barely know there is a war, take no interest in it and have no patriotic leaning. "It is true the emperor is in danger, as reported by the dispatches since we left," said Hayden, "and if he should fail there would be no hope of saving the missionaries, or any other European or American people. The prejudice against foreigners would break out and sweep the country. There would be no escape except for those people who could take asylum aboard foreign gunboats. Even the people at the open ports would not be safe."

Japanese Patrolling the Coast.

SHANGHAI, Oct. 5.—The Chinese merchants are canceling freight contracts to Che-Foo and Tien-Tsin, owing to a report the Japanese intended to blockade these ports. Several Japanese warships are patrolling the coast near Wei-Hai-Wei, a Chinese port on Shang-Tung promontory. They approach the coast at night and steam away at daybreak. It is said the object is to prevent Chinese warships leaving Wei-Hai-Wei, or Port Arthur, on the opposite side of the Yellow sea. It is stated the Japanese do not intend to interfere with the export of coal to China.

Wanted to Shake Hands.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—A dispatch from London says: "As the Duke and Duchess of York were driving at Leeds this afternoon to Yorkshire college, to attend the opening ceremonies, a man attempted to force his way to the carriage. A lance struck the man repeatedly, and he was arrested. The prisoner was an imbecile, and it is believed that his action was prompted solely by a desire to shake hands with the duke and duchess."

Suspected of Murder.

DETROIT, Oct. 5.—William D. Trombley is locked up at police headquarters on suspicion of being connected with the murder of Charles B. Chauvin, his uncle. Trombley is the missing heir to the Chauvin estate, for whom the police have been searching New York, and who sold his interest in the estate to John H. Seitz. Trombley and Seitz came to Detroit from New York last night.

May Cause a General Row.

PARIS, Oct. 5.—Le Gaulois asks if British intervention in the Corean troubles might not constitute a repetition of the famous coup of 1878, which enabled Admiral Lord John Hay to take possession of the island of Cyprus.

Figaro referring to the same subject, remarks the British once landed in China would not be able to resist the desire to exercise pressure upon the Japanese to prevent them deriving all the advantage of victory. Troubles may then commence and the peace of Europe be threatened, for Russia, France, and even America will certainly intervene,

A Suez Canal Strike.

Cairo, Oct. 5.—The Egyptian Gazette says it is rumored the Suez Canal Company has applied to the French government for the protection of its property in Egypt, where trouble has arisen on account of strikes. The commander of the French cruiser Eroude, at Port Said, is said to have prepared to disembark marines and bluejackets to protect the property.

A Rebellion in China.

TIEN-TSIN, Oct. 5.—Reports have reached here that a rebellion has broken out in the provinces of Magnolia. Troops from Peking have been sent to quell this uprising. Serious troubles are said to have arisen within the palace at Peking. The residents of the Tien-Tsin are taking every precaution possible against the anticipated attack by natives.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—Albert Perrin, the jewelry drummer who was charged with felony and embezzlement in absconding with $10,000 worth of jewelry, over 10 years ago, has been held to answer before the superior court in 10,000 bonds. Perrin was arrested in New York.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—Alarming reports reached the stock exchange today about the czar's health. They had little effect upon the market, as they were denied.

Elder Berry—I never knew our girls to be so crazy about dancing as they have been of late. Mrs. Berry—How do you account for it? Elder Berry—I don't know, unless it is because the new minister has been preaching against it.—The Theologian.

One distressing feature of the arrest of Fitzhugh and Phipps, the Walla Walla bankers, is that Phipps' mother and Fitzhugh's wife are each very ill, and worse for the news of the trouble.

Accident at Tacoma.

TACOMA, Oct. 6.—George G. Chandler, general agent of the Northern Pacific railroad in this city, was killed in a street car accident tonight at 11:15 o'clock. Those injured in the same accident are:

James F. O'Brien, deputy county clerk, right leg mangled; Ed. R. Hare, left shoulder dislocated; M. Sidney, a real estate agent, hurt about the face; Mrs. M. Sidney, bruised and cut in several places; Miss Bertha Laughton, rendered insensible and cut about the head; A. W. Latham, a bookkeeper, bruised.

Mrs. William H. Upton of Portland was slightly bruised and was taken to the Fife hotel. No other Portland people were injured. Mr. Chandler's face was mangled beyond recognition. So completely was he disfigured that for some minutes after the wreck his identity was in doubt, and was only settled by an examination of his watch, on which his name was engraved. The car on which the accident occurred was No. 20, of the Old Town line. It was returning from the interstate fair, and was crowded with people. Chandler, O'Brien, Hare and a number of others were standing on the front platform, behind Motorman W. J. Musgrave. As the wheels struck the east crossing of North Second street the axle of the front truck broke near the right wheel. The car left the track, plunged along at an acute angle to the right of the track for a rod, and then fell on its left side. O'Brien went down in the struggling mass of humanity, and the iron roof of the car fastened down upon him, tearing the flesh and horribly mangling the calf of his leg. The others were all injured either by falling from the platform or by being thrown violently against one another and against the breaking glass of the windows. Doctors were summoned and every assistance rendered the injured. Mr. Chandler's body has been taken to the coroner's morgue. Policemen have been stationed about the wreck to guard it until the coroner's inquest, which is to be held Monday. It was an accident, pure and simple, and proved a terrible ending of the splendid celebration of the day and evening in honor of the visit of Portlnd's mayor and a thousand citizens to the interstate fair.

Judge Scott of Omaha.

OMAHA, Oct. 6.—Judge Cunningham R. Scott, of the criminal branch of the district court, and a leading American Protective Association man today cited E. Rosewater, editor of the Bee, to appear before him Tuesday and show cause why he should not be adjudged in contempt of court. Scott has undertaken to establish a severe press censorship with reference to the reports of routine work of his court. Yesterday the Bee printed a local item referring to the manner in which Judge Scott questioned applicants for citizenship, appearing before him, with reference to their religious opinions and particularly as to the relative superiority of the church and state laws. If the answers were obscure or indicate a preference for serving the church, certificates were refused. For this item, the editor was called to time.

Flying Jib's Fast Mile.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—The telegraphic news from Chillicothe about the wonderful mile paced by Flying Jib did not create any surprise, as it was known that the erratic sidewheeler was one of the fastest team horses in the world. A sensation was created in local horse circles a few years ago, when a team of pacers owned by Captain Millen Griffith, of this city, paced a half-mile over the Bay district track in 1:01%. One of the pacers was Flying Jib, who Thursday established a new world's record for pacing a mile with a running mate. Monroe Salisbury took Flying Jib east the following year, and the Californian made the greatest record ever made by a green pacer the first season out. He was called upon to meet the star sidewheeler of America, and the great three-cornered race between Guy Mascot and Flying Jib will not be forgotten, even in this year of wonderful performances.
