

REBELS UNSUBDUED

State of Colombia Yet Torn by Internal Strife.

BATTLE FOUGHT LAST SATURDAY

Santos Acosta Upheld by General Camargo's Forces in Bogota--Will Bring a Large Premium.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—A dispatch from Panama says: News has been received here of a battle fought on Saturday between the rebels and the government forces near Santa Rosa, in the department of Boyaca. There were more than 200 killed on both sides.

The capitulation of the rebel forces in the northern part of the republic does not affect the rebellion in other sections. It is reported that General Modesto Garcia, with Benjamin Ruiz and Senor Gasa, have left Costa Rica for Colombia. It is expected they will land on the west coast.

General Camargo's forces in Bogota have proclaimed Santos Acosta president. French Government Asked to Forfeit Their Importation.

PARIS, Feb. 19.—M. Gardaud, minister of agriculture, received today an agrarian delegation from the departments of Pas de Calais and the Nord. The delegates urged the importation of American cattle which, they said, threatened French cattle with contagious diseases. The minister said that the subjects had been placed already before a special committee, on the diseases of cattle, and any necessary steps would be taken soon. Premier Ribot also promised the delegates to give the matter full attention.

It Is Said Dissolution of Parliament Is Imminent.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—Lord Roseberry hastily summoned a meeting of the cabinet today which lasted an hour. It is rumored that the dissolution of parliament is imminent. Last evening when the vote was being taken in the house of commons on Sir William Harcourt's motion to close debate on the address, in reply to the queen's speech, it was confidently believed by the opposition that the government would be defeated. The vote was 279 to 271.

Also that an agreement existed between Russia and the United States regarding sealing in the North Pacific ocean similar to that existing between Russia and England.

Silver Bill the Attraction.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—There was a large attendance on the floor of the senate today, and the galleries were filled in anticipation of a struggle, and perhaps vote, on the silver bill, adroitly forced to the front last night as unfinished business. There was hardly an absentee on the democratic side. It was evident at the outset that the silver strength would be augmented by another vote, as the credentials of Wilson, the new senator from Washington, had been received.

A report from the secretary of the treasury, in response to a resolution concerning needed legislation to meet deficiencies, was read. The secretary stated that an available balance of $99,875,000, exclusive of over $55,000,000 gold reserve, is on hand. He expressed the opinion that it would be desirable for the secretary to have authority to issue and sell time bonds to meet the deficiencies, but added no such deficiency now exists or is likely to, and was of the opinion that there will be ample revenue for the coming fiscal year.

Blackburn reported from a conference of the committee on diplomatic and consular bill than an agreement had been reached on all items except $500,000 for beginning the Hawaiian cable. The report was confirmed and further conference on the Hawaiian cable item was ordered.

The ayes and noes were called on Jones' motion to take up the silver bill in the senate today, and it was carried, 3 to 27. George voted in the affirmative today, and Wilson of Washington, who has just been sworn in, also voted for the silver bill. After the silver bill had been taken up Senator Jones tried to get a time fixed for the vote, but senators objected. Jones gave notice that he would ask the senate to sit tonight until a vote was reached. Vilas then took the floor for a speech.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The house today agreed to a joint resolution directing the secretary of the treasury to suspend operations of so much of the revised statutes as permits the transfer in bond through the United States of articles destined for the free zone of Mexico.

AGAINST THE EMPEROR

Alleged Plot to Overthrow the Manchu Dynasty.

LI HUNG CHANG SEEKS REVENGE

It Is Said the Conspiracy Has Been Fostered Since the Premier's Degradation--Disturbances Increasing.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—A dispatch from Shanghai today, printed here this afternoon, says it is positively asserted that the journey of Li Hung Chang to Peking is intended to give him a chance to accomplish what he has long awaited, the overthrow of the present Manchu dynasty in China. Li Hung Chang will begin his journey to Peking tomorrow.

The same dispatch also says that Kung, ex-taotai of Port Arthur, has made a confession showing the traitorous designs of Li Hung Chang. It is stated that Li Hung Chang has been leagued with officials in the palace at Peking for the overthrow of the dynasty ever since he was deprived of his yellow jacket and peacock feather, and lost various offices.

An Improbable Story Which Comes From Peking.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—A Peking dispatch says the opinion generally is that Li Hung Chang was only reinstated in order to render him an acceptable envoy to Japan. It is expected he will be made a scapegoat when the mission is ended.

Probably Exaggerated.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—A Hong Kong dispatch is published here saying 2000 people were killed by the explosion of the magazine of the fort at Takao, Formosa. The dispatch is believed to be an exaggerated version of a previous dispatch stating 50 were killed and many injured.

A Prominent Citizen of Norwich Kills Himself.

NORWICH, Conn., Feb. 20.—Gustave Geduldig, a prominent florist of this city, suicided by poison this morning, the result of shame and remorse because a woman of ill-fame had died in a room which they jointly occupied on Monday night. The woman's death was due to alcoholism. He was a man of family and heretofore bore an unblemished reputation.

Trance Instead of Death.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Mrs. Bowden, 75 years old, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Hallock, in Bridgehampton, L. I., seemed to be stricken with heart failure Sunday. The family physician did all he could, but she sank rapidly.

Old friends were called in, and the sorrowing family waited for the end. Her breathing became weaker and weaker, until it ceased. The doctors listened vainly for the heart beats, and pronounced the woman dead.

The undertaker was about to measure the body for a casket, when one of the family insisted that the woman might not be dead. The physician, to satisfy him, injected a heart restorative. There was a perceptible movement of the eyelids, and the woman's breast moved up and down faintly. Soon she began to breathe, and finally opened her eyes.

Those about the bedside watched in amazement. The woman soon got up, and in less than an hour was walking about the room. Mrs. Bowden says the attack seemed like a fainting spell.

KILLED HER FATHER.

The Deed of a Young Girl in West Virginia.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 20.—Cordelia Hill, residing at Rippon, shot her father, Robert Hill, yesterday. Her father was unmercifully chastising one of his sons, who tore away and ran to his mother for protection. The father then beat the mother, throwing her on the floor and choking her, when the daughter ran in with a revolver, placed it near the back of her father's head, and fired. Death was instantaneous. An indictment for murder was found against the child a few hours after the homicide.

Large Loss of Stock.

MILES CITY, Mont., Feb. 20.—Reports from the northern and eastern part of the state indicate that the loss of live stock from the excessive cold weather has been large. The number of sheep that have died will reach 50,000. A warm wave has struck the state, and it is believed no more cold weather will be experienced this winter. Reports from the ranges near Livingstone are that stock have survived the cold spell and are in good condition. The snow is disappearing rapidly from the feeding grounds.

He (Allen) would not by his vote authorize Carlisle to issue an interest-bearing obligation. He further asserted that every bond issued by Carlisle was null and void, inasmuch as the act of January 14, 1875, under which he claimed authority to issue bonds had been repealed. He characterized the recent attempt to pass a free coinage bill as "A grandstand play, a spectacular performance." He expressed the hope that before another year there would be sufficient accessions to the populists from both old parties to prevent the issuance of further bonds.

Women Still in Session at the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—In the woman's national council today the first paper was read by Mrs. Fanny Burdette Palmer, of Providence, on "The Need of Co-operation of Men and Women." The ground generally taken was that men and women should work together in all correctional work. Some of the women held, however, that in some branches of correction work women were better fitted than men.
