If you send us $2.25 and you can have them, 156 papers for $2.25 or less than a cent and a half a piece.

"Sir," remarked the rich father to the suitor, "after the investigations I have made into your character I cannot give you my daughter Emma."

No other remedy is so reliable, in cases of sudden colds, or coughs, or for any and all derangements of the throat and lungs, as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

This wonderful medicine affords great relief in consumption, even in the advanced stages of that disease.

Baldness is either hereditary or caused by sickness, mental exhaustion, wearing tight-fitting hats, and by overwork and trouble.

MAYS & CROW.

STOPPED BY GRASSHOPPERS.

A Train in New York Brought to a Standstill by the Insects.

The story is an old one about western railroad trains being stopped by grasshoppers during a memorable invasion of Kansas and other states by these insects.

"Grasshoppers," said he. "We're stalled again by grasshoppers." "Nobody believed him, of course, but I got out of the car and it wasn't long before I found that he was in earnest.

WORDS AND MEANINGS CHANGE.

"Afflicted Relief" is Hardly Good English Nowadays.

It is interesting to notice the change in the meaning and use of words that time brings.

In the account of Mrs. Washington we read that "when ladies called at the president's mansion the habit was for the secretaries and gentlemen of the president's household to hand them to and from their carriages.
