Weather Crop Bulletin No. 5 of the Oregon State Weather Service for Eastern Oregon.

Warm, clear weather prevailed up to Friday, when it clouded up and rain began falling, which continued until Sunday noon. The maximum temperatures ranged from 80 to 86 degrees.

The rainfall was most opportune; vegetation was suffering from lack of rain and the copious showers occurring have been of the greatest benefit.

$100 Reward $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh.

GUADALAJARA, Mexico April 29.—The Colima Volcano is again in active eruption. The inhabitants of the valley at the base of the mountain have been forced to abandon their homes and flee for their lives.

Those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery know its value, and those who have not, have now the opportunity to try it free.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—A steamer is said to be on the way to this port from the Atlantic seaboard to be placed on the run between here and Puget sound ports, replacing the Farallon, which was recently sold by the opposition line.

Pain has no show with Dr. Miles' Pain Pills.

When your heart pains you and unusual palpitation is frequent, accompanied sometimes with shortness of breath and low spirits you are suffering from a disordered state of the liver, digestion is imperfect and there is wind on the stomach.

When the bellows gave out and the organist in a Rockland church was unable to get anything but a few groans from the instrument, the pastor remarked: "The organ has failed us at a vital moment; let us rise and sing, 'Praise God, from whom all Blessings Flow.'"

"You play magnificently," said the young man from the city, "and your instrument is a marvel. May I ask if it is a Stradivarius?" "Gosh, no!" answered the Upreck wonder.

Publisher—No, Miss Passionquill, we cannot possibly print your volume of love poems. Poetess—Why not? Publisher—We have just run out of fire-proof asbestos paper.—New York World.

You Don't Have to Swear Off, says the St. Louis Journal of Agriculture in an editorial about No-To-Bac, the famous tobacco habit-cure.

"Papa, give me two pennies to put in the plate in church." "Do you know who those pennies were for?" "Course I do; for the organ man. I heard the music."—Life.

Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is admirably adapted to make "a little health go a long way." Its curative power is largely attributable to its stimulant, tonic and nutritive properties, by which the energy of the system is recruited.

"Yes," said the literary man, with a sigh, "style is a fine thing for a writer to have, but when his wife's got it too, it takes all the profit away."—Texas Siftings.

"And now," said the barber, he had inherited a fortune, "and now I can eat onions in the morning whenever I darn want to!"—Indianapolis Journal.
