Clubbing List.

The CHRONICLE, which gives the news twice a week, has made arrangements to club with the following publications, and offers two papers one year for little more than the price of one:

Table with 2 columns: Publication Name, Price. Includes Chronicle and N. Y. Tribune, Chronicle and Weekly Oregonian, etc.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Wednesday's Daily.

Crop weather bulletins for the year 1895 began their issue this morning.

License to wed was issued today to George H. Woodruff and Miss Marcie V. Morris, both of Tygh Valley.

Among the passengers on the Regulator yesterday morning were six ministers, who held services on the boat.

The weather report for this section, as cast by the Portland office, was for today fair, and for tomorrow is rain and cooler.

Two tramps were arrested last night and are working out their fines on the streets. Commissioner Butts thinks they are totally unreliable.

Eli Perkins, who lectures tomorrow night at the Baptist church, has a national reputation. Those who miss hearing him will miss a treat.

Hereafter the postoffice will be open Sundays from 12:30 to 1:30 p. m. This change is made so that mail arriving on the 12:15 train can be delivered the same day.

The city marshal warns all persons owning cows to take care of them and keep them off the streets. After this week all cows found running at large within the city limits will be impounded.

Miss Corilla G. French, daughter of Mr. S. French of this city, was one of those graduating from the medical department of the Willamette university, Tuesday. She graduated at the head of her class.

Commencing with our Saturday issue we will again begin publishing a weekly market report. It was discontinued during the winter for the reason that there was nothing coming into the market.

Sheriff Driver, received a telegram this morning stating that his old friend, Sheriff Bogard of Tehama county, California, who was killed by train robbers near Marysville last week, was buried at Red Bluff today.

Editor Hayne, who was elected school clerk of Portland, resigned because he was unable to get bondsmen. The board cannot do better than re-appoint Mr. Allen, who has disbursed $2,000,000 in his seven years of service, and disbursed it honestly.

The Regulator brought up 145 calves as a part of her cargo last night. They belonged to Mr. J. W. Carey and were purchased near Salem. They were a musical lot and seemed determined to let our people know they had arrived, for they no sooner got off the boat than each one of them began to call for his ma.

Mr. C. L. Gilbert of Hood River, has been appointed second deputy clerk. It is necessary to have three persons in the clerk's office a larger portion of the time and especially during the sessions of the circuit court. Mr. Gilbert writes a hand like copper plate, is a clever, accommodating and genial gentleman, thoroughly competent, and his appointment will prove gratifying to his innumerable friends.

The wind was on another frolic this afternoon, and the amount of dust it stirred up and whirled about was something astonishing. The streets are apparently clean and free from dust, but the wind managed to find an abundance of it somewhere, and distributed it with a generous and impartial hand; in fact both hands. As the weather resembles a woman, in that an extra exhibition of temper generally winds up in tears, and as this was no exception, we cheerfully put up with the wind.

Thursday's Daily

The weather bureau reports colder weather, and it says to look out for frost tonight.

The Northwestern Life Insurance company, of Milwaukee, today, paid to the estate of the late G. V. Bolton, of this city, the claim of $15,000.

The teachers of the M. E. Sunday school are requested to be present at a meeting to be held at the church this evening after prayer meeting.

The coroner's jury impeached to inquire into the cause of the death of William Feldberg, the man who was killed at the falls of the White Salmon last week, rendered a verdict of justifiable homicide, and the boy, Hoff, who did the killing, was discharged from custody.

Friday's Daily

Several loads of wool are on their way in from points south of us, being sent to the Wasco warehouse.

The Regulator twice a week tows a barge loaded with stone from a point near Wyeth to the Locks. The stone is a fine quality of basalt, and is cut and used in the walls of the canal.

The local field has been gleaned by our reporter today, but there is not even a good quality of chaff to choose from. The winds prevailing lately must have taken everything out of town with them.

Rev. Father Bronsgeest is the happy possessor of two fine colts of which he is justly proud. Judging from their maneuvers in the corral they will win laurels on the race track at some future time.

A rough estimate of the strawberry crop in Multnomah, Marion, Clackamas, Wasco, Umatilla and Union counties, Oregon, indicates a probable output of not less than 5,000,000 pounds in the counties named.

The German singing society (Harmonie) will give a grand concert Sunday evening, April 7th, and has engaged the services of the noted Vienna comedian, Joseph Mueller. Do not fail to see him, crowded houses in Portland and great success every where he has appeared. Reserved seats on sale at usual place; 35 cents.

Dufur held a city election the other day that was hotly contested. The present mayor, A. J. Dufur, was re-elected by a majority of one vote. C. P. Balch was elected city treasurer over John Dickens by one vote. Three members of the old council, Levi Klinger, W. L. Vanderpool and T. H. Johnson, were re-elected by majorities of one or two each. Eli Hinman was elected to the council, being on both tickets, and Mr. Brigham was re-elected recorder, having no opposition.

A Broken Leg.

Yesterday afternoon, about twenty minutes to 5 o'clock, a lot of boys were playing football near the courthouse, when Claude Kelsay, son of the county clerk, got possession of the ball. Several of the other boys tried to get it away from him and in the struggle Claude was thrown over backwards, some of the boys falling on him. One of his legs was caught in such a manner that it was doubled, his own weight and that of the boys on top of him being thrown on it. The result was one of the bones was broken and the ankle very badly sprained. He was at once taken home where Dr. Sutherland attended to his injuries. The broken bone will soon knit, but the ankle is very badly sprained, and it will be some time before it is "as good as new."

He Built Fort Dalles.

The dispatches today announce the death of General Thomas Jordan, a veteran of the rebellion. His death is worthy of passing mention here because during his service in the United States army, after the close of the Mexican war, he was sent to the Pacific coast and superintended the construction of Fort Dalles. His quarters here when first built was the finest building in the territory, costing, it is said, $40,000. The old building was burned years ago, and now inside of its ruins the forest trees are growing. He spent the government money with a lavish hand in building the forts here, but when the rebellion broke out, he resigned and went South to join the rebel army.

Munkers Marquam, Harry Freeborn McKay and John Dayton Shaw.

Council Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the city council was held last night, present Mayor Menefee and full board of councilmen, except S. B. Adams.

The minutes of the meeting held during March were read and on motion it was ordered that that part of the minutes of March 9, 1895, in regard to the informal balloting for mayor, be stricken from the record, for the reason that said ballots were had before the council had been called to order or was in session, and there being no further amendments, said minutes were then approved as read.

The Great Northern Coming.

Yesterday's Oregonian has the following concerning a proposed change in railroad matters that would result in giving The Dalles direct communication with the East over the Great Northern: "The Great Northern proposes putting into effect about May 1st a new time card, by which the time between Portland and St. Paul will be shortened twelve hours. This will be agreeable news for the traveling public, but another change is contemplated which will be of far greater benefit to Portland. Since the connection was made between the O. R. & N. and the Great Northern, the latter's road business out of Portland has rapidly increased. It is now proposed to run a complete through train between St. Paul and this city, instead of between St. Paul and Seattle. The line between Spokane and Seattle will thus become a branch line, as the business over it does not warrant the running of a full train. The train which will then roll into Portland will consist of buffet lobby cars, first and second-class sleepers, diners and express and baggage cars, and drawn by Great Northern engines. It is not yet known when this change will be made, but it

"Oh, dear!" said little Ethel, "I have so many cares. Nothing but trouble all the time." "What has happened now, Ethel?" asked her sympathetic play-fellow. "Why, yesterday a little baby sister arrived and papa is on a journey. Mamma came very near being gone too. I don't know what I should have done if mamma hadn't been home to take care of it!"—Eli Perkins, Baby Stories.

DIED.

At Wasco, Sherman county, this (Thursday) morning of la grippe, Andrew Marchie, aged 60 years.

BORN.

Near 15-Mile, April 1, 1895, to the wife of Clinton McRenolds, a daughter.

When my little girl was one month old, she had a scab form on her face. It kept spreading until she was completely covered from head to foot. Then she had la grippe. She had forty on her head at one time, and more on her body. When six months old she did not weigh seven pounds, a pound and a half less than at birth. Then her skin started to dry up and go so hard she could not shut her eyes to sleep, but lay with them half open. About this time, I started using the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and in one month she was completely cured. The doctor and drug bills were over one hundred dollars. The CUTICURA bill was not more than five dollars. My child is now strong, healthy, and large as any child of her age (see photo), and is all owing to CUTICURA. Yours with a Mother's Blessing, Mrs. GEO. H. FUCHER, JR., 622 Walker St., Milwaukee, Wis.
