Sherman County Items.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:—Following are a few items of news which may be of interest to your readers:

Last Sunday memorial services were held in the Christian church at Wasco, Rev. Barnes officiating. The attendance of old soldiers was not as large as might have been expected, but those who were present enjoyed the services greatly and speak in high terms of the sermon preached by Rev. Barnes.

Memorial day will be observed in Moro with appropriate exercises. Hon. G. M. Irwin, state superintendent of public instruction, will be present and will deliver the oration. A procession, composed of members of the Grand Army, the I. O. O. F., the Masons, K. of P., order of the A. O. U. W., the pupils of the public schools and citizens generally, will form at the Presbyterian church at 10 o'clock a. m., and will march to the grounds where the exercises will be rendered. Good music will be furnished by the Moro and Michigan brass bands. The forenoon exercises will consist of vocal and instrumental music, recitations and short speeches, etc.

In the afternoon, at 2 o'clock, Hon. G. M. Irwin will deliver an oration, and as he is a cultured speaker, it is expected that he will have a large and appreciative audience. In the evening Mr. Irwin will deliver a lecture on education, which will doubtless prove most interesting and instructive.

I regret to say that H. F. Powell is still very low, but he is receiving all the care and attention that loving parents and kind friends can bestow.

The latest dispatch from Emigrant Springs is to the effect that the residence of Samuel Ornduff was burglarized last Saturday. A quantity of clothing was taken, but it is thought that little, if any, money was found. Emigrant Springs is rapidly carving for itself a niche in the temple of (criminal) fame. It is but a short time ago that the house of Allen Gilmour, one of Sherman county's respected citizens, was entered by a desperado (?), who with a revolver pointed at Mr. Gilmour, demanded all the spare cash there was in the house. The next item on the program was the burning of C. E. Jones' house and barn, while Mr. Jones was away hauling wood at Antelope. The stealing of a saddle, belonging to T. J. Yarbrough had hardly ceased to be food for the gossips, when a fresh topic was furnished by the robbery of Ornduff's house. Oh! I had almost forgotten the malicious cutting down of Charley Hill's fence, which took place a few weeks ago. Charlie is one of the best fellows in the county, and whoever wantonly destroyed his property must be possessed of an infinitesimally small soul—small enough to go through the eye of a needle.

The Sunday school picnic held at Moro last Saturday was well attended, and an interesting programme was rendered.

The recent rains have wrought a wonderful change in the appearance of the Sherman county wheat fields, and the farmers are correspondingly jubilant.

Wishing the CHRONICLE success under the new management, I sign myself,

MISS ALICE DUFFY RECEIVES HONOR

The following, taken from an eastern paper, will be of great interest to many people in The Dalles:

"The undersigned, surviving members of the committee appointed by The American Humane Education Society to decide who are entitled to the two $100 prizes offered by said society for 'The best plan of peacefully settling the difficulties between capital and labor,' and 'The best plan of preventing poverty and relieving the poor,' respectfully report: That ninety-five essays were received from writers in twenty-two states. That the essay signed 'John Dillard,' and which proves to have been written by Henry Childs Merwin, Esq., of Boston, is entitled to the prize for 'The best plan of peacefully settling the difficulties between capital and labor,' and the essay signed 'Jason Courtland Dutton' and which proves to have been written by Alice E. Duffy of Waukon, Allamakee county, Iowa, is entitled to the prize for 'The best plan of preventing poverty and relieving the poor.' Until after this decision was made, we had opened none of the sealed letters, and the name of no one of the essayists was known to the committee."

HENRY O. HOUGHTON,

EDMUND H. BENNETT,

Miss Duffy, who has been so signally honored was a resident of The Dalles several years ago, and occupied the position of assistant principal of our public schools. Since her removal many friends have heard from her, and of her, so that none who know her superior mental gifts will be surprised that she was selected as the prize winner from so large a number. Miss Duffy's many friends heartily congratulate her.

Mr. Houghton, one of the judges, is senior member of the publishing firm of Houghton Mifflin & Co., while Mr. Bennett is dean of the Boston law school.

Presentation to Miss Hollister.

One of the pleasantest occurrences of the year took place last evening at the residence of Dr. Hollister. Word had gone out that Miss Matilda Hollister was soon to leave for the East, with the possibility that she would not return. The members of the Orchestral Union, of whom Miss Hollister has long been one, felt as if they wished to show some appreciation for her kindness in playing with them so long; and so among themselves they planned how best they could show their good will and kindly feeling.

About 9 o'clock last evening the orchestra quietly assembled in the yard of the doctor, where Miss Hollister is staying, and soon the sweet tones of music floated on the evening air. The occupants of the house were considerably surprised, and not a little pleased at the compliment so sincerely shown. After the playing of several selections the young gentlemen were invited into the house, where another impressive scene was enacted. After some conversation, Rev. W. C. Curtis stepped forward, and a few well-chosen words presented to Miss Hollister, in behalf of the Orchestral Union, an elegant gold watch and chain. The recipient, though considerably taken unawares, feelingly expressed her thanks to her friends for their graceful act, and hoped that when another year has rolled around it will have proved a prosperous one to them. The evening was then spent in having a good time, during which dainty refreshments were served.

Those of the orchestra who were present besides Miss Hollister were Prof. Bergfeld, Mark Long, Harry Burchdorf, J. P. Benton, Julius Fisher, Ed M. Williams, Will Corson, Jud Fish, Lewis Matlock, Chris Paulsen, J. C. Fritz, Ally Henderson, Harry Liebe, Carl Gottfried, and Jos. Koehler. In addition to these were present as guests Dr. and Mrs. Hollister, Rev. W. C. Curtis, Mrs. Wm. Birgfeld, Mrs. Otto Birgfeld and Miss Marden.

Deschutes Precinct.

The farmers are looking with longing eyes for the much-needed rain, that still persists in not coming. It is very dry, and vegetation needs a soaking rain.

The present prospects for fruit demonstrate that the high ridges and uplands of the Deschutes will raise fruit abundantly.

Sheep shearing is about over. Some of the sheep are already in the mountains. The sheepmen seem to feel hard, and justly too, at the course of the officials at Washington in regard to the Mt. Hood Reserve, that they cannot graze their stock within its limits. They "hold up their hands" and wonder what is the next calamity to come. This administration seems to be "into the wool" of the sheepmen in particular. It had better offer a bounty on their scalps, and finish the "good work" at once.

The roads all over the county are in unusually good repair, and are a credit to their respective supervisors. Let them keep up the present condition.

TREBLA.

Advertised Letters.

Following is the list of letters remaining in the postoffice at The Dalles un-called for May 25, 1895. Persons calling for the same will give date on which they were advertised:

- Carson, Hattie; Campbell, A C; Corcoran, Joseph; Courtney, W F; Cooley, Lottie; Fredericks, Miss T; Finch, John; Graves, Mrs M E 2; Goins, H J; Goins, Miss E E; Ginther, Fred; Hastings, Miss G; Henderson, J; Herbert, Geo W; Isaac, A; Jackman, H; Jeffrey, A L; Knechtler, Miss P; Kelley, J A; Klindt, A G; Lane, Enos; Lake, G L; Murphy, James; Murphy, A F; Powell, C; Riley, Archie; Robertson, James; Shaw, F; Streeter, F R

J. A. CROSSEN, P. M.

Lots of Sheep.

Mr. Geo. A. Young is moving his sheep to the summer range near Mt. Adams. They arrived here this morning and the ferryboat has been busy all morning, transferring to the number of several thousand. As they came down Second street they filled it completely for a distance of several blocks. Many people found it an amusement to stand on the railroad bridge and watch the efforts of the ferrymen and herders to get them on the boat. Looking at their actions one could not help agreeing that of all animals the sheep is the stupidest.

The Wasco Company Coming.

Arrangements have been made whereby by Co. "A" of Wasco, Sherman county, will come to The Dalles Thursday, to take part in the memorial exercises, Capt. V. C. Brock will command the boys. The Dalles will give a welcome to its friends from Sherman county indicative of appreciation for their kindness in assisting in the observance of Decoration Day. The company will make the trip overland as the roads are now in good condition.

Wanted.

Lady solicitor; good salary paid; permanent position. Brown Bros. Co., Chicago, Ill.

In the Circuit Court.

The case of the State vs. Dan Maloney and Chas. Snelling was called this morning the first thing. The state was represented by Pros. Atty. Jayne, while A. S. Bennett and E. B. Dufar appeared for the defense. Great difficulty was anticipated in securing a jury and so yesterday a special venire for twenty jurors was issued. These appeared today and were soon questioned and most of them dismissed. Another venire for fifteen jurors was issued which Sheriff Driver is now serving. The whole day up to four o'clock has been spent in securing the following seven jurors, C. H. Hall, A. G. Hall, W. H. Sharp, J. W. Atwell, Herman Metz, John Carey and John Roth. It is expected that the remaining five jurymen will be secured from out of the special venire. Considerable interest is manifested in the trial and the court house bids fair to be crowded during the hearing.

Twenty two jurymen were examined and excused. A decree of divorce was granted in the case of Warner vs Warner.

Defaults were entered in the suits of Dietrich vs. Dietrich and Miens vs. Coatsworth.

The Latest From Cascade Locks.

Mr. Bergeron of Cascade Locks visited our office today and told of the condition of affairs at the government works. A temporary bulkhead has been built over the gates and thus far has kept out the water, which is higher than the gates. The contractors allowed the canal to fill to the depth of sixteen feet in order to lessen the pressure against the gates. If the water rises no higher this season than it now is pumps will be set to work that will soon empty the canal and allow work to be resumed.

Mr. I. N. Day said Sunday evening that if the river stopped rising, a large force of men would be put to work next week to continue through the season. There are now between 150 and 200 men at work including stone cutters, but with the increased force the number will again reach its former size. The past year has seen much work done on the locks and light is beginning to shine through the darkness. A year ago at this time great damage was threatened to the canal by the water but now the discomfort is only temporary.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everywhere else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at the Snipes-Kinnersly Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

Announcement.

CASCADE LOCKS, Or., May 15, '95. We take pleasure in notifying the public that after a considerable expense, we have improved and succeeded in making the finest picnic grounds in Oregon. Grounds supplied with spring water direct from Cascade mountains, a grand dancing pavilion, plenty of rustic seats and a number of lunch tables and everything pertaining to first class picnic grounds. We also take pleasure in saying that we have no mosquitos to annoy picnickers; we also can furnish music, string or brass, first class.

Besides the above attractions, we have the Columbia river falls canal locks, now nearing completion, and can show the largest canal gates in the world. No charge for use of grounds. Special rates can be had either by boat or rail. Good trout streams and lakes in near vicinity. No liquors allowed to be sold on grounds. Any further information can be had by applying to committee.

The Steamer Excelsior Carries Supplies to Yukon Miners.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—The steamer Excelsior left early this morning for St. Michael's, at the mouth of the Yukon river. She was in command of Captain William Kidston, and makes this voyage in the interest of the North American Transportation & Trading Company, carrying supplies to many mining camps along the Yukon river, as far up as Forty-mile creek. The Excelsior will stop at Seattle where extra accommodations will be made for some 60 additional passengers for mines along the Yukon. She will reach the mouth of the river by the time the ice breaks up and her freight and passengers will be transferred to river boats for their destination.

SENSATIONAL JAIL BREAK.

A Notorious Character Leaves the Pendleton Jail in Daylight.

PENDLETON, May 27.—There was a sensational delivery Sunday evening from the Umatilla county jail, in which one of the most notorious characters of this county escaped. Ike Parr brought three horses in from the reservation, two of them for Joe and Henry Parr, who were captured after an exciting chase, by Indian policemen, several weeks ago, on charges of horse-stealing and trying to kill an Indian posse. A large bar was sawed off and bent down and Joe crawled through, jumped on his horse and flew to his friends, who equipped him for flight to the mountains.

The courthouse is in the middle of a block of land, exposed on all sides, and the escape was made in broad daylight. Henry Parr was too large to get through the opening. How the thing was accomplished is shrouded in mystery. The officers are chasing Parr.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J.
