Prince Kung Talks of the Japanese War.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—A Peking dispatch gives an interview with Prince Kung, in which he says Japan made the Korean troubles the pretext of war. He questioned very seriously whether Japan could claim possession of the territory she had conquered together with 400,000,000 taels indemnity, "China," he said "stands upon principle, and Japan upon power. If the conclusion of peace will be possible. If her demands are exorbitant China will continue the fight."

Four Great Northern box cars were burned, and the stockyard of J. M. Donohoe's mill ignited from the sparks, but was quickly extinguished with small damage.

Trades Unions Asked to Boycott the Salvation Army.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—The boycott on the War Cry by the typographical union will probably result in an organized fight against the Salvation Army by the trades unions of the Pacific coast. Steps are being taken by the union to accomplish this result and copies of their manifesto calling on all members of unions to refrain from having anything to do with the Salvation Army have been sent all over the coast. A direct appeal has been made to General Booth.

Charged With Bribery.

STOCKTON, Cal., Feb. 28.—Charles Ward, ex-superintendent of the county hospital, was arrested by Sheriff Cunningham at French Camp this morning on a charge of bribery. It is alleged that Ward, with Dr. C. H. Bulson, bribed County Supervisor Brown to have plans submitted by Architect Rushford for a new hospital building accepted. Ward has been indicted by the grand jury. His bond was fixed at $10,000. It is not known whether Supervisor Brown will be arrested or not.

She has sworn out warrants for their arrest. One of them is a justice of the peace. The women had received whitecap notices to quit the neighborhood on the ground that they harbored women of bad repute.

"Only the Scars Remain,"

SAYS HENRY HUDSON, of the James Smith Woolen Machinery Co., Philadelphia, Pa., who certifies as follows:

me no good, and it was feared that the bones would be affected. At last, my good old Mother Urged Me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I took three bottles, the sores healed, and I have not been troubled since. Only the scars remain, and the memory of the past, to remind me of the good Ayer's Sarsaparilla has done me.

Wife (severely) I'd have you to know, sir, that I always keep my temper." Husband (soothingly)—Of course you do my dear. Of course you do, and I wish to goodness you would get rid of it.—Detroit Free Press.
