

The Return of Boothby. HEPNER, Or., March 9.—Hon. J. S. Boothby returned to his home in Lexington this morning. He was met at the depot by the Lexington brass band and a large number of the citizens of Lexington. The ladies had hot coffee and cake prepared and in waiting for the crowd. The train was kept in waiting for half an hour, during which Representative Boothby made a short speech. O. W. Patterson, of the celebrated trio, made a short speech. The train pulled out amid the cheers of the crowd and music by the band. In fact, it seems to have been a veritable outburst, if all reports are correct.
