THE FUNDING BILL

An Amendment to Carlisle's Currency Bill.

HALF A BILLION BONDS PROPOSED

Sibley of Pennsylvania Scores Cleveland for Trampling on the Prerogatives of the People.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The first business in the house today was a resolution from the committee on rules authorizing the appropriations committee to insert a clause in the sundry civil appropriation bill.

Debate on the currency bill being resumed, Belmont, democrat, of Pennsylvania, gave notice of an amendment. It proposes a section to enable the secretary of the treasury to fund treasury notes which may be in circulation after the first of August, 1895, which were issued under acts of February 25, 1865; July 11, 1862; March 3, 1863, and July 14, 1890, by issuing bonds to an amount not to exceed $500,000,000, redeemable at the pleasure of the United States after five years, payable in twenty-five years from date of issue, with interest at 3 per cent, payable semi-annually in gold. The bonds are to be of such denominations, not less than $20, as the secretary may determine, and to be sold at not less than par for gold or for treasury notes.

The members flocked around Sibley, democrat, of Pennsylvania, when he began a characteristic address against the bill. He was applauded when he said: "If ever a rebuke was needed for one who has attempted to trample down the prerogatives of the people, it is needed for him who has attempted to usurp this entire government to himself. The time has come when there should be something more than brass, belly and brass to this government."

Those Tariff Complications.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—What action congress will take to end the growing tariff complications between this government and European powers, or whether any measures will be adopted for that purpose, are questions clouded in uncertainty. Considering the importance of the tariff war to commercial interests, the attention given it by congress is noticeably slight.

Chairman Wilson recently introduced a bill in accordance with the recommendation in the president's message to repeal the one-tenth of a cent differential on sugar which evoked protests from Germany and Austria, and which it is stated inspired retaliatory action by the former government in the form of prohibition of importation of American beef. But it is not altogether certain that the ways and means committee will report this bill to the house. Mr. Wilson was asked about the prospects of the bill, but did not speak enthusiastically of them. He said the remaining time of this congress was very short and there would be a great pressure on the committee for allotments of time for various bills.

Mr. Cannon of Illinois said if the ways and means committee would propose to re-enact the reciprocity system which congress had obliterated with marked discourtesy to foreign governments parties thereto, as well as to the detriment of American business, he said sarcastically, that the republicans would co-operate with them heartily.

Starving Men Demanded Food.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Jan. 7.—This morning a crowd of 5,000 workmen who were thrown out of employment by the financial collapse, gathered before legislative chambers. Later they paraded the principal streets, carrying white flags, bearing the words: "Work or bread." After hooting the government, the procession went to the dry docks where is the berth of the British warship Tourmaline, which was sent here to help preserve order. A committee boarded the ship and represented to the captain that they and their families were starving. They insisted that the government should feed them. They threatened to take the necessities of life from the stores. The captain intimated that such attempts would be repressed with a strong hand. The delegation finally withdrew. Starvation is becoming more general daily. Lady O'Brien's committee started two soup kitchens today.

His Young Wife to Be Educated.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 7.—Cassius Marcellus Clay, the "Old Lion of Whitehall," is carrying out his plan of educating his young wife to fit her for her new station in life. A few days ago he engaged a governess, Miss Josie Martin, of Munfordville, who has gone to Whitehall to give Mrs. Clay lessons in deportment, music and the ordinary branches of learning. Mrs. Clay is only 15 years old, and has little more than the rudiments of an education. She has had absolutely no experience in society, and is as ignorant of the graces of dress and deportment as of mathematics or the sciences. Miss Martin is expected to make a finished lady of her.

Sibley Creates Excitement.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—General debate on the currency and banking bill, according to the common understanding, was concluded with the adjournment of the house this afternoon, and the last day was marked with a most sensational speech. Mr. Sibley, a democrat of Pennsylvania, opened the session's debate with an attack upon the president, which exceeded in character of its description of the chief executive anything that has been heard on the floor.

The first business was a resolution from the committee on rules authorizing the appropriations committee to insert a clause in the sundry civil appropriation bill authorizing the transfer of the military prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., from the jurisdiction of the war department to the department of justice. Opposition was made by Broderick, rep., of Kansas, who asserted the question had been before the military committee, and contended the house was entitled to report on the proposed change, for which he saw no reason. The plan was explained by Curtis, rep., of New York, who contended soldiers sent to the prison for minor offenses were subjected to evil associations. The resolution, after some debate, was adopted—156 to 125. Debate on the currency bill being resumed Belmont, democrat, of Pennsylvania, gave notice of an amendment. It proposes a section to enable the secretary of the treasury to fund the treasury notes, which may remain in circulation after August 1, 1895, which were issued under the act of February 25, 1869; July 11, 1862; March 3, 1863, and July 14, 1890, by issuing bonds to an amount not exceeding $500,000,000, to be redeemable at the pleasure of the United States after five years, and payable 25 years from date with interest at 3 per cent, payable semi-annually in gold. The bonds are to be of such denominations of not less than $50, as the secretary may determine, and to be sold at not less than par for gold or for treasury notes.

Murder at Wilhoit.

OREGON CITY, Jan. 10.—A week ago today James M. Brown, a rancher a mile and a half southeast of Wilhoit Springs, was discovered to be missing. Next morning the neighbors investigated. They found the chickens shut up, nearly starved, and blood stains on the floor of the house, which had been scrubbed in an unsuccessful attempt to efface them. The neighborhood was aroused and search for the missing man continued without result until yesterday, when his body was found in a fence corner covered with burlaps and fence rails. The murder is supposed to have been committed 10 days ago. There is no clue to the perpetrators. Brown recently received a considerable sum in back pension. The employer has no more right to be protected by law against a conspiracy of employees than the employees have to be protected by law against a conspiracy on the part of the employers."
