

The Weekly Chronicle

Clubbing List

The Chronicle, which gives the news twice a week, has made arrangements to club with the following publications...

Table listing subscription rates for various newspapers like The Oregonian, The Examiner, and The New York World.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Wednesday's Daily: The weather prediction for tomorrow is light rain, stationary temperature, and for Friday, fair.

Radtke's trial was finished yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock and he was placed under $200 bonds to appear before the grand jury.

That bar left in the express office is a regular tattle tale. An examination of the marks on the window casings of Mr. Herbring's store, show that the bar fits them perfectly.

John F. Root today deeded all his property, both real and personal, except that exempt from execution to Hugh Glenn as assignee...

The streets have been deserted all day, everybody who was not at work being in the courtroom, listening to the testimony in the Gibbons-Savage case.

Warrants were sent up from Portland last night for the arrest of Gibbons, Savage and Klein. They were issued from the United States court...

The Myrtle Social club gave their first dancing party last night at Myrtle hall, over Mr. Brown's store on Second street.

For the many accidents that occur about the farm or household, such as burns, scalds, bruises, cuts, ragged wounds, bites of animals, mosquitoes or other insects...

Thursday's Daily

Rev. E. J. Van Deerin, who has been occupying the pulpit of Trinity Church, Portland, during the temporary absence of Rev. Thomas Cole...

Don't forget the fair Saturday, Nov. 3d. Admission in the afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock will be free.

The young ladies of the Congregational Sunday school will give a bubble and pumpkin party in Pease & Mays' high water building Tuesday evening, Nov. 6th...

About two weeks ago Frank McFarland was taken ill, which complaint soon developed into appendicitis. Last Friday he was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital...

License to marry was issued today to John Rogers and Miss Susie Johns.

District court meets Monday, the 12th, and has an extraordinarily large criminal docket.

The county court meets in probate Monday, and as a commissioners court Wednesday.

The price of hogs has fallen considerably, $3.75 being the price quoted for good shippers.

There is going to be a wedding shortly, but as we were told in confidence we can't give it away.

The saw mill at Lyle is in operation and is supplying lumber for the High Prairie settlements.

The warrants issued from the United States court were sent here several days ago for the arrest of Klein et al. for robbing the postoffice...

Mr. Judd Fish and party are home from Hood River. They didn't kill any bears because after diligent search they were unable to find any ripe ones.

M. A. Moody has a barge at Lyle and is receiving considerable wheat from the High Prairie neighborhood.

Work on the cannery is progressing rapidly. The sides are up and the rafters raised. With a few days good weather the roof will be on and then the work can be prosecuted steadily.

THE EXPRESS ROBBERY

THE TESTIMONY BEING HEARD BY JUSTICE DAVIS.

And Now It is Facts Instead of Rumors Upon Which Opinions May be Based.

The preliminary examination of Otis Savage began yesterday before Justice Davis. Ralph Gibbons was also present, though his examination will not begin till Savage's ends.

The attention of the justice was occupied until 4 o'clock with the extortion case against H. Raedicke from Dufur. It was 3 o'clock before this was concluded, and then the crowd was rewarded by hearing the robbery cases called.

The grand jury in the small office was so great that a suggestion was made to adjourn to the courtroom, where the trial was held. The circuit courtroom was completely filled with spectators.

The state was represented by Pros. Atty. Jayne and Deputy G. W. Phelps. They appeared for the defense Messrs. Huntington and Wilson and A. S. Bennett.

Much delay was caused by witnesses not being present. The prosecution was somewhat taken aback when H. S. Wilson asked for an order from the court excluding from the room all witnesses except the one on the stand.

The recorder's court interviewed three individuals who had been imbibing too freely this morning. They were fined $5 each, and what is particularly refreshing about the matter is that they each paid up.

A rumor is in circulation that the Regulator will soon be up. There is absolutely no foundation for the statement. The incline will have to be abandoned by the 10th, but the new road will be laid, and the new incline completed by that time.

The governor has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation. This time he gave the president the first shot at it, and then accepted his decision.

Real Estate Transactions: The following deeds filed for record today: Marion E. Loy to W. P. Watson, w 1/2 of nw 1/4, sec 22, tp 1 n, r 9 e, $1.

Kathleen Sharp to Ivan Humason et al, lots 1 and 2, block 22, Humason addition to Dalles City; $1.

United States to Hayden O'Neal, ne 1/4 sec 9, r 3 s, r 14 e, also sw 1/4, sec 4, same range and township.

United States to Stephen Hamilton, se 1/4 ne 1/4, n 1/2, se 1/4, sec 4, tp 3 s, r 14 e.

United States to Leopold Newstadtter, w 1/2, nw 1/4, and e 1/2, sec 11, tp 5 s, r 15 e.

United States to George F. Wells, n 1/2, sw 1/4, nw 1/4, and nw 1/4, sec 34, tp 1 s, r 14 e.

The contractors at the locks being now ready to build the lower guard walls of the canal, it becomes necessary to remove the lower incline of the portage road.

Meeting every night. Friday night holiness meeting; Sunday, Nov. 4th, meeting at 7 a. m. and holiness meeting at 11 a. m.

Meeting every night. Friday night holiness meeting; Sunday, Nov. 4th, meeting at 7 a. m. and holiness meeting at 11 a. m.

The committee on streets and public property will receive until 12 a. m., November 10th, 1894, sealed proposals to furnish Dalles City fifteen cords No. 1 oak wood...

Mr. Ray—How does your husband express himself when he comes home late from the club? Mrs. Bay—He doesn't express himself at all. They send him home in an ambulance.—The Toper.

THE EXPRESS ROBBERY

THE TESTIMONY BEING HEARD BY JUSTICE DAVIS.

And Now It is Facts Instead of Rumors Upon Which Opinions May be Based.

The preliminary examination of Otis Savage began yesterday before Justice Davis. Ralph Gibbons was also present, though his examination will not begin till Savage's ends.

The attention of the justice was occupied until 4 o'clock with the extortion case against H. Raedicke from Dufur. It was 3 o'clock before this was concluded, and then the crowd was rewarded by hearing the robbery cases called.

The grand jury in the small office was so great that a suggestion was made to adjourn to the courtroom, where the trial was held. The circuit courtroom was completely filled with spectators.

The state was represented by Pros. Atty. Jayne and Deputy G. W. Phelps. They appeared for the defense Messrs. Huntington and Wilson and A. S. Bennett.

Much delay was caused by witnesses not being present. The prosecution was somewhat taken aback when H. S. Wilson asked for an order from the court excluding from the room all witnesses except the one on the stand.

The recorder's court interviewed three individuals who had been imbibing too freely this morning. They were fined $5 each, and what is particularly refreshing about the matter is that they each paid up.

A rumor is in circulation that the Regulator will soon be up. There is absolutely no foundation for the statement. The incline will have to be abandoned by the 10th, but the new road will be laid, and the new incline completed by that time.

The governor has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation. This time he gave the president the first shot at it, and then accepted his decision.

Real Estate Transactions: The following deeds filed for record today: Marion E. Loy to W. P. Watson, w 1/2 of nw 1/4, sec 22, tp 1 n, r 9 e, $1.

Kathleen Sharp to Ivan Humason et al, lots 1 and 2, block 22, Humason addition to Dalles City; $1.

United States to Hayden O'Neal, ne 1/4 sec 9, r 3 s, r 14 e, also sw 1/4, sec 4, same range and township.

United States to Stephen Hamilton, se 1/4 ne 1/4, n 1/2, se 1/4, sec 4, tp 3 s, r 14 e.

United States to Leopold Newstadtter, w 1/2, nw 1/4, and e 1/2, sec 11, tp 5 s, r 15 e.

United States to George F. Wells, n 1/2, sw 1/4, nw 1/4, and nw 1/4, sec 34, tp 1 s, r 14 e.

The contractors at the locks being now ready to build the lower guard walls of the canal, it becomes necessary to remove the lower incline of the portage road.

Meeting every night. Friday night holiness meeting; Sunday, Nov. 4th, meeting at 7 a. m. and holiness meeting at 11 a. m.

Meeting every night. Friday night holiness meeting; Sunday, Nov. 4th, meeting at 7 a. m. and holiness meeting at 11 a. m.

The committee on streets and public property will receive until 12 a. m., November 10th, 1894, sealed proposals to furnish Dalles City fifteen cords No. 1 oak wood...

Mr. Ray—How does your husband express himself when he comes home late from the club? Mrs. Bay—He doesn't express himself at all. They send him home in an ambulance.—The Toper.

THE EXPRESS ROBBERY

THE TESTIMONY BEING HEARD BY JUSTICE DAVIS.

And Now It is Facts Instead of Rumors Upon Which Opinions May be Based.

The preliminary examination of Otis Savage began yesterday before Justice Davis. Ralph Gibbons was also present, though his examination will not begin till Savage's ends.

The attention of the justice was occupied until 4 o'clock with the extortion case against H. Raedicke from Dufur. It was 3 o'clock before this was concluded, and then the crowd was rewarded by hearing the robbery cases called.

The grand jury in the small office was so great that a suggestion was made to adjourn to the courtroom, where the trial was held. The circuit courtroom was completely filled with spectators.

The state was represented by Pros. Atty. Jayne and Deputy G. W. Phelps. They appeared for the defense Messrs. Huntington and Wilson and A. S. Bennett.

Much delay was caused by witnesses not being present. The prosecution was somewhat taken aback when H. S. Wilson asked for an order from the court excluding from the room all witnesses except the one on the stand.

The recorder's court interviewed three individuals who had been imbibing too freely this morning. They were fined $5 each, and what is particularly refreshing about the matter is that they each paid up.

A rumor is in circulation that the Regulator will soon be up. There is absolutely no foundation for the statement. The incline will have to be abandoned by the 10th, but the new road will be laid, and the new incline completed by that time.

The governor has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation. This time he gave the president the first shot at it, and then accepted his decision.

Real Estate Transactions: The following deeds filed for record today: Marion E. Loy to W. P. Watson, w 1/2 of nw 1/4, sec 22, tp 1 n, r 9 e, $1.

Kathleen Sharp to Ivan Humason et al, lots 1 and 2, block 22, Humason addition to Dalles City; $1.

United States to Hayden O'Neal, ne 1/4 sec 9, r 3 s, r 14 e, also sw 1/4, sec 4, same range and township.

United States to Stephen Hamilton, se 1/4 ne 1/4, n 1/2, se 1/4, sec 4, tp 3 s, r 14 e.

United States to Leopold Newstadtter, w 1/2, nw 1/4, and e 1/2, sec 11, tp 5 s, r 15 e.

United States to George F. Wells, n 1/2, sw 1/4, nw 1/4, and nw 1/4, sec 34, tp 1 s, r 14 e.

The contractors at the locks being now ready to build the lower guard walls of the canal, it becomes necessary to remove the lower incline of the portage road.

Meeting every night. Friday night holiness meeting; Sunday, Nov. 4th, meeting at 7 a. m. and holiness meeting at 11 a. m.

Meeting every night. Friday night holiness meeting; Sunday, Nov. 4th, meeting at 7 a. m. and holiness meeting at 11 a. m.

The committee on streets and public property will receive until 12 a. m., November 10th, 1894, sealed proposals to furnish Dalles City fifteen cords No. 1 oak wood...

Mr. Ray—How does your husband express himself when he comes home late from the club? Mrs. Bay—He doesn't express himself at all. They send him home in an ambulance.—The Toper.

We are Still In It, and You Know It.

We are selling more goods than ever, for the simple reason that

Our PRICES are RIGHT.

We pay more for Produce than any other dealer in The Dalles.

Consult Your Interests, and Trade with

JOLES, COLLINS & CO.

Telephone No. 20. THE RELIABLE FIRM.

broke the lock. They first tried to pry off the staple but failed. They then ran out the front door and up the alley. Retracing their steps they went around the back of the Cosmopolitan hotel...

DIED.

In this city, Thursday, Nov. 1st, Henry Clerish, aged about 56 years. Funeral tomorrow at 10 o'clock from Grandfall & Burget's undertaking rooms.

Henry Clerish has resided in the city for over twenty years, coming here in the early seventies. He had been a soldier in the Twenty-third regiment, U. S. Infantry, and came here from Camp Watson.

In this city Wednesday, Oct. 31st, Mrs. J. D. Lawson, aged about 44 years. The funeral took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

To Produce the Body.

Judge Bradshaw met himself in his judicial capacity yesterday and listened to some habeas corpus proceedings instituted by Attorney Riddell in relation to Charles Deckert...

THE PRINCIPLE WITNESS.

The spectators crowded forward to hear every word that Klein would say. He appeared perfectly at ease and told his story in a straightforward way. It was not hard to draw him out.

To the Sympathetic Dufur Nine.

You who in the columns of THE CHRONICLE a few weeks back of this date, with apostolic grace and sympathy said "we sigh for Tygh" This was after a challenge sent to Tygh by the 1st nine of Dufur...

JOHN WILLIAM.

The Postoffice Robbery.

Most of our readers, especially those in the country, may not understand the allusions made to the robbery of the postoffice. The office here was robbed the night of September 7th, but the matter was kept quiet at the time at the request of the postal authorities. The mail sacks were found upon opening the office in the morning...

A Jersey Lily.

A Spokane deputy sheriff with the coroner and a newspaper reporter or two went recently to the northern boundary of the county to open a grave on a farm belonging to an old German named Hermann...

PERSONAL MENTION.

Wednesday Mr. John Gill of Portland is in the city.

Hon. Zera Snow of Portland is in the city. R. D. Cameron came up from White Salmon last night.

Mr. Owen Lewis of Butteville is visiting his uncle, O. J. Lewis. Mr. E. A. Medler of Sherman County is registered at the Umatilla.

Mrs. W. R. Barrett of Lebanon, Or., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Alloway. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Myers arrived home this morning from an extended visit in the East.

Miss Nettie McNeal returned this morning from Prairie City, where she has been visiting Mrs. Scott Hyde for the past thirty days.

Mr. J. G. Day, one of the contractors at the locks, came up on the local this afternoon but only remained for an hour. Mr. J. H. McDonough accompanied him.

Mrs. E. P. Roberts and daughter Nellie, left for Eugene yesterday morning to remain during the winter. Miss Anna Roberts is attending the university at that place, and will graduate in another year.

Friday Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Crowe returned from Portland last night. Mr. Frank Fulton of Sherman county was in the city yesterday.

Judge Bradshaw and B. F. Laughlin returned from Portland today. Mr. W. H. Fear, Portland agent of the Jarvis Conkling Mortgage Trust Co., is in the city.

Judge Liebe, Emil Schanno, Dick Closter and several others went to the Cascades this morning.

MARRIED.

At Endersby, Oct. 31, 1894, by G. W. Flagg, J. P., Wm. S. Woodcock and Anna L. Woodcock, formerly Anna Chase, All of Wasco Co., Oregon.

"Why do you insist upon saying he is a painter? Why not call him an artist?" "Because he has made money by his brush. Why, he's rich!"—Boston Transcript.