Too Free With Cheques.

Yesterday about 5 o'clock Charles Frank told Officer F. C. Connolly that a man was attempting to pass fictitious cheques around town. He had been to Mr. Frank and several other people and tried to raise amounts as high as $50. With the description given, the officer began searching for him, and located his man at the corner of Second and Court streets, and placed him under arrest. The name signed to cheques was Lane Mahappy; but whether or not this is the true one, is not known. He claimed to be a deputy sheriff, and had in his pocket a warrant from Justice Birnie at Cascade Locks authorizing him to arrest one Williams. During the afternoon Mahappy was in J. O. Mack's and left a cheque for $50, which later in the day he tried to recover. He was in several places asking for blank cheques, and evidently had the idea that signing his name was an easy way of getting rich.

When placed in jail his papers were taken from him, but he obtained them again and threw them into the sewer of the jail. Plumbers were sent for to recover the papers and this time they will be used in evidence against him. The charge against Mahappy will be attempting to obtain money under false pretenses.

It Must Be a Mistake.

It is said one of the Phelps brothers, the revivalists, was brutally beaten at The Dalles by a tough who had taken exception to something the preacher had said. He waited for him at the church door, and pounced upon him. The young preacher, it is said, made a gallant struggle, but finally went down. The tug then beat him unmercifully.—Albany Herald.

This item has been going the rounds of the press for some time and should be corrected. There have been no Phelps brothers, revivalists, or any other revivalists in this town beaten by thugs. It may be Dallas again that is meant.

After utilizing every available inch of ground under the monster tents the Great Wallace Show fills the circumference air full of the greatest artists in the known world. The three Brothers LaVan are the most celebrated aerialists of modern times, doing a somersault return act in mid-way that defies description. Royalty has applauded this act.—Ex.

Regarding the Wallace Show.

The collection of animals with the Great Wallace Shows is valued at $1,000,000.00. They have, for the most part, been imported direct by the show from Congo Free State through their agent Matewayo Komatsu, who has his hunters all through that country.

Another bill car of the Great Wallace Shows came last night. Wonderful to relate, it is as grand as the $10,000 car which was here a week ago. If this circus is up to the standard of excellence of its advance cars it will be the greatest show ever exhibited here. This car makes a specialty of advertising the excursions which will be run over all the lines of railway coming into town on show day at greatly reduced rates. It is in charge of Mr. C. A. Potter, an affable gentleman, who has been thirty-five years in the show business, and is an authority on advance advertising. He spends his winters on the staff of some metropolitan daily. He has served two terms as a member of the legislature in his state.

Mr. M. Fagin is the boss poster, with 18 assistants. They live in style in their car and enjoy the best of everything. This car, like the first, is beautifully decorated within and has several paintings outside that are veritable works of art. And this is not all—another bill car is promised whose magnificence is equal to this one. It must be a remarkable show which can support so much advance work.
