A SCOURING MILL.

The question of establishing a scouring plant here has been agitated for some time, and seems now to have reached a stage where the accomplishment is probable.

The Dalles is the largest wool shipping point in Oregon, and from its situation must remain so, so long as the mountain ranges are utilized as sheep pastures.

The average wool shipments are over 5,000,000 pounds a year. The weight of scoured wool is about one-third that of the unscoured, so that we are paying freight on, in round numbers, 3,500,000 pounds of sand and dirt to Boston; or in order to get 800 tons of wool to market we pay freight on 1750 tons of dirt.

It would prove of great benefit to the wool grower because it would give him a home market for his wool, or if he cared to ship, would put his product in shape to save him a large amount of freight money.

Argentine has had a severe earthquake, and an immense damage has been done. From latest reports, it is probable the loss of life will reach 2000 and perhaps more.

McClure's for November is an exceptionally good number. Napoleon is pictured in all possible forms, and has received, we hope, all the treatment he will get, for that subject is decidedly chestnutty.

ALL RELIEVED.

The $14,000 stolen from the express office has been recovered, with the exception of a trifle, and everyone in The Dalles is glad of it. Individually Jones "hove" a sigh of relief, to think that his suspicion of Smith was unfounded; and Smith muttered a hearty "thank God" when his neighbor Jones was cleared of any connection with the robbery.

Another big battle is reported to have been fought at Klaren Castle, between the Japs and Johns. The Chinese opened the fight by sending a regiment armed with cleavers or axes to attack the Japs, who were armed with Winchester.

Next Tuesday is election day, and by Wednesday night the results will be pretty well known. It is exceedingly hard to tell what the American people will do under any given circumstances, but it does not seem possible that but one answer will be given, and that will be an overwhelming defeat of democracy.

Report from Chemulpo, under date of Oct. 26th, says the Japs have given the Chinese another lambasting. Two hundred Chinese were found dead inside of the breastworks when the Japs ran their enemies out. The fight took place at Wilu, near the Yain river.

Someone in Vancouver, B. C., suggests that the ship Ivanhoe, which cleared from Seattle for San Francisco and on which Editor Grant was a passenger, may have sailed direct for China. This is hardly probable, and is a very weak straw to grasp at.

the kind. Tammany may be utterly corrupt, but we do not believe any corruptness can so endanger the liberties of the people, as the unlimited authority given to Anthony Comstock who poses as the moralist of New York.

The story of the fire at Seattle becomes more horrible as the details are made known. Sixteen persons are known to have perished in the fire, burned like rats in a trap. The fire was caused by the explosion of a coaloil lamp in the kitchen, the night clerk having gone there for a lunch.

There can be but one result to the war between Japan and China. On the one side is a warlike nation, full of vim and patriotism, its soldiers willing to die in the cause for which they are fighting, to the greater glory of their country.

Portland's circus came off Thursday night according to program, and the papers say was a grand success. We knew it would be when we selected the people for the parts the other day, and we are correspondingly glad of it.

The last battle won by the Japs has set the Chinese to thinking seriously and even they are beginning to realize that the situation is serious and that the capture of Peking is not only possible, but extremely probable.

According to the latest dispatches the Japanese have chased the czar across the Yalu river and given him only three days in which to die. The czarovich is expected to marry the daughter of the Mikado at Ping Yang, on the coast at Woha-Haw-Gee; and Princess Alix will open the campaign for David Bennett Hill with prayer and a hatchet, at Skeneateles, some time if not sooner.

McClure's for November is an exceptionally good number. Napoleon is pictured in all possible forms, and has received, we hope, all the treatment he will get, for that subject is decidedly chestnutty.

The Carnegie Steel Company claims to have discovered a means of dispensing with the sand strips on the Harveyized armor plates. Now, if the same company will discover some plan by which it can dispense with the blowholes in that same Harveyized armor, the American people will be truly grateful.

Chancellor von Caprivi has tendered his resignation to the German emperor, and it has been accepted. Count Eulenburg, president of the ministerial council, has also resigned. Bismarck's friends are said to be the cause of the trouble between the emperor and the count.

Prince von Hohenlohe Sebillingfurst has accepted the appointment as chancellor of Prussia, in place of Caprivi, resigned. This ought to insure peace with France, since a casus belli would have been forgotten, while the French diplomats were trying to spell his name.

The Lexow committee is still in session in New York but how long it will continue is hard to say. The rumors to the effect that some of the members of the committee were receiving bribes, is probably without foundation in fact, though the American people are so accustomed to such things that the large prone to believe anything of

GUARD THE BOYS.

The effects of bad associates and of leaving boys to be their own guardians, and to grow up without parental restraint is again made visible in a brilliant object lesson. A year ago or more Hawthorne, Rowe, Savage, Klein and perhaps another boy or two, began going together, and one of them at least being criminally inclined, soon set the others to thinking in that line.

About the nerviest thing we have seen in a long time is the attempt of the so-called "Pinkerton detectives" of Portland to claim the credit of discovering the clew by which the robbers of the express office here were caught and the money secured.

Politics have gotten warm enough down in Indiana that the political speakers are being mobbed. The colored gentry did the mobbing this time and they were only prevented from killing the speaker by the prompt interference of the police.

"I am glad to be able to say, children," remarked the benignant old gentleman, who was addressing the Waifs' Mission Sunday school, "that I never swore an oath in my life. I never drank a drop of any kind of intoxicating liquor. I never took a chew of tobacco, never had a cigar in my mouth, never smoked a pipe, never went to a theater, and never saw the inside of a circus tent."

We have made arrangements with the San Francisco Examiner to furnish it in connection with THE CHRONICLE. Having a clubbing rate with the Oregonian and N. Y. Tribune for our republican patrons, we have made this arrangement for the accommodation of the democratic members of THE CHRONICLE family.
