LOCAL BREVITIES.

Wednesday's Daily.

Hon. W. H. H. Dufur was in the city this morning.

Two hoboes were before the city recorder this morning, and will do service on the streets.

Sixteen carloads of sheep, 3,000 will be shipped from this point to the East in the morning.

The Fargher Bros. are bringing in a large flock of sheep for shipment East. They will arrive in tonight or tomorrow morning.

Tygh was visited by a generous rain Monday night, our informant stating that the ground was wet to the depth of three or four inches.

Last night was a very cold one at Dufur with a severe frost. When our informant left this morning he was unable to learn if the fruit had been damaged, but is of the opinion the damage is slight.

This has been by long odds the most perfect day of the year. The sun has beamed down upon the fragrant earth softly, and the air odorous of fruit blossoms has been as quiet as a woman's conscience.

Up at the East End Will Moody is having an awning built in front of the warehouse and Saltmarsh & Co. caught the idea and are having the same kind of a sun shield put up in front of their place of business.

C. S. F. Baker, who was arrested yesterday on a charge of selling fictitious lottery tickets, was taken before Justice Davis at 4 o'clock yesterday, at which time he waived examination and was bound over to appear before the grand jury.

The jury in the case of the state against Rev. J. C. Read, indicted for attempting to rob the East Portland bank a month or so ago, after being out twenty hours reached a verdict yesterday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, finding him not guilty. The defense set up was insanity. The verdict seems to give general satisfaction to all those who have followed the testimony in the case.

Yesterday evening Ernie Sach, a boy of ten years of age came up from the Boys and Girls Aid society of Portland to find a home here. He was sent to Judge Blakeley who had secured him a good home with Mr. H. W. Wells, and the little fellow who had been badly abused by his father and stepmother seemed delighted with the prospect of having a peaceful, pleasant home in the green fields and beneath the fine skies of Eastern Oregon.

It seems that we were mistaken yesterday in saying that Tom Kelly dined with Senator Dolph. It was our old friend Robert Kelly, he of the sheriff's office, and formerly of Kingsley, he was the self same man. Robert did the honors of the occasion in his inimitable style, until the senator pulled a card on him and told him he would like to issue him an insurance policy. Then Robert took a tumble, two of them and still the boys won't quit on him.

The band of wild cattle which has been in the habit of ranging on Joe and Fawn creeks, branches of Agency creek, in the coast range have changed their range, so hunters say, who have been looking for them. This band of cattle has ranged in the Cascades for nearly twenty years and has weathered the worst winters during that period with ease. Those killed by hunters in the spring have been found fat and tender. The valley cattle as a rule are poor when spring comes. These wild cattle are much harder than domestic stock and are as shy and herd to come upon as deer.

Thursday's Daily

The river is 11.2 today and about stationary.

J. F. Powell arrived in this morning from Dayville with a load of wool.

The Dalles City yesterday landed sixty or more passengers at the Cascade Locks.

License to wed was issued this morning to F. S. Gunning and Miss Carrie Davenport.

The Wasco warehouse received thirty-two sacks of wool this morning and twenty this afternoon.

Sheepmen report the grass unusually poor for this time of year, caused they say, by frosts and cold weather.

The Regulator brought up several prairie schooners last night and a lot of good people, who are bound for Harney county.

Sixteen carloads of sheep were shipped to Chicago from the yards here this morning. The sheep belonged to Fargher Bros.

The Smith Bros. will give their prize dance at the opera house one week from Saturday night, and their regular dance next Saturday evening.

Evang. Lutheran church, next Sunday, 10:30, preparation for holy communion; 2 p. m. Confirmation and communion. Always a cordial welcome.

The city council meets tomorrow night for the purpose of disposing of the remaining claims against the city, caused by Mr. Monahan and his case of small-pox.

While the rainfall in the Willamette valley has been one inch and a quarter, here it has only been four one hundredths. South of here though, the rainfall has been quite heavy.

Situation wanted by a good steady boy as clerk in a clothing store; he has had two years experience. Apply at Mrs. F. M. Hendershott's dressmaking parlors, Second and Liberty street. apr18-3t.

The East End presents a rather dull appearance today though the blacksmith shops are all doing a rushing business. Another week or two will show a different state of affairs. Then all that part of town will be filled with wool teams.

Condon & Seufert received today the first installment of their telephones and the balance will be here by the time these are in place. They are fine instruments and will no doubt give entire satisfaction to the patrons of the company.

The local market is well supplied with salmon, but the run is not on yet and the canneries have not commenced work. It is said the run of bluebacks reached the Cascades Sunday, if so, they should be here next Sunday. The river is rising slowly but is approaching the stage where the wheels will begin to work.

Mr. Emil Schanno's outbugging these days, as he intends to send one hundred or more twice-stabbed lady-birds or lady-bugs to the fruit men in the Willamette valley. These little beetles are death on fruit pests and have done good service here. The first lot was received here a year or two ago and now there are thousands of them.

Saturday morning Percy Adams, of Hood River, was driving home the cows from the pasture. He had along his 22-calibre rifle, and when a cow lagged behind he would shoot in her direction, the whistling of the bullets serving to head off the cow or start her along. By this means the boy saved many a step. But in trying to see how close he could come to the cows without hitting them, he missed his aim and hit the best cow in the herd, striking her in a vital spot, and she dropped dead.—Glacier.

Mr. D. P. Thompson's lecture to be given Friday evening in the Congregational church is to be upon the oldest civilization known to history, Egypt, Mizraim, the Land of the Two Walls. Mr. Thompson makes no pretence of being an orator, he is a plain but very interesting talker who has seen what he will describe and can tell us what he has seen. For the sake of the educational work we are very glad to say that pupils of the schools can receive the benefits of this lecture at reduced rates.

Friday's Daily

Stone's fish wheel caught about 300 pounds of salmon last night, mostly chinooks. Mr. Stone is of the opinion there will be a good run of black chinooks soon, and thinks the outlook for the season fairly good.

The city recorder's office is looking up somewhat. This morning one hobo and three persons who each had a small jag on last night, were interviewed by the recorder. Two of them were fined $10 each, and the others each deposited $5 bail which they forfeited.

Captain Paul Webb in going over the falls at Oregon City last Sunday, in a barrel, broke one of his arms. The only serious regret among sensible people is that it was not his neck. Such men as Webb should be arrested for vagrancy for the calling they follow is little if any better than begging.

Arrangements have been made between the Third regiment and Max Vogt, for the rebuilding of the old opera house burned down in 1891. It will be used as an armory, but at the same time a stage will be put in, and in the future may be fitted up for theatrical purposes. We are pleased indeed to note that Mr. Vogt is finding use for this property and hope the business of the town may soon improve to such an extent as to cause him to rebuild on Second street.

Articles of incorporation of the Hood River Spring Water Co. was filed yesterday. The object of the company is to furnish water to the town of Hood River for household, irrigation and other purposes. The incorporators are Amby S. Blowers, L. N. Blowers and W. M. Yates. The capital stock is $12,000, divided into 120 shares and duration perpetual. It is a re-incorporation of the Hood River Hydrant Co., being the same system now supplying the town with water.

Mr. Hugh Glenn received this morning a sample school desk manufactured by the East Portland Mill and Fixture Co. The desk is a handsome piece of work very strongly built and is made from Oregon iron and Oregon wood, the latter being a fine grained and very beautiful maple. We mention the fact in order that our people can begin to put in practice the suggestions lately made by so many correspondents of the Oregonian concerning the patronizing of home industries. The desks are equal to any made in the East, and will compete with the latter in price. The idea of importing wood in any shape to Oregon is so supremely ridiculous that it will not even admit of comment.

A gentleman in from 5-Mile this morning, says the grain crop is all in, wheat sprouting and looking fine. Miss Daisy Allaway is teaching the school and giving universal satisfaction. Tuesday morning Mr. Brown's children were going to school in a cart, and a little daughter of Joel Koontz climbed in with them to ride. When near the schoolhouse the horse became frightened and ran away, throwing the children out and smashing the cart into kindling wood. Fortunately no bones were broken, but Mr. Koontz's little girl was badly, though it is thought not seriously, injured. The only thing a measly roadcart is good for is to furnish newspaper items, in the shape of runaway accidents. As they have no brakes and the cayuses are in the same condition, both easily get beyond control.

At the Locks.

Cascade lodge, No. 69, A. O. U. W., was invaded on Saturday evening last, immediately after adjournment by a large force of ladies. Master Workman Lewis called the lodge to order again and gracefully surrendered everything but the goat to the fair invaders. Mrs. G. P. Morgan, on behalf of the "wives and sweethearts of the Workmen," then presented the lodge with a very handsome altar Bible. Graceful speeches of acceptance were offered by Past Master Tompkins and Master Workman Lewis and there being no pre-arranged program Miss Brian and Miss Aldrich kindly responded to calls with a recitation and some music. During the only lull in the proceedings some cake and ice cream found in the ante room was tested, found fresh, discussed with great enthusiasm and the ladies were immediately invited to join the Degree of Honor so that they might be sure to come again. X.

High Prices for Beef.

Oregon stockmen are profiting by the advance in the price of beef, caused by sharp Chicagoans getting a corner on cattle and control of the market. There is a great scarcity of cattle in the East at present, and while prices have been steadily going up, it is impossible to obtain beef. Kansas and Nebraska had no corn to feed cattle last winter. It was a winter of desolation and suffering west of the Mississippi river. There was no time to think of cattle, and many were frozen to death. Several weeks ago agents of Eastern stockyards appeared in Eastern Oregon and commenced going over the ranges with a view of buying what stock they could. Prices went up as the activity of the buyers increased, and not only have thousands of calves been bought, but agents have been sent to the Willamette valley to gather up what stock can be found there. With the rise in the price of beef there came an extra demand for mutton, and in Crook county as high as $3.25 has been paid for good mutton sheep.

At the Locks.

Work at the Cascade Locks is progressing rapidly. Above the upper bulkhead the guard walls are almost completed, and the canal has been excavated to its full depth, down to the water line so that it can be completed very quickly when the high water is over. Eight days work on one of the gates completed one section on one gate, and work has been commenced on the other which it is expected will be completed in the same length of time. This will make two of the three gates complete. Below the lower bulkhead the guard walls are about completed, and a mass of heavy stones is being placed on the upper side of the upper wall to protect it from the current of high water. When Governor Lord and party was there recently they were the guests of the Day Bros., who assured the governor that if no unforeseen accidents happened, the canal would be opened not later than March 1st and possibly much sooner. The work is in good shape, and as soon as the summer flood is over it will be crowded to completion just as fast as men and money can do it. The Day Bros. have lots of money tied up until the work is finished and are just as anxious to get the work completed as the people of the Inland Empire are. We feel assured that in less than ten months the long delayed opening of the Columbia from this point to the sea will have been completed. This will give a great impetus to business here and will also be beneficial to points east of us, as we will then have terminal rates. At the same time Eastern Oregon will never reach the full measure of its prosperity until the obstructions at this point have been removed and the Columbia is made a free highway to the sea.

Crop Weather Bulletin No. 3.

Following is the report of the Oregon state weather service for Eastern Oregon: WEATHER: A few light showers or sprinkles of rain fell, but not sufficient to lay the dust. The winds have been dry and of a velocity higher than usual. The maximum temperatures have ranged from 48 to 72 deg. The minimum from 34 to 52 degrees and below the freezing point south of the Blue mountains.

Crops: The lack of sufficient rainfall is already being felt. The ground is dry and spring sown grain needs rain to cause it to germinate. Due to the dry season, and to other causes, many farmers have been prevented from sowing as much grain as usual. In some counties this decrease will be considerable. In Umatilla and Union counties the grain crop appears to be in the best condition at the present time. The marked deficiency in rainfall will seriously injure the grain crop unless copious rains should occur in May and June. The rainfall of these two months determines the cereal crop of the year. In the Columbia river valley the fruit crop is, so far, uninjured by weather conditions; the fruit trees are in full bloom, in some sections over their blooming period. The trees at present indicate large yields. The berries are growing and thriving and in good condition. Vegetables are having only a fair growth, needing moisture and warmth. Lambing continues with success. The shearing of sheep has commenced and some small lots of wool have been received at The Dalles, Pendleton and Heppner, all of as good quality as was ever clipped. To the south of the mountains, except in the Grand Ronde valley which is more advanced, the fruit trees are swelling their buds. The range grass is good and stock in good condition. While the fruit crop is very promising, the cereal crop is in danger from drought.

Arbor Day.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:—I send you the following reports from school districts celebrating Arbor Day:

District No. 3, Hood River, H. L. Howe, principal, had a fine literary program consisting of declamations, dialogues, singing, etc., with a plan to secure funds for a new flag for their new schoolhouse.

District No. 6, Miss Marguerite Shelley teacher, spent the afternoon in decorating the house and clearing up the grounds.

District No. 13, Miss Omah Smith, teacher, rendered the following program: Song, Nellie Frost; declamation, Lena Deckert; declamation, Malcom Southwell; reading, Mace Fulton; song, Nellie Foss; declamation, Lena Deckert; declamation, Lillie Krause. Ten trees were planted, two white and eight silver poplars, each tree being named by the one who planted it.

District No. 16, J. A. Haylock, teacher, reported as follows: Planted six locust trees and named them, George Washington, Grover Cleveland, Robinson Crusoe, His Man Friday, Tennyson and Longfellow. Several visitors were present.

District No. 21, at Boyd, R. A. Gailey, teacher, reports a very pleasant day. Had a short program and a half holiday. As the grounds are not fenced no trees were planted.

District No. 42, at Wamic, H. G. Lake, principal, spent the half day with lessons in botany. The grounds are not fenced and no trees could be planted.

District No. 48, on Juniper Flat, Aas Stogsdill, teacher, planted a number of trees, naming them after the presidents from Washington to Polk. A fence enclosing the grounds was built by R. Beattie and R. D. Pitcher. Following was the literary program: Song by school. Remarks on Arbor Day, by teacher. Biographies of a number of the presidents by Grace Confer, Polly Crabtree, Elmer Snodgrass and Job Crabtree. Recitations by Eddie Lundy, Anna Beattie, Lena Snodgrass, Mamie Pitcher and Ethel Butts. Song, America, by school.

I would like to suggest that Arbor Day could be profitably spent by many other districts like the one above, in fencing the grounds.

TROY SHELLEY, School Sup't.

Ingalls on Gold.

"It is the most cowardly and treacherous of all metals. It makes no treaty it does not break. It has no friend it does not sooner or later betray. Armies and navies are not maintained by gold. In times of panic and calamity, shipwreck and disaster, it becomes the agent and minister of ruin. No nation ever fought a great war by the aid of gold. On the contrary, in the crisis of the greatest peril, it becomes an enemy more potent than the foe in the field; but when the battle is won and peace has returned gold reappears and claims the fruits of the victory. In our own civil war it is doubtful if the gold of New York and London did not work us greater injury than the powder and lead and iron of the rebels. It was the most invincible enemy of the public credit. Gold paid no soldier or sailor. It reused the national obligations. It was worth most when our fortunes were the lowest. Every defeat gave it increased value. It was in open alliance with our enemies the world over, and all its energies were evoked for our destruction. But as usual, when danger has been averted and the victory secured, gold swaggers to the front and asserts the supremacy."

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. E. Hanna, Hood River's popular merchant, is in the city today.

Mrs. Mary G. Fisher, of Petersburg, Illinois, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Brooks.

Mrs. W. O. Hadley of Bandon, Or., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Clarke.

Mr. Edward G. Shoup, special agent for the London Globe Insurance Co., was in the city last night.

Mr. Willis Brown, of Portland is in the city looking at the fruit situation, with a view of getting some kind of concerted action in fruit shipments.

C. E. Bell and J. W. Wallace, both of Hood River, are in the city.

Hon. D. P. Thompson arrived from Portland on the local this afternoon.

School Superintendent Shelley came up from Hood River this afternoon.

Mr. E. S. F. and G. W. Newcome of Bake Oven arrived here last night, after a four months' visit to their old home in England.

Married.

By W. C. Curtis, pastor of the Congregational church, at the residence of Judge Blakeley, on Thursday, April 18th, Frank S. Gunning and Miss Caroline G. Davenport, both of this city.

BORN.

Near this city, April 16th, to the wife of T. A. Wilhelm, a son.
